

Newsy Briefs From All Over the County

Logan

LOGAN, Ore., Sept. 27.—Most of the grain is threshed, yet there is some that was not missed by the "mist" and will stand a poor chance of being saved.

Two women driving an automobile recently on the river road near Wm. Lillie's place met another machine, having no lights on either car, they went over the bank. No more serious injury than a peeled nose for one is fortunate.

Glen Dallas, of Damascus, while riding through Logan Sunday, had the misfortune to upset while rounding a curve. He was pinned under the car until extricated by Mr. Cromer. Glen says he is O. K. now.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Minturn, of Eugene, visited relatives in Logan last week, also their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, a teacher in the Milwaukee school. Mrs. Minturn was formerly Miss Nannie Brown.

S. E. Gerber, of Bergdorf, Idaho, who has been engaged in mining and owns a valuable mine there, is visiting old friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Shumway and son, Charles and wife, of Portland, who used to live here, motored out to see the old home last Sunday, which at present is the fine dairy farm of John Boss.

Mrs. Nellie Howard, of Santa Rosa, Calif., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Riebhoff.

T. E. Andresen has been out on some of the Clear Creek Creamery cream routes and many of the patrons are glad to send to Clear Creek again.

The last crowd of huckleberry pickers, who went in on the North fork, report bringing out ninety gallons of that luscious fruit.

Mrs. J. C. Sprague and daughter, Miss Hazel, of Corvallis, accompanied by some friends, motored down last Wednesday, made a short stop at the old home, then to Camp Withycombe to say good bye to her son, Harry, who goes with his company to American Lake.

Several from here will attend the fair at Salem Wednesday, demonstration day, and J. Plovius was not on hand with his sprinkler as usual, and all had a most enjoyable time.

Mrs. Earl Gerber and son, Donald, went to Dillard, Douglas County, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah.

Carver

CARVER, Ore., Sept. 27.—Herbert Burger and family have sold their personal property and will start for Nebraska in a few days, where they expect to make their home.

The Mother's Club met with Mrs. Warner on Wednesday. It is doing much good work for the Red Cross.

Mrs. Vick Hattan has rented the house owned and formerly occupied by Grandma Mumpower, and will board the teachers of the Stone school this winter.

Clarence Dallas and family have rented the Floyd Williams place, and will move into it in the near future.

Carl Dallas has returned to the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles Hattan, after living for a time in Oregon City.

John Hatton and Arthur Smith have just returned from a trip to the mountains, where they went huckleberrying several days ago.

Clarkes

CLARKES, Ore., Sept. 27. — Miss Lena Zwahlen visited her cousin, Miss Ida Zwahlen, for a few days.

Mrs. C. H. Bergman and daughter, came home last week from the hop yard.

J. Nelson came home from Eastern Washington last week.

C. H. Bergman purchased a piano last week.

Miss Pearl Stromgreen, of Colton, is attending high school at Oregon City.

The Timber Grove school opened September 17, and the teacher is Miss Florence Stromgreen, of Colton.

Miss Ida Zwahlen came home last week.

J. Nelson is hauling fence posts for Mrs. Lee.

George Andersen is in Portland on a short visit with his friends.

Miss Dora Marquardt visited Mrs. H. C. Kleinsmith and family last Sunday.

L. Elliott is going to put a sawmill up in Elwood.

Miss Engla Bergman is attending high school in Colton now.

Eugene: Mini yields $115 acre first year.

Sheridan: Yamhill Milling company sells for $241,000.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Hall's Catarrh Medicine has been taken by catarrh sufferers for the past thirty-five years, and has become known as the most reliable remedy for Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the Blood on the Mucous surfaces, expelling the Poison from the Blood and healing the diseased portions. After you have taken Hall's Catarrh Medicine for a short time you will see a great improvement in your general health. Start taking Hall's Catarrh Medicine at once and get rid of Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists, etc.

Macksburg

MACKSBURG, Ore., Sept. 27.—Still the enchanting weather continues. A rain coming on Saturday night and giving way to bright sunlight on Sunday afternoon has given all nature the appearance of spring, and has made the pasture nearly as luxuriant as in that season. The feathered tribes—though in the moulting season, are in especially prosperous and productive shape, the ducks and geese rejoicing in the slightly swollen streams, and the chickens fattening on the newly harvested fields of grain.

Threshing is getting near its end and a fully average yield of grain is reported everywhere.

The potato crop, so far from being the failure that seemed inevitable, a few weeks ago, seems to have been storing up vitality during the many weeks of drouth only to put out unwanted growth as soon as revived by rain. The prospect now, fits for an exceptionally abundant yield.

