MARRIED IN LUCULLUS TILULLUS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—In Lucullus and Tulllus, the "dead夯ed founders of Rome," a modern and picturesque wedding was celebrated yesterday in the First Church of Christ, Scientist, New York. One of the most amusing features of the ceremony was the rendition of the newlyweds' names by a well-known professional actor who served as officiating clergyman.

In their wedding vows, the bride and groom paid tribute to their ancestors by renouncing all things earthly and promising to "walk in the path of righteousness." The ceremony ended with the distribution of a beautifully printed copy of the Bible to each of the guests in attendance.
