MACKSBURG

The two days of brisk wind and bright sunshine, with which the past week ended, were utilized by ranchers and their families to the fullest extent. Large tracts of ground were made ready for seeding, and considerable planting was done. The present rains are of such warm and summer-like nature that germination and growth must be rapid.

Plum, cherry and peach trees are laden with blossoms; the strawberry vines are in full bloom, while the wild ones are everywhere whitening the ground. What with these lovely harbingers of summer fruit, mingled with the purple of the violet, the yellow of the wild primrose, the soft pink of the spring beauty, the tri-color of the wild pansy, the snowy-white of the Pasque-flower and the late, but by no means late, the shining gold of the dandelion, all in vivid contrast with the rich green of grass and foliage, there is no point of the compass toward which one may look without meeting some visual delight.

Simon Miller was quite badly hurt last week by a falling tree while he was blasting. It is hoped now that Mr. Miller's injury may not prove as serious as was at first feared.

Mrs. Maude Spencer, of LaCamas, Wash., with her sister, Miss Julia Noho, were in Portland Thursday visiting their brother, Leonard, who is in one of the hospitals. Leonard went to Portland intending to join the army and was taken so ill that his removal to a hospital became a necessity.

Patrick Gibson came home from Bend, Oregon, a few days ago, and has gone to California.

A very interesting session of the Mothers' club was held at the home of Mrs. J. Gibson on Thursday last. Present as visitors were Mrs. Hermann, Mrs. Dietrich Harms, Mrs. Lons, Mrs. Welk, Mrs. Schnack, Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. Goebel, Miss Gobel and Miss Louisa Heinz. The Mothers' club having grown numerically until it has become too large for a private home, it has been thought best to divide it. A branch club was formed on Thursday with Mrs. Koessling as president and Mrs. Schnack as secretary.

The following are the names of Eby school pupils who were neither absent nor tardy in the school month of April—Lena Welch, Julia Kaufman, Louis Welch, Harry Goertzen, Emil Welch, Raymond Zimmer, Elmer Kistie, Louis Nofziger.

LOGAN

LOGAN, May 2.—Cattle buyers are frequent callers looking for something to make beef of. Most farmers have culled their herds pretty close owing to high cost of mill feed.

Albert Gerber is the proud owner of a Buick car.

Fred Minder also has a Buick now, having disposed of his Ford.

Well, about those wedding bells, they rang all right only we did not know it. Mr. Bruno Frederick and Miss Gertrude Bailey, of Sherwood, were married at Salem, a fortnight since.

The entertainment given by the lower Logan school was a success in every way. A program consisting of songs, dialogues, etc., was followed by a basket sale. Carl Palbert being auctioneer. Total proceeds amounted to $54.45. Our school will close soon and we are sorry we cannot have our teachers another year, they will attend state normal next winter. Miss Margaret West, principal, and Miss Inez Donahue, primary, are a pair hard to beat in their line of work. This seldom two can give entire satisfaction in a district, but it seems to be so here.

Mrs. James Griffith, of Creswell, is visiting relatives in Logan this week.

Our "main trunk" is much improved since the grader and roller went over it. Said roller rolled off the grade in the ditch on Busch hill, holding up traffic three-quarters of a day. No body was hurt, no damage, only a few good swear words wasted.

Several were ready to plant a few "spuds" Saturday but waited for a little more sunshine, then the usual thing happened.

BORING

BORING, May 3.—Obituary of Mrs. Synneve Hauglum—Mrs. Synneve Hauglum was born in Norway, July 15, 1848. She came to Albert Lea, Minnesota, at the age of eight years. Here she lived for a number of years, and was married to Andrew Hauglum, who died fourteen years ago. The family came to Oregon in 1877, and settled on the place near Cottrell, where she lived until her death, which occurred Wednesday, April 25, 1917, after a short illness. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Jonard, of Kelso, Oregon, and two sons, Gilbert Hauglum and Lewis Hauglum, of Cottrell; also a brother, John Eri, of Kelso, and a half-sister, Mrs. John Alstad, of Canby. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Henriksen, of Portland, at the Norwegian Lutheran church, of which the deceased was a faithful member. Interment took place at the Sandy cemetery. Many friends mourn the loss of a kind friend and neighbor.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hauglum, a daughter, Monday April 30.

BACKING UP PROOF

The Kind That Oregon City People Cannot Deny.

Many an earnest Oregon City man or woman has publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills.

Week after week month after month you've read their statements.

Would these Oregon City people recommend any medicine if it were not good?

Would they confirm and repeat their statements after years had passed? Local proof is good evidence. Testimony confirmed years after is better evidence.

The following Oregon City man's statement leaves no room for doubt. It must convince every kidney sufferer who reads it.

If your back aches—if your kidneys are weak, profit by Mr. Busch's experience.

F. H. Busch, 11 Eleventh St. Oregon City, says: "I suffered from an acute attack of kidney and bladder trouble and got no relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They stopped the trouble after I had taken two boxes and I have had no return of it since." (Statement given March, 1916).

On April 17, 1916, Mr. Busch added: "I am permanently cured of my former trouble and Doan's Kidney Pills get the credit."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Busch has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

PUT IRELAND RIGHT, GAIN LOYAL SERVICE, PLEADS LLOYD GEORGE

LONDON, April 27.—In an important speech at the Guildhall today Premier Lloyd George discussed the military situation, the Irish question and other of the major problems with which the public is now engaged. The premier's speech was in acknowledgement of the conferring on him of the freedom of the city of London. Referring to Ireland, the premier said: "We must convert Ireland from a suspicious, surly, dangerous neighbor to a cheerful, loyal comrade. Settlement of the Irish question is essential for the peace of the world and essential to a speedy victory in the war. I appeal to the patriotism of all men to sink everything for the one purpose of getting this question out of the way."

DOESN'T LOOK FOR REVOLUTION AMONG GERMANS

PARIS, April 26.—Jules Cambon, general secretary to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, in a talk with American newspaper correspondents, said: "I agree with James W. Gerard, the ex-American ambassador to Germany, in his recent statement that the allies should put no faith in prospects of an internal revolution in Germany."
