

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kirchem and daughter, of Logan, motored to this city on Monday, where they transacted business.

Ralph Madison, of Medford, has enlisted in the Coast artillery, and will soon leave to take up his duties. Mr. Madison is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Madison, the former a real estate man of this city, whose home is at Medford.

Miss Celia Spotts, who has been instructor in drawing in the Oregon City high school, has gone to North Yakima, Wash., where she will visit for a brief time, and from there will go to Seattle, Wash., her home. Miss Spotts is to teach in Seattle next year, commencing her work in the fall.

Mrs. H. D. Calkins, who resides on Route 1, Oregon City, while engaged in running a potato planter, had the misfortune to crush two fingers so that it was necessary to amputate one of the fingers. Drs. H. B. and Guy Mount of this city attended the injured woman. The other fingers of the hand were saved, although terribly lacerated.

O. O. Dillman, the real estate dealer of this city, is erecting a bungalow on his farm property at Mount Pleasant, which when completed will be one of the most attractive homes at that place. The building is to have six rooms, bath and sleeping porch, electric lights. Mr. Dillman has 17 1/2 acres of land in his property, most of which is under cultivation.

Miss Adah Mass left by train on Saturday evening for California, where she will remain until the fall term of the Oregon City schools commences. Miss Mass having been rejected to teach here. Miss Mass will first visit with friends and relatives at San Francisco, and from there will go to Ruthford, where she will visit, and later to Knob, in the Siskiyou mountains, where she will visit her great-grandmother, Mrs. Shelton.

H. H. Eccles, of Canby, one of the prominent residents of that place, was in this city on Monday on his way to Portland. Mr. Eccles accompanied his wife to Portland, where she will undergo a surgical operation this morning for chronic appendicitis. Mrs. Eccles is at the St. Vincent's hospital and the operation is to be performed by Dr. E. A. Sommer, of Portland. Mr. Eccles will remain in Portland with his wife for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Fisher, of Fishersdale farm, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Tipton and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Salisbury formed a motoring party that went to Washington county on Sunday, and visited with friends at Shoals. The party states that some of the finest farms that they have seen are in that section of Washington county, and that many of the farmers are now engaged in the walnut culture. One of the largest walnut farms in the state of Washington is located here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Badger, of Beaver Creek, were in this city on Saturday, and were accompanied here by Mr. and Mrs. Alec Johnston, of Weiser, Idaho, who are their guests, and who are on their way to California, where they are to visit. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston are also friends of J. E. China, of this city, who is connected with the Jones Drug company. Mr. Johnston is an instructor in the Inter Mountain Institute, of Weiser, being the head of the institution. This institution is the means of many young men securing an education, as terms are offered them in which they may work out a portion of their tuition. There are 150 acres of land surrounding the institution, and much of this is devoted to planting of various crops, thus giving the students an opportunity to engage in farming if they so desire. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston have visited in Clackamas county before, and are much impressed with the climate.

Jake Risley, member of the famous University of Oregon championship football team, a holder of the center place on the mythical All-northwest football team for three years, was married Wednesday afternoon at Springfield, Oregon, to Miss Frances Mann, of that town. Mr. Risley's home is at Risley station near Milwaukie.

Only a few friends and relatives of the bride and groom were present at the wedding which took place at the home of Miss Mann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Mann. Mrs. Risley graduated from the University of Oregon Congregational church of Eugene, performed the marriage ceremony. The bride wore a traveling suit and immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Risley station where they will make their future home several days ago.

Risley has played varsity ball at the University of Oregon for three years and during his prep school days was a member of the Hill Military academy team of Portland.

The ceremony was kept secret from all of the students except Mr. Risley's sister, and DeWitt Gilbert, a fraternity brother of Mr. Risley's. The groom is a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity and the bride is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. The Rev. Spaulzer, pastor of the

FIVE SEEK DIVORCES FROM THEIR MATES; JUDGE ALLOWS ONE

Five dissatisfied parties to marriage contracts sought freedom Thursday in complaints filed with County Clerk Iva M. Harrington. Circuit Judge J. U. Campbell granted a divorce to Alice Zoe Holton from Albert M. Holton. The wife was also given the custody of the daughter.

