In The Social Whirl

Current Happenings of Interest in and About Oregon City. A PRETTY wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Rachel Pursfull, of Fourteenth and Pierce streets Sunday evening at 6 o'clock when her youngest daughter, Miss Ethel Rhoda, of this city, was united in marriage to George C. Hazelton, of Portland. The impressive rite ceremony was performed by Rev. W. T. Milliken, pastor of the Baptist church, in the presence of about 60 friends and relatives of the contracting parties. As the bridal party entered the living room, Miss Pearl Basler, of Lady Smith, Wis., rendered Lohengrin's wedding march, and at the conclusion of the ceremony, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played. A reception followed, and refreshments were served by the bride's mother. The bride was pretty in her handsome gown of cream colored tulle, embellished with old lace, that has been in the family of the bride's mother for many years. Her long tulle veil was held in place by a narrow band of white satin, and her shower bouquet was of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid was Miss Grace Crooks, cousin of the bride, who wore a dainty gown of old lace and cream colored broadcloth. She also carried white chrysanthemums. William Propp, of Portland, was best man. The decorations of the Pursfull home were attractive. Potted and cut ferns, the latter being arranged in hanging baskets, and sweet alyssum, as well as roses were in the living and dining rooms. The archway where the marriage was performed was arranged, when fern and cut flowers used. Peonies of Virginia creper with autumnal beauty added greatly to the decorations. Many handsome gifts were received by the young couple. Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Hazelton left for their home at Evergreen on the electric carline and near Milwaukie, where their new bungalow is nearing completion. They will later go to Los Angeles, California, where they will visit with the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hazelton. The bride is one of the well known young women of this city, where she has resided most of her life. After completing her studies in the Oregon City high school, she engaged in teaching, and after having taught in Oregon and Washington for four years, took a special course at the state normal at Monmouth, for two years. While a resident of this city she has taken an active part in church work, being a member of the Baptist church. The bridegroom is a well known business man of Portland, employed by Crane & Company, of Portland. He has resided in Portland for the last three years, coming to that city from Los Angeles, California. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hazelton, of Los Angeles, the former being a prominent orange grower of California.
