Mackburg

MACKSBURG, Ore., May 7.—The wild call that comes to America for an increased food supply strikes a responsive chord in the heart of every one on the ranches, from the white-haired septuagenarian, who passed through the Civil War, to the child who is longing for school to close that he may get at work on his miniature farm. Never was ground prepared with greater alacrity or seed sown with more fervid hope than in the first week of May, 1917. Sunday came, bringing a much-needed rest but, also, a rain that cast a shadow of foreboding over the earnest toilers. A fear that the moisture might cause more delay in the work. Very transient, however, was the shadow. Monday morning broke with bright sunshine that before half the day was spent, had put the soil in fine working shape once more, while the growth of everything that had come above the surface was like a magic spell.

BACKING UP PROOF.

The Kind That Oregon City People Cannot Deny.

Many an earnest Oregon City man or woman has publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills.

Week after week month after month you've read their statements.

Would these Oregon City people recommend any medicine if it were not good?

Would they confirm and repeat their statements after years had passed?

Local proof is good evidence.

Testimony confirmed years after is better evidence.

The following Oregon City man's statement leaves no room for doubt. It must convince every kidney sufferer who reads it.

If your back aches—if your kidneys are weak, profit by Mr. Busch's experience:

F. H. Busch, 11 Eleventh St. Oregon City, says: "I suffered from an acute attack of kidney and bladder trouble and got no relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They stopped the trouble after I had taken two boxes and I have had no return of it since." (Statement given March, 1910).

On April 17, 1916, Mr. Busch added: "I am permanently cured of my former trouble and Doan's Kidney Pills got the credit."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Busch has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
