

Take care of your eyes No business man is 100% efficient if his eyes are defective

OPTOMETRIST 612 Main St. Oregon City

LOCAL BRIEFS

Chris Murell, of Clairmont, was in Oregon City Saturday. Miss Lillian Anderson, of Redland, daughter of County Judge Anderson, was in this city Saturday. C. C. Salms, of Estacada, was in this city Thursday and Friday, returning to his home Friday evening. O. A. Pace recently returned from the sanitarium at Mount Tabor in Portland. He is improving. W. A. Proctor, county commissioner, is in Oregon City, where he is attending to county court matters. Herman Liesman, of Willamette, is seriously ill at his home. Mr. Liesman is a merchant of that place. Mrs. M. Moore, of Clackamas, is in Oregon City, and is the guest for a few days of Mrs. William Rainey. George Case, of Molalla, who has been here for several days, left for his home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Herman Fisher, of Logan, was in Oregon City Saturday, where she visited her grandmother, Mrs. Charlotte Bullard. I. D. Larkins, of Marquam, after spending Monday and Tuesday in Oregon City, returned to his home Wednesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bohlander, of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City Friday. They visited relatives before returning to their home. Mrs. Robert Snodgrass, of Malino, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. William Herman, of Beaver Creek, were Oregon City visitors Friday. Joseph Koch and Max Buse, of West Linn, who have purchased a sawmill near Mount Angel, will leave soon for that place to make their future home. B. E. Roedel, of Estacada, returned to his home Saturday afternoon, after spending several days in this city. While here he registered at the Electric. Miss Christina Huhm, who has been seriously ill for the past month, has improved so that she is able to resume her position as cashier of the Adams Department store. Harold Waldron, formerly of Oregon City, but now a merchant of Cooley City, Wash., arrived here Tuesday evening, and will spend a week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waldron. George Brown resident of Maple Lane, who has been confined to his home for the last two weeks owing to a severe attack of bronchitis, was in Oregon City Thursday. He is improving from his illness. R. H. Mitchell, editor and publisher of the Cowitz County News, of Kalamazoo, Wash., together with his wife, attended the funeral of Mrs. Mitchell's sister Mrs. Harriet Bullard, who died at Gladstone Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kirchem, of Logan, were in this city Tuesday. Mr. Kirchem was one of the farmers attending the meeting of the Live Wires and was a winner of a medal and diploma for produce raised on his farm. Rev. and Mrs. T. J. Williams, the former of St. Paul's Episcopal church, have returned from Portland, where they have been for the past three weeks. Mrs. Williams has just been able to leave the Good Samaritan hospital. Mrs. William Githens, of New Era, formerly of this city, was here on Friday, where she visited with Mrs. F. C. Galka. She had been visiting with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Elmer Lucas, of Portland, and left for her home Friday evening. Mrs. T. S. Lawrence, of Portland, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Louis Levinger, of Baker, Oregon, are in this city, where they are visiting Mrs. L. E. Jones, a sister of Mrs. Levinger. Mrs. Levinger was formerly Miss Lyle Lawrence, of Oregon City. Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton and Miss Jones, of Portland, were in this city Wednesday, visiting with Mrs. Dan O'Neill, of Rose Farm, before returning to their homes. Mrs. M. A. DeOrsay, who has also been a guest of Mrs. O'Neill, has returned to her home in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Sumner McLean and daughter, Lotis, of Eckelson, North Dakota, have arrived in Oregon City, and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George McLean, of Mount Pleasant. After visiting at the McLean home for several days, they will proceed to California, spending the remainder of the winter at San Diego. G. A. Schuebel, of Eldorado, was in Oregon City Tuesday, where he at-ended the meeting of the Live Wires of the Oregon City Commercial club held in honor of those who were awarded diplomas and medals at the Panama-Pacific exposition. Mr. Schuebel was among those being honored with a medal and diploma.

