

LOCALS

Born to the wife of Sam Ryaer, of Willamette, a daughter. Born to the wife of Luke P. Duffy, of Hoff, Route 1, a daughter. Born to the wife of Alexander Daggert, of Oregon City, Route 2, a son. F. A. Olmsted, of Portland, was in this city on business. He formerly resided here. Born, June 2nd, to the wife of John William Huggins, of Clackamas Heights, a daughter. J. W. Cole, of Liberal, was in this city on business Wednesday. Mr. Cole was formerly in business in this city. John Schram, of Hoff, Route 1, who has been in this city for several days on business, has returned to his home. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, of Portland, are visiting with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hlatt, of Mount Pleasant. Attorney J. R. Latourette, of Portland, was in this city on legal business Tuesday. While here he visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Latourette. Born, May 31st, to the wife of John P. Wilkin, of Oregon City, Route 5, at 5:30 p. m., twin daughters. Mrs. Wilkin was formerly Miss Lizzie Mosler. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harding and little daughter, of Portland, are in this city, where they are guests of Mr. Harding's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Harding. Miss Roberta Schuebel, daughter of Christian Schuebel, returned from Eugene Monday afternoon. Miss Schuebel has been attending the University of Oregon. Mrs. George McLane, who has been visiting in Portland for the past week, where she has been the guest of relatives, returned to her home in this city on Monday. Miss Waldorf, who underwent an operation for removal of adenoids and tonsils at the Oregon City hospital on Tuesday afternoon, was able to leave for her home Wednesday. Mrs. Robert Jonsrud, prominent resident of Kelso, Clackamas county, accompanied by her daughters, Eunice and Dorothy, who have been guests of Mrs. W. A. Barnum, have returned to their home. Mrs. L. D. Williams, of Astoria, has arrived in Oregon City, and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. King, of Mount Pleasant. Mrs. Williams was formerly Miss Elaine King, of Mount Pleasant. Miss Florence White, who has been a student for the past year at the Oregon Agricultural college, returned to Oregon City on Monday evening to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White. Mrs. Theo. McLaren, nee Emma Quins, of Willhoit, arrived in Oregon City on Wednesday, and is to be the guest of her father, W. W. Quins, and family for several weeks. Mr. McLaren is manager of the Willhoit summer resort. Arch Haverstick and Henry Lawler, formerly Oregon City young men, have written to friends and relatives in this city of their safe arrival in New York. These young men have entered the navy, and are enjoying the life of seamen. Born, to the wife of Charles Dougherty, of San Francisco, a son. The youngster was born in Portland, the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty. Mr. Dougherty is well known in Oregon City. Mrs. Dougherty was Miss Delta Chamberlain. W. T. McNulty, of Gladstone, has received a temporary appointment to the United States hydrographic office in Portland. He succeeds his brother, Lieutenant J. McNulty, who has been assigned to active duty as chart officer at Bremerton, Washington. Mrs. C. KleinSmith, one of the prominent pioneer residents of Clackamas county, whose farm is located at Clarkes, was in this city on Tuesday, being accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Marshall, and also her little granddaughter, Zeltha Marshall. Mrs. Aletha Jackson O'Brien and son, Danny, of Portland, accompanied by the former's sister, Miss Ollis Jackson, who has been spending some time in Portland, are visiting their father, J. B. Jackson, of Clairmont. They will remain at Clairmont for several weeks. Born, Saturday, June 2, to the wife of N. R. Charman, of Portland, a nine-pound daughter. She has been given the name of Elsie Jeanette. Mr. Charman is a former Oregon City young man. Mrs. Sophia Charman, of this city, is the grandmother of the new arrival. Mr. and Mrs. Royal J. Niles, of La Grande, Oregon, have arrived in Oregon City, where they are guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Jennie Vincent Niles, of Mount Pleasant. Mr. Niles is principal in the La Grande high school, and will spend part of his vacation in this city. C. A. Miller and family, who have been residing in the residence owned by Joseph M. Justin on Eleventh and Center streets, are moving into the C. T. Tooze residence on Thirteenth and Main streets. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Justin are to take up their residence in their bungalow in a few weeks. W. A. Proctor, county commissioner, whose home is near Sandy, arrived from Willhoit on Wednesday afternoon, and will return to that place on Saturday, where he and his family are to spend several weeks. They have pitched a tent and will camp out. Mr. Proctor made the trip by automobile. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Johnson, of Welser, Idaho, arrived in Oregon City on Tuesday, and will visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Badger, of Beaver Creek, for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were met in this city by Mr. Badger, and made the trip to Beaver Creek over the Willamette Valley Southern railway line. John F. Jennings, of Jennings Lodge, was in this city on business Wednesday.

