Macksburg

MACKSBURG, Sept. 5.—The long heated term seems fairly at an end and the cool bracing atmosphere has brought with it an elixir that has revived the ranch activities to the highest degree. The air of threshing and the final gathering and preserving is varied by preparation for the hop-picking. Many camping parties are being formed, and all are elated over the high price that is to be paid in the present season. Though so closely occupied in these matters, and also in getting the children ready for school, only a week distant, the mothers find time for their club work. The Red Cross is coming into the clubs more and more. We discover that this organization is furthering a cause that has only lately made itself apparent—i.e.—it is promotive of loyalty in the community. Solicitude for the soldiers is easily awakened, even in a disloyal heart, and working for their comfort in unison with those in whom the love of country is strong, is visibly conducive to a patriotic frame. This metamorphosis has been clearly perceptible more than once in our place.

Clearing for the next year's crop keeps the landscape brightly lighted everywhere at night. A fire started last week from the burning sawdust at Hepler's mill, which, but for the prompt action of the neighboring ranchers might have wrought serious damage, especially on Saturday afternoon, when the wind blew at the rate of fifty miles an hour. It is still burning, but under complete control.

Count Deserts From THE GERMAN ARMY; FLEES TO SWITZERLAND

PARIS, Sept. 3.—A dispatch to the Journal Des Debats from Zurich gives the following details of the desertion of Count Rolf von Reventlow, a nephew of Count von Reventlow, the Pan-Germanist director of the Deutsche Tages Zeitung, as made public in Zurich today:

"Count von Reventlow," says the correspondent, who has been living for several years at Locarno, Switzerland, responded to the call to arms at the beginning of the war and was incorporated in a Baden regiment. His mother went to Berlin a month ago and obtained a two weeks' leave for her son and went with him to Lake Constance. A motorboat rented there carried mother and son across the lake to Swiss territory, pursued by the fire of the German post.

"Count von Reventlow, in an interview here, said that he has no intention of returning to Germany to descend into militarism against civilization."

Mrs. Sunquist and family have lived in this community over a year. The children attended our school.

MILLIONS-LINE NEW YORK STREETS WHILE 25,000 TROOPS MARCH

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Two million New Yorkers in a whirlwind of patriotic frenzy, shouted farewell today to 25,000 khaki-clad men of the Twenty-Seventh division, comprising national guard units from all over the state marching down Fifth avenue.

The historic avenue was a riotous blaze of color. The standards of the allies—Stars and Stripes predominating—waved from the windows. And banked on both sides of the board street, hanging from building ledges, massing atop roofs, clustering in overcrowded grandstands, the greatest outpouring of people New York had ever seen greeted the marching columns with thunderous acclamations.

Long before the parade started from the upper end of Central Park at 10 a. m., the thousands were assembling. Old and young men, women and children, over-taxed every artery of transportation in a mad rush to claim points of vantage along Fifth avenue. Deference was paid to relatives of the marching men who were supplied with special identifying badges.

Major General O'Ryan led the march through a broad lane, walled with cheering humanity. The roar of hundreds of thousands, shouting and excitedly waving flags, at times almost drowned out the bands. Here and there a woman darted from the crowd and marched a short distance beside her boy in the ranks. Groups of little girls threw flowers at the feet of the troops.

It took five hours for the grand review to pass a given point. Every branch of the service except aviation, was represented. Infantrymen swung steadily along, rank on rank, wearing their blanket rolls and all their field paraphernalia.

STATE IS TO WAGE RELENTLESS WAR ON GROUND SQUIRRELS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—More than a million dollars worth of crops were saved from ground squirrels in North Dakota this year as a result of a campaign conducted by the department of agriculture in co-operation with the state authorities.

The squirrels on 7,000,000 acres, in North Dakota were killed by means of poison at a cost of about 5 cents an acre. Nearly 20,000 farmers assisted in the work.

Similar work has been started in Montana, Idaho and Oregon and interest is being developed in Nevada and California, in organizing like campaigns of extermination.

DEATH SIGN IS REPLACED BY AN AMERICAN FLAG

LEWISTON, Idaho, Aug. 30.—Federal officers, stationed here, found drawn on the cabin door, a skull and cross-bones, with the warning, "Death—set gun here," upon arriving at the mountain abode of the young Jess boys, brothers of Henry A. Jess, proprietor of a bakery and confectionery establishment. Government agents working in this vicinity learned the Jess boys failed to register for the selective draft, and that Henry A. Jess had been supplying his two brothers with food each week by auto. Upon leaving the empty cabin one of the soldiers erased the crude design and artistically drew over the door an outline of Uncle Sam with Old Glory.

Henry A. Jess is being held as a federal prisoner for examination in the sum of $15,000 bonds, pending the finding of his two young brothers. Jess has been unable to furnish bonds.

THIS IS CERTAIN

The Proof That Oregon City Readers Cannot Deny.

What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results.

Home endorsement should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Years ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.

F. H. Busch, hardware and furniture dealer, 11 Eleventh street, Oregon City, says: "I suffered from an acute attack of kidney and bladder trouble and got no relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They stopped the trouble after I had taken two boxes and I have no sign of it now. (Statement given March, 1916)."

A Lasting Cure

On April 17, 1916, Mr. Busch added: "I have been permanently cured of kidney trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills are entitled to all the credit."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Busch has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.
