AUTO FIRE TRUCK APPROPRIATION FIRST PLACE TO CUT, SAYS MAYOR

Sharp), $28.00; Batdorf Bros. (Mrs. Drastic Slicing of Estimates for 1917 Necessary If County Abides by Plan to Change Millage Councilmen Individually Liable

> Threatened by a serious reduction in he city's income for 1917, due to the action of the county court in reducing the road levy from 8 to 6 mills, Mayor Hackett and members of the council are considering plans whereby the budget can be brought within the income. The city received 76 per cent of the general county routh tax collected on city property and a reduction in the miliage would cut the in come materially.

The county road levy has been a milis for several years, but the county court now proposes to fix the general levy at 6 mills and make a special levy of 2 mills to repair and construct bridges and buy road materials.

ember, the proposal favored by the county court may be voted down and the plan of making a straight 8 mill road levy followed.

Mayor Hackett said yesterday that get would be an appropriation for the purchase of an automobile fire truck. Still other changes, however, in the oft-cut budget would probably be nec-

The city makes a 7-mill levy for the general operating expenses of the city and 7 mills to take up city bonds and meet interest payments. Under un amendment to the city charter adopted a year ago, the council is compelled to draft and submit to the voters a fully itemized budget. If this budget is exceeded more than 10 per cent, the ier Press, $59.60; Oregon City Enter- vidually, financially liable for the esmembers of the council are held indicess expenditure.
