

Newsy Briefs From All Over the County

MISS FLORA JOHNSON IS BRIDE OF HENRY KLINKER

GEORGE, Ore., March 8.—(Special)—A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Henry Johnson at George, February 21, at one o'clock, when his daughter, Flora, became the bride of Henry Klinker, of George. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Givens, of Estacada, in the presence of about thirty relatives. The bride wore a dress of white crepe de chine and a wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. The bridesmaid being Miss Anna Pugh, of Ridgefield, Wash., wore a light blue silk dress, and carried a bouquet of carnations. Mrs. Milton Shipley and son, Lovell, of Oswego, spent several days, the latter part of the week, at the Fred Lehman home.

Hazelita Literary and Debating Society met Saturday evening with a large crowd in attendance. A short program was given, followed by a mock wedding. Then the groom, announced off the wedding presents, which brought $12, the proceeds to go into the piano fund. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Remember preaching services at Hazelita by the Rev. Coleman, Sunday evening at 5 o'clock.

Those from Oswego, who attended Hazelita literary meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Max McMahan, Misses Florence Brumbaugh, Bertha Worthington, Edna Porter and Mrs. Milton Shipley and son, Lovell.

Albert R. Boutz attended the social in Oswego, Saturday evening, given by the United Artisans.

Jerry Flala, Sr., was a business visitor in the Tualatin Meadows neighborhood Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Max McMahan and sons, Jack and Clark, spent the weekend at Maple Knoll farm, guests of the Eastmans and McMahans.

Elmer Shipley, formerly of Hazelita but now of Oswego, was initiated into the United Artisans' lodge Saturday evening.

R. J. Zloney motored to Portland Saturday in his new Hudson automobile.

Fred Lehman was a business visitor in Portland Saturday.

Remember the basket social which will be held at Hazelita Saturday evening, March 10. An excellent program is being arranged and a lively time is the anticipation.

Miss Anna Pugh, of Ridgefield, Washington, is visiting relatives and friends in George this week.

A number of the people attended the community sing at the school house Monday night, and enjoyed it very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harders visited Mrs. Harders' sister, Mrs. R. Snyder, of Garfield Saturday and Sunday and while there attended the farewell party of Mrs. G. T. Hunt, Saturday night.

Andrew Jarmen, Louis Ochs, and Joseph Weiderhold, also attended the farewell party of Mrs. Hunt at Garfield country club Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, of Portland, has moved on the J. F. Gilmore farm at George.

The George people are enjoying some sleigh riding, as there is about a foot of snow.

George Hlers, of Portland, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. Schell, this week.

Miss Irene and Emma Paulsen, who are working in Portland, came out last Wednesday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Flora Johnson.

Representative H. C. Stevens returned home Tuesday evening from the 44 days' session of the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horgan, of Portland, also attended the wedding of their brother Henry Klinker, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Jarmen and infant daughter, of Portland, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Jarmen, of George, this week.

Fred Linn made a business trip to Estacada last Saturday.

Frank Ochs bought some hay from Mr. Gibson, of Eagle Creek last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

The George Social and Commercial club held the regular club meeting Saturday night. After the business meeting was over the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

HAZELITA.

HAZELITA, Ore., March 8.—Alfred E. Thomas and family, formerly of Hazelita and late of Stafford, have moved to Oswego.

A. B. Boutz was a business visitor in Willamette Tuesday.

John Higam was a visitor in Portland Monday and Tuesday.

Andrew Neal of Oswego was hauling hay from Hazelita Monday.

H. M. and C. C. Borland were transacting business in Oswego Wednesday.

William Dyer of Oswego was in the neighborhood Thursday.

C. N. Rosenstreter's new Ford was making grocery deliveries in Hazelita Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Milton Shipley and son, Lovell, of Oswego, spent several days, the latter part of the week, at the Fred Lehman home.

Hazelita Literary and Debating Society met Saturday evening with a large crowd in attendance. A short program was given, followed by a mock wedding. Then the groom, announced off the wedding presents, which brought $12, the proceeds to go into the piano fund. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Remember preaching services at Hazelita by the Rev. Coleman, Sunday evening at 5 o'clock.