Enchanting as is the autumn sky in the clear sunlight of these September days, it is no less so in the night when the stars shine out in their radiance and the planets in their shrill light, come into view. That beautiful celestial visitor—the planet Venus—becoming visible toward midnight and shining in wonderful brilliancy till dimmed by the approaching dawn.

The annual Mission of the Lutheran church brought together a large concourse of people on Sunday, September 23. Many coming from other towns. An appetizing dinner, prepared by the ladies of the church, was served and greatly enjoyed at the home of Ferdinand Kraxberger. The order of exercises was supplemented by a very pretty wedding, the bride being Miss Anna Rothenberg, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Rothenberg and the groom one of the U. S. soldiers, who is about to leave for the training camp.

The handsome residence of Mrs. Milo Lantz, with its land, stock and crops has found ready sale, and greatly to the regret of her neighbors and numerous other friends. Mr. Lantz is expecting to leave our place in the present week to make her home with a widowed sister, who has been with her since Mr. Lantz's death.

The Mothers' Club is to meet September 27th, at the home of Mrs. Geo. Koch. The president, Mrs. John Hepler, being still absent, her place will be supplied by the vice president, Mrs. Simon Miller.

The Little Girls' Sewing Circle will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. G. M. Baldwin, on Saturday, Sept. 29th.

Miss Rachel Miller, who has been absent from home for some time, is spending a few weeks at home.

Miss Einora Miller is busied in the employ of The Gospel Trumpet Company, Andersen, Indiana.

Barlow

BARLOW, Ore., Sept. 24.—Many of our citizens attended the county fair, the children all taking advantage of the free admission juvenile day.

School commences Monday, October 1st.

Mrs. Clarence Oaks and children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Larsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin returned home from Newport Saturday, of last week, where they spent a month on the beach a most enjoyable time. They left on Monday for Seapooze, where they will visit Mr. Irwin's brother and family a week.

Elmer Irwin is improving the hunting season by visiting his uncle, T. W. Irwin, at Seapooze.

Miss Irene Wurfel is attending school at Mount Angel.

Miss Loretta Bruen, of Portland, is visiting at the Wurfel home and is much improved in health.

Clarence Landsvick is home on a furlough arriving home Friday evening.

Miss Ada Mass, of Oregon City, called on friends here Friday afternoon and evening.

Announcements of the marriage of Miss Minnie Lewis, who taught here three terms, and was loved by every one, has been received here. Her home will be in California.

Dr. Dedman was called Sunday to see Mrs. Andrus, who is suffering from a severe case of the shingles.

Dr. Crowley has rented his farm. Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Crowley are moving to Portland.

Grandma Ausve's daughter, from the east is paying her a visit.

Damascus

DAMASCUS, Ore., Sept. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Justin Bowerman, of Falls City, are visiting Mrs. Bowerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Huddle.

Mrs. Sumner is a patient in the Oregon City hospital.

Many of our people attended the county fair at Canby.

The Sunshine Club met with Mrs. Wolfhagen on Thursday.

Over 300 acres of right-of-way and other property of O.-W. R. & N. have been cultivated this year by employes in small garden tracts.

Eagle Creek

EAGLE CREEK, Ore., Sept. 27.—Henry Udell bought some oak from M. Dhuat the other day.

The Helping Hand was entertained by Mrs. R. R. Gibson last Wednesday afternoon. The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister October 10th.

Mrs. R. B. Gibson called on Mrs. Viola Douglas Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. H. S. Jones spent a couple of days with her mother, Mrs. Viola Douglas, last week.

Mrs. Walter Douglass was a Portland visitor last week, and on Monday of this week Mrs. Douglass returned to Portland, to remain for a time under the doctor's care.

Miss Nettie Woodie went to Portland last week on business.

Jennings Lodge

JENNINGS LODGE, Ore., Sept. 27.—Lloyd Spooner is spending a week's furlough in Portland with his wife, on his way to American Lake, where he expects to be stationed this winter.

Velma Matheo, of Eastern Oregon, is visiting Velma Boardman, while her mother is in the hospital in Portland.

Dr. Mary L. Farnum was taken suddenly ill on Wednesday last, and she is in a Portland hospital, where she is resting easier. Miss Esther Campbell is with her.

Miss Bessie Roberts has gone to Airfie to visit her aunt, Mrs. Harry M. Hayes.

Fishing has been good the past week and the large fish are numerous.

