

LOCAL BRIEFS

C. D. Purcell, of Milwaukie, was here Wednesday. James Brewer, of Aurora, was in this city on Wednesday. Francis Dase, of Clackamas, was in this city Wednesday. George Ingram, of Carus, was in Oregon City Wednesday. Billie Redrick, of Milwaukie, was in this city Wednesday. W. H. Zivney, of Oswego, was here on business Wednesday. C. J. Nelson, of Portland, is in Oregon City for a few days. Patrick King, of Milwaukie, was an Oregon City visitor Wednesday. Mrs. A. W. Smith, of Clackamas, was an Oregon City visitor Wednesday. R. H. Hiddles, of Beaverton, was in this city on business Wednesday. C. P. Baker, of New Era, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday. Eric Hanson, of Colton, was among the Oregon City visitors on Wednesday. G. C. Helpe, of Barlow, transacted business at the county seat Wednesday. William Behatz, of Stafford, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday. Peter Huber, of Huff, was among those who were in this city on Tuesday. Alonzo Waldorf, who resides at Oswego, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday. John Schenauer, of Aurora, was among the Oregon City business visitors Wednesday. Eugene, Fred and Harry Lammer, of Beaver Creek, visited friends in Oregon City Sunday. Conrad Schroeder, of Sherwood, was among those transacting business in this city Wednesday. C. C. Whittier, of Oswego, was among those transacting business in Oregon City Tuesday. Miss Anna Smith, of Portland, spent the first of the week with Miss Alice Scherzinger, of Clackamas Heights. C. E. Watts, who resides near Aurora, but well known farmer of Clackamas county, was in this city Wednesday. James F. Nelson, of Molino, a former resident of Oregon City, was in this city transacting business Saturday. William F. Koellmer, of Sherwood, one of the farmers of that section of the county was in Oregon City Wednesday. Fred Painter, a former resident of Oregon City, but now of Carus, was among those transacting business in Oregon City Tuesday. Mrs. J. M. Warnock, of Mount Pleasant, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Roddaway, of Milwaukie, has returned to her home. Mrs. D. F. Dean, of Shedd, Oregon, has arrived in Oregon City, and is the guest of her son, C. O. Dryden, and family, of Tenth and Water streets. Robert Beattie, of Beaver Creek, but formerly of this city, was in Oregon City on Saturday, and while here visited his brother, Dr. A. L. Beattie. Fred Miller, of Needy was in Oregon City Saturday. Mr. Miller, who is a prominent farmer of Clackamas county, has been very ill, but is improving. Mrs. C. B. Wilson, of Willamette, will go to Vancouver, Wash., today, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Luther Moore, returning to her home this evening. C. E. Ramsby, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Tuesday, having come here to attend the annual ball given by the B. P. O. E. Mr. Ramsby formerly resided in Oregon City. T. R. A. Sellwood, prominent resident of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City on business Wednesday. Mr. Sellwood is one of the landowners of Clackamas county, and came here to pay his taxes. W. A. Heck, of Molalla, one of the prominent residents and real estate men of that place, was in Oregon City on business Wednesday. Mr. Heck was on his way to Portland, where he transacted business. C. M. Mattoon, who was a former resident of Portland, but has been spending some time in California, has returned to Oregon and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mattoon, who reside near the south end road. A civil service examination for the position of postmaster of Barlow will be conducted at the postoffice in Oregon City March 24th. For the position of postmaster of Colton, the examination will be held February 24th. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Netter, of Aurora, who underwent an operation for removal of adenoids and tonsils at the Oregon City hospital, has improved so that she was able to leave for her home the latter part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schoenborn and son, Richard and Norman, of Eldorado, were in Oregon City Sunday, where they visited Mrs. Richard Schoenborn and daughter, Miss Elsie. Mrs. Richard Schoenborn has just returned from a visit in Portland, where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Nathaniel Smythe. The funeral services of the late Victor B. Mastenbrook, who died at Canby Sunday morning, were held at Canby Tuesday, and the interment was in the Catholic cemetery at New Era. The Holman undertaking establishment of Oregon City, had charge of the services. Mr. Mastenbrook is survived by his wife, of Canby. Homer Harrington, of Portland, who is connected with the Evening Telegram, and one of the well known nimrods of Portland, was in this city on Friday, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harrington, of Gladstone. Mr. Harrington spent several hours in fishing, and had excellent luck in landing several good sized fish. Mrs. Clarence Fields, who has been at Seaside for her health, has returned to her home at Medford, but will leave today for the Dalles, where she will go for the benefit of her health. Mrs. Fields is suffering from a severe attack of asthma and is making the change for the benefit of her health. She was accompanied to Seaside by her niece, Miss Lois Thayer, who will also accompany her to the Dalles. Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Robbins, formerly of Oregon City, but now living at 107 Pine street, McMinnville, are in this city, where they are guests of Mr.