rection of Miss Louise Huntley, of Portland, a former Oregon City young lady, and daughter of W. A. Huntley. The chorus rendered several selections and Miss Huntley displayed her musical talent as a director on this occasion. She also gave several musical selections on the piano, when Dr. Cushing accompanied her on the pipe organ. Mrs. Ernest Purcell, of Parkplace, formerly Miss Helen Chadbourn, who has been teaching in the Parkplace school, left on Tuesday for southern Oregon, where she will visit her mother. Mrs. Purcell surprised her friends a few weeks ago when she left Parkplace for Hood River, where her marriage took place to Mr. Purcell. The young couple accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Hansell, the latter formerly Miss Myrtle Holmes, as far as Hood River, while the latter were on their way to their home at Moro, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Purcell are to make their home at Moro, where Mr. Purcell has already gone. Theodore Case and Professor Pitts, who are representatives from the Oregon Agricultural college, and who have been in this city in charge of the agricultural survey of Clackamas county, left on Saturday for Corvallis, where they will attend the commencement exercises of the Agricultural college. They will return to this city this week to resume their duties. Alene Boyles, daughter of County Recorder and Mrs. D. C. Boyles, captured the prize for the prettiest baby in the baby show held at the Baptist church on Friday. Alene is a bright little tot with beautiful brown curls. This is the first baby show she has visited. There were 77 children competing. PAVING WILL BE BEGUN ON GRAYS CROSSING ROAD Among the sales that the Oregon City garage has made during the past week was one to Roy Thomas, of Scotts Mills, who purchased a Dodge. Mr. Thomas was in this city, and becoming impressed with the display of automobiles at this garage, decided to purchase a car. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lankins, of Hubbard, who have been in this city, where they have been visiting relatives, including Mr. and Mrs. A. Simmons, parents of Mrs. Lankins, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Catta, left for their home on Saturday morning. Mr. Lankins is manager of the Dimick stock farm. Fred Wourms and daughter, Miss Wourms, of Clairmont, were in this city on Wednesday. Mr. Wourms is to have a sale of his dairy herd at his farm, to dispose of 35 head of his best Jerseys, 20 of which are registered stock, and 15 of high grade. Mr. Wourms has been in the dairy business for the past 17 years, and his herd is made up of some of the best Jerseys in the state. Albert Roake, who has been attending the Oregon Agricultural college, has returned to Oregon City to spend his summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roake, of Ninth and Madison street. Owing to illness Mr. Roake was obliged to return to Oregon City during his college term, but was able to resume his duties in February. He has fully recovered from his serious illness of typhoid fever. Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Hickman, of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Everett Hickman, of Spokane, who have been in this city visiting with Mrs. C. T. Hickman, mother of H. O. and C. Everett Hickman, have returned to their homes. Everett Hickman is now general manager of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company with headquarters in Spokane, and was in Portland on business in connection with his company. V. L. Calavan, who has been principal of the Bolton school for the past three years, and who was re-elected to teach the fall term, has resigned this position, to take charge of his drugstore at Albany. Mr. Calavan and family left for Albany on Thursday, where they formerly resided before taking up their residence here. J. F. Mitts, brother-in-law of Mr. Calavan, has accepted the position made vacant by Mr. Calavan's resignation. T. D. Case, who has been at Corvallis, where he has been attending the commencement exercises of the Oregon Agricultural college, has returned to Oregon City to resume his position with the agricultural survey of Clackamas county under the direction of the national council of defense with the Oregon Agricultural college cooperating. He is making his headquarters at the publicity department of the Oregon Commercial club. Stanley Visselch, of San Francisco, California, arrived in Oregon City on Thursday, and was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Harding. Mr. Visselch is on his way to American Lake, Washington, where he will be a member of the engineering corps that is mobilizing at that point, and will be among first leaving for Europe, when the orders come. He is the son of Mrs. Nellie Visselch, of Stockton, sister of Mr. Harding, and has visited in this city on several occasions. Mr. and Mrs. A. Welch and family arrived in Oregon City on Monday from Grand Island, Nebraska, making the entire trip overland. They have been on the trip for eight months, making many stopovers at interesting points including the Yellowstone National Park, where they remained for 13 days. They are to make their future home in the Molalla country, having come to Oregon for the benefit of Mr. Welch's health, which has already been improved by the change of climate. Among those attending the commencement week exercises at the Reed college, Portland, Monday evening, were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Anderson, of this city. The concert given by the chorus of 40 voices was under the direction of Miss Louise Huntley, of Portland, a former Oregon City young lady, and daughter of W. A. Huntley. The chorus rendered several selections and Miss Huntley displayed her musical talent as a director on this occasion. She also gave several musical selections on the piano, when Dr. Cushing accompanied her on the pipe organ. Mrs. Ernest Purcell, of Parkplace, formerly Miss Helen Chadbourn, who has been teaching in the Parkplace school, left on Tuesday for southern Oregon, where she will visit her mother. Mrs. Purcell surprised her friends a few weeks ago when she left Parkplace for Hood River, where her marriage took place to Mr. Purcell. The young couple accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Hansell, the latter formerly Miss Myrtle Holmes, as far as Hood River, while the latter were on their way to their home at Moro, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Purcell are to make their home at Moro, where Mr. Purcell has already gone. Theodore Case and Professor Pitts, who are representatives from the Oregon Agricultural college, and who have been in this city in charge of the agricultural survey of Clackamas county, left on Saturday for Corvallis, where they will attend the commencement exercises of the Agricultural college. They will return to this city this week to resume their duties. Alene Boyles, daughter of County Recorder and Mrs. D. C. Boyles, captured the prize for the prettiest baby in the baby show held at the Baptist church on Friday. Alene is a bright little tot with beautiful brown curls. This is the first baby show she has visited. There were 77 children competing. PAVING WILL BE BEGUN ON GRAYS CROSSING ROAD Among the sales that the Oregon City garage has made during the past week was one to Roy Thomas, of Scotts Mills, who purchased a Dodge. Mr. Thomas was in this city, and becoming impressed with the display of automobiles at this garage, decided to purchase a car. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lankins, of Hubbard, who have been in this city, where they have been visiting relatives, including Mr. and Mrs. A. Simmons, parents of Mrs. Lankins, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Catta, left for their home on Saturday morning. Mr. Lankins is manager of the Dimick stock farm. Fred Wourms and daughter, Miss Wourms, of Clairmont, were in this city on Wednesday. Mr. Wourms is to have a sale of his dairy herd at his farm, to dispose of 35 head of his best Jerseys, 20 of which are registered stock, and 15 of high grade. Mr. Wourms has been in the dairy business for the past 17 years, and his herd is made up of some of the best Jerseys in the state. Albert Roake, who has been attending the Oregon Agricultural college, has returned to Oregon City to spend his summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roake, of Ninth and Madison street. Owing to illness Mr. Roake was obliged to return to Oregon City during his college term, but was able to resume his duties in February. He has fully recovered from his serious illness of typhoid fever. Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Hickman, of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Everett Hickman, of Spokane, who have been in this city visiting with Mrs. C. T. Hickman, mother of H. O. and C. Everett Hickman, have returned to their homes. Everett Hickman is now general manager of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company with headquarters in Spokane, and was in Portland on business in connection with his company. V. L. Calavan, who has been principal of the Bolton school for the past three years, and who was re-elected to teach the fall term, has resigned this position, to take charge of his drugstore at Albany. Mr. Calavan and family left for Albany on Thursday, where they formerly resided before taking up their residence here. J. F. Mitts, brother-in-law of Mr. Calavan, has accepted the position made vacant by Mr. Calavan's resignation. T. D. Case, who has been at Corvallis, where he has been attending the commencement exercises of the Oregon Agricultural college, has returned to Oregon City to resume his position with the agricultural survey of Clackamas county under the direction of the national council of defense with the Oregon Agricultural college cooperating. He is making his headquarters at the publicity department of the Oregon Commercial club. Stanley Visselch, of San Francisco, California, arrived in Oregon City on Thursday, and was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Harding. Mr. Visselch is on his way to American Lake, Washington, where he will be a member of the engineering corps that is mobilizing at that point, and will be among first leaving for Europe, when the orders come. He is the son of Mrs. Nellie Visselch, of Stockton, sister of Mr. Harding, and has visited in this city on several occasions. Mr. and Mrs. A. Welch and family arrived in Oregon City on Monday from Grand Island, Nebraska, making the entire trip overland. They have been on the trip for eight months, making many stopovers at interesting points including the Yellowstone National Park, where they remained for 13 days. They are to make their future home in the Molalla country, having come to Oregon for the benefit of Mr. Welch's health, which has already been improved by the change of climate. Among those attending the commencement week exercises at the Reed college, Portland, Monday evening, were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Anderson, of this city. The concert given by the chorus of 40 voices was under the direction of Miss Louise Huntley, of Portland, a former Oregon City young lady, and daughter of W. A. Huntley. The chorus rendered several selections and Miss Huntley displayed her musical talent as a director on this occasion. She also gave several musical selections on the piano, when Dr. Cushing accompanied her on the pipe organ. Mrs. Ernest Purcell, of Parkplace, formerly Miss Helen Chadbourn, who has been teaching in the Parkplace school, left on Tuesday for southern Oregon, where she will visit her mother. Mrs. Purcell surprised her friends a few weeks ago when she left Parkplace for Hood River, where her marriage took place to Mr. Purcell. The young couple accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Hansell, the latter formerly Miss Myrtle Holmes, as far as Hood River, while the latter were on their way to their home at Moro, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Purcell are to make their home at Moro, where Mr. Purcell has already gone. Theodore Case and Professor Pitts, who are representatives from the Oregon Agricultural college, and who have been in this city in charge of the agricultural survey of Clackamas county, left on Saturday for Corvallis, where they will attend the commencement exercises of the Agricultural college. They will return to this city this week to resume their duties. Alene Boyles, daughter of County Recorder and Mrs. D. C. Boyles, captured the prize for the prettiest baby in the baby show held at the Baptist church on Friday. Alene is a bright little tot with beautiful brown curls. This is the first baby show she has visited. There were 77 children competing. PAVING WILL BE BEGUN ON GRAYS CROSSING ROAD Among the sales that the Oregon City garage has made during the past week was one to Roy Thomas, of Scotts Mills, who purchased a Dodge. Mr. Thomas was in this city, and becoming impressed with the display of automobiles at this garage, decided to purchase a car. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lankins, of Hubbard, who have been in this city, where they have been visiting relatives, including Mr. and Mrs. A. Simmons, parents of Mrs. Lankins, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Catta, left for their home on Saturday morning. Mr. Lankins is manager of the Dimick stock farm. Fred Wourms and daughter, Miss Wourms, of Clairmont, were in this city on Wednesday. Mr. Wourms is to have a sale of his dairy herd at his farm, to dispose of 35 head of his best Jerseys, 20 of which are registered stock, and 15 of high grade. Mr. Wourms has been in the dairy business for the past 17 years, and his herd is made up of some of the best Jerseys in the state. Albert Roake, who has been attending the Oregon Agricultural college, has returned to Oregon City to spend his summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roake, of Ninth and Madison street. Owing to illness Mr. Roake was obliged to return to Oregon City during his college term, but was able to resume his duties in February. He has fully recovered from his serious illness of typhoid fever. Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Hickman, of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Everett Hickman, of Spokane, who have been in this city visiting with Mrs. C. T. Hickman, mother of H. O. and C. Everett Hickman, have returned to their homes. Everett Hickman is now general manager of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company with headquarters in Spokane, and was in Portland on business in connection with his company. V. L. Calavan, who has been principal of the Bolton school for the past three years, and who was re-elected to teach the fall term, has resigned this position, to take charge of his drugstore at Albany. Mr. Calavan and family left for Albany on Thursday, where they formerly resided before taking up their residence here. J. F. Mitts, brother-in-law of Mr. Calavan, has accepted the position made vacant by Mr. Calavan's resignation. T. D. Case, who has been at Corvallis, where he has been attending the commencement exercises of the Oregon Agricultural college, has returned to Oregon City to resume his position with the agricultural survey of Clackamas county under the direction of the national council of defense with the Oregon Agricultural college cooperating. He is making his headquarters at the publicity department of the Oregon Commercial club. Stanley Visselch, of San Francisco, California, arrived in Oregon City on Thursday, and was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Harding. Mr. Visselch is on his way to American Lake, Washington, where he will be a member of the engineering corps that is mobilizing at that point, and will be among first leaving for Europe, when the orders come. He is the son of Mrs. Nellie Visselch, of Stockton, sister of Mr. Harding, and has visited in this city on several occasions. Mr. and Mrs. A. Welch and family arrived in Oregon City on Monday from Grand Island, Nebraska, making the entire trip overland. They have been on the trip for eight months, making many stopovers at interesting points including the Yellowstone National Park, where they remained for 13 days. They are to make their future home in the Molalla country, having come to Oregon for the benefit of Mr. Welch's health, which has already been improved by the change of climate. Among those attending the commencement week exercises at the Reed college, Portland, Monday evening, were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Anderson, of this city. The concert given by the chorus of 40 voices was under the direction of Miss Louise Huntley, of Portland, a former Oregon City young lady, and daughter of W. A. Huntley. The chorus rendered several selections and Miss Huntley displayed her musical talent as a director on this occasion. She also gave several musical selections on the piano, when Dr. Cushing accompanied her on the pipe organ. Mrs. Ernest Purcell, of Parkplace, formerly Miss Helen Chadbourn, who has been teaching in the Parkplace school, left on Tuesday for southern Oregon, where she will visit her mother. Mrs. Purcell surprised her friends a few weeks ago when she left Parkplace for Hood River, where her marriage took place to Mr. Purcell. The young couple accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Hansell, the latter formerly Miss Myrtle Holmes, as far as Hood River, while the latter were on their way to their home at Moro, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Purcell are to make their home at Moro, where Mr. Purcell has already gone. Theodore Case and Professor Pitts, who are representatives from the Oregon Agricultural college, and who have been in this city in charge of the agricultural survey of Clackamas county, left on Saturday for Corvallis, where they will attend the commencement exercises of the Agricultural college. They will return to this city this week to resume their duties. Alene Boyles, daughter of County Recorder and Mrs. D. C. Boyles, captured the prize for the prettiest baby in the baby show held at the Baptist church on Friday. Alene is a bright little tot with beautiful brown curls. This is the first baby show she has visited. There were 77 children competing. PAVING WILL BE BEGUN ON GRAYS CROSSING ROAD Among the sales that the Oregon City garage has made during the past week was one to Roy Thomas, of Scotts Mills, who purchased a Dodge. Mr. Thomas was in this city, and becoming impressed with the display of automobiles at this garage, decided to purchase a car. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lankins, of Hubbard, who have been in this city, where they have been visiting relatives, including Mr. and Mrs. A. Simmons, parents of Mrs. Lankins, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Catta, left for their home on Saturday morning. Mr. Lankins is manager of the Dimick stock farm. Fred Wourms and daughter, Miss Wourms, of Clairmont, were in this city on Wednesday. Mr. Wourms is to have a sale of his dairy herd at his farm, to dispose of 35 head of his best Jerseys, 20 of which are registered stock, and 15 of high grade. Mr. Wourms has been in the dairy business for the past 17 years, and his herd is made up of some of the best Jerseys in the state. Albert Roake, who has been attending the Oregon Agricultural college, has returned to Oregon City to spend his summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roake, of Ninth and Madison street. Owing to illness Mr. Roake was obliged to return to Oregon City during his college term, but was able to resume his duties in February. He has fully recovered from his serious illness of typhoid fever. Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Hickman, of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Everett Hickman, of Spokane, who have been in this city visiting with Mrs. C. T. Hickman, mother of H. O. and C. Everett Hickman, have returned to their homes. Everett Hickman is now general manager of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company with headquarters in Spokane, and was in Portland on business in connection with his company. V. L. Calavan, who has been principal of the Bolton school for the past three years, and who was re-elected to teach the fall term, has resigned this position, to take charge of his drugstore at Albany. Mr. Calavan and family left for Albany on Thursday, where they formerly resided before taking up their residence here. J. F. Mitts, brother-in-law of Mr. Calavan, has accepted the position made vacant by Mr. Calavan's resignation. T. D. Case, who has been at Corvallis, where he has been attending the commencement exercises of the Oregon Agricultural college, has returned to Oregon City to resume his position with the agricultural survey of Clackamas county under the direction of the national council of defense with the Oregon Agricultural college cooperating. He is making his headquarters at the publicity department of the Oregon Commercial club. Stanley Visselch, of San Francisco, California, arrived in Oregon City on Thursday, and was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Harding. Mr. Visselch is on his way to American Lake, Washington, where he will be a member of the engineering corps that is mobilizing at that point, and will be among first leaving for Europe, when the orders come. He is the son of Mrs. Nellie Visselch, of Stockton, sister of Mr. Harding, and has visited in this city on several occasions. Mr. and Mrs. A. Welch and family arrived in Oregon City on Monday from Grand Island, Nebraska, making the entire trip overland. They have been on the trip for eight months, making many stopovers at interesting points including the Yellowstone National Park, where they remained for 13 days. They are to make their future home in the Molalla country, having come to Oregon for the benefit of Mr. Welch's health, which has already been improved by the change of climate. Among those attending the commencement week exercises at the Reed college, Portland, Monday evening, were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Anderson, of this city. The concert given by the chorus of 40 voices was under the direction of Miss Louise Huntley, of Portland, a former Oregon City young lady, and daughter of W. A. Huntley. The chorus rendered several selections and Miss Huntley displayed her musical talent as a director on this occasion. She also gave several musical selections on the piano, when Dr. Cushing accompanied her on the pipe organ. Mrs. Ernest Purcell, of Parkplace, formerly Miss Helen Chadbourn, who has been teaching in the Parkplace school, left on Tuesday for southern Oregon, where she will visit her mother. Mrs. Purcell surprised her friends a few weeks ago when she left Parkplace for Hood River, where her marriage took place to Mr. Purcell. The young couple accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Hansell, the latter formerly Miss Myrtle Holmes, as far as Hood River, while the latter were on their way to their home at Moro, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Purcell are to make their home at Moro, where Mr. Purcell has already gone. Theodore Case and Professor Pitts, who are representatives from the Oregon Agricultural college, and who have been in this city in charge of the agricultural survey of Clackamas county, left on Saturday for Corvallis, where they will attend the commencement exercises of the Agricultural college. They will return to this city this week to resume their duties. Alene Boyles, daughter of County Recorder and Mrs. D. C. Boyles, captured the prize for the prettiest baby in the baby show held at the Baptist church on Friday. Alene is a bright little tot with beautiful brown curls. This is the first baby show she has visited. There were 77 children competing. PAVING WILL BE BEGUN ON GRAYS CROSSING ROAD Among the sales that the Oregon City garage has made during the past week was one to Roy Thomas, of Scotts Mills, who purchased a Dodge. Mr. Thomas was in this city, and becoming impressed with the display of automobiles at this garage, decided to purchase a car. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lankins, of Hubbard, who have been in this city, where they have been visiting relatives, including Mr. and Mrs. A. Simmons, parents of Mrs. Lankins, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Catta, left for their home on Saturday morning. Mr. Lankins is manager of the Dimick stock farm. Fred Wourms and daughter, Miss Wourms, of Clairmont, were in this city on Wednesday. Mr. Wourms is to have a sale of his dairy herd at his farm, to dispose of 35 head of his best Jerseys, 20 of which are registered stock, and 15 of high grade. Mr. Wourms has been in the dairy business for the past 17 years, and his herd is made up of some of the best Jerseys in the state. Albert Roake, who has been attending the Oregon Agricultural college, has returned to Oregon City to spend his summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roake, of Ninth and Madison street. Owing to illness Mr. Roake was obliged to return to Oregon City during his college term, but was able to resume his duties in February. He has fully recovered from his serious illness of typhoid fever. Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Hickman, of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Everett Hickman, of Spokane, who have been in this city visiting with Mrs. C. T. Hickman, mother of H. O. and C. Everett Hickman, have returned to their homes. Everett Hickman is now general manager of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company with headquarters in Spokane, and was in Portland on business in connection with his company. V. L. Calavan, who has been principal of the Bolton school for the past three years, and who was re-elected to teach the fall term, has resigned this position, to take charge of his drugstore at Albany. Mr. Calavan and family left for Albany on Thursday, where they formerly resided before taking up their residence here. J. F. Mitts, brother-in-law of Mr. Calavan, has accepted the position made vacant by Mr. Calavan's resignation. T. D. Case, who has been at Corvallis, where he has been attending the commencement exercises of the Oregon Agricultural college, has returned to Oregon City to resume his position with the agricultural survey of Clackamas county under the direction of the national council of defense with the Oregon Agricultural college cooperating. He is making his headquarters at the publicity department of the Oregon Commercial club. Stanley Visselch, of San Francisco, California, arrived in Oregon City on Thursday, and was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Harding. Mr. Visselch is on his way to American Lake, Washington, where he will be a member of the engineering corps that is mobilizing at that point, and will be among first