Glen Russell has returned from eastern Washington, where he spent the summer with his uncle, Mr. Kretzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin are moving to Portland for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Briggs and family came up from Roseburg to spend the winter with Mrs. Briggs' mother, Mrs. McMonigal.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Runer left Tuesday for their home in Great Falls, Montana.

Carey Deter entertained a house party for the week end. His guests including Chester McLean, Guy Barber, Derral Clark, Vincent Pannell, Albert Love, Earl Clark, all of Portland.

The Misses Helene and Margaret Seeley, of Clackamas, spent the week end with their grandparents on Mel-drum avenue.

Miss Helen Painton, of Orchards, Wash., spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives.

Al Swade spent Sunday at the A. T. Pierce home.

On Monday evening the following young people surprised Miss Stella McVicker at her home near Roethe: The Misses Mabel Hoppe, Harry Krebs, Dora Roethe, Minnie Roethe, Elizabeth Bruichert; Guy Watkins, Jack Hampton, Ernest Roethe and Lloyd Nolte.

Miss Anna Russell spent Sunday with Miss Catharine Langdon, of Sellwood.

Among the prize winners at the county fair, from Jennings Lodge, were Mary Kessal, first prize on dress and Gladys Caldwell, second prize on apron. Mrs. Altman and Miss White chaperoned about forty pupils to the fair on Juvenile day.

R. Wendell Smith left Tuesday for Montana, where he goes on his stock ranch.

C. P. Morse is confined to his home with illness.

Estacada

ESTACADA, Ore., Sept. 27.—Guy Graham arrived from Alaska last Friday and visited his mother, Mrs. Maude Graham, for a few days. Mr. Graham expects to remain in Portland for a month and then will enlist.

Born, on September 15th, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. DuBoise, a son.

The Rebekah order celebrated its anniversary last Thursday evening. A chicken supper, speeches and games was the order of entertainment. All report a most excellent time.

A change will soon take place in the Estacada State Bank, Erwin D. Wright, the present cashier will retire and H. C. Stephens will take his place.

Mrs. Erma Graham visited her mother, Mrs. Maude Graham, over Sunday. Miss Graham is attending art school in Portland.

Ken Bartlett came from American Lake Saturday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bartlett, of Estacada. Ken is with the American Red Cross Ambulance No. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Wagoner and daughter, Ida, motored to Vancouver Tuesday to visit their son and brother, Otis, who is in the barracks hospital. They report that he is slowly improving.

Miss Letta Howe left Thursday morning for her school near Molalla.

Mrs. A. W. Botkin was appointed to get solicitors in this section, to raise money for the soldiers' library. Mrs. E. W. Bartlett and Mrs. Theodore Ahlburg called upon the people Monday and succeeded in raising quite a sum.

L. W. Morrow, of McMinnville, a former resident of Estacada, was here the first of the week.

The Red Cross auxiliary at this place had a very good attendance at its meeting in the C. I. C. Library rooms last Friday and considerable work is being done. The ladies have secured the balcony in the East Clackamas Supply Co. store and will hereafter hold their meetings there.

McCaulie Dale is home again after spending the summer in the vicinity of Colotis, Wash.

Married, at the residence of C. I. Allen, in Estacada, September 24, Mr. Willis O. Bungardner, of Columbia City, Ore., and Mrs. Adelaide Miller, of Portland. Justice of the Peace Claude Devore, performed the marriage ceremony. Mrs. Bungardner had been a resident of Estacada for a number of years until about a year ago, when she went to Portland.

Dr. William Dillon and wife are here from Illinois visiting at the home of the doctor's brother, Henry Dillon.

Mrs. Adams has sold her interests in the hotel to Wm. Delap, and the new proprietor will take possession Saturday. Mrs. Adams has not decided what she will do, but intends to occupy her own little home in Estacada for a time at least.

Miss Kittle Roagan, head telephoner in the local office, will occupy the telephons at the Estacada pharmacy, assisting Miss Sturgeon.

Ray Drill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Orill, of Parady, has returned home from Bull Run, where he was employed in the power house, and will attend the Estacada school the coming year.

ESTACADA, Ore., Sept. 24.—The Estacada public schools opened Monday, September 17, better equipped for work than at any previous time. The grades occupy the old school building and the high school uses the new building just completed.

The agricultural, chemical, biological and physical laboratories are well supplied for experimental work. The new manual training shop with bench equipment, power driven machinery and blacksmithing facilities affords opportunity for students mechanically inclined. There are domestic science and art departments, with modern appliances under scientific direction to give practical training in household industries. A splendid reference library is one of the special equipments to enable the students to do thorough research work. A gymnasium is provided.

