

LOCALS

Miss Sedonia Gilbrich and brother, of New Era, were here Tuesday. Dr. Morey, of Molalla, was in the city on business Tuesday. Richard Davis, of Eldorado, was here Tuesday on business. Otto Lyman, of Shubel, transacted business in Oregon City Tuesday. Miss Pansy Irish, of Carus, was among those to visit the city on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Blinn, of Carus, were among the Oregon City visitors on Tuesday. Miss Mary Hime, of Milwaukie, was among the Oregon City visitors on Tuesday. Thomas Davis, of Hazelwood, was among the Oregon City visitors on Tuesday. Born, Monday, October 22, to the wife of Victor Gault, of Portland, a daughter. Mrs. L. C. Portow, of Beaverton, who formerly resided at Mount Pleasant, was in Oregon City on business Thursday. G. M. Cassey has gone to Tacoma, Wash., where he has accepted a position. His family will remain here for the present. Miss Bertha Priebe, who has been spending the week-end with her sister, Miss Priebe, in Portland, has returned home. H. G. Starkweather, of Milwaukie, one of the prominent residents of Clackamas county, was here on business Tuesday. Dr. H. S. Mount, who has been in Chicago, Ill., in attendance at the surgeons' convention, returned to Oregon City Wednesday morning. James Danneman, formerly of Oregon City, is now stationed with his company in New York, having been transferred from Camp Greene, North Carolina. Mrs. Fred P. Stauffer and Mrs. H. J. Danneman, of Portland, were here Monday, the guests of Mrs. A. C. Warner at her home, the Lilacs, at Mount Pleasant. Miss Evelyn Harding, who has been spending the past two weeks at Tacoma, Washington, the guest of her brother, Lee Harding, and family, returned to her home Wednesday. Miss Ernestine King, of Mount Pleasant, who is attending the Washington high school in Portland, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. King, of Mount Pleasant. Miss Retha Grant, of Monmouth, arrived in Oregon City Wednesday morning, the guest of Mrs. Mina Clark, of Mountain View addition. Miss Grant will remain in this city for a few days. Miss Evelyn Harding left on Thursday for Tacoma, Wash., to visit for several weeks, the guest of her brother, Lee Harding, and family, also her brother, Lieutenant Lloyd Harding, stationed at Camp Lewis, American Lake. Mrs. Mattie Shaver, formerly of the city, but now of Portland, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Boyles. Mrs. Shaver was a guest at the Harrington home in Gladstone on Sunday. Mrs. Charles Leonard, of Seattle, nee Miss Ruth Brightbill, of the city, has arrived here, to visit until Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Brightbill, of Fourteenth and Center streets. George Hinkley and P. C. Lind, of the Medical department of the Fourth Engineers Corps, stationed at Vancouver Barracks, were here Wednesday evening, to attend the ball given by the Honor Guard Girls. Mrs. C. H. Caulfield has arrived in Oregon City from Hood River as the guest of her son, Raymond Caulfield, and wife until the latter part of the week. Mr. Caulfield will arrive here the latter part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, who have been occupying the J. G. Noe bungalow at Gladstone, left on Tuesday for Portland, where they will make their home, Mr. Carpenter having accepted a position with a firm in that city. Mr. and Mrs. David Sherrill, of Clairmont, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son, who was born at the Sherrill home on Tuesday evening, October 30th. The youngster has been named David, Jr. Randall O'Neill, a member of Company B, Naval Training station, has been transferred to Company A-1, and stationed at Goat Island. O'Neill recently visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. O'Neill, of this city. Mrs. Fred Menke, of Portland, arrived here Sunday with her five-months' old daughter, Velma, and are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Menke. Mrs. Menke has brought her child here for the benefit of its health. Mrs. Chas. E. Burns, of Salem, formerly of this city, is for a few days, the guest of her brother, Charles W. Kelly, and wife, Mrs. Burns, after visiting in Oregon City, will go to Canas, Wash., where she will visit her son, W. E. Burns, and family. The entertainment to be given by the Bethel Sunday school at Redland on Thursday evening for the benefit of the Red Cross, has been postponed until Saturday evening. An excellent program is being arranged for the affair. Harry Young, who has been confined in the Good Samaritan hospital for six weeks, is now able to be out on the street with the aid of his crutches. Mr. Young's friends are glad to see him out, after the automobile accident which nearly cost him his life. Mrs. D. W. Davis, of Kellogg, Idaho, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Thomas, of Mount Pleasant, also her sister, Mrs. O. G. Thomas, of that place, has gone to Portland, where she is to remain in that city as a guest of her brother, until November 1st. