TAX OF THREE AND ONE-HALF MILLS LEVIED

DOMESTIC SCIENCE AND MANUAL TRAINING VOTED FOR.

OSWEGO, Ore., Nov. 3.—(Special)—A tax of 3 1/2 mills was levied on all assessable property in the district at the school meeting last Friday evening, November 3rd. Domestic science and manual training were voted upon. A strong vote in favor of same was cast and will be placed in the school next year. Mr. Woodard asked for the use of the school play sheds two nights of each week for the use of teaching and helping the boys ranging from 11 to 18 years, along the manual training line. This request was granted and Mr. Woodard volunteered his service in wiring the sheds and also offered to pay for the amount of electricity used each evening, but the school has decided to attend to that part. As Mr. Woodard has taken such an active interest in the boys of this town and the people hope the children will also be enthusiastic enough to appreciate the fact and be on hand every night appointed for them.

MRS. SEGANS HOME BURNED SATURDAY

FIRE BEYOND CONTROL COMPLETELY DESTROYS HOUSE.

OSWEGO, Ore., Nov. 2.—(Special)—Oswego citizens were awakened from their peaceful slumbers Saturday morning at 2 o'clock by the music of the fire bell, which was the first real fire since the bell was purchased. The house that burned belonged to Mrs. Segans. It had been vacated but two days by Mr. Stavely and family, so no furniture was burned. The cause of the fire is a mystery and was beyond control before the firemen could respond even though the boys answered the call as soon as the alarm was turned in.

DEPUTY GAME WARDEN TO PROSECUTE HUNTERS

HUNTERS ARE WARNED NOT TO VIOLATE LAW.

OSWEGO, Ore., Nov. 9.—(Special)—Arthur McVey, deputy game warden, has been having a hard time keeping the "pot hunters" from shooting the ducks in the pond, especially after sundown. This is strictly against the law.

STAFFORD.

STAFFORD, Ore., Nov. 9.—(Special)—Sufficient rain has fallen to enable the plows to start, and in the meantime men have been preparing the right of way for the new sidewalks for which the Ladies' Circle has provided plank and spikes for the worst places, but several men we are told have offered to do the work and work by going down into their own pockets to pay for additional material, and Mr. Weddle, assisted by the road supervisor blasted out a big stump near the Rabble place which stood in the way, using a half box of giant powder for the purpose. The last gun of the political campaign was fired in Stafford on the night of hallowe'en after which the little boys of the neighborhood exerted all their little strength to take off a few and carelessly left the stock in to eat up Mrs. Gage's potatoes and store the minister's horse, which was found in a neighbor's stable and had lots of fun. C. A. Sweek, of Burns, Harney county, came quite unexpectedly on Saturday evening to visit his mother-in-law, Mrs. M. A. Gage. He is doing on legal business connected with water rights in his county. Mrs. Snell, of Astoria, is visiting in the neighborhood, where she has a host of friends. She was Miss Lucille Hatton before her marriage. The belfry to the German Baptist church is finished all but painting and installing the bell. Judge Hayes who has been rustaking on the old place, had a touch of rheumatism last week. The recent winds raised havoc with the roof of the Hayes house, which is occupied by Mr. Oldham and family.

KING GEORGE DECORATES BRANDON, "ZEP SLAYER," FOR HIS ACHIEVEMENTS.

LIEUT. BRANDON

Lieutenant Alfred Brandon of the British army aviation corps has won the title of "Zeppelin slayer" for his success in fighting in the air the monster dirigibles which menace England. He was "snapped" recently as he left Buckingham palace, London, after being decorated by King George for his aerial exploits. In one of his battles with a Zeppelin, in which he dropped bombs from above on it, Brandon's machine was hit several times. Brandon is a New Zealander and thirty-two years old.

MILWAUKIE MAY GET A PICKLE FACTORY

Mr. Ralph Hahn, manager of the Frei Pickle Works of Portland, is considering Milwaukie as the possible location of a new pickle factory. This news, learned late last week, is pleasant, indeed, to local people. The company has constructed with farmers hereabouts and across the river for 100 tons of cabbage for the coming year and by establishing the works here would save considerable in freight. Providing that a site can be secured at a nominal price a two-acre tract will be purchased and a factory erected at which 40 or 50 people would be employed for a portion of the year and several the year around. Milwaukie and the Clackamas district could well support a large institution of this kind, this district being known for its variety and excellence in vegetable crops. A small fruit cannery would also be a paying proposition.

