They recently returned to Portland from Gearhart. A. M. Curran, of Osborne, Kansas, who has been visiting his sisters, Mrs. P. E. Carriero and Mrs. G. F. Everhart, also his brothers, F. S. Curran, left Sunday for his home. Mr. Curran was accompanied to this city by his daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Hosialso of Osborne, and her children, Alfred, Edith and Dathne. This is the first visit Mr. Curran has made to the state of Oregon, and the first time that he has seen his sisters and brother for 25 years. He is already planning to again visit in Oregon next June. W. F. Harris, of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday. Mr. Harris has just sold some of his famous Berkshire gilts to ranchers in the state of Washington and to Grant Barney, of Linn's Mill and Mr. Camp at Mount Pleasant. Mr. Harris has a fine herd of Berkshires, at the head of the herd being Driver's Buron Duke No. 201954, purchased from the famous herd of H. W. Domes, of McCoy, Oregon. Another one of his Berkshires is Royal Prince 26th, No. 324992. Mr. Harris has a herd of 25 head of his farm, and a few weeks ago sold to one of the farmers in Washington county two registered swine. Mr. Harris is going into the swine industry on a much larger scale next spring. He was awarded first prize on every animal shown at the Clackamas county fair, except one.

Friends Surprise Couple On 25th Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Graham, of Mount Pleasant, were taken by surprise at their home on November 11, the occasion being their 25th wedding anniversary. The affair was planned and carried out by the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Graham, and many beautiful gifts were presented to them. Refreshments were served during the evening. Present were Mrs. Heighon, Mrs. Jennie Niles, Mrs. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. Forward, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Skene, Mr. and Mrs. Barnard, Mr. and Mrs. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Achilles; Misses Helen Heighon, Carrie Forward, Arnetta Addington, Hermula King, Ethel, Edna and Grace Judd, Peggy, Jean and Jo Skene, Francis Graham, Sophia Kroll, Mildred and Marion Achilles, Roy Newman, Harry Judd, Melvin and Henry Boyer.

Miss Francis Pursiful Weds Whitehorse, Y. T. Man. The marriage of Miss Frances Pursiful, formerly of this city, daughter of Mrs. Rebekah Pursiful, and Simon Seindel, of Whitehorse, Yukon territory, was solemnized at Whitehorse November 9, and the newlyweds will make that city their future home. Mrs. Seindel has resided in Oregon City all of her life, and recently left for Alaska. Mr. Seindel is connected with the White Pass-Yukon Railroad company.

ANTON ZALETEL PLEADS GUILTY TO CHARGE OF BREAKING DRY STATUTE

WINE MANUFACTURER, 'NDICTED BY GRAND JURY, CHANGES MIND IN COURT. Anton Zaletel, indicted by the grand jury Monday on a charge of violating the prohibition law, entered a plea of not guilty before Circuit Judge Campbell Wednesday morning. "Have you an attorney?" asked the court. "No, I have no attorney," replied Zaletel, "I suppose one could not help me anyway." "He must have heard us argue this Hyde case," mused Attorney General George M. Brown, who was in the court room. "I'll plead guilty," volunteered Zaletel suddenly. He will be sentenced this morning. Sheriff Wilson, Constable Frost and Deputy District Attorney Burke found three barrels and a keg of home-made wine and a wine press at the Zaletel home in the heart of Oregon City's residence district recently.

HERBAUGH SENTENCED AND THEN IS PAROLED

COURT FREES MAN IN SPITE OF VIGOROUS PROTESTS OF DISTRICT ATTORNEY. Over the vigorous protests of the district attorney's office, Circuit Judge Campbell Friday paroled M. H. Herbaugh after sentencing him from 3 to 20 years in the state penitentiary. Herbaugh was convicted Wednesday of a statutory offense against his 13-year-old niece, Lulu Hondrick. "Herbaugh is a dangerous man to have in the community, and he should be given the limit as provided in the statutes," Deputy District Attorney Burke said to the court when asked for a recommendation from the district attorney's office. Judge Campbell paroled Herbaugh on condition that he put up bonds and live within the law. He spent Friday night in jail, however, as he was unable to raise satisfactory bonds. Herbaugh is the second person paroled this week by Judge Campbell. Mrs. Jessie Hughes entered a plea of guilty to a charge of larceny on a person, and Tuesday was sentenced to a term of from two to five years and paroled. Frank Schmidt, convicted on a charge of larceny of chickens, will be sentenced today.