Mrs. Annas L. Parr has gone to Molalla, where she is visiting her son, Newton Parr, and family. Mr. Parr met with an accident two weeks ago, when a horse he was riding fell, throwing him to the ground. His leg was badly crushed. Mr. Parr is confined to his room, and it will be about a month before he will be able to use the injured limb.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Huxley, of Estacada, who have been in this city where they have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Baxter, returned to their home Thursday afternoon. They were accompanied to Estacada by Miss Elida Baxter, who is to attend a party at that place, and visit at the Huxley home until Sunday of next week. Mrs. Huxley is a sister of Mrs. Baxter.

Arthur Parr, who was injured in a peculiar manner at Molalla several weeks ago when he and a friend were engaged in a wrestling match, is improving. In wrestling Parr's elbow was accidentally struck by his friend's tooth, which penetrated through the coat sleeve and into the flesh, causing a severe wound. The wound is healing, and the attending physician believes that there will be no ill effects result therefrom.

Mrs. William Stover, of Twelfth and Monroe streets, will leave Saturday for Tacoma, Wash., where she has been called by the critical illness of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. William Stover, wife of Rev. Stover, a former Oregon City resident who has been pastor of the English Lutheran church in Tacoma, for the last fifteen years. He will leave soon for California, where the family will take up their future residence.

A. P. Haasler, breeder of White Leghorn chickens, and little daughter, Evelyn, were in this city Saturday, the former bringing an egg that was laid by one of the hens on his poultry farm, which is located at Beaver Creek, about four miles from this city. The egg which weighed five ounces, and measured 9x7 1/2 inches, was laid by one of last spring's chickens. During the winter, Mr. Haasler has found his poultry a paying proposition.

After spending the last six weeks in Los Angeles and San Francisco, Miss M. M. Schoelheimer returned to Oregon City. At the former place she visited friends and later attended the spring displays of the wholesale millinery establishments in San Francisco. She has resumed her position as manager of the millinery establishment in the Ransom & Company's store. Miss Schoelheimer had a most delightful time while visiting at Los Angeles. She made a number of motoring trips in southern California.

Mrs. C. C. Spencer, who has been for the past four weeks a guest of Mrs. Don E. Meldrum, of Berkeley, California, returned to her home in Oregon City Monday morning. Mrs. Spencer accompanied Mrs. Meldrum to her home, the latter being seriously ill at the time of leaving this city. Mr. and Mrs. Meldrum and daughters, Maxine and Doris, are making their home in California, and formerly resided in this city. Mr. Meldrum is connected with the engineering department of the Crown Willamette Paper company in San Francisco.

PIONEER OF OX TEAM DAYS IS TAKEN BY DEATH AT HER HOME IN HIGHLAND

Mrs. E. C. Kirk, wife of T. J. Kirk, early Oregon pioneer, died suddenly of pneumonia, at the family home at Highland, Friday morning at 3 o'clock after an illness of two days. The funeral services will be held at the residence, Highland, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with interment in the Highland cemetery.

Mrs. Kirk was born in Iowa, January 27, 1846, and was the daughter of Nelson and Christina Harrington. Accompanying her parents, she started for the west across the plains by ox team in 1852. The family settled where Highland is now located, and that place was her home most of her life. She was married in 1863. She was a member of the Oregon Pioneers' association, and she and her husband regularly attended these meetings of the pioneers.

Mrs. Kirk is survived by her husband, T. J. Kirk, nine children, Mrs. Olive Fellows, of Highland; Mrs. D. E. Frost, of Oregon City; Frank Kirk, of Highland; Charles Kirk, of Oregon City; George Kirk, of California; Eugene Kirk, of Highland; Sylvester Kirk, of Rainier, Oregon; Edwin Kirk, of Grays River, Wash.; Mrs. Helen Baker, of Lents, Oregon. She also leaves two brothers, J. N. Harrington, of Sellwood; Edwin Harrington, of Gladstone; a sister, Mrs. Emily Hamilton, of Portland, and sixteen grandchildren.

