

Nippy Briefs From All Over the County

Wilsonville

WILSONVILLE, Nov. 14.—Norris Young, Ellis Young, Elmer Seely and Homer Todd left for Vancouver Sunday, having enlisted in the Engineer's corps.

Clara Epler, who was operated upon in Portland hospital, for appendicitis, is improving.

Roy Baker went to Portland on Saturday to enlist in the Navy.

Mrs. Betagna, who has been ill for about seven weeks, was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital, in Portland Monday.

Hot lunches are being served at Wilsonville school house, during the noon hour, and are much appreciated by the pupils.

Mrs. Inman, who has been visiting relatives here, left for her home on Monday.

The clerks of school boards of this vicinity, have been busy this week collecting for the Y. M. C. A. drive.

The Red Cross Society of Corral Creek district, met at the home of Mrs. H. Jost, on Wednesday afternoon.

W. Stangle has been appointed deputy sheriff. He is now in Portland.

Mrs. M. C. Young went to West Butteville school on Friday afternoon, to help organize a Parent-Teacher Association there.

Mrs. Audrey Wood and daughter, Audrey, went to Portland Saturday, it being necessary to have an operation performed upon Audrey's throat, and we are pleased to learn that Audrey is getting along nicely, and returned home.

Mr. Brett was in Wilsonville on Friday on insurance business.

Margaret Baker is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Allison Baker, accompanying her uncle Roy, Portland, on Sunday.

Logan

LOGAN, Ore., Nov. 14.—The Busy Workers' club met at Mrs. Carl Falter's Saturday.

Mr. Sherwood underwent an operation in a Portland hospital.

F. W. Riehoff has purchased a feed and chop mill of larger capacity than the old one.

The Christensen family, of North Logan, had the misfortune to have their home and contents burned recently. Their new house under construction is not done yet.

The little daughter of Mr. Vogan, who is head carpenter on the Jackson log mansion at Clear Creek Park, is very ill with pneumonia.

If some farmers who use shorts would send a sample to the pure food commission, it might have the effect of improving the quality. That $34 per ton for re-ground bran and cleanings is out of reason. If sold for shorts, it should be true to name.

A "total eclipse" seems due along Clear Creek. Some were awaiting it at Baker's Bridge Sunday evening, but seems to have vanished over the hill. Try coon dogs next time.

P. M. Kirchner took a load of "porkers" to the stock yards Tuesday.

Fred Gerber is on the United States grand jury in Portland.

Eagle Creek

EAGLE CREEK, Ore., Nov. 14.—F. C. McKay as a Portland visitor one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass made a return trip to Portland one day last week.

H. S. Gibson is the proud possessor of twin Holstein calves.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodlee were Estacada visitors one day last week.

Mrs. R. B. Gibson called on Mrs. Roy Douglass last Thursday.

Some timber cruisers were out last week cruising the timber owned by J. I. Marshall, of Portland, situated on Deep Creek. Mr. Marshall is contemplating building a saw mill.

Mrs. H. S. Jones is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Viola Douglass.

Carl Douglass has recently built a new woodshed and is now making some improvements on the house.

J. P. Woodlee and wife motored to Mt. Tabor Sunday morning, returning in the evening.

The farmers have been busy the past week digging potatoes which turned out very well.

A. N. Orke has moved his house over near his new barn, so that now they can see out to the road.

Mrs. Annie Beckett went to Portland the first of the week, accompanying her daughters, Mabel and Veron Beckett, who were out to spend Sunday at home.

Claude Sersanous and family motored out to E. Naylor's Sunday.

Damascus

DAMASCUS, Ore., Nov. 14.—The Red Cross Society met at the home of Mrs. J. C. Elliott on Wednesday. Twenty-three ladies were present and considerable work was accomplished.

Geo. Thompson, who recently moved from this neighborhood to Kern Park, is seriously ill.

Mrs. Jno. Moore, who has been quite ill, is able to be about again.

Ford Everett and family, formerly of Arleta, are living on the Stein place this winter.

The telephone board held a meeting this week—wonder if they mean to get the Oregon City line in?

Everybody seems so excited over the escaped convicts. I'm sure they're just as much afraid for us to see them as we are for them to see us!

It looks a little like Oregon weather these last few days!

Any lady who will give one glass of jelly toward a Christmas dinner for the soldiers at American Lake, will please leave same at J. C. Elliott's store to be packed and taken to the army, not later than November 23.