treating in the Oregon Commission company, has disposed of his interest with that firm, owing to ill health. Mr. Robbins expects to engage in farming in the near future. Since taking up his residence at McMinnville, he has improved in health. Jodie Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Miller, of Oregon City, who is a sophomore in Mt. Angel college has been unanimously re-elected year leader by the students. Miller has held this position since his freshman year. He has appointed Peter Opitz as assistant. There are three other students to be selected under his guidance to help him practice with the students, who will be placed in four groups. Young Miller was formerly employed at the Oregon City Enterprise office. C. A. Nash, of this city, has received telegrams, a week apart announcing and Mrs. C. I. Stafford, and other friends. Mr. Robbins, who was in the death of his parents, O. D. Nash, and Mrs. Irene M. Nash, who resided at Chicago, Ill. Mr. Nash's father died February 9th, and his mother one week later. It has been stated by the aged couple that they were wanted to pass away together. They leave their son, C. A. Nash, and his wife of this city and another son, C. J. Nash, of Chicago; a grandson, Harold Nash, also of this city. The couple were about 75 years of age, and had planned on coming to Oregon to visit their son and his family. A board of inquiry appointed by the Southern Pacific Railroad company when investigation was made as to the cause of the derailment of the street car at Willamette on January 21, has reported to the company. The board included L. Adams, A. C. Howland and three employees of the company. The board found the car and equipment in first-class condition, but found that there was a joint in the rail of the curve, where the car left the track was low, and Section Foreman J. E. Cochran was held responsible for the derailment, which was caused by the track being unsafe at the time the accident occurred. Several officers of the Clackamas County Christian Endeavor union accompanied by members of the local societies of Oregon City attended a Christian Endeavor rally at Oswego Wednesday evening. Those attending were Miss LeClair Ostrom, Glyde Schuebel, Misses May and Della Hinchman, Elbert Charman, Lorraine Getrum, Marian White and Ethel Davies. The officers attending were pleased with the work that has been already accomplished by the Oswego society. Many of the members are planning to attend the state convention, which convenes at Salem February 23, 24, 25. Henry W. Jackson, one of the earliest Oregon pioneers, who came to Oregon City in 1853, and who now resides with his daughters in Portland, was in this city visiting his old friends Wednesday. Mr. Jackson will celebrate his 80th birthday anniversary on March 2d, and is still hale and hearty. Mr. Jackson is unusually active for his age, and says that he feels just as young as when he was engaged in the meat business in Oregon City many years ago. Mr. Jackson is a violinist. He has the instrument with him that he has played many years ago. He played for many dances in Oregon City in the early days. L. Mattoon, breder of Jerseys, whose farm is located at Oregon City, Route 6, near the south end road, has been unusually fortunate in this industry during the past three years. He has just sold two registered calves to Dr. L. G. Ice, of this city. Dr. Ice has some of the best of Jerseys on his farm, which is located near Canby. One of the animals is from the famous Charles West stock farm at Scappoose, Oregon, and those purchased from the Mattoon herd have an excellent pedigree. Mr. Mattoon is one of the pioneer residents of the state of Oregon, and was at one time in the early days, a driver of a horse car in Portland. Rev. John Oval, of Salem, was in Oregon City Wednesday. Rev. Oval is pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church Pacific Swedish Mission Conference. He formerly resided in Texas, where he lived more than 25 years. He is the founder of the Gospel Herald, a newspaper, that is still in existence at Galveston, Texas. For three years he was chaplain of the Galveston Port society. This society was organized to work among the seamen, and Rev. Oval assisted in the work to a large degree. He has arranged to hold services in this city on every third Sunday, and the services recently held have been well attended. The services are held in the Methodist church. NOMINA KLEMSSEN WEDS C. W. SEIBEL The marriage of Nomina Klemesen, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Klemesen, was united in marriage to Mr. Carl Wilhelm Seibel, of Albany, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The marriage ceremony was performed in the German Lutheran church with Rev. William Kraxberger, pastor, officiating, and was witnessed by relatives of the contracting parties. MARRIAGE LICENSES. Marriage licenses were issued by County Clerk Harrington today as follows: Alice Hinkle to Steven A. Peathers, of Gladstone; Nomina Margaret Klemesen to Carl Wilhelm, of Albany; Lillie Thyker to Samuel H. Irwin, of Woodburn; Florence Lee Coons to Rolla T. Cady, of Woodburn. Stop the First Cold. A cold does not get well of itself. The process of wearing out a cold wears you out, and your cough becomes serious if neglected. Hacking coughs drain the energy and sap the vitality. For 47 years the happy combination of soothing antiseptic balsams in Dr. King's New Discovery has healed coughs and colds and can testify to the effectiveness of Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs and colds. Buy a bottle today at your Druggist, 50c. (Adv.)