BIRTHS Born, Wednesday, February 7th, at the Oregon City hospital, to the wife of George Huber, of Clackamas, twins, son and daughter. Born, February 9th, at Willamette to the wife of Clarence W. Cramer, a son. Born, Friday, February 9th, to the wife of Wayne Keyser, a daughter.

Walking and Breathing. A person walking at the rate of four miles per hour consumes 2,300 cubic inches of air per minute.

Stop the First Cold. A cold does not get well of itself. The process of wearing out a cold wears you out, and your cough becomes serious if neglected.

Dr. King's New Discovery has healed coughs and relieved congestion. Young and old can testify to the effectiveness of Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs and colds. Buy bottle today at your Druggist, 50c. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. (Adv.)

NATAL DAY OF GREAT PRESIDENT IS OBSERVED BY CIVIL WAR VETERANS

Lincoln's birthday was observed in Oregon City Monday, when patriotic exercises were held by the Meade Post No. 2, Grand Army of the Republic, Women's Relief Corps, the English department of the Oregon City high school, and the language classes of grammar grades in the Barclay and Eastham schools. Work was suspended for the day several of the officers of the court house, but stores remained open. Flags waved from the various buildings, and many automobiles carried the national colors in honor of the martyred president.

An excellent program was given at the Willamette hall under the auspices of Meade Post No. 2, G. A. R. It was as follows: Introduction, George A. Harding; music, drum corps; invocation, Rev. C. A. Stockwell; solo "Washington and Lincoln," Mrs. C. E. Goetz; remarks, Judge J. U. Campbell; music, Goetz orchestra; address, "On Lincoln," Rev. J. W. MacCallum; reading, "Let Us Forget," Mrs. Bennett, who responded to several encores; vocal solos, "Granger John," "Laughing Song," "Dear Old Shawi My Mother Wore," J. E. Staples, accompanied by Mrs. Staples, of Portland; recitation, "For Ninety Days or More," Mrs. Grace Cox; music, "Star Spangled Banner."

One of the features of the day was the banquet served at 12 o'clock, at which many local dignitaries were present. County Judge Anderson was escorted to the table by Mrs. F. T. Barlow, treasurer of Meade Relief Corps; Mayor Hackett by Mrs. N. M. Aldredge, secretary of Relief Corps; Judge J. U. Campbell, judge of the circuit court by Mrs. Josiah Martin, chairman of the executive committee. Judge Anderson was toastmaster. The table was beautifully decorated with the national colors to correspond with the elaborate decorations of the hall. Old Glory and Lincoln's likeness were placed in conspicuous places.

There were about 250 people present. The committee having charge of the exercises was composed of E. B. Grant, H. L. Hull and John Ackley.

OWNER OF FARM BRINGS SUIT TO QUIET TITLE; HE'S OWNED PLACE 40 YEARS

Suit to quiet title to a 50-acre farm in Clackamas county was filed in the circuit court here Tuesday by Frank Wilhart. The action is directed against Mary D'Arcy and other heirs of James T. Hunsaker. The farm has been in the possession of Wilhart for the past 40 years, according to the complaint. The Hunsaker heirs, however, have an alleged claim against the title, which the plaintiff now asks to have stated in court so that their legal status can be obtained.

Worms Sap Your Child's Strength. Is your child pale and fretful? Does he cry out in sleep or grind his teeth? These symptoms may mean worms and you should obtain relief at once. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a pleasant remedy that kills the worm, and by its mildly laxative quality expels it from the system. Worms sap the vitality and make your child more susceptible to other ailments. Your Druggist sells Kickapoo Worm Killer, 25c a box. (Adv.)

Albright Weeps; Cop Grabs Car

Jack Albright's automobile is absent from Main street today and there's a reason. Following the order of City Recorder Loder, who Thursday fined Albright $50 and then suspended sentence on condition that he keep out of the machine, Chief of Police Blanchard seized the machine Friday morning and interned it. Safe in the Miller-Parker garage the big car stands, a huge chain and padlock around the rear wheel. Jack can get it out again by paying the fifty.