Could Not Do Her Cooking. Mrs. F. E. Hartmester, Tea, Mo., writes: "I was affected with kidney trouble for two years. I was so bad this summer I could hardly do my cooking. I got Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me. I feel like a new person." Too many women neglect symptoms of kidney derangement. When the kidneys are not properly doing their work poisons left in the system cause weak back, dizziness, puffiness under eyes, swollen ankles, joints, and rheumatism. Jones Drug Co.—Adv.

HAZELIA.

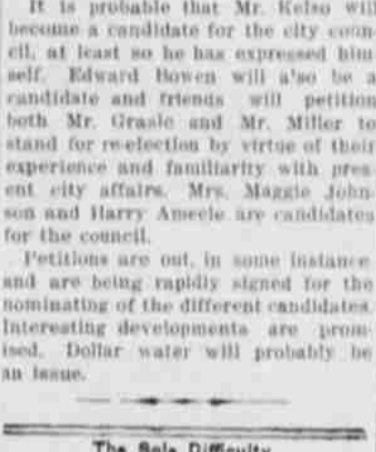

HAZELIA, Ore., Nov. 9.—(Special)—A basket social will be given at the Hazelia school house November 25. A good program will be rendered and candy will be sold during the evening. All are invited. Hugh Baker was an Oswego visitor Saturday evening. Mrs. J. A. Cook and Mrs. John Wanker made a business trip to Oregon City Wednesday. Mrs. F. W. Lehman was visiting in Oswego Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Ed Wanker and daughter, Hattie and little sons, Wm. Jr., and Oscar, spent a very pleasant afternoon with Mrs. J. Geo. Nagl. Theo Steinhilber was in Oswego Saturday. Mrs. R. W. Potter and little son, Clarence, were guests of Miss Ethel Baker Sunday.

SNYDER UNOPPOSED FOR MAYOR'S JOB

The promised mayoralty contest in the Milwaukie city election to be held December 6 has not developed. Judge Kelo dropping from the race. This leaves John Snyder as the only aspirant in the field at the present time. Mayor Pitton, who up to this time has been non-committal has signified his intention to refrain from allowing his name to go on the ballot and will throw his support and render what assistance he can to Mr. Snyder, believing in accord with his views and belief him fitted and capable to hold the reins of city government in his hands. It is probable that Mr. Kelo will become a candidate for the city council, at least so he has expressed himself. Edward Bowen will also be a candidate and friends will petition both Mr. Gracie and Mr. Miller to stand for re-election by virtue of their experience and familiarity with present city affairs. Mrs. Maggie Johnson and Harry Ameels are candidates for the council. Petitions are out, in some instances and are being rapidly signed for the nominating of the different candidates. Interesting developments are promised. Dollar water will probably be an issue.

COUNCIL MAY REVOKE CARVER'S FRANCHISE

COUNCILMANIC IRE AROUSED TO FIGHTING PITCH—ACTION DEMANDED. Stephen Carver, president and general manager of the Oregon City-Portland Railway or "Carver line" must comply with the requirements exacted by the city of Milwaukie or forfeit his franchise. Such is the ultimatum of the city council handed down at the last meeting. The attack on the Carver road was led by Councilman Charles Counsel, who was aided and abetted by his fellow councilmen to a man. It seems now that the city duds mean business and that the dilatory methods of the railroad people have aroused the councilmanic ire to a degree where nothing short of a full compliance with every requirement laid down will be accepted. Mr. Counsel in opening the fight on the road remarked that he for one had always been lenient with the railroad people and even at the last meeting when Mr. Carver was present he held to that policy, believing that in so doing he was aiding the struggling little road and also the people who depend on the line to carry them to and from their work, but now his patience was exhausted. He had learned he said, that the people along the road live in daily fear. They were fearful to leave their homes night or day lest the sparks from the railway engine should cause a fire that would destroy their home. Not only that, but the residents living near the road had complained of the soot and dirt which the little old, ancient engine threw off. He declared it a nuisance. Immediately there was a chorus of "yes sir, so it is," and let's make Carver come to time once and for all.