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Frederick, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. Frederick, visited the former's son, Albert W. Frederick who is a sergeant in Co. 48, 12th Infantry, 166th Depot Brigade, and is to leave for the east in short time. Mrs. Albert Frederick will remain in Tanoma until her husband departs from Camp Lewis. Mrs. T. E. Merrick, of Medford, who has been spending the past two months in Michigan, the guests of relatives, and for the past ten days in Oregon City as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Caulfield, left for her home on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Caulfield is the daughter of Mrs. Merrick. Mr. Merrick was also here for a few days, on his way to North Dakota. J. T. Hinkle, of the field artillery at Camp Lewis spent the week-end in the city, the guest of his uncle, G. C. Armstrong, of Redland. Mr. Hinkle's people are all in England, his father is a special constable in the London police, while his mother is filling the place of his sister as government stenographer, the sister having been injured in a recent German air raid. Three brothers are in the English army, one in the trenches, two members of the flying section. A. W. Koehler and S. O. Dillman, the former of Mount Pleasant, and the latter of this city, have leased the land owned by Ward B. Lawton, of Mount Pleasant, known as the Lawton farm, consisting of 42 acres. This land adjoins that of the S. O. Dillman property, and will be put into crops and improvements made. Mr. Koehler has leased the Dillman farm, and has just completed a modern home at the place. By leasing the Lawton farm, this will make 59 1/2 acres of land farmed by these men. G. E. Kellogg, of Portland, is here, having been called by the serious illness of his father, A. J. Kellogg, of Canemah, who is suffering from a paralytic stroke. Mr. Kellogg was attending to his duties at the Canemah school on Thursday morning when he was stricken. His left side is partially paralyzed, but on Friday his condition was somewhat improved. Mr. Kellogg is one of the well known residents with the children of the Canemah school, where he is employed as janitor. WILEY MAY ESTATE TO BE PROBATED The petition of Edward E. May was filed in Circuit Court Wednesday asking that he be appointed administrator of the estate of Wiley W. May, which is valued both real and personal property at about two thousand dollars. The deceased leaves as heirs, the widow, H. W. May, E. E. May, Dora E. Williams, and Ida Andrews, all of Oregon City, L. L. May and Jennie Miller of Sellwood, Mary E. Nicholson of Richland, Wash., Olive E. Exon of Clear Creek, O. M. May of Beaver Creek and Anna Laziner of Portland. MOLALLA HOTEL LEASED An order was entered in Circuit Court Wednesday authorizing the receiver of the hotel at Molalla to lease the same from the first of November for a year at the monthly rental of twenty-five dollars. CROSS SUES PAPER COMPANY. Everett Cross is plaintiff in an action for damages filed in Judge Seiver's court Monday, against the Crown Willamette Paper Company. Cross asks for two hundred and fifty dollars damages alleged to have been sustained when he fell through a floor while in the employ of the defendant company. William Stone is attorney for Cross. Clackamas and Logan Hold Food Meetings. Clackamas held a stirring meeting on Monday night in the interest of the Food Conservation movement at which Gilbert L. Hedges, Capt. E. French Chase and S. O. Dillman gave the addresses of the evening. A similar meeting was also held at the Lower Logan school house with Prof. C. F. Romig as the speaker. Mrs. L. L. Kirchem presided. TWO SEEK DIVORCE Martha Wilkerson is plaintiff in an action for divorce filed in Circuit Court Wednesday against Samuel Wilkerson, on the grounds of desertion. They were married at