Joseph Bishell is suing his wife, Minnie Bishell for a divorce on the grounds of desertion. They were married at Darlington, Wis., in February, 1900, and have two children. Several years after the marriage Bishell came to the Pacific Coast and secured employment with the P. R. L. & P. company, and a year later tried to get his wife to come here to live with him. This she refused to do.

Belle Wallace charges her husband Joseph Wallace with cruelty, in a complaint asking for a divorce. They were married here in 1911.

Beulah C. Oeking also alleges abuse in her complaint against her husband, J. A. Oeking.

Fannie Lawies charges abuse of herself and her three children, in a complaint for a divorce from her husband C. H. Lawies. The children are the step-children of Mr. Lawies and one of them, a girl 15 years old, is a cripple. The Lawies were married at Barlow January, 1913. Mrs. Lawies asks for divorce, custody of the children, $50 a month alimony and $100 attorney's fees.

Bessie C. Tompkins asks that she be divorced from Lloyd F. Tompkins, because she claims that he abuses her. She asks a divorce, the custody of the three children and $20 a month.

HUSBAND WANTS TO BE FREED FROM WIFE WHO THREATENED LIFE

Charging that his wife abused him, threatened his life with a gun, made life miserable for him and left him a nervous wreck, J. A. Coventon Monday filed suit for divorce from his wife, Etta B. Coventon. They were married December 24, 1901, at The Dalles.

C. D. Stringer is suing Peter Hefty for $150 due him, he claims, on a promissory note assigned to him by Frits Boysen, one-time proprietor of the Hotel Belle at Milwaukie.

Arthur Schroeder was appointed administrator of the estate of his wife, Marguerite Schroeder, who died at the state hospital Wednesday, by Judge J. U. Campbell Monday. The estate is made up of personal property valued at $1500 and real property valued at $2000.

The will of Synneva Hauglum, who died at Boring, April 25, was admitted to probate Monday morning.

OREGON CITY WOMEN IN KANSAS

Mrs. Ernest E. and Mrs. Clifford B. Smith, formerly the Misses Mary and Laura Convers, of this city, are now in Kansas City where they are active in women's club work, through the Athenaeum club.

Mrs. Mary Smith is at the head of the department of music, and Laura is editor of the Mentor, a club magazine. The club has recently built a magnificent club house, "The Athenaeum" on the general plan of the Oregon City public library but with the basement above ground. The building was financed by sales of shares of stock, representing an investment of $50,000.

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES

A beautiful wedding ceremony was performed in Portland on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Bollack, formerly of Oregon City, when their daughter Miss Aimee Goldina, became the wife of Mr. Robert A. Asher, of Sacramento. The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rabbi Jonah Wise, of Portland, in the presence of about 50 relatives and a few intimate friends.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, rendered by Miss Celia Goldsmith, of this city, an aunt of the bride, the bridal party entered the living room, which was a bower of beauty with its decorations of sweet peas and roses, the color scheme of this room being pink and green. Beneath a canopy of roses and ferns, from which was suspended the wedding bell made of rose petals, the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Edmond Bollack, brother of the bride, waited for the bride party. The bridesmaids, Miss Meta Goldsmith and Miss Frieda Goldsmith, of Eugene, preceded the maid of honor, Miss Zida Goldsmith, of this city, aunt of the bride, followed by the bride and her father, Max Bollack.

Beneath the wedding bell the impressive ceremony was performed, at the conclusion of which Rabbi Wise, by means of a silken cord attached to the bell, showered the bridegroom and his bride with pink rose petals. The marriage ceremony was followed by a reception which about 60 attended. Refreshments were served, and, in cutting the bride's cake, the ring was discovered by Miss Helen Daulton, while Miss Dolly Pratt found the thimble.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white tulle, and her long tulle veil was trimmed with lace which her grandmother, the late Mrs. Bollack, wore many years ago in Paris, while the wreath of dainty orange blossoms, which held it in place, was worn by her mother on her wedding day. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and dainty jasmine blossoms.

The maid of honor, Miss Zida Goldsmith, wore a becoming gown of white net over white tulle, and carried pink carnations. Miss Meta Goldsmith, bridesmaid, was attractive in her gown of cloth of silver, embellished with silver lace. She carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Frieda Goldsmith, bridesmaid, wore a dainty gown of white chiffon with trimmings of silver lace, and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. The pretty gowns and the decorations of the living and dining rooms, which were in green and pink, with roses, sweet peas, ferns, smilax and huckleberry foliage used in profusion, made a most attractive sight.