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES

Miss Myrtle E. Henderson Weds Chester C. Lageson. The marriage of Miss Myrtle E. Henderson, of Portland, and Mr. Chester C. Lageson, of Oregon City, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, of 229 East Thirty-fifth street, Portland, Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. R. Ford, formerly pastor of the M. E. church of this city. The bride was prettily gowned in white Georgette crepe, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas. The matron of honor was Mrs. Hazel Hollingsworth, and the best man was Leonard Lageson, brother of the bridegroom. To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding march, rendered by Miss Warren, of Portland, the bride party entered the living room, and took their place beneath a floral archway, where the ceremony was performed. Following the ceremony Charles Schoenheinz played a cornet solo. There was a wedding luncheon. After a brief honeymoon, the young couple will make their future home in Oregon City, where the bridegroom is associated with his father, L. J. Lageson, in the shoe business. The bride has made her home in Oregon City for some time, and has been connected with the office of Dr. Mount. She has many friends in this city, and has been active in church work during her residence here. Mr. Lageson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lageson, of Oregon City. He is a member of the Oregon City Shoe store firm, and is one of the young musicians of this city, being connected with the Oregon City band. Among those attending the marriage ceremony from this city were Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lageson, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lageson, Miss Maude Lageson, Bert Lageson, Gilbert and Raymond Lageson, Leonard Lageson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schoenheinz and son. Harior Bernier Given Pleasant Surprise Party. Harior Bernier was taken by surprise with a party given at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bernier, at Parkplace Wednesday evening. The affair being planned and carried out by his young friends. It was in the form of a valentine party. Games and music were enjoyed by the young people, and Mrs. Bernier was assisted in entertaining by her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Louis Himler and Mrs. Fred Himler. Refreshments were served during the evening. Those in attendance were Pauline Hastings, Gertrude Minor, Annie Sela, Eunice Kelly, Elva Smith, Marian Smith, Alvera Himler, Sylvia Forsythe, Pearl Fisher, Agnes Hays, Hazel Felth, Arthur Felth, Melvin Glass, Stanley Blau, Wilbur Hays, Lewellyn Dauchey and Harold Bernier. Social Notes Miss Marion Ahlberg Becomes Bride of P. H. Selby. Miss Marion Ahlberg, of Gladstone, and P. H. Selby, of Oregon City, were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Herman Wyatt, at Olympia, State of Ohio, city of Toledo, Ind. Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE. FRANK J. CHENEY. Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1916. A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation. For a Billious Attack. When you have a severe headache, accompanied by a coated tongue, loathing of food, constipation, torpid liver, vomiting of partly digested food and then bile, you may know that you have a severe bilious attack. While you may be quite sick there is much consolation in knowing that relief may be had by taking three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They are prompt and effectual. Obtainable everywhere.

