

LOCALS

Horn, June 19th, to the wife of J. P. Hult, a daughter.

Born, Saturday, June 16, to the wife of Adolph Friedrich, of Logan, a daughter.

Horn, June 20th to the wife of Percy E. Jones, of Oregon City, Route 2, a daughter.

Mrs. Emma Brundridge, of Beaver Creek, was in this city on business Saturday.

Horn, June 19th, to the wife of A. H. Rottler, of 191 High street, Oregon City, a daughter.

M. Meyer, one of the prominent farmers of Aurora, route 2, was in this city on business on Saturday.

Otto Meindl, merchant of Clackamas Heights, has purchased a five passenger Chevrolet, from the Independent garage.

Z. Ellingsen, of Oregon City, Route 4, has purchased a five passenger Chevrolet automobile from the Independent garage.

August Heller, of Doring, Route 2, purchased a five passenger Chevrolet automobile during the past week from the Independent garage.

C. G. Millard, of Milwaukie, Route 1, purchased a five passenger Chevrolet automobile during the past week from the Independent garage.

N. Askjar, a well known farmer of the Beaver Creek section, is among the latest automobile enthusiasts. He purchased a five passenger Chevrolet on Wednesday.

William Marshall, of Clarks, prominent farmer of that section, was among the purchasers of a five passenger Chevrolet automobile during the past week. The Independent garage made the sale.

Mrs. Fred Gerber, of Logan, accompanied by Mrs. T. E. Anderson and the latter's little daughter, Ernestine, also of Logan, were in this city on Wednesday, where they visited with friends and transacted business.

T. J. Gary, principal of the Brooklyn school, Portland, is moving his family back to Willamette, where they are to spend the summer. Mr. Gary has property interests at Willamette.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howell and sons Raymond and Richard, accompanied by Mrs. William Smith, Kenneth and Edward Swanson, motored to Clear Creek on Sunday, where they enjoyed a picnic.

H. M. Eccles, of Canby, was in this city on Saturday on his way to his home from Portland, where he has been at the bedside of his wife, who underwent a surgical operation at the St. Vincent's hospital on Tuesday for chronic appendicitis. Mrs. Eccles is improving.

Mrs. Merle Dimick, who has been in this city visiting with Judge and Mrs. Grant B. Dimick, of Thirteenth and Main streets, has returned to her home at Hubbard. Miss Dimick has just completed a term of school at Hubbard. She is a niece of Judge and Mrs. Dimick.

Lee Harding left this week for American Lake, Wash., where he will be employed in government construction work. During Mr. Harding's absence, his wife and infant daughter will remain in this city at the home of Mr. Harding's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Harding.

Miss Bees Warner leaves this morning for Portland, from where she will go to her future home at Sault St. Marie, Canada, where she will be united in marriage to Mr. Albert Cooke. She has been the motif for many enjoyable social functions in honor of her approaching marriage.

Charles W. Risley, prominent resident of Clackamas county, whose beautiful farm is located near Risley station, was among those who purchased automobiles during the past week. He bought a Cadillac Eight, seven passenger. The machine was purchased from the Miller-Parker Company.

Elbert Charman, who has enlisted as stenographer in the engineering corps, and Earl Hutchinson, also in the engineering corps, will leave today to take up their duties at American Lake, Wash. Harold Swafford, who also enlisted, and who has gone to American Lake is supply sergeant of Company E.

Born, on Sunday evening at 10 o'clock, June 17, to the wife of William Hammond, of Gladstone, a daughter, weight seven pounds. This is the first daughter in the Hammond family, and the parents and three little brothers are the proudest people in Gladstone. The little one has been given the name of Marceline Dorothy.

Ed Fortune, who has been at Condon, Waitburg and Union, where he had charge of the races held at the horse shows there, returned to Oregon City on Sunday evening. Mr. Fortune will soon start work on his racing program for the fall fairs, one of which is to be held at the Clackamas county fairs grounds at Canby in September.

Arthur Pank, of Redland, one of the prominent young farmers of that place, who purchased a Chevrolet five passenger automobile last week from the Independent garage of this city, was in Oregon City on business Saturday.