leaving for Europe, when the orders come. He is the son of Mrs. Nellie Visselch, of Stockton, sister of Mr. Harding, and has visited in this city on several occasions. Mr. and Mrs. A. Welch and family arrived in Oregon City on Monday from Grand Island, Nebraska, making the entire trip overland. They have been on the trip for eight months, making many stopovers at interesting points including the Yellowstone National Park, where they remained for 13 days. They are to make their future home in the Molalla country, having come to Oregon for the benefit of Mr. Welch's health, which has already been improved by the change of climate. Among those attending the commencement week exercises at the Reed college, Portland, Monday evening, were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Anderson, of this city. The concert given by the chorus of 40 voices was under the direction of Miss Louise Huntley, of Portland, a former Oregon City young lady, and daughter of W. A. Huntley. The chorus rendered several selections and Miss Huntley displayed her musical talent as a director on this occasion. She also gave several musical selections on the piano, when Dr. Cushing accompanied her on the pipe organ. Mrs. Ernest Purcell, of Parkplace, formerly Miss Helen Chadbourn, who has been teaching in the Parkplace school, left on Tuesday for southern Oregon, where she will visit her mother. Mrs. Purcell surprised her friends a few weeks ago when she left Parkplace for Hood River, where her marriage took place to Mr. Purcell. The young couple accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Hansell, the latter formerly Miss Myrtle Holmes, as far as Hood River, while the latter were on their way to their home at Moro, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Purcell are to make their home at Moro, where Mr. Purcell has already gone. Theodore Case and Professor Pitts, who are representatives from the Oregon Agricultural college, and who have been in this city in charge of the agricultural survey of Clackamas county, left on Saturday for Corvallis, where they will attend the commencement exercises of the Agricultural college. They will return to this city this week to resume their duties. Alene Boyles, daughter of County Recorder and Mrs. D. C. Boyles, captured the prize for the prettiest baby in the baby show held at the Baptist church on Friday. Alene is a bright little tot with beautiful brown curls. This is the first baby show she has visited. There were 77 children competing. PAVING WILL BE BEGUN ON GRAYS CROSSING ROAD Among the sales that the Oregon City garage has made during the past week was one to Roy Thomas, of Scotts Mills, who purchased a Dodge. Mr. Thomas was in this city, and becoming impressed with the display of automobiles at this garage, decided to purchase a car. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lankins, of Hubbard, who have been in this city, where they have been visiting relatives, including Mr. and Mrs. A. Simmons, parents of Mrs. Lankins, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Catta, left for their home on Saturday morning. Mr. Lankins is manager of the Dimick stock farm. Fred Wourms and daughter, Miss Wourms, of Clairmont, were in this city on Wednesday. Mr. Wourms is to have a sale of his dairy herd at his farm, to dispose of 35 head of his best Jerseys, 20 of which are registered stock, and 15 of high grade. Mr. Wourms has been in the dairy business for the past 17 years, and his herd is made up of some of the best Jerseys in the state. Albert Roake, who has been attending the Oregon Agricultural college, has returned to Oregon City to spend his summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roake, of Ninth and Madison street. Owing to illness Mr. Roake was obliged to return to Oregon City during his college term, but was able to resume his duties in February. He has fully recovered from his serious illness of typhoid fever. Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Hickman, of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Everett Hickman, of Spokane, who have been in this city visiting with Mrs. C. T. Hickman, mother of H. O. and C. Everett Hickman, have returned to their homes. Everett Hickman is now general manager of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company with headquarters in Spokane, and was in Portland on business in connection with his company. V. L. Calavan, who has been principal of the Bolton school for the past three years, and who was re-elected to teach the fall term, has resigned this position, to take charge of his drugstore at Albany. Mr. Calavan and family left for Albany on Thursday, where they formerly resided before taking up their residence here. J. F. Mitts, brother-in-law of Mr. Calavan, has accepted the position made vacant by Mr. Calavan's resignation. T. D. Case, who has been at Corvallis, where he has been attending the commencement exercises of the Oregon Agricultural college, has returned to Oregon City to resume his position with the agricultural survey of Clackamas county under the direction of the national council of defense with the Oregon Agricultural college cooperating. He is making his headquarters at the publicity department of the Oregon Commercial club. Stanley Visselch, of San Francisco, California, arrived in Oregon City on Thursday, and was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Harding. Mr. Visselch is on his way to American Lake, Washington, where he will be a member of the engineering corps that is mobilizing at that point, and will be among first leaving for Europe, when the orders come. He is the son of Mrs. Nellie Visselch, of Stockton, sister of Mr. Harding, and has visited in this city on several occasions. Mr. and Mrs. A. Welch and family arrived in Oregon City on Monday from Grand Island, Nebraska, making the entire trip overland. They have been on the trip for eight months, making many stopovers at interesting points including the Yellowstone National Park, where they remained for 13 days. They are to make their future home in the Molalla country, having come to Oregon for the benefit of Mr. Welch's health, which has already been improved by the change of climate. Among those attending the commencement week exercises at the Reed college, Portland, Monday evening, were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Anderson, of this city. The concert given by the chorus of 40 voices was under the di-

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES

THE marriage of Miss Veta L. Lankins, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lankins, of Hubbard, and Mr. B. S. Griffin, of Crescent City, California, was solemnized at Albany, Oregon, May 15, in the presence of a few relatives and friends of the contracting parties, among these being Miss Hazel Lankins, sister of the bride, and student of the Oregon Agricultural college. At the present time the young couple are spending their honeymoon in Portland, and before leaving for California will visit the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lankins, of Hubbard. The bride is a most attractive young woman, and has a host of friends in this city, where she made her home a few years ago, when she moved with her parents to Hubbard. She is a graduate of the Oregon City high school, and is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Simmons, well known residents of this city. The bridegroom is a well known young man of Crescent, where he is in business. Margaret Pagenkopf Married Saturday The marriage of Miss Margaret Pagenkopf and Mr. John Kunzman was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. Rev. W. T. Milliken, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated. The bride wore a becoming traveling suit of blue taffeta with hat to match. Mrs. George Ott was matron of honor, and Mr. Ott was best man. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pagenkopf, of Berlin, Germany. She came to the United States about three years ago, and has made her home in this city and in Portland since that time. The bridegroom is a prosperous farmer, and owns a farm at Echodale, where the newlyweds will make their future home, following their honeymoon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Kunzman, of West Linn. The Misses Yexley Entertain at Mt. Pleasant The Misses Lyle and Myrtle Yexley entertained in a charming manner at their home at Mount Pleasant on Monday evening, when a number of their friends were their guests at music and games. During the evening delicious refreshments were served. A most delightful evening was spent. The Yexley home was beautifully decorated in apple blossoms, with many of the pink blossoms artistically arranged in the reception hall and the rooms. The guests of the Misses Yexley were the Misses Dorothy Stafford, Norma Mills, Mable Morgan, Esther Lowther, Genevieve Green, Caris Cross, Hazel Tabor, Mable Lowther, Marie Andersen, Fern Yexley; Messrs. Arthur McDonald, Conrad Vierhus, Clarence Cannon, Graydon Pace, Axel Tabor, Wallace Mass, Jesse Lowther, Thomas Graham, Gordon Fauley, Clyde Singletary. Entertains For Brides-elect Mrs. William Robinson, of West Linn, entertained at her home on Sunday at dinner in honor of the three brides-elect, Miss Aimee Bollack, of Portland, and Miss Bess Warner and Miss Morieta Hickman, of this city, who are to be June brides. The Robinson home was attractively decorated with spring blossoms and ferns, and the table decorations were unique and appropriate. Places were laid for Miss Morieta Hickman, Miss Aimee Bollack, Miss Bess Warner, Miss C. Barclay Pratt, Miss Zida Goldsmith, Mrs. J. N. Wisner and Mrs. Edwin Stuart, of Portland. MRS. HURLEY, AN OREGON PIONEER, VISITING HERE Mrs. Mary Hurley, one of the early pioneers, who recently arrived in Portland from Coronado, California, where she has been for the past six years visiting her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Davis, was in Oregon City on Wednesday, as a guest at the home of her niece, Mrs. Charles C. Habcock, she also visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary McCarver, one of the earliest Oregon pioneers. Mrs. Hurley was accompanied to this city by her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Labowitch and the latter's son, David, of Portland, with whom she is to spend the summer. Mrs. Hurley came across the plains in 1845 by ox team with her parents, the late General and Mrs. M. M. McCarver, and settled on what was known as the McCarver donation land claim, which is now the Warner farm at Mount Pleasant. Mrs. McCarver has resided in Oregon most of her life. LOCAL YOUTH FALLS IN LINE; "BUYS A BOND" The youngest patriot of Oregon City to help his country by investing in the liberty loan fund is Lloyd Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Anderson. The little fellow, who is six years of age, has $50 invested in the government's gilt-edged securities and is helping win the war. DIVORCES SPEED UP AFTER HOLIDAY; THREE FILED AND ONE GRANTED The circuit court resumed its divorce operations again Thursday with renewed vigor when four divorce complaints were filed and one was granted. Augustus B. Vehr asks for a divorce from Gerhald A. Vehr, whom she married in Cincinnati, Ohio, June 21, 1901. Mrs. Vehr claims that her husband abused her, and with the divorce she asks the property rights of each be established. Lena P. Caldwell, who married William H. Caldwell at Anadarko, Oklahoma, May 21, 1906, asks that she be given a divorce and Mary Steinkamp wants to be separated from her husband because she says that he is a drunkard. Mr. Steinkamp is a hotel keeper and is able to pay $40 a month alimony, says his wife. Mrs. Steinkamp also asks the custody of the two children, George, 17, and Elwin, 13 years of age. Hannah Kimbley asks a divorce from H. C. Kimbley on a charge of abuse. Besides the divorce she wants $3000 permanent alimony and $250 at attorney's fees. Abuse and desertion are the charges. Circuit Judge Campbell granted a divorce to Lillie M. Trigg from Parker H. Trigg and granted her the use of her maiden name of Lillie Morse. BACKS CAR THRU PLATE GLASS BUT ESCAPES UNHURT William Trudell, salesman for the independent garage of this city, backed his automobile through the plate glass window of the pool room owned by Huerth & Sondergaard, in the Commercial club building, Tuesday afternoon, and although pieces of glass weighing as high as five and six pounds showered about his head, he escaped without injury. The value of the glass is placed at about $175. Mr. Trudell had parked his machine in front of the building on Eighth street, and when he started to leave, the car slowly moved backward until the top, which was folded down, went through the large plate glass window. FOUR GRADUATE FROM SCHOOL AT WILLAMETTE Diplomas were presented to four students, Vivian Bartholomew, Marvin Woodfolk, Fred Junken and Lynn Van Cleave, at the Willamette high school Friday night. The program follows: Selection, orchestra; salutatory, Vivian Bartholomew; violin solo, Mr. Theroux; oration, "The Immigration Problem," Marvin Woodfolk; Vocal solo, Miss Morieta Hickman; essay, "Patriotism," Vivian Bartholomew; selection, orchestra; Valedictory, Fred Junken; selection, orchestra; presentation of diplomas, Mr. C. R. Wilson; selection, orchestra. LOCAL GUN CLUB WILL MEET TEAM FROM WOODBURN Preparations are being made by the members of the Canemah Gun club of this city to meet the Woodburn Gun club here Sunday. This will