

Newsy Briefs From All Over the County

KELSO.

KELSO, Ore., April 5.—(Special)—Nearly all of the pupils who have been out with the measles, returned to school Monday.

Robert Jonard made a business trip to Tacoma last week.

The following sawmills are now in operation in this vicinity: Rodun & Co., on Deep Creek; Jari & Nelson on Sandy Ridge and the Bruus Lumber Co., near Sandy.

A month ago Robert Jonard purchased fifteen head of sheep which have now increased to twenty-six.

Jari & Erl have traded in their Ford truck for a new Republic.

V. Lindoen has completed A. Johnson's fine new residence.

R. Monroe's brother is helping the former to build a house on his place.

GEORGE.

GEORGE, April 5.—Henry Reimer, Chris Klinker, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Harders and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klinker, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rath last Thursday evening, March 29th, the occasion being Leo Rath's birthday. The evening was spent in card playing. A nice lunch was served at midnight by the host, when all departed for home wishing Leo many more happy birthdays.

Peter Ruhl was a Portland visitor last Tuesday and Wednesday.

John Cooper was transacting business in Portland a few days last week.

The sewing club met at the home of Mrs. G. Terwilliger last Saturday.

Mr. Frank Ahert visited Mrs. Peter Rath last Sunday.

A Latin-American program will be given in the Presbyterian Sunday school on Easter Sunday, April 8th.

Leo Rath and Harold Joyner were transacting business in Estacada last Tuesday.

EAGLE CREEK.

EAGLE CREEK, Ore., April 2.—Chicken thieves visited Fred Hoffmeister recently and carried away over half of his chickens. Pete Custer was also paid a visit the other night, presumably by the same parties, but they were frightened away by the dog, so left before securing any fowls.

Mrs. Viola Douglas spent Saturday with Mrs. Roy Douglas.

G. W. Baker is on the sick list.

Douglas Brothers did some chopping for some of the farmers, Saturday.

Dick Gibson made a trip to Sandy Sunday.

Little Georgia Baker is on the sick list.

Mr. Lowell, of Portland, paid his son C. A. Lowell, and wife, a visit Saturday. The young couple are living on the place where Mrs. de Ronne and sons resided.

Miss Edna Kennedy, Mrs. R. M. Braah and children were visiting at the home of Walter Douglas Sunday.

Walter Givens was in this vicinity Monday looking for hogs for shipment. He climbed the Douglas hill road, which is so very muddy and rough; in fact, is almost impassable, but he managed to get as far as H. S. Gibson's in his Studebaker. He was compelled to travel much slower than his wont. He returned to Estacada by the Ridge road.

Dick Gibson made a trip to Barton on Tuesday to call on his father, James Gibson, who is ill.

A. G. Burnett sold a horse to H. F. Gibson recently.

GARFIELD.

GARFIELD, Ore., April 4.—The people who have been ill are feeling better. Mrs. S. Palmer is improving.

Quite a few shipped their porkers Wednesday through Mr. Givens, the buyer for the Union Meat Co., of Portland.

Boo Krigbaum had an exciting time with his car a few evenings past. The steering gear went wrong on account of some part becoming loosened and he "landed" in the ditch just west of H. D. Trapp's. No one was injured, but it required three men to get it back onto the grade.

R. Davis and family, Herb Huxley and family, and Miss Rachel Dear-dorff motored to Lentz to attend service and basket dinner Sunday.

Forget Your Aches. Stiff knees, aching limbs, lame back make life a burden. If you suffer from rheumatism, gout, lumbago, neuralgia, get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, the universal remedy for pain. Easy to apply; it penetrates without rubbing and soothes the tender flesh. Cleaner and more effective than any ointments or poultices. For sprains, sore muscles or wrenched ligaments resulting from strenuous exercise, Sloan's Liniment gives quick relief. Keep it on hand for emergencies. At your Druggist, 25c. (Adv.)

HAZELIA.

HAZELIA, Ore., April 3.—(Special)—Mrs. Pollard called on Mrs. J. P. Cook Friday afternoon.

A. E. Helms marketed farm produce in Oswego Friday.

J. P. Cook and A. Nielsen transacted business in Portland Saturday.

Harley Whitten was the dinner guest of his cousins, Hattie and Edith Wanker, Friday.

Mrs. Hugh Baker, Miss Ethel Baker and Kenneth Baker were Portland visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Raicy were visitors in Tualatin Meadows Sunday.

Miss Florence Brumbaugh was the weekend guest of Miss Bonnie Duncan.

Joseph Eastman lost a fine horse last week.