Mr. Pank says that his car is giving perfect satisfaction, and he has enjoyed many drives since purchasing it.

Miss Mattie Juhnke, of this city, left on Wednesday morning for Brunswick, North Dakota, where she will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stelber, and their little daughter, Gwendy Jane, who was born on June 13th. Mrs. Stelber was formerly Miss Anna Juhnke, of this city. Miss Juhnke will spend the summer at Brunswick, her former home.

Charles Menks, of the Oregon City garage, motored to the Ringo farm, about four miles beyond Beaver Creek, taking with him a passenger. Mrs. Ringo's sister, who will visit at the Ringo farm for several weeks. Her home is in the Tillamook county. The trip was made in a Dodge automobile, of which the Oregon City garage is agent in this city.

Mrs. B. M. Ramsby, of Dickey's Prairie, near Molalla, accompanied by her son, Chauncey E. Ramsby, were in this city on Monday, where they transacted business, and also visited with friends. The Ramsbys have one of the best farms in the Molalla country, and are devoting much of their attention to raising turkeys for the holiday market.

F. B. Madison, a real estate man of this city, but whose home is near Mel-drum, is one of those who can boast of having the earliest potatoes. These are now ready for use, and he does not have to pay the $3 or $3.50 per bushel for last year's potatoes. Mr. Madison has one of the best home gardens in the county, and in February commenced preparing his garden.

Lloyd O. Harding, who left this city for the Presidio, San Francisco, where he enlisted in the officers' reserve corps, has been given the commission of second lieutenant in Company Eight, Officers' Reserve Corps. Mr. Harding resigned his position as instructor in the Oregon City high school to enlist. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harding, of this city.

Mrs. W. G. Hall, nee Mrs. Lillie Wink, of New Era, was in Oregon City on Friday, accompanying her son, Arthur Wink as far as Portland, where he has enlisted in the navy. Mrs. Hall's two sons are now serving Uncle Sam, Earl Wink being a member of the Third Oregon regiment. He also went to the Mexican border when the Oregon City company was called there.

W. J. Wheaton, formerly caretaker of the Oglie Mountain mine, who has spent the winter in this city, will return to the mountain today. He expects to spend some time near the Table Rock belt in the Cascades, because the valley climate does not agree with his health. Mr. Wheaton intends to hunt bear for a while until the snow goes off sufficiently to allow him to prospect.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Asher, of Portland, were in this city on Friday, where they visited the latter's grandmother, Mrs. A. Goldsmith and family. Mr. and Mrs. Asher, who are spending their honeymoon in Portland, will leave for Eugene this morning and will spend the day with relatives, leaving this evening for their future home at Sacramento. Mrs. Asher was formerly Miss Almee Bollack.

Kent Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, of this city, who is sergeant in the hospital corps stationed at Vancouver Barracks, was in this city on Thursday, where he visited with his parents. Wilson went to Mosier a few days ago, bringing Milton N. Miller, an Oregon City young man, who was seriously injured a few days ago at Mosier, to the hospital at Vancouver Barracks, where he will receive medical attention.

Edmond Bollack, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Bollack, of Portland, who formerly resided in this city, left on Tuesday evening for Mare Island, where he will enter the marine service. Many of his friends in this city were at the train to bid him farewell. He is the grandson of Mrs. A. Goldsmith, of this city. He resigned his position in Portland to enlist. Eight young men, bound for the marine service, accompanied him.

Roy Grace, of Tacoma, Wash., has arrived in this city and is the guest of his step-sisters, the Misses Florence and Mary Ellen Grace, and also his stepbrother, William J. Wilson, of Eighth and Washington streets. Mr. Grace has enlisted in the ambulance corps, and will visit in this city until orders are received from the government. He is well known in this city, where he resided most of his life, and has many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Dallas, of Damascus, were in this city on Friday, having come here to bid farewell to the latter's son, S. H. Rankin, who left Friday afternoon for Vancouver Barracks, where he has enlisted in the hospital corps. Mrs. Dallas' other son, John D. Rankin, who was a student of the Oregon City high school, and who graduated from that institution this year, is at Goat Island, where he has enlisted in the hospital corps. He is pleased with the training he is receiving.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Baxter and daughter, Miss Elda, of this city, accompanied by Mrs. Cal Barclay and daughter, of Spokane, Wash., who are their guests in this city, motored to the Garfield Country club. They were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Milt Kamble, of Highland, and Miss Ethel Frost. The party will spend today fishing in the Clackamas, and expect to bring a long string of fish to Oregon City this evening. While at Estacada they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Huxley and Mrs. Sarah Wilcox. Mrs. Wilcox is the mother of Mrs. Baxter.

