Macksburg

MACKSBURG, Nov. 25.—The ranch formerly owned by R. F. Schroenbach has been bought by Mrs. Evans and her two sons of Woodburn. The young men are at work on the ground and are making their home temporarily with Mr. and Mrs. Simon Miller. They are to build a large modern house, and are planning to have it finished before the arrival of their mother in the spring.

L. Masterton has announced a sale of his livestock, farm implements and household furniture on Tuesday, Nov. 27th. Mr. Masterton has lived on his ranch here for over two years and in that time has acquired a large number of warm friends, who sincerely regret his having to join the army.

The Mothers' club will meet on Thursday, December 6th, at the home of John Hapler.

The Lutheran Sunday school at the Ely school house, is to meet for the regular session on Sunday, December 2nd, in the afternoon.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Little Girls' Sewing circle will be at the home of Mrs. G. M. Baldwin Saturday, December 1st.

The Mennonite congregation is to repair in a body to their parent organization at the Zion tabernacle on the morning of Thanksgiving day, where there will be an appropriate service, mostly choral. A very large number of voices will render the service of song.

The Red Cross workers are busy and are intending to have a good showing of hospital supplies ready for the next shipment abroad. Never did such an influence for awakening patriotism, such an extirpation of neighborhood feuds, such a stimulant to diligence or such an incentive to self-denial descend upon us as has come in this mission of the Red Cross. However divergent the tastes, the habits or the religious tenets of our community, we are all one whole working force for our soldiers over the sea.

Logan

LOGAN, Nov. 27.—At a special road meeting Saturday a tax of 7 mills was voted.

M. H. Riehoff, an old resident of this place, sold his farm last week and will move to Portland.

The Red Cross benefit last Saturday evening at the Grange hall was a success both socially and financially. It was a crowded house that listened to the interesting address of Dr. H. S. Mount on the work and needs of the Red Cross. The net proceeds of the evening were $101.75 and $10.90 donated by the grange brings it up to $112.75. A rug made by an old lady was auctioned off for $4.50. R. J. Werner being the lucky man. Lunch with coffee was served at 25c per plate, after which dancing was the closing diversion. Quite a number of Oregon City people were present. All had a good time and the money raised is for a good cause. We who sleep in "comfy" beds here must have a thought for the boys over there who have to live in tents all winter, where the needs of the sick, wounded and helpless are at home to do all they can to aid.

Judge and Mrs. Anderson are preparing to move to Oregon City. There will be an O. A. C. extension service meeting at the Grange hall Friday, December 7th. Home economics and soil testing are the topics to be discussed. Fill your pocket with a soil sample, put some lunch in the basket and all will be tested free and most especially the latter. This meeting is for everybody. The last meeting of the Parent-Teacher association last week was a purely business affair. The playhouse is progressing slowly, as it is hard to get sufficient volunteer labor when the people are so busy with farm work over-due.

Hawley, Jr., resident manager of the Hawley Pulp & Paper Co., announced Tuesday afternoon that his company had just contracted for the installation of an auxiliary sprinkling system at the plant and the erection of two large water tanks on the bluff near the mill. Mr. Hawley said the city has only one large main from its reservoir to the down town section, where the mill is situated, and in case of a fire and a break in the main, the property would be at the mercy of the flames. Land has been acquired for the tanks and the system will be installed at a cost of about $40,000. The mill will be equipped with automatic sprinklers throughout.

How Big Is Your Foot? Socks For Elephants! Might Do For Sweater

Mrs. W. B. Shively, one of the old time and well known residents of Oregon City, who has not knitted since she was a girl, and becoming interested in the work of the Red Cross branch, has started to knit socks for the soldiers. Mrs. Shively not remembering just how many stitches to take for this work, started out with too many, and after spending several days at the work, found she was making a sock large enough for an elephant, and about decided to turn it into a sweater for one of the largest men of Uncle Sam's army. On Saturday she was informed just how many stitches it requires for the socks for the soldiers, and will start in earnest this week.

TWO DIVORCE SUITS FILED IN CIRCUIT COURT WEDNESDAY

Two divorce actions were filed in the circuit court Wednesday. Fritz Beese seeks a decree from Lella May Beese on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. Plaintiff alleges his spouse made frequent trips to Portland in company with other men and that she was guilty of neglect of home and family. Mr. Beese also asks for the custody of their 2-year-old child, Arlene Beese. The Beeses were formerly Washington county people. Alleging continual drunkenness, threats to kill and vile epithets on the part of her husband, Esta A. Brown, asks a divorce from Edward S. Brown. The couple were married in Hamilton, Montana, in 1910. Mrs. Brown asks that her maiden name, Esta A. Dixon, be restored.

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES

Old Folks Saved From Suffering

Mrs. Mary A. Dean, Taunton, Mass., in her 87th year, says: "I thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley Kidney Pills have proven most beneficial in my case." Mr. Sam A. Hoover, High Point, N. C., writes: "My kidney trouble was worse at night and I had to get up from five to seven times. Now I do not have to get up at night, and consider myself in a truly normal condition, which I attribute to Foley Kidney Pills, as I have taken nothing else." Mrs. M. A. Bridges, Robinson, Mass., says: "I suffered from kidney ailments for two years. I commenced taking Foley Kidney Pills ten months ago, and though I am 61 years of age, I feel like a 16-year-old girl." Foley Kidney Pills are tonic strengthening and up-building, and restore normal action to the kidneys and to a disordered and painful bladder. They act quickly and contain no dangerous or harmful drugs.