Thursday, February 15. Only intimate friends were in attendance. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. D. Allen, pastor of the Baptist church of Olympia, Wash. After visiting with relatives and as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Gillett, formerly of this city, but now of Seattle, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Selby will come to this city to make their home, having a furnished cottage at Gladstone. The eleventh annual convention of Rebekah lodges of district No. 2, was held at Oak Lodge No. 159 at Molalla, February 17. Mrs. Myra Shannon of Willamette Lodge No. 2, was chairman; Mrs. Rose Conner, of Oak Lodge No. 159, vice-chairman and Mrs. Ethel Melburn of Milwaukie No. 159, secretary. The convention was called to order by the chairman at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Nellie Wattenberg, president of the Rebekah assembly, Mrs. Mary Lankester, vice-president; Mrs. Lizzie Howell, past president and trustee of I. O. F. home, and S. H. Walker, G. H. P. of Grand Encampment of Oregon, were introduced and welcomed by the chairman and convention. Astoria, The Dalles, Roseburg, Silverton, Canby and Portland were represented by visiting members. Members were present from Willamette Lodge No. 59, from Oak Lodge No. 22, from Milwaukie Lodge No. 14, from Gladstone Lodge No. 11 and from Shamrock Lodge No. 10. Mrs. E. M. Harmer, of Oak Lodge, gave the address of welcome. Mrs. Lucy Trabue, of Shamrock lodge, No. 112, of Clackamas, the response. The chairman appointed committees on legislation, memorial, thanks and press. At the first call for dinner 51 guests were seated in the dining hall. At the second call 45 were seated. The good old fashion chicken dinner vanished and each guest returned from the dining hall with a contented, smiling face. The convention convened at 1:30 o'clock and was called to order by the chairman, Myra Shannon, of Willamette Lodge No. 2, of Oregon City. Addresses by the President Nellie Wattenberg; Vice-President, Mary Lankester; Past President, Lizzie Howell and S. S. Walker, G. H. P., were enjoyed by all. Reports of committees and the presentation of the Ideal Lodge by the Milwaukie Lodge No. 159 were made. The history of the Rebekah lodge by Mrs. May Padlock, of Gladstone Lodge No. 159, was next. Songs, by Miss Minnie Lewis, of Shamrock lodge, Mrs. Madison, of Willamette lodge, Bonetta Worley, of Molalla, and election of officers for the 12th annual convention to be held at Gladstone next year occupied the afternoon session. Promptly at 6 o'clock came the call from the dining hall to a repeat that did credit to the caterers. At 7:30 o'clock the chairman called the convention to order. The following officers were installed: Mrs. Rose Comer of Oak Lodge No. 159, chairman; Mrs. Ethel Melburn, of Milwaukie Lodge No. 159, vice-chairman; Mrs. Edith Margain, of Milwaukie Lodge No. 159, secretary; Mrs. Hattie Robinson, of Shamrock No. 113, warden; Mrs. Lizzie Howell, of Willamette No. 2, marshal; Mrs. Lucy Trabue, of Shamrock No. 113, chaplain; Mrs. Clara Brown, of Milwaukie No. 159, inside guard; Mrs. E. M. Hammer, of Oak No. 159, outside guard; Mrs. Myra Shannon, of Willamette No. 2, R. S. of chairman; Mrs. Lily Smith, of Gladstone No. 199, L. S. of chairman; Mrs. Eva Cooper, of Milwaukie No. 159, R. S. of vice-chairman; Mrs. Mary Robbins, of Oak No. 159, L. S. of vice-chairman. President of the Rebekah assembly, Nellie Wattenberg, addressed the convention, the love, truth and earnest purposes expressed by her will never be forgotten by her audiences. Instrumental selection by Nell Robbins, impersonating stretch by Mrs. McMaster of Molalla, were highly appreciated by all. The Willamette Lodge No. 2, with Mrs. Lenora Cook, as captain of the staff, exemplified the degree.