SUICIDE NOTE CARVED IN HANDLE OF BROOM

Varying from usual suicide notes corked up in a bottle or pinned on a building, Sheriff Wilson has a farewell message carved on a broom handle. The note reads, "Killed myself on rock near J. M. T." One end of the broom handle was sharpened and stuck in the ground at the top of the bluff in Oregon City. Small boys who found it turned it over to the sheriff, who regards the note as another of the messages written by jokers.

WEST LINN POLITICAL POT BEGINNING TO BOIL

SIX PLACES ON COUNCIL TO BE FILLED AND OTHER OFFICIALS ELECTED. With the annual West Linn city election less than three weeks away, politics in the town across the river is on the stir. Six places on the council are to be filled and a chief of police, recorder and treasurer elected. Mayor J. B. Leuschke holds over for another year. Chief of Police Winkle will not run for re-election and the name of Charles Christensen, at present Chief Winkle's assistant, has been mentioned for the place. For recorder, friends of L. L. Porter, the incumbent, and of John F. Clark have placed these two men in the race. Owing to a clause in the city charter restricting the length of time a treasurer can serve, M. E. Clancy, treasurer since the town was incorporated cannot run for another term. Friends of James Nichols and of Frank Aldredge have put them forward as candidates. For the council, six men are in the race, Charles Shields, Nick Humphry, L. L. Pickett, Frank Doty, Ernest Leighton and Guy Goss. Other candidates are expected to appear within the next week.

JAMES PETTY BUYS 8 TURKEYS FOR ORPHANS

Thanksgiving dinners will be expensive this year, according to the department of agriculture, but the children at the St. Agnes home at Parkplace will enjoy the national bird and all the trimmings, in spite of the extraordinary high cost of living. James Petty completed arrangements Thursday for the purchase of eight turkeys to be delivered on Thanksgiving day at the home. In addition to the turkeys, Mr. Petty will give the youngsters other delicacies, such as candy and nuts. Mr. Petty has remembered the children at the home at Parkplace for the last few years on Thanksgiving Day.

JOHN A. LIZBERG IN RACE FOR RECORDER

John A. Lizberg, abstractor is a candidate for city recorder to succeed John W. Loder, who is in the race for re-election. This is Mr. Lizberg's second venture into politics. At the primaries two years ago last spring he ran for the Republican nomination for county clerk and was defeated by Miss Iva Harrington. The race for recorder is now a three-cornered affair, with Mr. Lizberg, Mr. Loder and A. S. Fuller each seeking the position. Changing Seasons Bring Colds. "Stuffed-up head," clogged-up nose, tight chest, sore throat are sure signs of cold, and Dr. King's New Discovery is sure relief. CHARLES F. TERRILL GIVES AN OPTION ON HIS SILICA DEPOSIT

PORTLANDERS PLAN ERECTION OF MILL—DEAL CALLED OFF BECAUSE OF ELECTION. Charles F. Terrill announced Saturday that he had given Portland interests an option on his extensive silica holdings near Oregon City. The consideration involved and the length of the option were not made public. A new corporation will be formed if the deal goes through, Mr. Terrill said, replacing the Silica Kings Mines company. The erection of a larger plant which will enable the company to meet the growing demands for the product is among the plans of those who have the option. The deposit is declared to be the only one of such purity and commercial value discovered in the Pacific northwest. Mr. Terrill practically had a deal completed early this month under which a party of Portland men were to build a $10,000 plant. A few days after election they called up and said that because of business uncertainty under the Wilson administration they did not intend to put money into the proposition. Silica from the Terrill deposit is being used in paving, paints, kalsomine, soaps, polishes, modeling and in the manufacture of rubber products.

FRANK SCHMIDT FOUND GUILTY ON CHARGE OF ROBBING HEN ROOSTS

JURY DELIBERATES FOUR HOURS BEFORE REACHING VERDICT—SENTENCE TODAY. Fifteen chickens were brought into the courtroom during the trial as evidence. H. M. Robbins, the state's principal witness, identified the chickens as his by marks on their feet. The birds were found by Sheriff Wilson and Deputy Frost on Schmidt's farm. The jury was composed of J. W. Gray, Grant N. Barker, M. G. Smith, C. H. Rider, William Daniels, Alex Baker, George Kohl, C. G. Stromgreen, Clyde C. Saling, J. D. Chitwood, C. G. Millard and W. R. Telford.

SLANDER SUIT IS DISMISSED

The $2500 slander suit of Frank Schmidt against Herbert Robbins was dismissed Tuesday by an order signed by Circuit Judge Campbell. Robbins appeared against Schmidt when the latter was tried and convicted on a charge of larceny of chickens. Soon after Schmidt was arrested on a complaint signed by Robbins the slander suit was filed.

"Stars Go Out" When They Hear Juvenile Officer Jack Frost Is Hot On Their Trail

To quote Deputy District Attorney Thomas A. Burke, "the Stars have gone out." A week or two ago that same valiant and good natured Irish arm of the law remarked that "The Lamp went out," and here of late Constable and Juvenile Officer Jack Frost is want to declare that lights of any kind are bothering him. And of which means nothing to most of us and brings us to the story. Constable Frost has the reputation of getting about every man he goes after, although now and then he plays against his luck. Several weeks ago he was called upon to capture one John Lamp, 17-year-old son of Mrs. Joanna Lamp. The constable found the youth hiding in the woods in order to escape arrest, a fact which led the deputy district attorney to opine that "the Lamp had gone out." Last Saturday Juvenile Officer Frost served citations from the county court on Mrs. John Star and her family of seven children to appear before Judge Anderson Monday morning. The appointed time came, but not the constable of Stars. Juvenile Officer Frost went to the Star home and found it deserted. "Nothing in the house and the family gone," the juvenile officer reported to Judge Anderson and Deputy District Attorney Burke. "The Stars have gone out," muttered the deputy district attorney between his teeth. All efforts this week to locate the Star family have proved unavailing. While Mrs. Star worked in a local restaurant as a dishwasher at $6 a week and her husband dodged officers in various parts of Oregon and Washington, the family of seven children was always ragged and usually hungry. Roy, 16, and Ernest, 13, sons of Mrs. Star by a former marriage, were arrested after a series of petty robberies extending over a period of five years. They told the authorities that their father carefully coached them in the art of breaking into houses and of stealing articles from counters in busy stores. At the time of the arrest of the two boys the father is believed to have been in eastern Oregon. Newspaper stories of the affair, however, are believed to have drawn him here last Saturday, as neighbors saw a man about the house late last week.

WIFE DRAGS INJURED HUSBAND TO SAFETY FROM BURNING HOUSE

SOL WHEELER, WITH BROKEN LEG AND INJURED BACK, SAVED JUST IN TIME. The home of Sol Wheeler, located near the Holcomb schoolhouse, about four miles from this city, burned to the ground with all contents Friday afternoon. The fire is believed to have been started by a defective fuse. Had it not been for the quick work of his wife, Mr. Wheeler probably would have burned in his home. He was recovering from a broken leg, as well as injuries received to his back when he was caught in a cave-in. Mr. Wheeler was dragged from the burning building by Mrs. Wheeler, soon after they escaped the roof fell in. Neighbors rushed to the assistance and assisted in saving the nearby buildings on the farm.

$40,000 DAMAGE SUIT ON IN CIRCUIT COURT

Circuit Judge Campbell last night took under advisement until this morning a motion for a non-suit by the defendant in the $40,000 suit of Lionel C. Palmer and Charles Palmer, his guardian ad litem, against the Willamette Valley Southern. Lionel Palmer lost a leg and one foot when he attempted to board a moving Willamette Valley Southern train at Molalla last June. The jury was selected Friday morning without difficulty, and C. H. Rider, William Daniels, M. G. Smith, Alex Baker, Grant N. Barker, E. Harrington, C. G. Stromgreen, S. O. Dillman, George Kohl, Elmer Coleman, Clyde C. Saling and J. W. Gray.

P. B. KELLOGG HAS ALIBI, IS FOUND NOT GUILTY

Neither the state nor the defense submitted an argument Saturday in the trial of P. B. Kellogg, charged with indecent exposure. The jury was out 23 minutes and returned with a verdict of not guilty. The defense aimed to show a perfect alibi, accounting for the defendant's actions every minute of the day on which the state charged the crime was committed. Judge Grant H. Dimick and Walter A. Dimick represented the defendant and District Attorney Hedges and Deputy District Attorney Burke the state.

NON-SUIT GRANTED IN $40,000 DAMAGE SUIT

Circuit Judge Campbell Saturday granted a non-suit in the $40,000 personal injuries suit of Lionel C. Palmer and Charles Palmer, his guardian ad litem, against the Willamette Valley Southern. The defendant railroad company alleged that the testimony of the plaintiff showed that the accident last June when Palmer lost one leg and one foot was due to negligence of Lionel Palmer himself. Lionel Palmer, a student of the Molalla high school, tried to board a moving Willamette Valley Southern train, slipped and was seriously injured. FOREST GROVE, Ore., Nov. 20.—Approximately 800,000 pounds of dried prunes have been shipped from Forest Grove this season. One rancher had about 100 tons to his credit, and the price has been between 6 and 7 cents.