BARCLAY ALUMNI BEATS MT. PLEASANT; 56 TO 31

Barclay Alumni team won a basketball victory over the Mount Pleasant team on the latter's floor Thursday night. The score was 56 to 31. Barnett and Steincamp were the stars for the Barclay team while Osborn and Harbinson showed up well for the Mount Pleasant delegation. The lineup was as follows: Barclay Alumni; Center Steincamp; guards, Paddock and Vierbus; forwards, Barnett and Milliken. Mount Pleasant; Center, Graves; guards, Oates and Rainy; forwards, Harbinson and Osborn.

FOUR SOULS WITH BUT A SINGLE THOUGHT; HENCE ONE CEREMONY IS PLENTY

A double wedding ceremony was performed at the Presbyterian manse Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when Rev. J. R. Landsborough, pastor of the Presbyterian church, united in marriage Mrs. Isetta Waldron and Francis E. Albright; Miss Letitia Viola Critser and George Earl Bentley. Miss Critser was a niece of Mrs. Waldron. The marriage ceremony was witnessed by only immediate relatives.

Mrs. Albright was attired in a Wisteria silk poplin gown; Mrs. Bentley wore a gown of white silk. They were unattended.

Mr. and Mrs. Albright left for the south for their honeymoon, but will be at home to their friends at Ninth and John Adams streets after March 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Bentley went to Gresham, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Albright is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rider, well known Oregon pioneers. She was born in Clackamas county, and has resided near or in Oregon City all her life. Mr. Albright is a grocer of Oregon City, and has resided here for a number of years.

Mrs. Bentley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critser, and has lived in Oregon City all her life. Mr. Bentley is a resident of Gresham.

For a Bilious Attack. When you have a severe headache, accompanied by a coated tongue, loathing of food, constipation, torpid liver, vomiting of partly digested food and then bile, you may know that you have a severe bilious attack. While you may be quite sick there is much consolation in knowing that relief may be had by taking three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They are prompt and effectual. Obtainable everywhere.

MARRIAGE FALLS ON MANY; DIVORCE COURT FLOODED WITH ORDERS

After taking a brief breathing spell of one day, the divorce mill resumed its grind again Saturday.

Judge Campbell annulled the marriage of Olga Hinder to Watson J. Hinder and gave her $22.50 monthly alimony. He also allowed Grace A. Cash legal separation from Charles T. Cash, whom she married in 1889, and $30 monthly alimony. Property contentions had been settled out of court.

Lee Vinton filed a suit for divorce against Frank Vinton, charging cruelty and non support. E. E. Swan asked for separation from Emma Swan, whom he alleged deserted him a year ago. Desertion was also the grounds of the divorce suit brought by Flora Holzer against E. E. Holzer. In addition Mrs. Holzer, who asks her maiden name of Flora Temple, charged that her husband got drunk and beat her.

2-YEAR FIGHT AGAINST DEATH ENDS WHEN MRS. DORA CRITES SUCCUMBS

Mrs. Dora Crites, wife of James Crites, of Gladstone, died this morning after an illness of two years. The funeral services will be conducted Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the tabernacle at Mountain View, with Rev. Baker officiating. The interment will be in Mountain View cemetery.

Mrs. Crites was born in Illinois, and was 40 years of age. She was the daughter of Henry and Eliza Sessler, of Toronto, Canada, who survive her. She has resided for about three years at Gladstone. She is survived by her husband, James Crites two daughters, Leila Crites and Foy Hilder, two sisters, Mrs. Nettie Parker, of Colorado; Mrs. Cora Kendall, of Waldron, Kansas, and a brother, Rev. Charles Sessler, of Toronto, Canada.

MRS. ALTHOUSE ASKS DIVORCE AND CUSTODY OF NINE-YEAR-OLD SON

Divorce proceedings against her husband, Howard Althouse, were begun in the circuit court here Tuesday by Audie Althouse.