Fred Wourms, of Clairmont, the well known dairyman of that place, was in this city on business Wednesday. Mr. Wourms, recently held a sale of his dairy farm, and among the purchasers were Thomas Withycombe, of Gaston, Oregon, brother of Governor James Withycombe. Mr. Withycombe purchased ten head of Jerseys, the highest price being paid was $150, but as the prices were almost too low to suit the owner of the livestock, the sale was called off, except for those already bought. Mr. Wourms shipped to Gaston on Tuesday for the Withycombe stock farm a Jersey heifer calf six months' old, the price being $100. This young animal attracted much attention when brought to this city, especially by those who are lovers of good livestock.

W. H. Douglass, road supervisor of Barton, Route 1, was in this city on business Tuesday.

Fred Kamrath, prominent resident of Clackamas county, was in this city on business Tuesday. Mr. Kamrath's farm is located near New Era.

Born, Monday evening, June 18th, to the wife of Dennis Buynes, of Green-point, a daughter, who has been given the name of Gladys June. Mrs. Buynes was formerly Miss Myrtle Mayo.

Roy Stafford, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stafford, of Mount Pleasant, who has been visiting his parents for a few days, left on Monday for American Lake, having enlisted in the engineering corps. Mr. Stafford has been connected with the Gerlinger company, of Portland, and resigned his position to enlist for his country.

G. W. N. Taylor, one of the Oregon pioneers, who came across the plains in 1855, was in this city on Tuesday, where he visited with friends. Mr. Taylor is always a visitor at the annual pioneers' reunion held in Portland, and not knowing that the date of this year's affair had been changed made the trip to Portland, to attend the 1917 celebration. Because the building in which it is to be held is not completed, the reunion has been postponed until July 18. Mr. Taylor is residing in what is known as Paradise City, near Harlow. Mr. Taylor states that the strawberry crop is most favorable for the growers this year, and the picking will commence today. His son, John J. Taylor, has about five acres in berries of the Oregon Improved and the Clarkes, two of the best varieties to be marketed.

The marriage of Miss Jennie Noble, formerly of this city, and daughter of Mrs. John W. Noble, of Fresno, and Mr. John Stahl, of Fresno, was solemnized in that city on June 19. The young couple are now on their honeymoon, and will make their future home at Fresno.

The bride is well known in this city, where she attended the Oregon City schools, graduating from the same, and later taught school. She is a most accomplished young woman. Mrs. Stahl is the eldest sister of E. J. Noble, of this city.

Former Oregon City Girl is Married. The marriage of Miss Mary Christine Waddock and Mrs. Charles O'Malley, of Portland, was solemnized in Portland on Thursday afternoon. They will make that city their future home.

The bride is a former resident of Oregon City, being the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waddock, and has many friends here. She was an active worker in the St. John's Catholic church when residing in this city.

Miss Bachmann's Engagement Announced. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bachmann, of Clackamas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Anna, to Joseph W. Wornstaff, of Bend, Oregon. The wedding is to take place this summer.

INSANE MAN IS ARRESTED HERE AFTER ESCAPE. Roy Wiggins, arrested Monday on complaint of members of the Oregon National Guard stationed at Clackamas, was found to be an escaped lunatic of the Steilacoom asylum, at Steilacoom, Wash., and returned to the authorities from that place. Constable Jack Frost and Deputy Sheriff Joyner made the arrest. Officials from Steilacoom met the local officers at Vancouver, Wash.