Upper Garfield

UPPER GARFIELD, Ore., Nov. 13.—The Linn saw mill has closed down for the winter and Tim Linn is now connected with the Garfield Lumber Company.

Floyd Davis, who was recently married, is now very busy building his new house.

The Garfield band is again holding Saturday night meetings for practice under the leadership of Arthur C. Davis, of Milwaukie.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at a social at the Garfield church last Saturday evening with quite a large attendance.

There will be a meeting at the Grange hall next Saturday evening for the purpose of organizing a literary society.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Tom Carter, who are now living in Portland, spent the week-end at Log La Barre.

We understand Robt. R. Snyder is the proud owner of a new "Dodge" car.

The potato crop in this district is turning out much better than was expected, which is very pleasing to those fortunate enough to have some planted.

Word was recently received from Mrs. A. O. Whitcomb, who with her husband is now at the Cantonment near Palo Alto, Cal., that they are both well and enjoying that great and wonderful climate, but still they are a little homesick for the ranch.

H. A. La Barre has returned from Camp Lewis, Wash., where he has been the past five weeks, connected with the Field Auditor's Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Perkins and children of Portland, spent several days last week at Log La Barre.

Walter Markwart and his brother Harry, who are located in Portland, came out to spend a few days with their parents.

Ernest Amacher just received word that his brother Fred, who was in the 166th Depot Brigade at Camp Lewis, Wash., is now in New York with some of the boys who left that cantonment some two weeks ago.

Mulino

MULINO, Ore., Nov. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bergine were Molalla visitors last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daniels and children were Oregon City visitors last Saturday.

Mrs. Millie Thomas, of Union Hall, was a Mulino visitor last Saturday.

Mrs. Catherine Goucher spent last Saturday in Oregon City, doing some shopping.

Elmer Erickson and Mrs. Ed Bergine and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daniels motored to Canby last Monday to attend the funeral of the late Selma Friedrich.

Mr. and Mrs. August Erickson and Mrs. Leslie Holliday motored to Oregon City last Saturday.

Mrs. E. J. Maple visited relatives in Canby last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daniels visited relatives in Canby last Sunday.

There was a lecture in the Methodist church last Sunday under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. to raise funds for that association.

Mrs. Ella Dodge as a Molalla visitor last Tuesday.

Mrs. Sam Holstein and Mrs. Catherine Goucher were the guests of Mrs. Joe Daniels last Tuesday.

Elmer Erickson went to Oregon City last Monday on business.

Meadowbrook

MEADOWBROOK, Ore., Nov. 14.—The Steffani mill has started up after being shut down for several weeks. They have put in a larger boiler.

Ruth Hudson spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland.

Glen Larkins got his leg cut quite seriously, but is getting along all right. He was taken to the Oregon City hospital.

Senia Helibacka visited near Molalla Sunday.

The Meadowbrook Literary club holds its meeting Friday, November 16. R. J. Warner, of Corvallis, will give a talk on Community Co-operation besides the regular program.

Mr. Polso and family are moving to the shipneck camp where Mr. Polso will haul wood.

Help your boy at the front. Use less wheat and meat. Send more to him.

Elk Prairie

ELK PRAIRIE, Nov. 14.—Mr. Bennett, of Silverton, and a friend from Scotts Mills, were visitors at the Badger homestead recently.

Mr. Shaw and Mr. Collins have been digging a well recently.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Gray went to view the large band of sheep that are working down from Table Rock, and were near their place. There are said to be two thousand sheep in the bunch.

Mrs. Grinnel has returned to visit her mother in Crooked Finger.

C. K. Thomas expects to return to his mountain home soon, though he is far from being well after his accident six weeks ago.

Crushed rock is being applied to the road near Scotts, which is greatly appreciated by the people from this section who trade there.

Silver Falls Timber Company had the largest fire of the season, which proved very costly. The fire could be seen from this part, 11 miles away.

Mr. Gault spent several days in Scott's mills with his wife and son.

The season for Evergreen blackberries has been creeping slowly mount upward. Those at Mr. Swope's mill are now finding ready pickers, while those three or four miles below are past their prime.

Will Kruger was a visitor at the Badger home one day last week.

Mr. Gray took the school census a short time ago. The district claims about 40 pupils, of which only about 23 can take advantage of the school.

hills for a number of years, has moved to Spotts Mills.

D. B. Gray has rented a part of the Letzel place.

Ted Gray, who went to Eastern Oregon with a drove of sheep, that passed through here a few weeks ago, may spend the winter in that part of the state.

