Elk Prairie

ELK PRAIRIE, Ore., Aug. 30.—C. K. Thomas, who has been home on a visit, returned to work at the Silver Falls Logging Company's camp up in the Cascades. Fire, which has been alive for some time about the camp, bore down upon them with a change of wind. While there were more than two hundred men fighting it, only another whim of the wind saved the camp.

Fire has been reported down on the Jake Smith place. F. L. was also visited. It is said that a slashing of his was set by unknown parties in the night.

Fire persisted in sweeping the Fox place. This was about two and a half miles from the Swope mill, but the wind was taking it that way for a time; later the wind changed to the opposite direction. Mr. Swope sent some of his help to fight the fire. The fire warden was on the job, though he said that he had no sleep for three nights and looked the part. The fire was conquered the third day.

Other fires make it look as if there had been one continuous one to Table Rock, thirty miles away, but no timber has been reported burned. The air became so smoke filled that neighbors places were shut off from view and one evening it was as if night had fallen at six o'clock.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Oregon City Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Keeping the kidneys well has spared thousands of women much misery. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. A. Reddaway, 116 S. Center St., Oregon City, says: "My back ached most all the time. It was so weak and sore that when I got down to do anything it was all I could do to straighten up. Sharp catches shot through my kidneys and for a minute I could hardly move they were so severe. My kidneys also acted too freely. I felt tired all the time and could hardly drag myself around. After I had been taking Doan's Kidney Pills awhile my back felt stronger and my kidneys acted more regularly. I have taken Doan's off and on since and they have done fine work."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Reddaway had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