REFUSAL TO STOP BRINGS CLERK A FINE OF $25. Because he rode his motorcycle at what Motorcyle Officer H. E. Meads claimed was 45 miles an hour and refused to stop when ordered to do so by the officer, C. Case paid a fine of $25 Monday in justice court here. C. W. Hubb was fined $10, and Fred Swartz was fined $5 by Justice of the Peace John N. Sievers.

PIONEER VISITS RELATIVES. W. B. Blanchard, one of the early Oregon pioneers, is visiting his son, R. L. Blanchard and family, of Gladstone. Mr. Blanchard's home at the present time is Brownsville. He came to Oregon City in 1885, and had charge of the carding and spinning department of the Oregon City Manufacturing company, holding that position for 10 years. Mr. Blanchard says that he seldom sees any of his old time friends for many of the old friends of this early Oregon pioneer have passed away. Mr. Blanchard is on his way to Forest Grove where he is to attend the G. A. R. encampment in that city June 26, 27 and 28. He fought for two days in the battle of Gettysburg, and saw some of the worst fighting in the battle. He was a member of Company E, 16th Regiment, Vermont Volunteers. Mr. Blanchard will visit his daughter, Mrs. George Cable, of Portland, before returning to his home at Brownsville.

LICENSES ISSUED TO WED. Marriage licenses were issued here Monday to Anna Hoesy and Hugh C. Frisbie, of Oregon City, and Theresa M. Schechla, aged 16, and Ernest A. Boeckman.

with the Hannon & Company dry-goods store, and has made many friends since taking up her residence in this city. She came to Oregon City with her mother, Mrs. Matilda Staats, from Washington about seven years ago. She has been an active worker in the German Lutheran church since making her home here.

The bridegroom is a well known young man of this city, and recently enlisted in the engineering corps at American Lake. He will return to American Lake this week.

Miss Wooster and Charles Dickens Wed. Miss Lora Wooster and Mr. Charles Dickens were united in marriage at the German Lutheran church Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. William Krasxberger, pastor, officiated. The affair was very quiet, and the young couple were unattended. Following the marriage ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dickens left on a brief honeymoon, and upon their return are to make their future home at Molalla.

The bride is one of the popular young women of Marquam, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wooster, of that place. The bridegroom has been making his home for a brief time with his brother, Frank Dickens, a well known merchant of Molalla in this city. She came to Oregon City from Clackamas, prominent Clackamas county residents and his home is in Silverton.

Judge Hays and Miss Potter Married. The marriage of Miss Emma Potter, of this city, and Judge Gordon E. Hays, was solemnized at Vancouver, Wash., on Monday afternoon.

Judge Hays and his bride will make their future home in this city, but for the present are spending their honeymoon at the Hayes farm near Starford.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Potter, early Oregon City pioneers of this city, and is well known in this city, where she has resided all of her life.

Judge Hays was for many years engaged in the practice of law in this city, and recently gave up his practice to take charge of his farm at Starford. He was one of the leading lawyers of Clackamas county, and is well known throughout the county.

Oregon City Girl Married in Portland. The marriage of Miss Mary Christine Waddock and Mrs. Charles O'Malley, of Portland, was solemnized in Portland on Thursday afternoon. They will make that city their future home.

The bride is a former resident of Oregon City, being the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waddock, and has many friends here. She was an active worker in the St. John's Catholic church when residing in this city.

Miss Bachmann's Engagement Announced. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bachmann, of Clackamas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Anna, to Joseph W. Wornstaff, of Bend, Oregon. The wedding is to take place this summer.

INSANE MAN IS ARRESTED HERE AFTER ESCAPE. Roy Wiggins, arrested Monday on complaint of members of the Oregon National Guard stationed at Clackamas, was found to be an escaped lunatic of the Steilacoom asylum, at Steilacoom, Wash., and returned to the authorities from that place. Constable Jack Frost and Deputy Sheriff Joyner made the arrest. Officials from Steilacoom met the local officers at Vancouver, Wash.

REFUSAL TO STOP BRINGS CLERK A FINE OF $25. Because he rode his motorcycle at what Motorcyle Officer H. E. Meads claimed was 45 miles an hour and refused to stop when ordered to do so by the officer, C. Case paid a fine of $25 Monday in justice court here. C. W. Hubb was fined $10, and Fred Swartz was fined $5 by Justice of the Peace John N. Sievers.