Those from Oswego, who attended Hazelita literary meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Max McMahan, Misses Florence Brumbaugh, Bertha Worthington, Edna Porter and Mrs. Milton Shipley and son, Lovell.

Albert R. Boutz attended the social in Oswego, Saturday evening, given by the United Artisans.

Jerry Flala, Sr., was a business visitor in the Tualatin Meadows neighborhood Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Max McMahan and sons, Jack and Clark, spent the weekend at Maple Knoll farm, guests of the Eastmans and McMahans.

Elmer Shipley, formerly of Hazelita but now of Oswego, was initiated into the United Artisans' lodge Saturday evening.

R. J. Zloney motored to Portland Saturday in his new Hudson automobile.

Fred Lehman was a business visitor in Portland Saturday.

Remember the basket social which will be held at Hazelita Saturday evening, March 10. An excellent program is being arranged and a lively time is the anticipation.

CHURCH AFFAIRS AT JENNINGS LODGE

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES COME TO A CLOSE AFTER LARGE ATTENDANCE

JENNINGS LODGE, March 7.—At the monthly focus meeting the Grace church voted a budget of $600 for 1917-18.

The evangelistic services conducted by Rev. MacCallum of Oregon City have been brought to a close. They have been most helpful and will be fruitful in all lives throughout the year. On the last night a crowd of people came from Oregon City Congregational church and at the close the Ladies' Guild served light refreshments.

State Superintendent Rev. A. J. Sullens gave a very interesting talk on Sunday evening on "Our Relation to God." After which the graduation of the three successful pupils of the teachers' training class, Miss Ethel Hart, Mrs. Jean Robinson and Mrs. Louise Morse, took place. Diplomas were presented by Mrs. H. N. Smith, who is authority for the statement that Jennings Lodge Sunday school is the only one in Oregon having successfully maintained two teachers' training classes from the beginning. Flowers were presented the grad-

PARENTS' DAY BIG TREAT AT JENNINGS LODGE

EXHIBITS ARE MADE BY STUDENT OF JENNINGS LODGE SCHOOL

JENNINGS LODGE, March 6.—A goodly number of parents and friends registered at the "Parents' Day" event at the school Friday, March 2. The work of the children was displayed in rows around the room, and besides the regular work there were a number of fancy articles, made by the pupils in connection with the industrial extension work of the Oregon Agricultural college.

In the cake baking contest Harold Heathman captured the first prize and Otis Grant the second prize.

Virginia Ostrom's pie made the biggest hit with the judges and Ruby Grant's was second. The display was very fine and the children are to be congratulated on their baking.

This day being observed by our school as Arbor day, Mr. Carl Starker, Jennings Lodge nurseryman, gave a splendid and helpful talk on "Shrubs and Flowers," giving lists of plants to put in so as to have blossoms the year around.

The Candy sale realized a nice sum for the Parent-Teacher association.

JENNINGS LODGE, March 7.—The condition of Captain Rawlings of Medford remains unchanged. He suffered from a partial stroke of paralysis, and his daughter, Mrs. Fox, hastened from Medford to her father's bedside. Captain Rawlings is very Parents' day was observed in the school here Friday. Those present enjoyed the program, and refreshments were served by the children.

Miss Jane Armstrong and Miss Mabel Ford, of West Linn, were weekend guests of Miss Iva Whittin.

Miss Marion Thompson, from Oswego, visited her cousin, Miss Ethel Baker, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Audrey Wanker spent Sunday with her schoolmate, Miss Lena Lehman.

Mrs. F. H. Childs was a business visitor in Oswego Friday.

Harold Baker, from Portland, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Baker.

Misses Edna Porter, Bertha Worthington and Florence Brumbaugh, and Messrs. Fred McIntyre and Willis Koehler were those from Oswego attending literary meeting here Saturday evening.

Mrs. M. Shipley and son, Lowell, from Oswego are visiting Mrs. F. W. Lehman.

Miss Lulu Wanker spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Ethel Baker.

The farmers of this locality are all glad to see the snow go; some are busy marketing cabbage, others getting their potatoes off, while others are plowing and getting ready for spring seeding.

Miss Hattie Wanker spent Tuesday in Oregon City as the guest of Miss Alberta Dunn.