REBEKAH MEET AT MOLALLA DECLARED A GREAT SUCCESS (By Mrs. L. E. Trabue.) The eleventh annual convention of Rebekah lodges of district No. 2, was held at Oak Lodge No. 159 at Molalla, February 17. Mrs. Myra Shannon of Willamette Lodge No. 2, was chairman; Mrs. Rose Conner, of Oak Lodge No. 159, vice-chairman and Mrs. Ethel Melburn of Milwaukie No. 159, secretary. The convention was called to order by the chairman at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Nellie Wattenberg, president of the Rebekah assembly, Mrs. Mary Lankester, vice-president; Mrs. Lizzie Howell, past president and trustee of I. O. F. home, and S. H. Walker, G. H. P. of Grand Encampment of Oregon, were introduced and welcomed by the chairman and convention. Astoria, The Dalles, Roseburg, Silverton, Canby and Portland were represented by visiting members. Members were present from Willamette Lodge No. 59, from Oak Lodge No. 22, from Milwaukie Lodge No. 14, from Gladstone Lodge No. 11 and from Shamrock Lodge No. 10. Mrs. E. M. Harmer, of Oak Lodge, gave the address of welcome. Mrs. Lucy Trabue, of Shamrock lodge, No. 112, of Clackamas, the response. The chairman appointed committees on legislation, memorial, thanks and press. At the first call for dinner 51 guests were seated in the dining hall. At the second call 45 were seated. The good old fashion chicken dinner vanished and each guest returned from the dining hall with a contented, smiling face. The convention convened at 1:30 o'clock and was called to order by the chairman, Myra Shannon, of Willamette Lodge No. 2, of Oregon City. Addresses by the President Nellie Wattenberg; Vice-President, Mary Lankester; Past President, Lizzie Howell and S. S. Walker, G. H. P., were enjoyed by all. Reports of committees and the presentation of the Ideal Lodge by the Milwaukie Lodge No. 159 were made. The history of the Rebekah lodge by Mrs. May Padlock, of Gladstone Lodge No. 159, was next. Songs, by Miss Minnie Lewis, of Shamrock lodge, Mrs. Madison, of Willamette lodge, Bonetta Worley, of Molalla, and election of officers for the 12th annual convention to be held at Gladstone next year occupied the afternoon session. Promptly at 6 o'clock came the call from the dining hall to a repeat that did credit to the caterers. At 7:30 o'clock the chairman called the convention to order. The following officers were installed: Mrs. Rose Comer of Oak Lodge No. 159, chairman; Mrs. Ethel Melburn, of Milwaukie Lodge No. 159, vice-chairman; Mrs. Edith Margain, of Milwaukie Lodge No. 159, secretary; Mrs. Hattie Robinson, of Shamrock No. 113, warden; Mrs. Lizzie Howell, of Willamette No. 2, marshal; Mrs. Lucy Trabue, of Shamrock No. 113, chaplain; Mrs. Clara Brown, of Milwaukie No. 159, inside guard; Mrs. E. M. Hammer, of Oak No. 159, outside guard; Mrs. Myra Shannon, of Willamette No. 2, R. S. of chairman; Mrs. Lily Smith, of Gladstone No. 199, L. S. of chairman; Mrs. Eva Cooper, of Milwaukie No. 159, R. S. of vice-chairman; Mrs. Mary Robbins, of Oak No. 159, L. S. of vice-chairman. President of the Rebekah assembly, Nellie Wattenberg, addressed the convention, the love, truth and earnest purposes expressed by her will never be forgotten by her audiences. Instrumental selection by Nell Robbins, impersonating stretch by Mrs. McMaster of Molalla, were highly appreciated by all. The Willamette Lodge No. 2, with Mrs. Lenora Cook, as captain of the staff, exemplified the degree.

