

A SENATOR FLOORS PACIFICIST WHO CALLS HIM COWARD

LODGE STRIKES EX-BASEBALL PLAYER IN CORRIDORS OF NATIONAL CAPITOL

WASHINGTON, April 2.—A personal encounter between Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, and Alexander Hannawart, of Dorchester, Mass., in which the senator knocked his opponent down, occurred today in the corridors of the capitol.

Hannawart, with the Rev. Paul Harris Drake, of Christ church, Dorchester, and several other men and women of pacifist delegations, called Senator Lodge to the door of his committee room and asked him to vote against a declaration of war with Germany. Senator Lodge replied that if President Wilson asked for such a declaration he certainly would support it.

"That is cowardice," retorted one of the group. "National degeneracy is worse than cowardice," replied the Massachusetts senator.

"You are a coward," said Hannawart. "You are all," retorted Senator Lodge.

Hannawart advanced and struck the senator, who then, despite his sixty odd years, launched a blow that sent Hannawart sprawling on the hard tiles of the corridor. Hannawart formerly was a baseball player in the old New England league.

FRENCH SOLDIERS CULTIVATING ABANDONED GROUND

Only a few miles behind the front a few soldiers, who are on a short leave of absence, are cultivating ground that has been abandoned. They are planting potatoes. The lower scene shows a general view of the ruins of Pagny-sur-Saulx.

CHINAMAN FEARS TONGS; STAYS IN ROOM EIGHT WEEKS

PORTLAND, Ore., March 29.—Police Chief Clark sent his men into Chinatown Thursday with orders to take a complete census of every man, woman and child of Chinese blood. This was the first step preparatory to carrying out Mayor Albee's orders to clean out Chinatown in the event that warring tonges had not signed a peace pact by 8 a. m. Saturday.

Detectives engaged in the nose-counting could not dislodge Lee Fong, an aged interpreter, from his store on North Fourth street. The place was heavily barricaded. They finally gave up their attempts to enter and called him on the telephone.

Fong answered that he would not come out. He was a marked man, he said, and he feared being slain if he opened his door. He told the detectives he had barricaded himself in a small room in the rear of his store eight weeks ago when hostilities began and had not left the room since that time. His business had been transacted over the telephone, he said.

LOCAL MAN HURT WHEN RUTH GOES TO BOTTOM

Harry Carlson, of Willamette, who suffered a broken leg in Portland, when trying to escape from a collision with the Vesterlids being launched in Portland broke loose from the cable and dashed across the river and collided with the steamer Ruth, is well known in Oregon City. He has been fireman on the steamer for several years.

Seeing the danger, he tried to escape by jumping upon a log raft, but was caught between two of the logs when the runaway boat crashed into the Ruth. His leg was badly crushed. He has a family here. His mother also resides in Willamette. James Holton, the injured deckboy, also lives at Willamette.

Owned Here. The Ruth is one of the best known of the river vessels, having been built by the O.W. R. & N., here in 1895 for the Portland-Oregon City trade, but about five years ago was sold to the Willamette Navigation company, and has been used since in carrying paper and supplies in connection with the business of the Crown Willamette Paper company.

CLARK CHOSEN SPEAKER, DEFEATING MANN BY MARGIN OF DOZEN VOTES

SCHALL OF MINNESOTA, REPUBLICAN, NOMINATES DEMOCRAT IN PATRIOTIC SPEECH

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Champ Clark, Democrat, of Missouri, was elected speaker of the house of representatives in the sixty-fifth congress in a session of the house that was marked with sensations almost from the outset today.

The speaker defeated James R. Mann of Illinois, choice of the Republican caucus, as Representative Lenroot of Wisconsin, himself the candidate of a minority of the Republicans, had challenged the suggestion made by Representative Schull of Minnesota, Progressive-Republican, in placing Clark in nomination, that the existing international situation demanded that President Wilson be given a Democratic house organization as well as senate, to assume responsibility for his policies. Lenroot then seconded the Mann nomination.

The vote in the house resulted: Speaker Clark 217, Representative Mann 205, Representative Lenroot 2, Representative Gillett 2, present 2; total 428. The defection of Schull was a body blow to the Republicans, who had counted confidently on his support. The Democratic advantage also was added to when Representative Lee of Georgia, just recovering from an attack of pneumonia, was assisted into the chamber to vote for the speaker, and the other members of the Democratic slate for house positions.

Court Records Swelled By One More Case in the Merry Denny and Sullivan Mix-Up Trouble between Martin Denny and Larry Sullivan, co-owners of the Friars' club at Milwaukie, which had up until Thursday resulted in a fight a total of six arrests on various charges ranging from assault to selling liquor, and one civil suit, Thursday blossomed out in a new form. Denny brought a civil suit in the Clackamas county court against Sullivan asking that the partnership be dissolved and a receiver placed in charge of the business of the Friars' club.

He alleges that Sullivan has already misappropriated $500 of the partners' money and that he will take more of it unless the court prevents him. According to the complaint Denny and Sullivan took over the roadhouse last December. Denny paid half the cost, which amounted to $2037. The men were to share equally in the profits.

Comparative. "Contentment is always a comparative virtue." "What do you mean?" "Highly used up a dozen fifty dollar fives from April to October, but he's tickled to death because he made his patch and busted garden hose last through the summer."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF. Which is Better—Try an Experiment or Profit by an Oregon City Citizen's Experience. Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented.

The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of friends is now supposing you had a bad back, a lame, weak, or aching one. Would you experiment on it? You will read of many so-called cures. Endorsed by strangers from far away places. It's different when the endorsement comes from home.

Easy to prove local testimony. Read this Oregon City case: Chas. E. Burns, ex-marshal, 25 17th St., Oregon City, says: "I don't hesitate to endorse Doan's Kidney Pills for I know from personal experience that they are a very reliable kidney medicine. I have used them on several occasions when I have had kidney disorders and my back has felt lame and stiff and in every instance they have never failed to remedy the trouble. A box or so puts my kidneys in good working order and makes my back feel as strong as ever."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Burns had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, etc., required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, of Oregon City Enterprise, published weekly at Oregon City, Oregon, for April 1, 1917. Before me, a Notary Public, in and for the state and county aforesaid, personally appeared E. E. Brodie, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the publisher of the Oregon City Enterprise, and that the following is to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management and circulation of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, embodied in Section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations; that the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, and business manager are: Publisher,

Since that time, Denny declares there has been no accounting and he does not know what has become of his money. Perfects Bond. He is represented by Sam M. Johnson, Portland attorney. Denny appeared in court this morning and perfected his bond of $1000 in the case against him and Sullivan, brought this week by Clackamas county officials. He is charged with conducting a nuisance. Boozes Charge. In addition Denny and Sullivan are both charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition statute. Denny is under arrest in Milwaukie on a charge of assault against William Leary, an attendant of the club, and both Denny and Sullivan are defendants in a suit brought recently by Henry Jennings & Sons, Portland furniture dealers, who charge that they still owe for the furniture bought by Julius Wilbur a year ago when he remodeled the club.

editor and business manager, E. E. Brodie, Oregon City, Oregon; that the owners are: E. E. Brodie, Oregon City, Oregon; Geo. A. Harding, Oregon City, Oregon; E. A. Sommer, Portland, Oregon; that the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning and holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: None. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest, direct or indirect, in the said stock, bonds or other securities than as so stated by him.

E. E. BRODIE, Publisher and business manager. Sworn to and subscribed before me this 4th day of April, 1917. (Seal) E. H. COOPER, Notary Public for Oregon. (My Commission expires August 7, 1919).