be the final shoot of the Willamette-Columbia Valley shoot for the Oregonian trophy. Woodburn now stands at the head of the league and if Oregon City wins it will mean a considerable boost for the local trapshooters. GRADUATE FROM REED Ambrose Brownell, youngest son of Hon. George C. Brownell, and Garvin Broomfield, son of Rev. Thomas Broomfield, of Gladstone, were graduated this week with degrees of bachelor of arts from Reed college. Broomfield majored in chemistry, and Brownell in mathematics. FIRE DESTROYS BOLTON HOME. The combined efforts of the Bolton volunteer fire department and employees of the Crown Willamette Paper company failed to extinguish a fire which destroyed the home of David Anderson at Bolton Tuesday evening. The loss is estimated to be in the neighborhood of $700, with no insurance. MARRIAGE LICENSE ISSUED A marriage license was issued here Friday to Gladys L. Tweedie and Lundy M. Case, of Woodburn, Oregon, route 3. SCHOOL PUPILS ARE GIVEN TRIP OVER HIGHWAY Saturday, June 2, will long be remembered by the students of the Parkplace school. About 7:30 in the morning about thirty patrons and students of the school assembled at the Grange hall and left for the Columbia Highway. All enjoyed the trip greatly, although it rained part of the time. Kodak views were taken at Horsetail Falls and at Crown Point. Lunch was eaten at Multnomah Falls. Three teachers were present, Miss Amrine, Miss Hanson and Miss Anderson, also Miss Amrine's sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Bernier, Mrs. Charley Smith and Viola Hays. The students present were Edna Butta, Elvera Himer, Wilbur Hays, Agnes Hays, Harrison Lucas, Harold Bernier, Cecil Greene, Leslie LeDaux, Josephine Holschi, Florence Holschi, Elma Smith, Norma Smith, Dorothy Cummings, Edwin Riley, Jennie Wilderman, Pierce Day, Sylvia Forsythe, Pauline Hastings, La Verne Carlyle, Etta Carlyle, and Luellen Dauchy. They were driven to their destination by A. E. Hansen. WOMAN, REPORTED AS INSANE, PROVES THAT SHE WAS ONLY ANGRY Grace Repass was given another chance Friday by County Judge Anderson and an examining physician, to prove that she could control her temper. Upon the request of neighbors who claimed she was insane, she was brought to this city Friday and examined to prove her sanity. It was shown that it was only an uncontrollable temper that was responsible for her outbursts. Mrs. Rogers is married and was committed to the custody of her husband on probation. Her home is at Clackamas Heights. AGED CIVIL WAR VETERAN IS TO BE BURIED HERE Louis Jackson Hylton, of Mulino, died at that place this morning at the age of 81 years, and the remains were brought to this city, where they are at the Holman undertaking parlors, from which place the funeral services will be conducted on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Rev. W. T. Milliken, pastor of the Baptist church, of this city, officiating. The interment will be in the Mountain View cemetery. Mr. Hylton is to be buried in a silver plated metal casket. Mr. Hylton, who was a Confederate soldier, was a native of Vermont. He came to Oregon twenty-eight years ago, having been a resident of Twilight, Clackamas county thirteen years. He is survived by his wife, who is making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Laura Hendricks, of Mulino; three sons, Louis J. Hylton, of Oregon City; James Hylton, of Twilight; Dennis Hylton, of Mulino; three daughters, Mrs. Anna Earl, of Albany; Mrs. S. B. Strong, of Eugene; and Mrs. Laura Hendricks, of Mulino. YOUNG BOY DIES SATURDAY AFTER MONTH'S ILLNESS George LaVerne Vedder, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Vedder, died at the family home at Gladstone Saturday morning at 5:45 o'clock, after an illness of forty days, suffering from inflammatory rheumatism and complications. Although suffering extreme pain for the past forty days, the little fellow retained his mental faculties until his death, and was unusually patient. He was a general favorite of the neighborhood in which he has resided since his birth. George LaVerne Vedder was born at Gladstone, January 19, 1912. He was unusually bright for his age. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Vedder, the former one time superintendent of Gladstone school, and now school supervisor of Clackamas county; three brothers, Eugene, Deane and Wayne Vedder, one sister Lola, all of Gladstone. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, well known residents of Scotts Mills. The funeral services are to be conducted at the Christian church at Scotts Mills Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, with Rev. Oliver Curtis, of Gladstone, officiating. The interment will take place in the family lot in Scotts Mills. The family will leave here about 10 o'clock Sunday morning for Scotts Mills, their former home. EDMUND HILL DIES. Edmund E. Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Hill, died at the family home at 903 John Adams street, May 25th, and on Sunday, May 28th the funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Episcopal church at Dundee, where the body had been shipped by Myers & Brady undertaking establishment of this city. Edmund Hill died on his 16th birthday anniversary, from tubercular meningitis. He was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Hill, who formerly resided at Dundee, where he had spent most of his life. MARRIAGE LICENSE ISSUED A marriage license was issued here Wednesday to Lillian Wink and W. G. Hall, of Oregon City. BODY OF YOUNG BOY KILLED BY TRAIN IS BROUGHT TO HIS HOME The remains of the late Frank M. Bennett Jr., youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Bennett, of Willamette, who was killed by a train in California, arrived in this city from Yreka, California, Saturday morning and are at the Holman undertaking parlors. The funeral services are to be held from the undertaking parlors Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when Rev. Abbott, of Salem, will officiate. Interment will be in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. The lad had applied to enter the navy, but owing to his age, was rejected, and it is thought that he was on his way to see his brother, Vestal, who is in the navy. The boy was riding in front of the baggage car of the first section of train No. 13, and he was thrown under the wheels of the car, and his left leg was amputated below the knee. He was taken to the hospital at Yreka, California, where he was given medical attention, and was conscious for one and one-half hours before he died. He informed the nurse in the hospital the name of his parents and their address. He also told the nurse that the brakeman had thrown him from the moving train soon after the train had left Weed