The faculty for 1917-18: Thomas E. Wilson, A. B. Fairmont college, principal, mathematics and civics.

Gertrude S. Dillon, A. B., University of Illinois, Latin and teacher training.

H. C. McCormick, B. S., Oregon Agricultural college, manual training and agriculture.

Minnie Schrepel, B. S., University of Minnesota, domestic science and art.

Elynn Rotherford, A. B., University of Oregon, science, history and director of athletics.

Louise Maude Quillian, A. B., Washington university, English and director of physical culture.

Ursula Johnson, graduate of Orient high school, grade principal, teacher sixth and seventh grades.

Ruth H. Welch, graduate of Albany normal, teacher of eighth grade.

Rica Anderson, graduate of South Dakota normal, teacher of fourth and fifth grades.

Maude E. Graham, graduate of Portland Business college, teacher of second and third grades.

Eva F. Wash, graduate of Oregon State normal, teacher of primary department and librarian.

HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

SHERIDAN, Or., Sept. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. George E. Payne, of Sheridan, narrowly escaped injury yesterday when a bullet fired from a revolver on a street in Portland passed through the windshield of their car, hitting it squarely in the center and edging on past the steering wheel.

Burned-out Sumpter needs help—clothes, money, furniture, anything.

Cooks Bay Shipbuilding company has two more government contracts.

ESTACADA, Ore., Sept. 27.—Guy Graham arrived from Alaska last Friday and visited his mother, Mrs. Maude Graham, for a few days. Mr. Graham expects to remain in Portland for a month and then will enlist. Born, on September 15th, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. DuBoise, a son. The Rebekah order celebrated its anniversary last Thursday evening. A chicken supper, speeches and games was the order of entertainment. All report a most excellent time. A change will soon take place in the Estacada State Bank, Erwin D. Wright, the present cashier will retire and H. C. Stephens will take his place. Mrs. Erma Graham visited her mother, Mrs. Maude Graham, over Sunday. Miss Graham is attending art school in Portland. Ken Bartlett came from American Lake Saturday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bartlett, of Estacada. Ken is with the American Red Cross Ambulance No. 14. Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Wagoner and daughter, Ida, motored to Vancouver Tuesday to visit their son and brother, Otis, who is in the barracks hospital. They report that he is slowly improving. Miss Letta Howe left Thursday morning for her school near Molalla. Mrs. A. W. Botkin was appointed to get solicitors in this section, to raise money for the soldiers' library. Mrs. E. W. Bartlett and Mrs. Theodore Ahlburg called upon the people Monday and succeeded in raising quite a sum. L. W. Morrow, of McMinnville, a former resident of Estacada, was here the first of the week. The Red Cross auxiliary at this place had a very good attendance at its meeting in the C. I. C. Library rooms last Friday and considerable work is being done. The ladies have secured the balcony in the East Clackamas Supply Co. store and will hereafter hold their meetings there. McCaulie Dale is home again after spending the summer in the vicinity of Colotis, Wash. Married, at the residence of C. I. Allen, in Estacada, September 24, Mr. Willis O. Bungardner, of Columbia City, Ore., and Mrs. Adelaide Miller, of Portland. Justice of the Peace Claude Devore, performed the marriage ceremony. Mrs. Bungardner had been a resident of Estacada for a number of years until about a year ago, when she went to Portland. Dr. William Dillon and wife are here from Illinois visiting at the home of the doctor's brother, Henry Dillon. Mrs. Adams has sold her interests in the hotel to Wm. Delap, and the new proprietor will take possession Saturday. Mrs. Adams has not decided what she will do, but intends to occupy her own little home in Estacada for a time at least. Miss Kittle Roagan, head telephoner in the local office, will occupy the telephons at the Estacada pharmacy, assisting Miss Sturgeon. Ray Drill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Orill, of Parady, has returned home from Bull Run, where he was employed in the power house, and will attend the Estacada school the coming year.

ESTACADA IS JUSTLY PROUD OF NEW SCHOOL IS WELL EQUIPPED

MOLALLA HIGH ENROLLS 63 AND MORE TO COME

MOLALLA, Ore., Sept. 23.—School opened this week with the following teachers in charge: R. W. Rose, principal; Bernice Perkins, of the University of Oregon, and Esther Humphrey, of the Agricultural college, assistants in the high school, and Elvira Joy, Myrtle Lay, Nettie Thomas and Reva Case in the grades. Sixty-three are enrolled in the high school and as a number are to enter later the attendance will be larger than heretofore. Twenty-five are enrolled in the freshman class.