The Hazelia Literary and Debating society met Saturday evening with a large crowd in attendance. An excellent program was given. The following officers were elected: President, Marlon Eastman; vice-president, Dorothy Zinser; secretary and treasurer, Elizabeth Paymbrook; sergeant-at-arms, Wm. Nagl; president of social committee, Hattie Wanker. All reported a fine time. The next meeting will be held April 14. All come.

Walter Nuabum, from Stafford, was in this neighborhood Monday.

Vernon Davidson called on J. P. Cook Thursday.

Hiss Iva Whitten was an Oregon City visitor Friday.

Lulu Wanker, Ethel Baker, Elva Wanker, Winfield Baker and Herbert Duncan were dinner guests at the Ed Wanker home Sunday.

Walter Shatz, Clarence Weddle, Lloyd Tiedeman, Bob Shatz, Lyle Tiedeman and Harry Gebhardt were Stafford residents who attended literary society here Saturday evening.

MEADOWBROOK.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Schiewe and daughter, Lillie, went to Portland Tuesday to visit Jake Schiewe and family, the former a son of Mr. and Mrs. Schiewe.

Born, April 1, to the wife of Milton D. Chidgren, a girl, weighing 8½ pounds. Mother and child are doing fine.

Mrs. Chas. Shepherd is quite sick at present writing. Dr. Walker, of Molalla, was called Wednesday morning.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Miettinen, of Meadowbrook Heights, a son, March 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Debeaur and daughter, of Mulino, have moved into the Orem house. Mr. Debeaur is hauling lumber for Ike Trullinger.

A large crowd attended literary Saturday evening. The "Mock Trial" took up most of the evening, which was enjoyed by all. A committee was appointed to see about entertainment soon.

A party was given at O. F. Johnson's Saturday evening in honor of Freda Johnson's birthday. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games. At a late hour lunch was served. Those present were O. F. Johnson, Annie and Freda Johnson, Rose Mulvaney, Esther and Elsie Orem, Myrtle, Hazel, Nettie and Ruth Larkins, Bill Houghton, Elizabeth Long and Norma Culberson. Arthur and Harold Johnson, Richard Orem, Oval Engleman, Delbert Husband, Robert and Glen Orem, Glenn and Allen Larkins, Dow Houghton, Pete and Charley Culberson and John Darnell.

CEDARDALE.

CEDARDALE, Ore., April 2.—Mrs. Chas. Beck went to Salem Friday, returning Sunday afternoon, accompanied by her daughter, Martha, who has been visiting relatives there the past month.

A. M. Cooper moved into his new residence last week.

George Williams and crew took advantage of the high water last week, driving their logs in Mill creek as far as J. U. Trullinger's mill, where they will be sawed on shares.

John Lamm has purchased from his brother Paul, the latter's property opposite his own.

R. D. Ball has purchased a thoroughbred Holstein bull.

C. Winslow purchased 100 baby chicks of B. Palmer last week.

CLARKS.

CLARKS, April 2.—Miss Florence Stromgren, of Colton, who has been a sufferer from measles, is improving.

Mrs. Jason Clarke went to Portland last Sunday on account of the serious illness of her grand-father, who is not expected to live.

Otto Elmer, from Corvallis, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Elmer, a few days the other week.

L. Stout is on the sick list.

Jason Clarke bought some hay from Ed Grace last week.

WILSONVILLE.

The playlet, "A Family Affair," will be given in Wilsonville, by local talent on the evening of Friday, April 20th.

The house belonging to Barney Cronin, was rented to a family here last week.

The Taspenderoff Lumber company is shipping lumber from Wilsonville now, and this firm sent 50,000 feet of lumber to New Era, Monday.

Glenn Epler, formerly of this place, has joined the militia and left for Vancouver last week.

Mrs. Reed Graham and daughter, Helen, went to Portland Saturday.

Kenneth Stein returned from the hospital Saturday, and is feeling well again.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Bataglia was made beautiful with yellow daffodils and Oregon grape on Sunday, April 1st, at which time their daughter, Anna, became the bride of George J. Derr, of Portland. The marriage ceremony was performed at 1 o'clock. Rev. Whitman, pastor of the First Congregational church of Portland, officiating with the impressive ring service. The bride was very prettily attired in pale blue silk poplin and carried white carnations, and was attended by her sister, Christina Bataglia, who wore dotted Swiss, and carried pink carnations. Emil Elchenberger, a cousin of the bride, was best man. The wedding march was played by a sister of the groom. The wedding presents were numerous and handsome. A sumptuous repast was served after the ceremony, and the young couple took the evening train for Portland, where the groom is connected with the Willamette Shipbuilding Co.