Mr. Thomas has rented a part of the Letzel place and will stay there this winter.

Kelso

KELSO, Ore., Nov. 15.—On Tuesday evening, November 20th, at 8:00 o'clock, Geo. V. McClure, of Rex, Oregon, will give a lecture on "Today and Yesterday." The meeting will be held at the school house under the auspices of the Kelso Parent-Teacher association. After the lecture a wartime lunch will be on sale. Admission is free. Everybody cordially invited.

Oak Grove

OAK GROVE, Ore., Nov. 15.—The Misses Williams and some friends motored out on the Columbia highway Wednesday.

The Commercial Club met Monday night at the school house and held a business meeting. Several committees were appointed to work on the proposed water system.

The teachers and pupils of our school are preparing an entertainment to be given November 29th at the school assembly room.

Hot soup and cocoa are being served to the pupils these cold days.

Lester Lindsay, of Sherwood, formerly of Oak Grove, and Miss Cora Watkins, of Portland, were married Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on East Washington street. Only the members of the two families were present. The

All ladies interested in this work are invited.

Mrs. R. A. Dodson, of Troutdale, spent Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Evans.

Saturday evening, November 10, the pupils of the Concord school gave a play entitled "The church bazaar at Mulberry Corners," also a basket social. T. R. Worthington sold the baskets and the proceeds, $50.00, will be used for the school to apply on a Liberty Bond which the school owns. A large number were present and all spent an enjoyable evening.

The Misses Ruth and Ellen Worthington spent Wednesday evening with their grandmother, Mrs. B. Obrion, of Oswego.

Charley Worthington had the misfortune to get kicked by a horse Sunday morning, laying him up for a few days.

Rev. Young, pastor of the Methodist church, will hold regular services Sunday morning, Epworth League Sunday evening. Prayer meeting Wednesday afternoon. Tea was served and comforts tied. The ladies are planning a Harvest Home dinner in the near future.

The Y. M. C. A. drive is on and several of our people are busy at the work—lend a helping hand.

C. R. Bartlett is on his vacation and expects to go into the Bull Run country hunting next week.

Oswego

OSWEGO, Ore., Nov. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Hole and children were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fox this week.

The Pochontas and Redmen, will give another of their popular dances on Thanksgiving eve, November 28th, at the Grange hall. It being a masque, some very good characters are expected.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gregory were

Estacada

ESTACADA, Ore., Nov. 14.—The Estacada Feed and Lumber Co. has purchased a new Ford delivery car.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore were visitors in Portland last Friday.

A Demoy and family are making preparations to move to Oregon City in the near future, where Mr. Demoy has secured a position in one of the paper mills. It is regretted very much that this most estimable family is to leave Estacada.

Mayor Lovelace and wife were Portland visitors last Friday.

J. R. Kenny, who has been operating the Knatch mill for several months, has resigned his position and with Mrs. Kenny removed to Portland.

Miss Louie Quilliam went to Portland last Saturday to visit her father, who has been very sick. She returned Sunday evening.

Miss Sadie Ingram, who is a telephone girl in the Portland exchange, has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Dave Fleming and L. S. Bronson for several days.

Mrs. A. Havens spent the week-end with her home folks in Estacada, returning to Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Deuning returned from their wedding tour Saturday and are now nicely settled in the Jones residence.

The Estacada high school football boys went to Canas, Wash., last Friday to play a return game with the Canas high school boys and were defeated by a small number of scores.

Quite a number of Estacada people went to Portland Monday, to attend the funeral of Rev. Browne, who died Sunday morning at 7 o'clock. Among those who attended the funeral from this place were Mrs. Lowry and Mrs. Eva Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sparks and Dr. and Mrs. Adix motored to Portland Tuesday night.

W. F. Cary, of Casadero, was transacting business in Portland Tuesday, going in his Ford car.

A. N. Allen visited friends in Portland last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ahlberg were in Portland Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Irma Graham was an Estacada visitor from Portland last Sunday.

Mrs. C. F. Dittbrand and children, of Spokane, are guests at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Bartlett.

The Estacada high school football team goes to Vancouver, Wash., Saturday, to play the Vancouver High.

The Civic Improvement Club met Tuesday afternoon at the library, with a dozen officers and members present. During the business session, with Mrs. Bartlett, president, in the chair, quite a number of important questions relative to club work were discussed. Plans for an apron bazaar were brought up and the committee on the Thanksgiving dance reported that music had been secured and all plans in the hands of competent committees. Mrs. L. G. Wells gave an interesting talk on "Labor Saving Devices."

