

MARKET REPORT

Melons are arriving in large lots in the local market, but those grown at home will not be in until two weeks, state the gardeners.

Small cucumbers for pickling are also arriving, but there will be a short crop, state the gardeners, owing to the lack of rain.

Tomatoes will be fairly plentiful. The peaches are short throughout Clackamas county, owing to the late frosts.

Apples and plums will be of a fair crop, but not as large as in former years. Grapes are to be very plentiful, the largest known in the history of the county.

QUOTA IN THE FIRST CALL IS MADE SMALLER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—At the direct suggestion of President Wilson, Provost Marshal-General Crowder telegraphed to all governors tonight a supplemental explanation of regulations governing the status of married men under the selective service law.

President Wilson stated that the regulations directing local boards "to establish the fact of dependents in addition to the fact of marriage ought not to be abrogated."

New orders were issued, changing entirely the mobilization arrangements previously made. Congestion of railroad traffic and the necessity of making better provisions for the reception of the men at the cantonments dictated the changes.

They will go in five daily detachments of equal size and form skeleton company organizations and set up a going concern into which the remainder of the total quota can be absorbed without confusion as they reach the cantonments.

The next 40 per cent of the quota will go forward September 19, when the second 30 per cent originally was scheduled to go; a second 40 per cent will go forward October 3 instead of the third 30 per cent, and the remaining 15 per cent will be called up as soon thereafter as practicable.

Local boards are directed to disregard order of liability numbers to some extent in selecting the first five per cent, as men of experience, such as cooks and former soldiers are desired at that time.

Warning is given, however, against getting into this levy by reason of his experience any man who might not otherwise have been included in the first increment of the district at all.

"Much as we deplore war, we want no peace with dishonor or with future danger to the stary banner or to the world at large," he said. "But this does not take from us our privilege and our duty to pray and to strive for a true, lasting peace that shall give speedy and permanent comfort to the long-suffering human race. We rejoice at the earnest, wise, fatherly efforts to bring such a peace by our great spiritual chief, His Holiness, Pope Benedict XV. His efforts will not be in vain."