Mystic Iowa, in 1896, and have two children. The plaintiff asks for the custody of the two children and certain real estate consisting of forty acres of farm land in Clackamas county. George W. Streicher filed an action for divorce in Circuit Court Wednesday against Dorothy Streicher, alleging desertion. The couple were married at Toledo, Ohio, December 1, 1899, and have two children. The husband asks for the custody of the children and half interest in city property at Toledo. LOONEY MARRIAGE ENDED. The Circuit Court Wednesday signed decrees dissolving the marriage of Burnie Looney and Josie Looney, and the marriage of Matilda Kelley and Otis A. Keller. MARRIAGE LICENSES. Marriage licenses were issued by the county clerk's office Tuesday to Pansy E. Irish and Fred Carlson of Portland and Emma Rupp and W. W. Freese of Canby. IN SOCIETY CIRCLES THE marriage of Miss Emma Rupp, and Mr. Warren W. Freese, of Canby, was held Tuesday at high noon, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Gilbert, of Fourteenth and Main streets. The marriage was witnessed by H. B. Dreier, brother-in-law of the bride. Following the marriage ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Freese left for their future home at Canby, where Mr. Freese is connected with the W. H. Lucke Commission company. The newlyweds are well known young people of Canby, where they have many friends. Honor Guard Dance Success. The first ball of the season, and one of the most successful ever given in Oregon City was held at Busch Hall Wednesday evening, when the Honor Guard Girls were hostesses. The proceeds will go towards the fund of the organization to assist in carrying on its work in aiding the men who have enlisted either in the navy or army. The music was one of the main features of the evening, furnished by the Jazz band of Portland. The ballroom was decorated to correspond with the occasion Halloween. Festoons of black and orange crepe paper extended to each side of the room, arranged on the walls were miniature black cats and Indian baskets filled with autumnal beauty and ferns, with Old Glory hung in a conspicuous place over the gallery. Cider was served by Miss Florence Kays, the youngest member of the Honor Guard Girls. Mrs. Everett Stirewalt Guest of Honor. Mrs. George Howell entertained in a most charming manner at her home on Tuesday afternoon, with a stork party in honor of Mrs. Everett Stirewalt. The home was prettily decorated with autumnal beauty and "cupies." The afternoon was devoted to needlework, and followed by delicious refreshments. Many little gifts were presented to the guest of honor. Attending were Mrs. Bert Roake, Mrs. Verne Roake, Mrs. Harry Techirgi, Mrs. W. J. Wilson, Mrs. E. L. Johnson, Mrs. Edward Young, Mrs. Otto Erickson, Mrs. Beckler, Mrs. Hinchman, Miss Mildred Techirgi, Miss Bernice Johnson, Miss Geneva Young, Miss Helen Erickson, Miss May Hinchman, Miss Alta Howell, Miss Agnes Harris, Miss Dorothy Hedges. Rev. Oval Tendered Party by Congregation. Rev. Oval, who has been reapointed to take charge of the Scandinavian church in Salem, and whose district covers a portion of Clackamas county, was agreeably surprised at his home in Salem Friday evening by a large number of his congregation who called in a body. The evening was devoted to music, games, and refreshments were served, and the pastor was presented with a well filled purse by his congregation. SIX WITH BARNEY OLDFIELD GERM SEE JUDGE SEIVER Six citizens, in the act of pulling the Barney Oldfield staff were caught by Speed Officer H. E. Mead and conducted to the court of Judge Seiver today. They are, R. O. Clark, of Portland, who paid $5; H. Kilke and L. Furman, of Portland, who were asked to deposit respectively $10 and $5, the court deciding that since Furman was not in the jail his fine should be but $5. C. H. Leggett, H. H. Fessler and B. A. Mitchell, all of Portland, were to report to the court late Monday afternoon. WILLARD HAWLEY, JR., FATHER OF GIRL BORN TUESDAY AFTERNOON Willard P. Hawley, Jr., resident manager of the Hawley Pulp & Paper company is the father of a baby girl which arrived Tuesday afternoon weight nine pounds. The young lady has been christened Eva Adele, after her grandmother. Mr. Hawley, Sr., placed to the new arrival's credit a large block of liberty loan bonds. Both mother and babe are doing well. MARRIAGE LICENSES. Grants Pass—Utah-Idaho Sugar beet plant begins operations.