DAMASCUS.

DAMASCUS, Ore., April 2.—Clackamas County Grange M. and L. association will meet at 1:30 p. m. at Maple Lane Grange hall, Wednesday, April 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Crafton from Yamhill county, are visiting Mrs. Crafton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rouch.

Mrs. J. D. Chitwood is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Warren Greenwell, of Woodstock.

Alton, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lovelace, has enlisted in Company B, O. N. G., and has gone to Vancouver, Wash.

Judging from the amount of noise coming from the direction of Bakers Bridge where Contractor W. E. Mumpower and his crew are breaking rock for the county crusher, to be installed there, we're soon to have some much needed improvements on our county roads in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson have moved into the house of Mrs. Corbin, recently vacated by Ford Everett and family.

CARUS.

CARUS, Ore., April 2.—Miss Floy Stewart is working in Canemah.

Chas. Wisemandel has bought a fine farm at Greenwood known as the Stroop place.

Otis Howard and Edgar Stewart are clearing some land for S. L. Casto.

Richard McCarthy attended the dance at Clarks last Saturday and reported a fine time, there being about 75 numbers sold.

Wm. Muller, Sr., has been on the sick list with abscess of the ear.

The party given at the home of Mr. McCarthy was a decided success. Those attending were Miss Lena and Martha Schmeiser, Miss Paul Fisher, Miss Opal McKeensy, Florence Jagger, Pansy Irish, Jenny Bly and Lillian McCarthy. Messrs Carl Casaday, Clyde and Fred Jagger, Edgar and George Stewart, Walter and Erich Fisher, Albert Fisher, Sidney Irish, Karl Schmeiser, Lewis McCarthy, Kenneth Nighton, Richard Davis, John Davis, Hugh Poery, Lee Bly, Otis Howard. The evening was devoted to cards and games. O. Howard served as chief cook. Lizzie Fisher assistant cook, of the chicken supper. After supper and breakfast the guests departed at an early hour.

Albert Schoenborn, while working in the woods Monday, was hit with a log hook and has a bruised and cut cheek.

Clyde Jagger has gone into the poultry business and is erecting a new chicken house.

Mr. Moore, of Molalla, is working at the Willamette Valley Southern station.

Is your child pale and fretful? Does he cry out in sleep or grind his teeth? These symptoms may mean worms and you should obtain relief at once. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a pleasant remedy that kills the worm, and by its mildly laxative quality expels it from the system. Worms sap the vitality and make your child more susceptible to other ailments. Your Druggist sells Kickapoo Worm Killer, 25c a box. (Adv.)

MACKSBURG.

A large and enthusiastic gathering of taxpayers took place at the Drylands school house on the evening of Saturday, March 31. Delegates were present from the Bear Creek and from the Eby districts. Every one seemed alive to the importance of some improvement in our tax management. A constitution was drafted and adopted. John Heinz was chosen president; C. M. Suener, vice-president, and J. Kammerer, secretary and treasurer. Committees were appointed to promote the association in the neighboring districts. A meeting is to be held in the districts of Rural Dell, Saturday evening, April 7th. Robert Schuebel is to speak and will present some facts on the bond issue. A general attendance is greatly desired for this meeting as business will be transacted and facts made known that no property-holder can afford to miss.

Frank Hilton with his little son, Shirley, came from his mountain ranch to look after his stock and to attend to matters in general about his place here. They returned late in the week.

A very busy and interesting session of the Mothers' club was held at the home of Mrs. Bisel on Thursday afternoon, March 29. Mrs. Stebbins, Mrs. Kenison, Mrs. Schrock and Miss Elvora Miller were present as visitors. Mrs. Hepler, president of the club, being absent on account of illness. Mrs. Miller, the president, took charge of the meeting. The next session is to be in Easter week, and will be either at the home of Mrs. J. Gibson or of the secretary, Mr. G. M. Baldwin.

The sale on the premises of John

BARLOW.

BARLOW, Ore., April 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Reed left Sunday for a location at Wasco, after visiting Mrs. Reed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vetois. Mrs. Robert Ogle, of Portland, was visiting friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Hunter, of Portland, visited her mother, Mrs. Scroggin, Tuesday.

Mr. Turner is giving his storebuilding a coat of fresh paint.

Mrs. Ida Tull was in Oregon City Thursday looking for a house.

DAMASCUS.