Guy McVay of Portland was the weekend guest of his sister, Mrs. George Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Nussbaum and children, Mrs. Rabick, Misses Libbie Rabick and Anna O'Dham, Joe and George Rabick and Roscoe and Stanley O'Dham were those from Stafford who attended literary here Saturday evening.

H. F. Duncan is ill.

Mrs. A. Worthington and Mrs. Sarah Childs, who have been very ill, are much better this week.

Mrs. Rice, Mrs. F. H. Childs and

Mrs. Hattie Chester, recently returned from Molalla, was called to Molalla the other day to nurse her son (George) and daughter (Miss Helen), who are ill with the measles.

Walter Douglass and wife were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duns Sunday.

Miss Edna Kennedy was the weekend guest of her sister, Mrs. Marshall Albaugh, of Portland.

Mrs. H. S. Jones was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Viola Douglass, recently.

Charlie Sweney, who has been visiting for some time with Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass, returned to his home in Stevenson, Wash. last week. His sister, Mrs. Douglass, accompanied him to Portland.

Everett Beckett and wife are guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Beckett.

Mrs. J. W. Price, of Stella, Wash., has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Pace, of Ardenwald.

G. W. Clark, of Sellwood Gardens, gave a surprise on Mrs. Lena Holton.

Mrs. William Baum, of Sellwood Gardens, visited her sister at Clackamas.

Washington's birthday was observed in school Thursday.

Last Friday the teachers here were given a visiting day. Miss Ulen spent the day in Canby and Miss Dunton visited schools at Concord and Clackamas.

Ray Chilcote was a Molalla visitor last week, as was also J. Bowman.

Ed Metzler has been on the sick list. J. J. Metzler, of Portland, was out recently to look after his property interests. Mr. Metzler intends to clear half an acre of the Dibble grove for a goose patch. Geese have already been proven a success in Clackamas county.

Mrs. John Pearson was in town recently. Under the new homestead law, they have been permitted to enlarge their homestead to a whole section.

Mrs. Ben Harless has bought the hotel formerly operated by Mr. and Mrs. Barret.

Mr. Palmer, editor of the Molalla Pioneer, was called East recently to help settle a large estate. The former editor, Mr. Taylor, was called back from a lecture tour to take charge of the paper.

Is your child pale and fretful? Does he cry out in sleep or grind his teeth? These symptoms may mean worms and you should obtain relief at once. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a pleasant remedy that kills the worm, and by its mildly laxative quality expels it from the system. Worms sap the vitality and make your child more susceptible to other ailments. Your Druggist sells Kickapoo Worm Killer, 25c a box. (Adv.)

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Ackerson moved last week to Montana, where they intend to make their home.

A parents' meeting was held at the schoolhouse Friday of last week. A good program was rendered, with a large attendance present.

Mrs. John Stuve spent Thursday and Friday of last week with her sister, Mrs. Clarence Miller.

The Woman's club met at Eugene Mitts' on March 5, it being Miss Lily Mitts' birthday. An enjoyable time was spent by all, everybody wishing Lilly many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. E. A. Krueger spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ritter.

Beatrice Rue is spending this week at Aurora, sewing for Mrs. Reams.

Do not forget that the Ladies' circle will meet with Mrs. Francis next week (Thursday) and help her quilt a pretty quilt that her husband has had for years, having won it at a raffle or at an auction. He on hand at 10:30, the third Thursday in March, with needle, thread and scissors.

Mrs. Gage received, Monday, a number of pounds of nice fat meat, the first of the season.

Pimply, muddy complexions are due to impurities in the blood. Clear up the skin by taking Dr. King's New Life Pills. Their mild laxative quality remove the poisons from the system and brighten the eye. A full, free, non-gripping bowel movement in the morning is the reward of a dose of Dr. King's New Life Pills the night before. At your Druggist, 25c. (Adv.)

Mrs. M. C. Young visited Corral Creek school on Wednesday afternoon and gave an interesting address, to the members of the Mothers' club.

Mrs. Harry Jost entertained a large company of friends in a delightful manner at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

The local W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. M. C. Young on Thursday afternoon.