MISS HAZEL RUSSELL BECOMES BRIDE OF CHAS. T. PARKER The wedding of Charles T. Parker, Oregon City business man and Miss Hazel Russell of Portland, took place Thursday night at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. F. S. Leverett, 239 Poplar street, Portland. Miss Kathleen Sealy was maid of honor and Loreen Parker, sister of the groom, bridesmaid. Mr. Ralph Parker, cousin of the groom, served as best man. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. May Russell and popular among the younger set. Mr. Parker has for the past several years been manager of the Oregon City Engineering and Construction Company and stands high in the community both as a business man and citizen. THOUSANDS OF SHEEP PASS THROUGH HERE FOR EASTERN OREGON Over twenty thousand sheep will be brought here in the next few days over the Willamette Southern from the Molalla country where they will be sent on to eastern Oregon. The sheep are the property of Ed. Mayes and are being transferred from their summer to winter range. Mr. Mayes recently sold his lambs for shipment to Chicago, receiving ten and a half per animal. HARRY HOLLAND IS REQUIRED TO INCREASE BOND Harry Holland and G. W. Clark, of Portland charged with larceny of a dwelling and indicted by the grand jury in this weeks session was brought into court Thursday afternoon, after several days search and his bond raised to two thousand dollars, which was furnished by the defendants brother. It is reported that Holland is now under indictment at Portland is also wanted at Vancouver, Washington. Holland and Clark are charged with entering the summer home of C. E. Bolds on the Tualatin river and hauling away by auto truck a considerable amount of household goods which they sold in Portland. FRED A. MILLER WILL BE UP FOR COUNTY CLERK Fred A. Miller, deputy county clerk, during the past three years, Thursday announced his candidacy for that office to succeed Miss I. M. Harrington. Mr. Miller is a Republican and a resident of Gladstone where he owns considerable property. TOO MANY HUSBANDS Suit for divorce was filed in circuit court on Thursday by Wayne W. Eicholtz against May Harrington alias May Eicholtz upon the grounds that the wife had a former husband living from which she had never been divorced. The couple were married at Stevenson, Washington, August 25, 1915. EMIL WISE GETS VERDICT. The Circuit Court Wednesday signed a decree in favor of the defendant in the case of Page and son against Emil Wise the former having brought suit against the latter for the failure of a contract to deliver certain lot of potatoes, the court holding that Page and son had failed to tender payment when they agreed to. STATE CONDEMNS ROADWAY The state of Oregon by and through the State Highway commission is plaintiff in an action filed in circuit court Thursday against Joe W. Ganong and Martha Ganong, R. C. Ganong and Cella F. Ganong, Matilda and H. S. Mount, Fred Shannon and Nettie Shannon in which the state seeks to condemn for a road right of way certain property held by the defendants. The road is included in the highway under construction from the Multnomah county line to Junction City. THREE SEEK DIVORCE. Divorce actions were filed in Circuit Court by Sadie J. Key against E. C. Key on the grounds of cruelty; they were married at Salem, Oregon, January 26, 1906, there are no children. John H. Daly against Sarah Daly on the grounds of cruelty, they were married December 30, 1908 and have no children. The wife is now a resident of Clackamas county. Olive M. Jarred is plaintiff in an action filed for divorce in Multnomah County and change of venue taken to this county, against Arthur Jarred, alleging her grounds as cruelty. The couple were married at Eugene November 28, 1913 and have one child for which the wife asks custody and twenty-five dollars per month alimony. DEFENDANTS PLEAD MONDAY. The defendants charged in the true bills returned by the county grand jury Thursday will be arraigned in circuit court Monday morning including Cadis Pratt all of whom are out on bonds except Pratt. His bond will be fixed at two thousand dollars.