PIONEER VISITS RELATIVES. W. B. Blanchard, one of the early Oregon pioneers, is visiting his son, R. L. Blanchard and family, of Gladstone. Mr. Blanchard's home at the present time is Brownsville. He came to Oregon City in 1885, and had charge of the carding and spinning department of the Oregon City Manufacturing company, holding that position for 10 years. Mr. Blanchard says that he seldom sees any of his old time friends for many of the old friends of this early Oregon pioneer have passed away. Mr. Blanchard is on his way to Forest Grove where he is to attend the G. A. R. encampment in that city June 26, 27 and 28. He fought for two days in the battle of Gettysburg, and saw some of the worst fighting in the battle. He was a member of Company E, 16th Regiment, Vermont Volunteers. Mr. Blanchard will visit his daughter, Mrs. George Cable, of Portland, before returning to his home at Brownsville.

LICENSES ISSUED TO WED. Marriage licenses were issued here Monday to Anna Hoesy and Hugh C. Frisbie, of Oregon City, and Theresa M. Schechla, aged 16, and Ernest A. Boeckman.

TEACHERS OF COUNTY TO ATTEND INSTITUTE HERE AUGUST 6 TO 25

The Clackamas County teachers' institute will be held in this city August 6 to 25, according to the announcement made Wednesday by J. E. Calavan, county school superintendent who will be in charge of the institute. The course is intended for teachers in the elementary schools of the county and will include work under the direction of the following instructors: Ida May Smith, primary instructor in reading, geography, arithmetic and language; Fred Toose, city superintendent, instructor in geography, arithmetic and physiology; Miss Lillian Schmidt, reading, grammar, and history; Brenton Vedder, civics and writing.

BAY RUM PROVES TO BE VERY EFFECTIVE, AS ATKINS NOW BELIEVES

Bay rum, lemon extract and Jamaica ginger has been proved to be a very effective means of getting drunk. As a result of his experiments with these liquids, O. S. Atkins was taken into custody by night police Wednesday night. When arrested Atkins had a pint of bay rum, and two "empties," a lemon extract bottle which had a few drops of a famous advertised brand of the favoring extract, and a patent medicine bottle containing a trace of Jamaica ginger. Atkins' home is near Molino. He is a timber dealer.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN BUYS LIBERTY BONDS FOR HIS FOUR CHILDREN

Daniel Williams, an old resident of this city, and a Civil War veteran, was a purchaser of Liberty Loan bonds on Wednesday. He purchased $500 worth; a $100 bond for himself and presented a $100 bond to each of his following children, Mrs. H. A. Barker, of Seattle; Mrs. Edna L. Norberg, of Everett, Wash.; Hiram R. Williams, of Nevada; and Mrs. Eva W. Surtus, of this city.

OTTO SHINDLER IS ORDERED TO ENTER SERVICE

Otto Shindler, of this city, has been notified by the war department to report at Vancouver barracks and will leave this morning for that place. Mr. Shindler will be sergeant of the first class in the medical reserve enlisted reserve corps. Of the 80 or more men called at this time from the Pacific northwest. Mr. Shindler is the only one from Oregon.

DOUBLE WEDDING IS HELD AT OAK GROVE SATURDAY

Marriage licenses were issued here Saturday by County Clerk Iva M. Harrington to the following: Alma M. Richter, Oak Grove, and Chester T. Kronberg, Fairview, Or.; Lillian Gertrude Richter, Oak Grove, and Edward Benton Gabriel, 348 Mill street, Portland Or.; Clara Beatrice Horton, and Lyman Derrick, Oregon City, route 3; Irene M. Henrich, aged 17, and Albert Badger McReynolds, aged 29. The consent of the parents of the last two parties named was given.

ANOTHER INSANE MAN IS PLACED UNDER ARREST

George Thomas, aged 42 years, whose home is at Sellwood, was taken into custody by Chief of Police Lee French here Saturday on a charge of insanity. He was turned over to a deputy from the office of the Multnomah county sheriff Saturday afternoon and taken to Portland for examination. This is the fourth arrest of insane persons within a month in this city.