Christine Bataigia went to Portland on Sunday evening, after a visit of two weeks at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Curry and four children, from Canada, have come to Wilsonville to visit with Mrs. Curry's mother, Mrs. Mary Seely.

Lucile Lisher, the primary teacher of the local school, was married Tuesday, February 27, at Vancouver, to Ernest Seely, of Wilsonville. The young couple arrived home on Wednesday and were serenaded in the evening by a large company of friends, who wish them joy and happiness.

One of the twin children of Mr. and Mrs. Curry has been very ill with grippe since their arrival in our village.

Dr. Butler, D. Rutherford and Norman Say attended Masonic lodge at Sherwood on Saturday evening, March 3.

Parents' Day was observed with an appropriate program under the direction of Miss Scollard at the schoolhouse on Friday afternoon, March 2. The playlet, "Little Women," was given by the pupils in a very entertaining manner, also songs, recitations and drills. A drill given by the primary pupils, assisted by their teacher, was excellent, displaying splendid training. A picture of Frances Willard was presented to the school on behalf of the members of Wilsonville W. C. T. U., by Mrs. Chas. Horning. The exhibit work of the pupils of the school, in sewing, school work and art, was very gratifying to the parents and visitors. An appetizing lunch was served at the close of the program by the members of the Parent-Teacher association.

Dr. Butler, D. Rutherford and Norman Say attended Masonic lodge at Sherwood on Saturday evening, March 3.

Parents' Day was observed with an appropriate program under the direction of Miss Scollard at the schoolhouse on Friday afternoon, March 2. The playlet, "Little Women," was given by the pupils in a very entertaining manner, also songs, recitations and drills. A drill given by the primary pupils, assisted by their teacher, was excellent, displaying splendid training. A picture of Frances Willard was presented to the school on behalf of the members of Wilsonville W. C. T. U., by Mrs. Chas. Horning. The exhibit work of the pupils of the school, in sewing, school work and art, was very gratifying to the parents and visitors. An appetizing lunch was served at the close of the program by the members of the Parent-Teacher association.

Dr. Butler, D. Rutherford and Norman Say attended Masonic lodge at Sherwood on Saturday evening, March 3.

Parents' Day was observed with an appropriate program under the direction of Miss Scollard at the schoolhouse on Friday afternoon, March 2. The playlet, "Little Women," was given by the pupils in a very entertaining manner, also songs, recitations and drills. A drill given by the primary pupils, assisted by their teacher, was excellent, displaying splendid training. A picture of Frances Willard was presented to the school on behalf of the members of Wilsonville W. C. T. U., by Mrs. Chas. Horning. The exhibit work of the pupils of the school, in sewing, school work and art, was very gratifying to the parents and visitors. An appetizing lunch was served at the close of the program by the members of the Parent-Teacher association.

Dr. Butler, D. Rutherford and Norman Say attended Masonic lodge at Sherwood on Saturday evening, March 3.

Parents' Day was observed with an appropriate program under the direction of Miss Scollard at the schoolhouse on Friday afternoon, March 2. The playlet, "Little Women," was given by the pupils in a very entertaining manner, also songs, recitations and drills. A drill given by the primary pupils, assisted by their teacher, was excellent, displaying splendid training. A picture of Frances Willard was presented to the school on behalf of the members of Wilsonville W. C. T. U., by Mrs. Chas. Horning. The exhibit work of the pupils of the school, in sewing, school work and art, was very gratifying to the parents and visitors. An appetizing lunch was served at the close of the program by the members of the Parent-Teacher association.

Dr. Butler, D. Rutherford and Norman Say attended Masonic lodge at Sherwood on Saturday evening, March 3.

Parents' Day was observed with an appropriate program under the direction of Miss Scollard at the schoolhouse on Friday afternoon, March 2. The playlet, "Little Women," was given by the pupils in a very entertaining manner, also songs, recitations and drills. A drill given by the primary pupils, assisted by their teacher, was excellent, displaying splendid training. A picture of Frances Willard was presented to the school on behalf of the members of Wilsonville W. C. T. U., by Mrs. Chas. Horning. The exhibit work of the pupils of the school, in sewing, school work and art, was very gratifying to the parents and visitors. An appetizing lunch was served at the close of the program by the members of the Parent-Teacher association.