A New Member Joins the Taft Family. One of the happiest days in the life of former President Taft was the day of the wedding of his son to Miss Eleanor Kellogg Chase of Waterbury, Conn., to sergeant-major Taft, of the United States army. The new member of the Taft family is shown here with her husband and the former president. RED CROSS SOCIETY MAKE TWO HUNDRED BOXES FOR OVERSEAS Wednesday was a busy day with the committees of the Red Cross society, packing boxes to be sent to the soldiers in France. Early Wednesday morning donors commenced to arrive with their packages, and two hundred boxes were packed by the committee. Each box contained a Christmas greeting, decorated with bright colored holly berries and foliage, with the following message: "Oregon City, Oregon, Red Cross wishes a Merry Christmas to Our Boys in France." Each box sent from the city contained the following articles: Two tins tobacco, one pipe and pipe cleaners, two packages cigarette papers, three packages chewing gum, two large handkerchiefs, one writing pad, one package envelopes, one lead pencil, one-fourth pound fruit cake, one-fourth pound chocolate fudge candy, one-fourth pound choice raisins, one-half pound dried prunes, one package salted nuts, one dish towel. The aggregate cost of the two hundred boxes was $400. There were numerous contributions received from various Clackamas county branches of the Red Cross. The Canby Auxiliary contributed nearly all of the prunes besides some cash. The Deschutes Club of Oregon City furnished the fruit cake and the candy. The salted nuts were supplied by the Girls Honor Guard of Oregon City. The raisins were contributed by the Gladstone Red Cross, and Beaver Creek, Clairmont, Barlow, Aurora, Logan, Mount Pleasant, sent supplies. Cash contributions also were received from the following: Crown-Willamette Paper Co. employees $38.25; C. C. Loucks, of Newberg, $5.00; contribution boxes in various stores, $10.81. Richard Petzold mailed a check for $25 for the Christmas boxes fund. The Boy Scouts and Honor Guard Girls donated their services at the collection boxes on Main street last Saturday, and collected $39. Bert Harvey of Twilight, collected from Twilight district $12.25. Mrs. R. L. Badger of Beaver Creek, prepared a large package for the boys in the hospitals in France. The committee in charge of the Christmas boxes were: Mrs. L. L. Pickens, Mrs. C. G. Miller, Mrs. Alice B. Smith, Mrs. James Cary and A. R. Jacobs. Those assisting in assembling and packing the boxes devoting almost the entire day to this work were Mrs. B. T. McBain, Mrs. C. G. Miller, Mrs. James Cary, Mrs. John W. Loder, Mrs. Arthur Howland, Mrs. Walter Dimick, Mrs. L. L. Pickens, Mrs. L. E. Jones, Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. H. E. Straight, Mrs. E. W. Scott. Fred Smith also assisted the women in packing, and Julius Meyer in setting the boxes ready for shipment. NOT TRUE BILL RETURNED FOR FELSENSTEIN In the report of grand jury published in Friday's paper it was stated that a true bill was returned against G. H. Felsenstein of Spokane, charged with obtaining property under false pretenses. This is an error as a not true bill was returned against Felsenstein, although it is reported that the action was dismissed at the instance of the prosecuting witness who refused to testify against Felsenstein inasmuch as he had returned the property to Mr. Henry Krebs the complaining witness. COURT DECIDES FOR QUINN. The decision in the case of W. A. Quinn against the Hawley Pulp & Paper company, was handed down to the circuit court Saturday from which it was appealed by the Hawley company. The supreme court affirms the decision of the lower court which decided for the plaintiff and Quinn is given judgment for the sum of thirty-five hundred and fifty dollars with interest from November 1, 1915.

One of the happiest days in the life of former President Taft was the day of the wedding of his son to Miss Eleanor Kellogg Chase of Waterbury, Conn., to sergeant-major Taft, of the United States army. The new member of the Taft family is shown here with her husband and the former president.