Mr. and Mrs. Asher were presented with many handsome gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Asher are to remain in Portland during the Rose Show, and next week will leave for their future home at Sacramento.

The bride moved to Portland from this city about 11 years ago with her parents, and since taking up her residence in that city has been employed as bookkeeper for the Neustadter factory. She is well and favorably known in this city, where she has many friends, and many social events were given in her honor in this city, as well as in Portland before her marriage.

The bridegroom is the son of J. Asher, of Sacramento, who was in this city to attend the wedding. Mr. Asher is employed as buyer and sales manager of the toggery department of Nathan & Company, of Sacramento.

Engagement of Miss Howell Announced.

Mrs. David Catto, of Gladstone, announced the engagement of her niece, Miss Vera Howell, of this city, and Mr. LeRoy Eaton, also of this city, in a very pretty manner at her home on Tuesday afternoon. The young ladies were hidden by unique invitations, and upon their arrival at the Catto home the rooms were found to be most appropriately decorated. Red and green were used as the color scheme. Festoons of hearts were used most artistically, while huge bunches of bright colored peonies were arranged in large bowls and baskets.

Mrs. Catto served a delicious luncheon during the afternoon, and was assisted in serving by Miss Naldeen Blanchard, of Gladstone.

The guests were Miss Eloise Alldredge, Miss Ethel Alldredge, Miss Helen Howell, Miss Ethel Younger, Miss Naldeen Blanchard.

The marriage of the young people, who are well known in this city, will take place on Sunday, June 24th.

The bride-elect is the only daughter of Mr. and G. J. Howell, of Fourteenth and Jackson streets. She is a most attractive and accomplished young woman, and has many friends in this city, where she has resided all of her life.

Mr. Eaton was for some time connected with the Enterprise, and later was employed by the Portland Railway, Light & Power company in this city until a few months ago when he accepted a position with the Northwestern Steel company in Portland. He makes his home in this city. He is a brother of Attorney Clarence Eaton, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Eaton, of Canemah.

Red Cross to Benefit From Fete.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Warner are to entertain at their pretty home at Mount Pleasant on Wednesday evening, May 27th, with a strawberry fete, the proceeds to be given toward the Red Cross fund. Members of the Red Cross society of this city and of the National Honor guards, as well as some of the women of Mount Pleasant are to assist. A musical and literary program is to be given during the evening, and there are other surprises that are in store for those who attend.

There will be strawberries served with cream, cake and coffee. One of the features of the affair will be a delicatesse table, where eatables from some of the best cooks in the county will be on sale.

The hospitable home of the Warners at Mount Pleasant is a suitable place for an affair of this kind, and many are planning to attend the fete from this city.

Wink-Hall Marriage Solemnized Sunday

The marriage of Mrs. Lillian Wink of New Era, and Mr. W. G. Hall, of Oregon City, was solemnized at the Baptist church, on Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock, with Rev. W. T. Milliken, pastor, officiating. Those witnessing the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Snyder, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Downey, of Willamette; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mack, of Portland, and Arthur Wink, of New Era, son of the bride.

Following the marriage ceremony a motoring trip was made on the Columbia River highway, by the bridal party and a delicious dinner was enjoyed at the Chanticleer Inn. Upon the return to this city, the bridal party left for the home of the bride at New Era, where about 70 friends had congregated to give the newlyweds a surprise. Gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Hall, and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Hall is one of the prominent residents of New Era, where she has resided for some time, and is an active worker in the Warner Grange. She has a large circle of friends in this city, where she has visited on many occasions.

Mr. Hall has been in business for many years in Oregon City, and served as councilman for several years.

Miss Myrtle Buchanan Married at Weiser, Idaho

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Buchanan, formerly of Oregon City, and Mr. Oscar Ebersold, of Columbus, Ohio, was solemnized at Weiser, Idaho, Thursday, May 31. Miss Buchanan has made her home at Lebanon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Buchanan, for the past two years.

The bride is well known in Oregon City, where she has a host of friends. While a resident of Oregon City, she served as librarian of the city library for some time. For the past six months she has been attending a business college in Portland, and from there went to Weiser, where her marriage to Mr. Ebersold took place.

Mr. and Mrs. Ebersold are to make their future home at Huntington, Oregon, where the former is in business.