Walter Givens has been in Portland during the past week assisting with special meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson are visiting in Eastern Oregon.

C. C. Miller and wife autoted to Portland Sunday to visit at the home of Mrs. Miller's daughter.

A renewed activity in the Red Cross is about to take place in Estacada and all members and all other ladies who care to help, are urged to be present at the next meetings. It may be necessary to meet twice a week in order to accomplish the work which is now on hand. Mrs. John Lovelace, the chairman of the auxiliary, visited the Portland Red Cross rooms last Friday and brought a back material for enough work to keep the members busy for some time. She also was furnished with more yarn, for socks, which was in great demand here.

The Estacada Garage is being improved with a large awning on the west side.

H. Spear, of Springwater, has sold his farm and will move soon to Portland.

The W. McWilliams family has moved to the Shutter residence, which they recently purchased.

Sam Barr came home from American Lake last Saturday to remain a few days.

Harry Reid has returned from American Lake, his physical examination not being up to the required standard. Mr. Reid was one of the boys who went on the third draft.

An officer has been guarding the bridge over the Clackamas at this place, and also at Faraday, this week, to be sure that the negro convicts would not pass over on the other side of the river. Since these colored fugitives have been in hiding, somewhere in this vicinity, ladies of the town have developed very timid dispositions and some ludicrous experiences are being related.

Miss Rica Anderson, principal of the Estacada grade schools, spent the week-end with her sister at Boring.

Dr. and Mrs. Wells visited Portland relatives last Thursday.

Among those from Estacada, who attended the dance at Eagle Creek last Saturday night, were A. L. Lasswell and wife, Charlie Sparks and wife, Harold Wooster and wife, Mrs. Neal Bronson, J. R. Kenny and wife, the Misses Quigbaum, and Milton Evans.

The Modern Pricellas of Currinsville, are giving a dance in the Eagle Creek hall, next Saturday night, proceeds for the benefit of the Red Cross.

A. G. Ames, the Federal Hunter, is home for a few days from his camp at Austin Meadows. He reports that wild animals are becoming scarce in that section and he has been setting traps at the head of the Molalla river.

MAN TROUBLED FOR TWO YEARS. Men and women should not suffer from backache, rheumatic pains, stiff joints and swollen, sore muscles, when relief can be easily had. James McCreery, Berrien Center, Mich., says he was troubled with kidney and bladder trouble for two years; would have to get up several times during the night and had pains across his kidneys. He used several kinds of medicine without relief, but Foley Kidney Pills cured him. Many such letters, come every day from all parts of the country. Jones Drug Co.—Adv.

Macksburg

MACKSBURG, Ore., Nov. 15.—With the grass, as well as all other vegetation so green and with an atmosphere that permits us to see with open windows and doors it is hard to realize that Thanksgiving is but little over a fortnight away.

Still there are infallible signs that the summer and early fall of 1917 are gone. The crops have all disappeared from the fields and the ground is being prepared for planting. Roses and chrysanthemums are about the only flowers left. That little lover of flowers, the humming bird, has gone, and last of all the summer birds too, have gone, the brightly-colored blue-bird, who has been pecking at our windows as if trying to talk to us and sometimes flying in at an open door has, at last taken flight for a sunnier clime.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bowers are called to the bedside of their youngest daughter, Marie, who is seriously ill. Their home and the little grand arena, in the meanwhile, taken care of by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bowers.

The wedding of Miss Anna Hepler and Mr. Will Danu, which took place last Wednesday in Vancouver, was one of marked interest in our community. Both the young people were well known and most highly esteemed here. Miss Hepler has lived here since early childhood. We are glad to know that the young couple are to settle in our vicinity, and that they are to live in the ancestral home of the bride's mother.

The funeral of W. L. Matthews took place on Thursday, October 8. Mr. Matthews had been suffering for years from a painful illness, and though seriously misused by his neighbors and other friends, besides his own family, his death can only be regarded as a happy release from distress.

Miss Rachel Miller returned Friday for a visit and has gone to Woodburn to remain for some time.

The Mothers' Club had a very busy and interesting session last Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Simon Miller. Our president, Mrs. John Hepler, was present for the first time since last July, having but lately returned from an extended visit to her people in the middle west. The club had the pleasure of welcoming two new visitors, Mrs. Neff, from the home but lately occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Milo Lantz, and Mrs. Ewale, who with her boys, is in charge of the Whalley estate.

