WAR DEPARTMENT TABOOS NEWS OF TROOPS ARRIVAL

WASHINGTON, Octt. 15,-Aroused by publication in some parts of the country by private cablegrams announcing arrival of American troops ments today took steps to prevent may result in the court-martial of the officers who sent the messages.

in one case a former National guard officer wired his governor of so far as is known here, newspapers RECORDER-Huntley Drug Co., in that locality observed the govern-$1.00; Jones Drug Co., $1.00; The ment's voluntary censorship request

In the other case, however, a for mer National guard officer tele graphed the governor of his state of the arrival of the regiment, with ; request that it be given fullest publicity. The governor's office gave out the cablegram and many papers in that state printed the news. This morning other newspapers published the dispatch and added the number and designation of the regiment, all in violation of the voluntary censor

The war department has most ur gently requested that nothing what ever be printed about arrivals of troops abroad, promising at the same time to report promptly any casual ty. Friends who know troops have sailed and hear nothing further may assume that they have arrived safely
