REASON IS WOBBLING.

If we may be so bold we should like to suggest a new coat-of-arms for the Oregon Daily Journal. The Journal now has a very pretty little design which it prints daily on its front page right along with its stories of the crimes of the 1917 legislature. This design shows a spread eagle, whose sex is attested to be indisputable feminine by this statement immediately below it that "she flies with her own wings daily."

Now while a spread eagle is really rather appropriate for the Journal, it strikes us that it would be possible to obtain a symbol which would clip the mark even more closely.

In the light of the sinister influence which its owner has recently had on the paper, we feel it would be more in keeping with the spirit of the sheet if the spread eagle were replaced with an escutcheon blazoned as follows:

The shield should be quartered—or even drawn and quartered if convenient. It might be better to devote one entire side to the common charge or chief design, for which we would suggest a squirrel, rampant.

Opposite, on a field vert, might be shown sundry hazel nuts, proper. Below, the portrait of the owner, purple, should be shown on a field crazy-quilt. This represents the blot on this scutcheon.

Perhaps one might think that such a coat-of-arms would be a bit wild but no one could ever question its appropriateness. When a paper bows for a law and gets it and then howls because it got it, when it makes the assertion that a paper is robbing the people when it voluntarily prints the delinquent tax list at a rate which is 20 percent below the legal rate fixed by state law, one has a right to assume that reason is wobbling on its throne. We hate to say it of Mr. Jackson, but we are mightily afraid that some of these days he is going to make the professional acquaintance of Dr. R. E. L. Steiner, of Salem. Really, we say this with the deepest of regret, for we knew him when he was all right.

HATS OFF TO THE GOVERNOR

When the legislature adjourned with all its business completed it was found that it had paid to Governor Withycombe a higher compliment than it could have addressed to him by the passage of a carload of resolutions of respect.

Looking over the record of the state law-making body one will find that during the session every recommendation made by the governor in his message at the first meeting was made into a law before the session was over.

Nothing which he expressed an opinion against lived through both houses and came up to him for his signature—not one thing!

This is more than a remarkable record, particularly so in the light of the fact that the governor gave the legislature a free hand, absolutely refusing to brandish the power of the executive office as a whip over the legislators.

That makes the compliment not only real, but absolutely sincere. It is seldom that a state executive after his pre-session consideration of measures which the legislature will probably take up, reaches a series of decisions as to their respective merits which is later affirmed in its entirety by both the senate and the house.

house of J. N. Reynolds in this city Married—On the 17th inst., at the by the Rev. I. D. Driver, Mr. J. M. Stewart, of Marion county, and Miss Merilla Laham, of Oregon City. Our thanks are due to the bride for a bounteous supply of cake. May a long, prosperous and happy life attend them.

"Disappointed" Love.—We are requested to state that neither Charlie Church, the obliging pursuer of the Romance, nor B. C. Lewis, nor Will H. Kelly wrote the poetry in this paper a few weeks since under the above head.

Religious Services—Bishop Scott will preach in the Episcopal church in this city this evening at 7 o'clock, and Sunday next at the usual hour of morning and evening service. The rite of confirmation will be administered.

County Fair—Attention is invited to the call in one of the columns of this paper for a meeting of the people of this and adjoining counties to take into consideration the practicability of Multnomah, Yamhill, Washington and Clackamas counties maintaining an agricultural association. There is a certain amount of funds in this treasury of the association of this county, we understand, which will be appropriated to the purpose of a fair for this year, and we have not a doubt but that an association can be organized which will ultimately be of great advantage to the counties mentioned, as well as others on the Columbia river.

Patents Transmitted—The commissioner of the General Land Office has transmitted to Oregon City 94 patents for old settlements, conveying 25,722 acres for delivery of claimants.

Albright Says Resignation Is Just a Report

Reports that Jack Albright had resigned as councilman were dated Friday night by both Albright and Councilman Roy B. Cox.

According to a rumor that had some circulation, Albright was said to have secretly placed his written resignation in the hands of Cox to be presented to the council at a time when the Schuebel faction held the reins.

Inasmuch as the council would appoint any new man such a coup would allow the Schuebel men to appoint a successor favorable to their interests. "Nothing to it," said Albright. "Haven't heard a thing about it," said Cox.

MOTORIST EXPLAINS METHOD WHEREBY ROAD BOND ISSUE WILL COST TAXPAYERS NOTHING

OREGON CITY, Feb. 23.—(Editor of the Enterprise.)—The automobile owner will pay the expense of hard surface roads under the proposed bond issue for $6,000,000, to be voted upon by the people at a special election to be held June 4, 1917. And whether he votes for the bond issue or no, he will have to pay the bill just the same. Auto licenses in future will cost twice as much as previously by the terms of another law passed by the 1917 legislature and whether the people approve the bond issue, the autoist