SANDY COUPLES TO WED

Marriage licenses were issued here Wednesday to Emma T. Holz and Wm. C. Carow, Sandy, Ore., and Anna E. Miller and Henry Wewer also of Sandy.

WEST LINN SCHOOL ELECTION

Charles Shields was elected school director for the Union high school, No. 103 of West Linn and Willamette Monday night. In district No. 34, West Linn, W. C. McDonald was reelected director and Clyde Hughes was elected clerk.

JOHN NOBLE IS KILLED WHEN TRAINS CRASH

Johnnie Noble, son of Mrs. John Noble, of Fresno, California, and of the late John Noble, the latter former county assessor of Clackamas county, died at Spokane, Wash., on Sunday, June 17, from injuries received on Saturday, when he was crushed by a train in the railroad yards of that city. The remains are to be shipped to Portland today, and will be buried in Portland, the former home of his wife. The funeral services are to be conducted by the I. O. O. F. lodge at the I. O. O. F. hall at First and Alder streets on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Noble was formerly an Oregon City boy. He was born and reared in this city, and attended the Oregon City schools. He was united in marriage about three years ago to Miss Doll Johansen, of Portland. He was 39 years of age at the time of his death.

Mr. Noble is well known in Oregon City, and left here with his parents for California some time ago. Residing at Fresno for a time, he later made his home at Spokane. He is survived by his wife, of Spokane; his mother, Mrs. John Noble, of Fresno, California, who is now on her way to Portland; a brother, E. J. Noble, of Oregon City; two sisters, Mrs. John Stahl, of Fresno, who with her husband, are on their honeymoon in California; Mrs. W. K. Glen, of Spokane, who is also on her way to Portland to attend the funeral services.

OBJECTS TO WIFE'S CRITICISMS OF HIS FARMING ABILITIES

Francis M. Baker is suing Mary Baker, whom he married at Beaver Creek, December, 1906, for a divorce because he claims that his wife insisted that her children by a former marriage could run the Baker farm better than Francis Baker could.

More than that, his wife abused him, he says, and made life miserable for him. Mr. Baker asks for the care of the only child.

Mrs. Lydia H. Gordon filed suit today for divorce from Harold L. Gordon whom she married in 1904. Mrs. Gordon claims that her husband is an habitual drunkard and that he would spend days and nights away from home, and that on several occasions he served jail sentences for drunkenness.

By an amended decree filed today by Circuit Judge J. U. Campbell, Ada M. Jacobson was granted the custody of their minor child from her husband, Fred P. Jacobson.

R. B. Runyon is to serve as referee in the case of Lena Caldwell versus William Caldwell and Augusta S. Vehr versus Gerhard A. Vehr. Both cases are suits for divorce.

RAILWAY WINS DAMAGES SUIT SECOND TIME

After deliberating about three-quarters of an hour, a jury in the circuit court Tuesday afternoon returned a verdict for the defendant in the second hearing of Ingram versus the Portland Railway Light & Power company. The first trial was about six months ago. Ingram sued for damages alleged to be due for injuries received while riding on a speeder near Bull Run. A rock rolled from a cliff and struck him on the head, causing permanent injury, he claims.

FORMER OREGON CITY WOMAN IS DEAD AT OAKLAND

Miss Cora Hunt, of Willamette, and stenographer in the office of County School Supervisor J. E. Calavan, received a telegram on Monday afternoon, from her brother, Charles Hunt, stating that his wife, who had been ill in Oakland, Oregon, for three weeks, had died there Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt formerly resided at Willamette and in this city and are well known here. Several years ago they took up their residence in Southern Oregon, making their home in Oakland.

Mrs. Hunt's maiden name was Miss Nannie Cooper. She is survived by her husband, a stepdaughter, Miss Veva, 15 years; a daughter, Enla, aged seven years, and a son, Joseph, aged five years. She was the daughter-in-law of J. R. Hunt, well known resident of Willamette.

The interment will be at Oakland.

