MARKET REPORT

PORTLAND, Or., Aug. 9 .- The opening market of the week greeted a long string of offerings in every department with an advance in prices along almost the entire line.

The cattle offered thus far for the first of the week amount to about 1200. The general run of them was somewhat undergrade as compared to receipts in recent weeks. One load from Shaniko however, was fit stuff to top the market in any yards, as it! did here. The advance in prices were 15c to 25c for medium to good steers, 25c on all other lines of cattle. The market yesterday was very active with plenty of buyers. The quotations on cattle are as follows:

Hest steers, $8.50@9.00; good steers $7.50@8.25; good cows, $6.00@7.25; ordinary $4,00@6.00; heifers $6.25@-7.50: calves $8.50@9.50: bulls, $4.50@-6.00; steers and feeders, $4.50@7.25,

The general run of hoga offered yesterday morning were superior to the offering of any recent morning taken from one end to the other. The advance was 10c to 15c in price, putting the tops across the scales at $15.75, and weighing from 200 to 225 pounds. quotations are as follows:

Prime heavy, $15.50@15.65; prime light, $15.60@15.75; bulk $15.60@15.75 pigs $14.10@14.75.

The sheep market opened this week with more activity than has been manifest in that line for some time past and a great deal of select stuff was presented and changed hands at the top price under the following quota-

Yearlings $8.75@9.25; wethers $8.00@8.50: ewes $3.50@7.00; western lambs, $12.00@12.75; valley lambs $11.00@$11.50 famine of pork has struck the local market and fresh offerings as well as C pork products promise to reach addi-

During the last 24 hours there were scarcely any pork offering along the street. In fact, not a sufficient volume came forward to give the market any sort of test. Last price received along the street for top quality dressed stuff was 20c a pound, but first class offerings would likely be worth more at this time if available.

Market for all country killed stock is showing a better feeling. Receipt 'f veals are limited, and the best offerings are moving off freely at 15c a Practically no mutton or lambs has excellent prices available.

With the scarcity of cars in which around $1.35@$1.50 per cental.

While no price changes were indicated for the day, market for chickens which opens at the Presidio August 27. is showing a quiet tone along the street. Butchers closed again for the half holiday, and this caused a lack LA GRANDE UNIT WILL

With fewer boxes of peaches coming forward from nearby sections, the market is showing a decidedly steadier tone along the street. Prices are showing little change, but the trade is somewhat better.