ASK THAT DAUGHTER BE MADE ADMINISTRATOR OF JAMES COX ESTATE. Petition asking that Monica Cox be appointed administrator of the estate of the late James Cox, of Estacada, was filed in the probate court here Monday. The petition states that there are seven adult children who are heirs. Real estate valued at $17,535 and personal property worth $12,935 is said to have been left by Mr. Cox. Mr. Cox died January 14, at Estacada. DELEGATES GO TO CONVENTION. Lorraine Ostrom, president of the Clackamas County Christian Endeavor union, stated Saturday that 23 delegates from Clackamas county had registered for the State Christian Endeavor convention to be held at Salem, February 23, 24, and 25. This is the largest delegation of endeavorers ever sent to a convention by this county. The registration from the entire state is nearly 800. MRS. HATTIE KNOX DIES IN PORTLAND HOSPITAL. Mrs. Hattie Knox, wife of H. C. Knox, died at the Good Samaritan hospital Wednesday morning at 19 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness. The funeral services will be conducted Friday morning at 11 o'clock, at the family home 4830, 66th street southeast, Kern Park, Portland. The remains will be taken to Clackamas, where the interment will be in the Clackamas cemetery. A service will be held at the grave at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Knox was 43 years of age at the time of her death. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roots, sister of Thomas Roots, Clackamas county roadmaster. She was born and reared in Clackamas, and was united in marriage about 23 years ago to H. C. Knox, who survives her. Two sons and one daughter are also left. Mrs. Knox left Clackamas about six years ago for Portland, where she has since resided. DEATH SNATCHES MISS IDA C. EID, OF CANBY. Miss Ida C. Eid, of Canby, died at the family home at that place Monday morning. Miss Eid's death was sudden, and was caused from heart disease. The funeral services will be conducted at Canby Sunday, awaiting the arrival of a sister from the east, and will be in charge of the Holman undertaking establishment of Oregon City. Miss Eid was born June 19, 1879, and has resided at Canby for several years. She is a sister of John Eid, hardware man of a Canby. Independence—Electric service on S. P. to be inaugurated as far as this city by March 1st. Hood River—Mt. Hood R. R. will build two-mile extension toward Lost Lake.