ELKS ANNUAL FROLIC ANNOUNCED FRIDAY EVENING BIG TENT The annual get together of the Oregon City Elks will be held at the club house Friday evening and is announced under the title of Elks Annual Halloween Jinx. Under the supervision of ringmasters T. A. Burke, Chas. Bollinger and Henry Techirgi the guests will be entertained with dances, songs and chatter, while eats, drinks and black cigars will keep their stomachs full and their nerves quite. The invitation to the members announces to the effect that the Elks in all the wild and reckless abandon of their native beauty will gather at the big tent on Friday evening at nine fifteen, where between the courses of drinks, eats and through the blue smoke of black cigars they will witness the soothing dance of Hawaiian maidens fresh from the fields of Honolulu, under the leadership of Duchess Mouwe Keowalki. They will behold with the naked eye the seductive steps of Asthetic dancing by Miss Eleanor DuBrie who will take the dog for a walk in her famous Cleopatra Canter and The Camouflage Caprice. Saucy Susie Smith will tickle their ears with society's favorite ballad, "We'll never let the old flag fall." The evening will formally open with brotherly words of caution by exalted ruler G. B. Dimick, followed by an overture by Prof. Oswald Whitson entitled Hello Bill or Today at 11:30. Pauline, Floetta and Simpkins as the Ginger Sisters will close the show. O. E. FREYTAG WORKS ON COUNTY EXHIBIT FOR LAND SHOW Oscar E. Freytag, of Gladstone, who is in charge of the county exhibit at the Land and Products Show to be held in Portland at an early date, is putting forth every effort to make the exhibit from this county a credit to the people. He is particularly anxious that all the women who have an assortment of canned fruits and vegetables submit a sample of each for exhibition purposes and announces that if they will notify him he will gladly call for whatever they may wish to send to the show. Articles for the county exhibit may also be left at the Publicity office of the Commercial Club in the city. Mr. Freytag expects to have the collection of the materials and products collected by Friday morning of this week. FUNERAL EILDERT WIEMAN; ELDORADO THURSDAY MORNING The funeral of Eldert Wieman, who died at the family home, Eldorado, Friday evening, will be conducted from the home Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. The remains will be taken to Portland for burial in Rose City Park. The funeral will be in charge of the Holman Undertaking establishment. Mr. Wieman was born December 7, 1845, at Wenemore, Germany, coming to America July 2, 1868, and married Miss Katherine Frothing April 19, 1869. He engaged in contracting business in Portland for many years, coming to Clackamas county five years ago, where he purchased a small farm. He is survived by his widow, Katharina Wieman, of Eldorado; the following children: Mrs. B. DeBahr, of Tigardville, Oregon; Herman Wieman, of Portland; Mrs. Lohr, of San Francisco; Fred and Albert Wieman, of Eldorado; Mrs. J. Helvey, of Molalla; three brothers and one sister, eighteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren. ALGOT LARSON OF GLADSTONE BURIED SATURDAY ROSE CITY The funeral services of Algot Larson, of Gladstone, who died at the Oregon City hospital on Thursday evening, were conducted from the Pearson funeral parlors in Portland on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. John Oval, of Salem, pastor of the Scandinavian church of that city, officiating. The interment took place in the family lot in Rose City cemetery. Mr. Larson was the son of Mrs. Christina Larson, of Gladstone. MR. AND MRS. JACK CHAMBERS CONGRATULATED Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chambers, of West Linn, are receiving the congratulations upon the arrival of another grandchild, a son born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilkerson, of Vancouver, Wash., Friday morning, October 26th, weight ten pounds. The youngster has been given the name of Jack after his grandfather. Mrs. Wilkerson formerly Miss Harriet Chambers, was married in the city thirteen years ago. This is their first child. This makes the 30th grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Chambers, together with eight great grandchildren. Jack Chambers has been in charge of the Oregon City locks for the past 45 years. Portland—Oregon candy manufacturers are co-operating with government to conserve the sugar supply.