Curtis Thursday brought suit in the circuit court against Clark A. Wells, Meier & Frank Company, and The Holding Company, for foreclosure of a mortgage for $1400 alleged to have been given on 10 acres of Clackamas county land by Mrs. Wells in December 1911. The Meier & Frank Company and The Holding Company are supposed to hold some liens against the property and are therefore made parties to the suit. MOUNT PLEASANT TO HAVE STREET LIGHTS; MONEY NOW READY The Community club of Mount Pleasant, numbering 80 members, has arranged to have Mount Pleasant streets lighted by electricity, and within a few weeks the people of that place will not be compelled to carry lanterns in order to see their way to the city limits. About 30 contributors toward the lights have been secured. It is planned to have one light every two blocks. Since the Community club was organized the members have worked hard to promote the interest of the people in that vicinity. They have also erected a clubhouse. Meetings are held by the organization on the first Tuesday of each month. E. M. McDowell is president; W. R. Lawton, vice-president; F. R. Andrews, secretary and treasurer. These officers and Chris Naegle, Ralph W. Niles constitute the board of governors. Bang! Bang! Bang! Live Wire Debaters Discuss Road Bond Issues Following Real Meal at Mt. Pleasant With Judge Grant H. Dimick and J. T. McElain on the affirmative and C. Schuebel and O. D. Eby on the negative, the Wire Wires debated the road bond issue at Mount Pleasant schoolhouse Tuesday night in the presence of a score of neighborhood farmers. Judge Dimick led off and closed and threw in a few of his inimitable stories for good measure, and Mr. McElain mounted the platform and unrolled a map as long as a motorist's dream and argued from the figures that the bond would be paid off in the required time provided by the bonding act, and the state would have a surplus of more than $1,000,000 at the end of the period. Called Dishonest. Mr. Eby said the act was dishonest and he picked holes in it from various angles. Mr. Schuebel, who admitted that he was debating the negative side to make out a discussion, insisted that the proposition is merely a paving scheme and that the state cannot afford to pay contractors' profits to build its roads. The debaters were loaded up with facts, figures and fancies, and were primed with a live wire dinner, such as is famed in the Mount Pleasant district. Perhaps the unusual feature of having the meal blessed by Rev. E. E. Gilbert, of the Methodist church, made its taste somewhat better than usual. Thank Ladies. The ladies obtained a hearty vote of thanks, anyway, and the Live Wires were so encouraged by the hospitable treatment that they accepted an invitation to go to Gladstone on next Tuesday night. Musical numbers were rendered by Miss Florence Grace, Dr. Roy Froden, Harold Swafford and Mr. Molain. The latter halls from Mount Pleasant and has a sweet tenor voice that was warmly applauded.

54 SCHOOLS IN COUNTY ALREADY STANDARDIZED There have been 54 schools in Clackamas county that have been standardized by County School Superintendent J. E. Calavan, and as there are still about twenty-five ready for standardization. These schools will soon be presented with the diplomas from State School Superintendent J. A. Churchill. In order to have these schools standardized they must meet the requirements such as arrangements of desks, light, ventilation, structure of the school building, attendance, and the condition of grounds surrounding the building. During the past year the school buildings of Clackamas county have been greatly improved, and the standardization has been a great boon to the school districts.

W. J. WHEATON IS IN CITY AFTER BEING SNOWBOUND 5 MONTHS W. J. Wheaton arrived in Oregon City from Ogle Mountain mines Thursday evening. Mr. Wheaton has been caretaker of the mines for the past five months. During that time the only living thing he saw was a tiny bird. Mr. Wheaton stated that the first snow fell in October, a total of 60 inches in twenty four hours. There was a total of eleven feet of snow in four days. The buildings were cleared of the snow each day to prevent them from caving in. The coldest day he experienced was on January 31st when the thermometer registered 18 degrees above zero. Mr. Wheaton walked 35 miles from Ogle Mountain mines to the town of Detroit, making much of the distance by showshoes. He says that Ogle Mountain mine is one of the richest mines in the state, and that work will be resumed about June 1st. He will probably return in June.

CONTEST FOR NAME IS OPENED BY MEN OF FRUIT ASSOCIATION Corvallis, Ore., March 15.—A brand and trade name that will make Willamette Valley fruit sound as good as it looks will net the writer of it a cash prize of $35, while the contestant submitting the second best will get $15. Anyone may contest, but the Willamette Fruit exchange offering the prizes rather look to the girls and boys of the schools to submit the snappiest and catchiest legends. "Sun-kist" is a trade name that has sold vast quantities of California oranges, and the fruit men hope to get a name that will be equally helpful in marketing Willamette Valley apples and pears. Designs for the label may accompany one trade name suggested but this is not required. Teachers of drawing, especially in the Willamette Valley, may contribute to a good cause while helping their pupils, by encouraging them to submit original label designs. The contest closes April 15. All names should be endorsed label contest and sent to the secretary of the exchange, box 216, Corvallis, Ore. Awards will be made by the executive committee consisting of Prof. C. I. Lewis, E. L. Klemmer, and B. W. Johnson.