DEATH TAKES PIONEER MERCHANT AT AGE OF 89. John Wilkinson Miller, one of the early Oregon City pioneer business men, died at the home of his daughter Mrs. Ferris Henshaw, of Portland, last Thursday. The remains were interred in Portland, in the family lot. Mr. Miller is well remembered by the early residents of Oregon City. He came around Cape Horn to San Francisco in 1851. In 1852 he settled in Oregon City, and remained in this city for many years until he took up his residence in Portland. He was 89 years old at the time of his death. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Ferris Henshaw, of Portland; Mrs. Charles Heyerman and Mrs. Retta French, of San Francisco; two granddaughters, Mrs. B. O. Veiguth, of Spokane, Wash.; Dr. F. M. Henshaw, of Portland, and one great grandchild, Paul Veiguth. DEATH STRIKES PETER SHINVILLE AT DINNER TABLE. Almost at the identical hour when Major General Frederick Funston dropped dead in a hotel in San Antonio, Peter Shinville, pioneer blacksmith who was seated at the dinner table in his home at Fifth street and Railroad avenue, fell over dead. Shinville, who was a widely known character in Oregon City, had been ailing for several days. A horse was said to have hurt him some time ago. Death, however, was believed to be due to arteriosclerosis, brought on by alcoholism. The body was removed to Myers & Brady's undertaking establishment. Details of the funeral have not yet been arranged. Surviving Shinville are a wife and two children. DEATH TAKES 'ROMEO' RHOADES AFTER STRUGGLE. J. E. Rhoades, known everywhere in Oregon City as Romeo Rhoades, died in Portland Thursday after an illness of many months. The body was brought here for burial. The funeral ceremony will be held Saturday at 2 o'clock, from Myers & Brady's chapel, Rev. Spriggs, of Portland, officiating. Most of Mr. Rhoades life was spent here, but a few years ago he moved to Portland, where he lived with his mother and his brother. His mother died only a few months ago. He was a grandson of Judge Edgar E. White, a cousin of Mrs. J. E. Hedges, and a relative of Mrs. Mary Wilkinson, formerly of Barlow. By profession Mr. Rhoades was a sign painter. His brother William, of Portland, is the only surviving member of the family. Mr. Rhoades was 55 years old and unmarried. Cut This Out—It is Worth Money. DON'T MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c and mail it to Foley & Co., 2335 Sheffield Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for bronchial and la grippe coughs; Foley Kidney Pills for lame back, weak kidneys, rheumatism, bladder troubles, and Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic, for constipation, biliousness, headache and sluggish bowels.

In Union There is Strength—Let's get together then

We're not trying to get you to believe that white is black but we are trying to impress you with the fact that day after day we are underselling any other Grocery Store. There's absolutely no chance of our mis-stating the issue. All you have to do is to compare prices. Do this. We're satisfied to abide by your decision. You're doing yourself an injustice if you don't trade here.

Lunch Goods table with items like Picnic Hams, Green Olives, Sauer Kraut, Pimento Cheese, Cream Brick Cheese, Palm Brand Sardines, Crackers, Green Olives, Corned Beef, Sour pickles, Can Ripe Olives, Pineapple, Uneeda Biscuits, Cookies. Price list includes sizes and quantities.

GALLON FRUIT table with items like Apricots, Peaches, Pears, Plums, Apples, Pumpkin, Blackberries, Loganberries, Tomatoes, Gooseberries. Price list includes sizes and quantities.

FRESH FRUIT table with items like Fancy Naval Oranges, Fancy Naval Oranges, Small Naval Oranges, Fancy Lemons, Fancy Cape Cod Cranberries, Spitzberg and Roxbury Russets, Fancy Delicious Apples, Fancy Large size Stark, Sultana Figs, Not-A-Seed Raisins, Dromedary Dates. Price list includes sizes and quantities.

House cleaning time has come, read following specials. SPECIALS table with items like 4 pound package of Light Louse Washing Powder, Toilet soap, 13 Bars Bob White Soap, 7 Bars Lenox Soap, SPECIAL—Caravan Baking Powder, Pearlina, 25c package, Puff Rice, Quaker Oats, Shredded Wheat, Rolston's Bran, Kruller's Bran, Krinkle Corn Flakes, Rolled Oats, Liberty Oats, Liberty Wheat. Price list includes sizes and quantities.

2 cans Chinook Salmon, Maple Syrup, Kellogg's Corn Flakes, Post Toasties, Toilet soap, 13 Bars Bob White Soap, 7 Bars Lenox Soap, SPECIAL—Caravan Baking Powder, Pearlina, 25c package, Puff Rice, Quaker Oats, Shredded Wheat, Rolston's Bran, Kruller's Bran, Krinkle Corn Flakes, Rolled Oats, Liberty Oats, Liberty Wheat. Price list includes sizes and quantities.

Morgans WEDNESDAY - Falls City Butter - 80c PER 2lb. ROLL Butter Day