Mrs. Althouse charges that her husband deserted her in September 1915. According to the papers in the case, the pair was married in Allentown, Penn., in 1898.

The custody of her minor son Kenneth, aged nine, is asked by Mrs. Althouse. Another son, Maynard, aged 15, is now in Los Angeles.

Cut This Out—It is Worth Money. DON'T MISE THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c and mail it to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for bronchial and la grippe coughs; Foley Kidney Pills, for lame back, weak kidneys, rheumatism, bladder troubles, and Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic for constipation, biliousness, headache and sluggish bowels.

SAVAGE DOGS ATTACKED CHILD, SAYS FATHER, WHO ASKS POLICE TO MUZZLE THE HUSKY BRUTES

Because his little daughter was badly frightened by three dogs said to be owned by Sam Hara, of Elyville, a man named Lee, of that place, made a complaint to Officer French here late Tuesday night, asking if something could not be done to banish the brutes. According to Mr. Lee the dogs leaped at his daughter, bit her slightly in several places and frightened her severely.

She ran and made her escape. The dogs are of the Spitz variety, a breed noted for strength and bad temper. They are valuable animals. A report of the matter is contained in French's report to Chief of Police Blanchard. Just what action will be taken is not known as yet, but it is probable that an attempt will be made to have the dogs muzzled.

DR. RUTH LATOURETTE IS MARRIED TO DR. ROSS EATON; WILL LIVE HERE

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Latourette, of Tenth and Madison streets, Wednesday afternoon when their daughter, Dr. Ruth Latourette, became the wife of Dr. Ross Eaton. The marriage ceremony was performed in the presence of about twenty-five relatives. Rev. W. T. Milliken, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated. The living room, where the ceremony was performed, was artistically decorated in evergreens, pussywillows, and festoons of white satin ribbons and lover's knots of white satin. The dining room was correspondingly decorated.

The bride was gowned in white Georgette crepe, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and syria blossoms. Following the ceremony a luncheon was served, after which Dr. and Mrs. Eaton left for their home on Third street, which was formerly the Busch residence.

After completing her studies in the Oregon City high school, Mrs. Eaton, took a course in the McMinnville college, graduating there with high honors. Later she went to Los Angeles, where she took a four years' course at the college of Osteopathy, physicians and surgeons. She was graduated from that institution in 1915.

Dr. Eaton is a native son. His mother is Mrs. James Nelson, of Malino. He attended the Oregon City schools, after which he attended the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, where he took up the study of medicine. He was graduated in 1916. For several months he was head interne at the Good Samaritan hospital, and at the present time he is assistant surgeon in Emanuel hospital, Portland. He will continue to be associated with the institution in the mornings, but will take up his profession in this city in the afternoons, making his residence here.

DIVORCE SUIT FILED. Declaring that her husband failed to support her and at last entirely deserted her, Mrs. Minnie Hendricks Friday brought suit against Robert E. Hendricks in the state court, asking for a divorce.

WEST LINN TO HOLD ELECTION MARCH 10, TO DECIDE ON BOND ISSUE FOR NEW SCHOOL BUILDING

West Linn will hold an election March 10 to vote on the issuance of $14,000 bonds for the erection of a new, modern grammar school building. The election date was set at a meeting of the school directors Wednesday night, after a mass meeting of voters and property owners had authorized the election last week.

JUVENILE OFFICE PUTS FOOT DOWN ON YOUNG BOYS ATTENDING SMOKER

Boys under 16 have seen their last boxing match in Oregon City, according to Constable Jack Frost. "In the past," said Frost Monday, "a number of boys have been regularly attending the smokers given here. As a result complaints have been coming in to me from many sides. "For that reason I am going to see to it that no one under 16 is admitted to the boxing matches." Frost is the juvenile officer. He will be on duty at the smokers to see that his order is obeyed.