DAMASCUS, Ore., April 3.—The entertainment given by the Damascus school at the German hall Saturday night, was a decided success. A good crowd was in attendance, notwithstanding inclement weather. The program consisted of songs, recitations, plays and drills. A pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment was the patriotic evinced by the pupils, and the beginning and ending of the program were characterized by the national flag salute by the school. Noteworthy numbers were a flag drill, a Betsy Ross play and a ghost drill. A genuinely patriotic feeling and spirit of good will prevailed throughout the evening. The receipts of the evening from the sale of tickets for admittance and refreshments, amounted to $42. The proceeds are largely to go toward the equipment of a playshed for the school with necessary gymnastic apparatus.

The Rock Creek school will give an

H. OELSCHLAEGER DEAD FUNERAL WAS MARCH 31

OLD RESIDENT OF CLACKAMAS DIES OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

CLACKAMAS, Ore., April 3.—Funeral services for Herman Oelschlaeger, Sr., who died at his home March 25, were held March 27. Interment was in Mt. Scott cemetery, Rev. Krause, of Portland, officiating. Funeral services were conducted from the family home.

Mr. Oelschlaeger was born in Germany February 16, 1853. On August 5, 1877, he was married to Miss Louise Piper, and Oct. 29, 1882 left Germany for America. After ten years' residence in Laramie, the family came to Portland in 1892, and one month later came to Clackamas. Here the family made their home during the last twenty-five years.

Mr. Oelschlaeger was a member of the Lutheran church. He is survived by his widow, four sons and three daughters. The sons are: Herman and Paul of Council, Wash.; Emil and Lewis, of Clackamas, and the daughters, Mrs. Wm. Griebel, of Portland; Mrs. Fred Johnston, who lives in Canada; Miss Minnie Oelschlaeger, six grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Piper of Clackamas.

W. A. Beck, well known resident and real estate dealer of Molalla, was an Oregon City visitor Wednesday. Mr. Beck went to Portland before returning to his home.

JENNINGS LODGE.

JENNINGS LODGE, April 4.—The family of Russell Butler has moved out from Portland and will live on the east county road.

The Parent-Teacher association committee met Friday with the president and outlined the work for two months.

Mrs. Hodges goes soon to join her sons at Corbett, Ore.

Mrs. Feudnee and little daughter have gone to California to remain. Mason and Mildred will leave as soon as school closes.

Mr. Altman was painfully injured last week while at work.

The Blue Bird class of Grace church gave a silver tea on Tuesday afternoon, the proceeds to pay for a class table.

The Easter service will be held at 7:45 p. m. on Sunday, April 8. New members will be received into the fellowship of the church.

George Moore is spending a week with his daughter, Mrs. Harry Painting, at Gehr, Wash.

Word from the bedside of DeForest Pomeroy, is received that he is somewhat improved, but there is no hopes for his recovery.

Miss Eunice Williams is at her home after her illness in St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, during the vacation period. The janitor, Mr. Uabrand, is oiling the floors and making other improvements in general, about the school.

Charles Wallace has reported at Mare Island for service in the U. S. navy.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

The following are the real estate transfers that were filed in the office of County Recorder Boyles:

William O. and Pearl W. Smith, to Augusta Guenther, land in Clackamas county; $500.

Portland Trust Company to Oregon to John W. Leder, lots 1, 2, 7, 8, block 114, Oregon City; $10.

Rowland F. Walters and Henrietta G. Walters to George Benjamin and Elizabeth London, 10 acres of Daniel Hathaway D. L. C.; $800.

W. L. Mulvey, executor of estate of Cardon Smith, deceased to H. H. and Anna Gregory, 55 acres of section 11, township 5 south, range 3 east; $1.

Andrew and Anne Streich to Katherine B. Ritter, lot 4 of blk. 2, Koyler's addition to Molalla; $325.

Andrew and Anne Streich to Katherine B. Ritter, lot 4 of blk. 2, Gregory's addition to Molalla; $325.

R. W. and Lillie T. Baker to Chas. W. Kanney, Tract "U" and the southerly half of Tract "A" of Willamette and Tualatin Tracts; $1.00.

The following are the real estate transfers that were filed in the office of County Recorder Boyles:

H. E. and Mary McKenney, to Geo. P. Schuele, land in Clackamas county; $10.

Herman Oelschlaeger to Louise Oelschlaeger 10 acres of D. L. C. of Preely Welch and wife, township 2 south, range 2 east; $10.

Portland Trust company to E. A. Hugh, lots 6, 7, block 155, Oregon City; $10.