WILLS ARE PROBATED

The wills of Florence Grace and Ezra C. Truman were admitted to probate here Saturday. The Grace will divides all cash and securities between Mrs. Grace's two daughters Ellen and Florence and grants the property to her son, W. J. Wilson of this city.

The Truman estate, valued at $1,687.11, is willed to the wife of the late Mr. Truman, Mrs. Eliza Truman, with the provision that the adopted daughter, Gracie Truman, of Cortland, N. Y., be given the property at the mother's death.

INFANT DIES FROM MEASLES

William Wyeth Earp, aged 16 months, died Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the effects of measles with complications of pneumonia. The baby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Earp. The funeral is to be held tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock from the Holman Undertaking parlors. Interment is to be in Mountain View cemetery.

Roseburg: Dehydrating plant may be established here.

MILTON M. MILLER IS IMPROVING AT ARMY BARRACKS HOSPITAL

Milton M. Miller, of this city, a private in a company of the Oregon National Guard on duty at a tunnel near Mosier, who was seriously injured when struck by a train recently, is improving but is still in a critical condition.

Private Miller, who was a student at Oregon Agricultural college before he joined the colors, was injured when he was hit on the head by a rock loosened by the passage of a train, rendering him unconscious beside the track, where he was struck by a second train.

Three ribs were broken, one piercing the right lung. His arm was broken just above the wrist. He sustained a large wound on the head where the rock is said to have struck him, as well as minor bruises and lacerations on the head and body.

He was rushed to a hospital at The Dalles by a comrade, who found him unconscious and who flagged the next train. The captain of the company of which he is a member and a detail of the men recently visited him and presented a flag as a token of regard.

Private Miller has a brother-in-law, Lieutenant Walter L. Spaulding, with the supply company of the Third Oregon at Clackamas. His mother, who resides at Oregon City, and a sister have been with him continuously since the accident.

MRS. MARGARET BUSCH DIES AT HER HOME NEAR LOGAN, AGED 48 YEARS

Mrs. Margaret Busch, wife of Julius Busch, one of the prominent residents of Clackamas county, died at the family home near Logan on Monday evening, after an illness of several months, and the remains are to be brought to this city by the Myers & Brady undertaking establishment here. Funeral services will be conducted at the St. John's Catholic church on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, with Rev. A. Hillebrand, pastor, officiating. The interment will be in the Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Busch was born in Germany and was 48 years of age at the time of her death. She has resided for some time at Logan, and was held in the highest respect in that section of Clackamas county.

Mrs. Busch is survived by her husband, Julius Busch, of Logan; four daughters, Misses Josephine, Julie, Margaret and Verne; two sons, Joseph and Alsie, of Logan; four brothers, M. M. Michaels, of Oregon City; Nick Michaels, of West Linn; Jake Michaels of Oregon City; Chris Michaels and Barney Michaels, of Lebanon; a sister, Sister Mary Michaels, of Mount Angel, who has arrived in this city to attend the funeral services. Mrs. Busch was the daughter of Matt and Anna Michaels, and a sister-in-law to Frank Busch, of this city.

DAUGHTER OF A GREENPOINT FAMILY DIES

Mrs. Ida Simpson, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Straight, well known Clackamas county pioneers, died at the family home at Greenpoint, Oregon City, Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, after an illness of several months of tuberculosis. The remains have been taken to the undertaking parlors of Myers & Brady, and funeral services will be conducted from that establishment on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment in the family cemetery at Parkplace, this being on the old Straight Donation Land claim.

Mrs. Simpson was born at Parkplace April 21, 1860, and has resided in that place and in Oregon City all of her life. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Straight, were among the earliest Oregon settlers, and took up their donation land claim in what is now Parkplace. Her father died about a year ago, and her mother several years ago. She leaves to mourn her loss, one little son, George Edward, five years of age, who played the part of a hero about a year ago, when he rescued from drowning his little cousin, son of Charles Straight; three sisters, Miss May Straight, of Oregon City; with whom she made her home; Mrs. Stella Ice and Mrs. John Huerth, both of this city; two brothers, Charles and Jack Straight, of Oregon City. She was the niece of Mrs. Jennie Bingman and Mrs. Julia Frost, of Canemah, and John Straight, of Parkplace.