NEIGHBORING REBEKAH LODGES ARE TO CONVENE

The district convention of the Rebekah lodge will convene at Molalla on Saturday, February 17. The congress is to be held in the new I. O. O. F. building. The lodges to be represented are those from Milwaukie, Gladstone, Clackamas and Oregon City, with Oak Lodge and Molalla entertaining. About fifty delegates from Oregon City will attend as representatives of Willamette Rebekah Lodge No. 2, the second oldest Rebekah lodge in the state of Oregon.

The convention is to be called at 11 o'clock Saturday morning by Mrs. James Shannon, chairman of the local lodge. Mrs. Nellie Wamburg, of Klamath Falls, president of the Rebekah assembly, will conduct the assembly. There will be other grand officers of the lodges present and several are scheduled to address the assembly.

A dinner will be served at 12 o'clock. The afternoon will be devoted to business, and in the evening following the dinner hour the initiatory degree will be exemplified by a special staff from Willamette Rebekah Lodge No. 2.

"Clearance Sale Prices" are a Joke compared to our regular prices, we've got these so-called Sales Prices backed OFF THE MAP EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR. LOOK OVER THIS LIST AND SEE FOR YOURSELF.

- Lunch Goods Picnic Hams, pound...15c Green Olives, bulk, pint...20c Fancy Dill Pickles, large size, dozen...20c Sauer Kraut, very best, bulk quart...10c 1 full pt. bottle Ketchup, Diamond "S" brand, special...15c Pimento Cheese...40c Tillamook Cheese, pound...25c Cream Brick Cheese, pound...30c Booth's Sardines, can...20c Palm Brand Sardines, 5 cans...25c Crackers, 10c box, regular $1.00 box...90c Green Olives, sizes...10c, 15c, 25c Corned Beef, can...25c Sour pickles, qt., bulk...15c Can Ripe Olives...25c and 15c Pineapple...15c Uneeda Biscuits, 5c pkg., 6 for 25c Cookies...10c pkg. 3 for 25c

- Lipton's Tea, pound...65c Spiderleg Tea, reg. 65c grade...65c Tetley's Tea, pound...65c Reg. 20c pkg. Tetley's Tea...15c Gunpowder Tea, regular 65c grade, pound...50c Ceylon Tea, reg. 65c grade, lb. 50c

- SPECIALS 4 pound package of Light Louse Washing Powder or Star Naptha Powder for...20c This is a regular 25c package and is one of the best on the market. Light house cleanser, can...5c Old Dutch cleanser, 3 for...25c 3 bars of Sapollo or Bonami...25c 2 bottles Amonia for...15c 3 cans lye...25c Standard Broom company's best mako brooms form 50c, 60c, 70c ea Mop sticks, with hard wood handles, rheumatism, bladder troubles, and Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic for constipation, biliousness, headache and sluggish bowels.

- Kellogg's Corn Flakes } 3 for Post Toasties } 25c Krumbles } 25c Toilet soap...3 bars for 10c 13 Bars Bob White Soap...50c 7 Bars Lenox Soap...25c SPECIAL—Caravan Baking Powder, pound...25c Pearlina, 25c package...20c Puff Rice, 25c Quaker Oats, 25c Shredded Wheat, 25c Rolston's Bran, 25c Kellogg's Bran, 25c Krinkle Corn Flakes, 2 pkgs...15c Rolled Oats, 10-lb. sack...50c Rolled Oats, bulk, 5 pounds...25c Liberty Oats...25c Liberty Wheat...25c Caravan baking powder 2 1/2 lb. can...50c

- Dry Fruit Dry Peaches, pound...10c Dry Apricots, pound...18c Muscat Raisins, pound...10c Dry Prunes, pound...20c White Figs, pound...12 1/2c Black Figs, pound...10c Package Raisins...10c Package Currants...15c

Morgans Coffee and Tea Gold Dollar, reg. 30c Coffee...25c Royal, reg. 35c Coffee...30c Caravan Coffee, reg. 40c...35c Caravan Coffee, 3-lb can...$1.00

WEDNESDAY - Falls City Butter - 85c PER 2lb. ROLL Is Butter Day