INCORPORATION OF SOCIETY

Articles of incorporation of the Harmony Public Improvement society have been filed by Emma Spooner, president; Ossie A. Davis, secretary, and Daisy Ulen, treasurer.

STRAIGHTFORWARD TESTIMONY

Many Oregon Citizens Have Profited By It.

If you have backache, bladder troubles, dizziness, headaches or nervousness, strike at the seat of the trouble, these are often the symptoms of weak kidneys and there is grave danger in delay. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney ailments—are endorsed by over 50,000 people. Your neighbors recommended this remedy—have proved its merit in many tests. Oregon City readers should take fresh courage in the straightforward testimony of this Oregon City woman.

Mrs. Louise Baxter, 115 Seventeenth St., says: "I suffered for quite a while from kidney weakness. I tried various medicines but nothing helped me like Doan's Kidney Pills did. They proved their worth and I can certainly recommend them." (Statement given April 5, 1913.)

NO TROUBLE SINCE

On April 17, 1916, Mrs. Baxter said: "Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cured me of kidney trouble. My back is now strong and well."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—Get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Baxter has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

A DOWDEN POTATO DIGGER

DIGS YOUR POTATO CLEAN GETS THEM ALL

Light Draft because high wheeled.

Perfect Separation because of longer and wider elevations than others like size.

Long Lasting Because all parts are made of the most enduring material.

Investigate the operation of the Dowden and you will buy no other.

Portland, Oregon

W. J. Wilson & Co.
OREGON CITY

DISC HARROWS
DRAG HARROWS
CHILLED PLOWS
STEEL PLOWS

Johnson, visited Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rath last Sunday.

Miss Phemie Weiderold and Dr. Stevenson, of Alcot, Washington, visited Miss Weiderold's mother Mrs. A. Weiderold last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eri and children, of Sandy, visited Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rath last Sunday.

The Sewing Club met at the home of Mrs. Ochs last Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Weld, of Springfield, visited Mrs. N. Scheel and son Ed, last Friday afternoon.

Miss Edith Buholt, of Portland, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Smith.

LITTLE SEED—MANY POTATOES

ABERDEEN, Wash., Sept. 22.—Two sacks of as fine Washington Beauty potatoes as one would wish for were raised here by Joe Paveltich, a restaurant man, from a gallon can full of potato peelings gathered at his restaurant. He put but one eye in a hill as a rule and sometimes two, but never more, yet each hill produced from eight to 13 spuds, most of which weigh around half a pound.

Astoria to get eight-story warehouse.

Miss Beth Bairdort, of Albany, is spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. James Bernard.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Dallas, are visiting their son, A. B. Smith, and family.

Jerry Madden is seriously ill in Portland Medical hospital.

Word comes from Mrs. H. N. Smith that she is gaining weight and health.

The Symposium Club of Portland, surprised Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ostrom the same night that the community in general did and a very pleasant evening was spent. Mr. Ostrom left on Thursday for Los Angeles and the family expect to follow soon. Loraine Ostrom left with his company for American Lake on Monday.

Harry Painton received word of the death of his father, G. P. Painton, of Colman, Iowa. In his death another G. A. R. man has been taken from its ranks.

Earl Boardman has returned from Kent, Ore., where he has been working on the Barnett ranch.

Miss Elizabeth Waldron will leave this week for North Yakima, where she will teach in the city school. Miss Alice Waldron goes to South Bend, Washington, to teach school.

Oak Grove

OAK GROVE, Ore., Sept. 27.—Rev. Dow Delong left Wednesday for Springfield to attend the annual Methodist Conference. Mrs. Delong will go later in the week owing to slight illness. On their return next week they will leave for Moro, Oregon, to take charge of the church there.

The Needlecraft and Domestic Science Club met at the home of Mrs. Gillispie Tuesday to arrange work for the coming year. President Miss Eva Felix, presided. Seven members were present. Routine business with discussion on different topics was the main feature. The next meeting will be held Friday, Oct. 26, at the home of Mrs. E. C. Warren, corner Third and Center streets.

Mrs. H. B. Green and little daughter, Marion, left Monday for Seattle on a visit to friends.

Bernard and Forest Reynolds are home from Eastern Oregon.

Mr. Reynolds is able to be out again, after a severe sickness of several days.

Mrs. L. A. Bullard is up and around after a severe sickness.

Rev. R. W. Allen will fill the pulpit Sunday morning, and Rev. C. A. Lewis