E. A. Hugh and Wilma Hugh to P. D. Forbes, lot 6, block 155 Oregon City; $10.

W. D. Adams to D. Engle and Effie B. Engle, land in section 22, township 5 south, range 2 east; $1.

George H. and Mangle V. Brown to L. Ferguson lot 3, block 1, Deal's addition to New Era; $75.

E. M. Howell and Anna Howell to Matilda Stauffer, 8½ acres of land in Clackamas county; $10.

Charles and Clarence A. Moran to Alfeo E. Irwin, east half of block 48, First addition to Jennings Lodge, $3.50.

Mary C. Galbraith to Charles W. Brainard and Edna Brainard, 50 acres of section 11, township 3 south, range 7 east; $10.

Stop the First Cold.

A cold does not get well of itself. The process of wearing out a cold wears you out, and your cough becomes serious if neglected. Hacking coughs drain the energy and sap the vitality. For 47 years the happy combination of soothing antiseptic balsams in Dr. King's New Discovery has healed coughs and relieved congestion. Young at 1. old can testify to the effectiveness of Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs and colds. Buy a bottle today at your Druggist, 50c. (Adv.)

SPRING FARM MACHINERY

Big Stock---Carefully selected for this section and sold at lowest possible prices.

J. I. CASE STEEL PLOWS.
VULCAN CHILLED PLOWS.
CUTAWAY DISC HARROWS,
 The famous double action.
LIGHT DRAFT HARROW,
 Finest spring tooth harrow.
CASE AND LEAN DISC-SPIKE AND SPRING TOOTH HARROWS.
EVANS POTATO PLANTERS.
BLOOM MANURE SPREADERS.

IN SHORT THE

W. J. Wilson & Co., OREGON CITY, OREGON.
Geo. Blatchford, MOLALLA, OREGON

MYERS POWER SPRAYERS AND PUMPS. GARDEN TOOLS.

tended. Will Heinz acted as auctioneer and although a beginner in the business, acquitted himself most creditably. Mr. Nofziger has rented his place to Mr. Lysle from Illinois, who was here, once before with the view of making a settlement in one place, and who, now, says that he has come to stay. He intends to settle in Oklahoma where his wife has gone for her health, and where the climate has proven so favorable to her. They will be greatly missed from our community.

Following are the names of the Eby school pupils, who have braved the almost constant rain, waded through deep water and crossed submerged bridges throughout the month of March without a single absence or once being late: Vernon Kaufman, Louis Welch, Harry Goertzen, Emil Walch, George Hepler, Raymond Zimmer, Fred Kaufman, Margaret Liede, Marie Preitzell, Maude Hepler, Lena Goertzen, Freda Dwarshank, Julia Kaufman, Myra Zimmer, Mabel Eby, Mary Bates.

Robert Beattie, prominent farmer of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City Wednesday, and while here he visited his brother, Dr. A. L. Beattie.

JENNINGS LODGE HAS MASQUERADE PARTY

JENNINGS LODGE, April 4.—On Thursday, March 29, Mrs. William Booth and Mrs. Carl Starker entertained at a masquerade dancing party at the Blue Front hall. After an enjoyable evening spent in dancing, the party repaired to the home of Mrs. William Booth, where dainty refreshments were served. The tables were tastefully decorated with sweet peas from Mr. Starker's greenhouses.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Blythe, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mori, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Booth, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hammond, J. O. Booth, Mrs. J. Barker, George Barker, Miss Grace Bruce, Messrs. Paul and Clinton Perlett, Henry Drexell, Misses Ida and Marian Butterworth, Misses Winifred and Delpha Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. William Booth and daughter, Janet, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Starker.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank all who so kindly assisted us in the last illness and death of our beloved father and brother, Charles Cutting. We also wish to thank the Odd Fellows of Molalla for the beautiful floral piece.

MRS. L. F. GRANINI,
 L. F. GRANINI,
 MRS. C. J. OFFICER,
 MISS MELVA CUTTING,
 ABE CUTTING,
 OREN CUTTING,
 and FAMILY.

POLK'S GAZETTEER

A Business Directory of each City, Town and Village in Oregon and Washington, giving a Descriptive Sketch of each place, Location, Shipping Facilities and a Classified Directory of each Business and Profession.

R. L. POLK & CO., Inc.
 Seattle, Wash.

Harsh Words Indeed.

"Nothing is so unclean as a used tea-cup, nothing is so cold as toast which has once been hot, and the concrete expression of dejection is crumbs."—"Sweated Tea" by Barry Pain.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND

Small text describing the benefits of the pills for various ailments.

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE