GOSPEL OF SAFETY FIRST IS SPREAD TO SAWMILLS. RECENTLY FORMED FEDERATION SAYS THOUSANDS OF ACCIDENTS PREVENTABLE. UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 21.—Thousands of needless accidents occur every year in Oregon, and several hundreds of thousands of dollars must be spent to compensate for them. "To sit idly by and view this annual waste with complacency is no longer possible. The movement for industrial safety has now spread across the country from the steel mills of the east to the sawmills of the Pacific coast. This movement has saved thousands of lives and has greatly reduced the cost of compensation in many places," says the Oregon federation for industrial safety, which was organized a short time ago to promote the safety movement in Oregon. "In Oregon a large number of serious permanent disabilities occurring on lumber knives and power-driven saws in sawmills, as well as other types of painful accidents can undoubtedly be prevented," said Ben H. Williams, secretary of the new federation and a member of the state university extension faculty. The federation stands ready to provide an illustrated talk on safety work, with special reference to sawmills. Arrangements for such a talk were recently made by the mill at Gardiner, Ore. A plant safety committee was appointed after this meeting. "The appointment of a plant safety committee to take charge of the work of accident prevention is a desirable outcome of these meetings," said Mr. Williams. Requests from employers for the co-operation of the federation will be gladly received by the secretary.

Her Son Subject to Croup. "My son Edwin is subject to croup," writes Mrs. E. O. Irwin, New Kensington, Pa. "I put in many sleepless hours at night before I learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need not fear this disease if they keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and use it as directed. It always gave my boy relief." Obtainable everywhere. (Adv.)

WEATHER AND APPETITE. People Eat More on Stormy Days Than They Do on Fine Days. Watch what you eat the next time it rains or snows. Perhaps you think the weather takes away your appetite. It doesn't. It makes you eat more. The American Magazine explains what weather does to the restaurant business. The writer says: "A study of weather and business has its surprises. For instance, restaurant men know that appetites are not the same on a dark, gloomy day as on a day that is bright and cheerful. Natural enough! The surprising fact is that people eat most on the day that is dark and dismal. "On a cloudy day," an old restaurant man tells me, "people just sit and eat. There is nothing else to do. On a nice day they eat less and hasten out into the open. But the less they eat the more particular they are about the quality. "Not so long ago a young woman opened a good little restaurant near the department of agriculture in Washington. Most of her customers are employees of that department. She does a big business every day, but the rush is greatest when the day is the stormiest. On a fine day the men from nearby buildings walk to restaurants farther away, just for the exercise. Those who do not go to other restaurants cut down their eating in order to spend all the time possible in the open air."

ATTAINING SUCCESS. He who has confidence in himself will win. The first step on the ladder that leads to success is the firm determination to succeed. The next step is the possession of the moral and physical courage which will enable one to mount up, rung after rung, until the top is reached.

Law Against Cricket. Until a century and a half ago England's great national pastime figured in the statute books as a crime. The game was declared illegal in the time of Edward IV, owing to its having become so popular as to interfere with archery, the then sport of kings. The law against it was vigorously enforced, and every person convicted of playing the game was fined (10 or sent to prison. It was not until the formation of the famous Hambledon club in 1749 that the statute was repealed.—Pall Mall Gazette

Too Much Excitement. "You say your cook has quit?" "Yes." "What was the trouble?" "She wanted Saturdays off." "You might have conceded that much." "I was willing, but it often required two or three days for her to recuperate."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

POTATOES LIFT MORTGAGE. Jersey Farmer Raises 9,200 Barrels on Eighty Acres. Red Bank, N. J.—Henry Holmdel raised 9,200 barrels of potatoes on eighty acres this year. This was at the rate of over 110 barrels and acre. With the proceeds from the yield he paid on a $20,000 mortgage still remaining on his farm, which he purchased three years ago for $57,600, paying $7,500 down. Holmdel's crops on 150 acres, where he didn't plant potatoes, returned for the year a profit which the farmer calls "pure velvet."

Ring Upon a Radish. Tiffin, O.—Four years ago Mrs. W. T. Souper lost a heavy gold band ring in her garden. The other day she pulled up a radish and found the ring firmly fastened about the root.

Needed a Sea Turn. Captain Lane had retired from active pursuit of his beloved calling and had turned his attention to town affairs. Having succeeded in rousing the citizens to the need of a drinking fountain and also to the need of two coats of paint on the town hall, Captain Lane felt himself a valued and important person. One day he was asked by a journeyman in the town to give his opinion of the present administration. "It's pretty fair," said the captain slowly. "Of course there's things that could be different and would be better so, but on the whole 'tis pretty fair. But now I'll tell ye—I'm speaking from experience, you understand—things at the seat of government won't be run as they could be run till the people of this country make up their minds to stop consulting their votes to landlubbers!"—Youth's Companion.

The Great Privilege of Illness. Illness is the great privilege of life. Love only is comparable to it. They are twin privileges. Both deny the common value of things; both assert that man's destiny is bound up with transcendental powers. Of this there is the only testimony we have, for the body's evidence is a denial—a negative assertion that the sparkle of consciousness is a random striking of substance on substance, like steel on flint. Illness pares and laps off the outer parts of life and leaves us with the essence of it.—Henry Dwight Sedgwick in Atlantic.

Even the man who is a dreamer attracts attention—when he snores. Cooking Cuckoo. How many cuckoos could a good cook cook if a good cook could cook cuckoos?

What the Term Means as Applied to Artillery and Small Arms. Confusion as to the meaning of the term caliber arises chiefly from its use as an adjective to indicate length, as when we say "a 50 caliber six inch gun." The word caliber as applied to artillery signifies the diameter of the bore of a gun measured diametrically from face to face of the bore, of course somewhat larger. A gun, then, of six inch caliber is a gun whose bore is just six inches. For convenience and because the power of a gun when once its bore has been decided upon depends so greatly upon its length, artillerymen are in the habit of defining the length of the gun in terms of the caliber. Thus the twelve inch United States naval gun, which is forty feet in length, is spoken of as a 40 caliber twelve inch, the length being just forty times the bore. The six inch light field gun is a rifle under twenty-five feet in length and is therefore known as a 50 caliber gun. In the case of small arms the caliber is expressed in hundredths of an inch, as when we say a .22 caliber revolver we mean one with a bore that has a diameter of twenty-two one-hundredths of an inch.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Raw Lightship Keeper Goes Into Fray in First Gale. Newport, R. I.—A case of a man literally frightened to death has just been reported. Gustav Ljunval went to Brenton's reef lightship as assistant keeper, but before he had time to become accustomed to his surroundings the wind became a gale, accompanied by great seas, and the ship pitched at disturbing angles. Ljunval expressed great fear that the ship would go down. In a frenzy he tried to jump overboard, but was restrained. His violence increased, and the crew put him in an improvised straitjacket and kept him there until he died.

Indian, 122 Years Old, Works Daily. Mazatlan, Mexico.—This western coast town of Mexico claims as a resident the oldest man in the world, Jose Juan Velasquez, an Indian, who, according to all records available, is 122 years old. Velasquez has the agility of a man of less than half his years and works daily as a laborer. He possesses a remarkable memory and is familiar with happenings during the Hidalgo revolution for Mexican independence from Spain in 1810-21.

Horse Wears Trousers. Charleston, W. Va.—A horse wearing a pair of trousers on its front legs is a novelty seen daily on the streets. The animal is attached to an express wagon, and the owner dresses him in order to protect his forelegs from flies. The trousers are supported by the breastband of the harness.

Biblical mention is made of nineteen different precious stones, six metals, 104 trees and plants, thirty-five animals, thirty-nine birds, six fishes, eleven reptiles, twenty insects and other smaller creatures. There are moments when the pale and modest star, kindled by God in simple hearts, which men call conscience, illumines our path with truer light than the flaming comet of genius or its unobscured course.—Maximil.