The Little Girls' Sewing Circle is in charge of Mrs. G. M. Baldwin and will meet at her home on Saturday afternoon, October 17th.

The Red Cross is gradually gaining ground, although at first it met with scant courtesy, not being fairly understood. All like the work, and some of our community, who at first opposed it, even gave it the cold shoulder, are now among its most ardent promoters.

Barlow

BARLOW, Ore., Nov. 15.—Mrs. Lena Bond Young has gone to Spokane to visit her daughter, Mrs. Cannon, who has been visiting Mrs. Young for the past month, returned home with Mrs. Young.

Mrs. Parrott, of White Salmon, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse.

Mrs. Irwin drove to Mount Angel Sunday to see Miss Irene Wurfel, who is attending school there.

Elmer Irwin shot an Arctic owl Sunday on Mr. Peterson's barn. The owl was a beauty, being clear white with little spatters of black on its back and measuring four feet from tip to tip of its wings. Elmer has gone to Portland to work.

Willie and Patrick Malloy were down from Gervais last Thursday.

K. E. Irwin is serving on the jury in Oregon City.

We are now asked to contribute for the soldiers in America for Christmas. All who wish to donate anything for this cause please leave it at the post office or one of the stores.

James Anderson returned home from Eastern Oregon recently.

We have our new heating plant installed and it is giving good satisfaction.

Miss Oleva Johnson, of Oswego, is visiting Mrs. Larson.

Mr. and Mrs. Vickers' son is home on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Tull, of Oregon City, spent Sunday with Mrs. Tull's parents Mr. and Mrs. Howe. Miss Olga Howe will spend the week with her sister in Oregon City.

IT'S SURPRISING.

That So Many Oregon City People Fail to Recognize Kidney Weakness!

Are you a bad back cictim? Suffer twinges; headaches, dizzy spells?

Go to bed tired—get up tired? It's surprising how few suspect the kidneys.

It's surprising how few know what to do.

Kidney trouble needs kidney treatment.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only.

Have convinced Oregon City people of their merit.

Here's an Oregon City case; Oregon City testimony.

Kidney sufferers hereabouts should read it.

Mrs. John Beers 416 Water St., says: "I am ready to confirm at any time what I said in my former statement regarding my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. I still consider them the one reliable medicine for kidney trouble. I take Doan's whenever I feel in need of something to help my kidneys and they always do me good."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Beers has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

A DOWDEN POTATO DIGGER
DIGS YOUR POTATO CLEAN
GETS THEM ALL

Light Draft because high wheeled.
Perfect Separation because of longer and wider elevations than others like size.
Long Lasting Because all parts are made of the most enduring material.

Mitchell
LEWIS & STAVERC

Portland, Oregon

W. J. Wilson & Co.
OREGON CITY

DISC HARROWS
DRAG HARROWS
CHILLED PLOWS
STEEL PLOWS

Old Folks Saved From Suffering

Mrs. Mary A. Dean, Taunton, Mass., in her 87th year, says: "I thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley Kidney Pills have proven most beneficial in my case."

Mr. Sam A. Hoover, High Point, N. C., writes: "My kidney trouble was worse at night and I had to get up from bed to seven times. Now I do not have to get up at night, and consider myself in a truly normal condition, which I attribute to Foley Kidney Pills, as I have taken nothing else."

Mrs. M. A. Bridges, Rubensan, Mass., says: "I suffered from kidney ailments for two years. I commenced taking Foley Kidney Pills ten months ago, and through I am 61 years of age, I feel like a 16-year-old girl."

Foley's Kidney Pills are tonic, strengthening and up-building, and restore normal action to the kidneys and to a disordered and painful bladder. They act quickly and contain no dangerous or harmful drugs.

because of the size of the district. Mr. Kruger, a Civil War veteran, became lost on his return from Scotts Mills a few evenings ago, and did not reach home until two o'clock in the morning, and then only by wading down the creek that passed his home. Mr. Kruger has lived at his present home and near there since 1896 and is familiar with all trails, but the one he chose had become so overgrown with fern and was so little used that he lost his way.

Frank Hilton's sons are preparing to attend school at Scotts Mills. D. W. Badger has spent the past week completing a wagon road to his home.

Glen Gault, who has lived in the State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, ss. Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and