Macksburg

MACKSBURG, Ore., Jan. 9.—To the sincere regret of his parishioners, as well as of other friends, Rev. Fr. Lucas is to leave for California, the present week, in search of health. Everyone associated with Fr. Lucas in the past few months had been indulging in the hope of his complete recovery from the serious illness he had in the past summer, when suddenly, on December 26th, he was stricken down while in his pulpit with a return of the disease and will not be able, for several weeks, at least, to resume his work. Father Lucas' last sermon in preparation for leaving was preached on Sunday, January 6th.

The Mothers' club had a very busy and interesting session on Thursday, January 24, at the home of its secretary. It being the first meeting in the new year, election of officers was in order, and are as follows: President, Mrs. Hepler; vice-president Mrs. Simon Miller and secretary, Mrs. G. M. Baldwin, were unanimously chosen for another year. The club was organized in January, 1915, and so has had three years of existence. The same officers, with the exception of the first vice-president, who moved away two years ago, have served throughout the entire time. No division of the club had ever taken place till about a year ago, when the number of members had increased till it was too large for accommodations in a private home, and a new club was formed with Mrs. Charles Keating president, Mrs. Herman Harna, vice-president and Mrs. Schnack, secretary. Both clubs are trying to do something in Red Cross work. Though not entirely unanimous in this respect, we have avoided any serious dissatisfaction from this cause. The Red Cross workers deeming that persuasive measures are best in such cases. The few people in the world who can look with disfavor upon this wonderful organization should be led to look forward to the close of the war when the returned soldiers shall tell of its stupendous work in relieving army life of the horrors of war. When the Red Cross is the subject of conversation, how must those feel who are obliged to confess they never had anything to do with it.

After the Civil War when the surviving soldiers in relating their war experience, told of the unspeakable relief afforded by the sanitary commission, there was not a listener but felt in the depth of her soul a sting of regret for not doing more in helping on that magnificent cause. Immeasurably greater is the Red Cross headed by the President of the United States than was that body of patriots in the century past. Not to be a member of the Red Cross seems akin to ostracism from our beloved commonwealth, a thought intolerable to every lover of his native land.

Garfield

GARFIELD, Ore., Jan. 8.—Miss Myrtle Schuman closed the Porter school with a program suitable for the holidays. A large number of parents and friends attended the pleasant afternoon. She again returned and reopened school January 3, having spent her vacation with her mother, Mrs. L. Schumann, of Portland.

Arthur Davis is temporarily in charge of the Garfield band, which practices regularly at the grange hall. The Garfield literary society entertained its members and friends on December 29th, with a "Bow party." Each lady present brought two similar bows, and the gentleman who chose the corresponding bow was rewarded by having the lady for his partner during the evening.

On Friday evening, December 21st, the Garfield union Sunday school gave a program and Christmas tree to a crowded house. Each child was presented with a toothsome Christmas treat.

J. R. Humphrys, wife and son, Edwin, and Mrs. Nora Moss Clark, of Oregon City, spent their Christmas holidays at Log La Barre. During the stay Santa Claus made his annual visit and was honored by having Mrs. Clark as his partner in a merry dance. Other guests for the holidays were Miss Ethel Wakeman, Mrs. A. R. Maclean, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Carter and Wm. Swindello, of Portland, and Masters Denny and Howard Givens, of Estacada.

The eighteenth annual reunion of the Bandana club was held at Log La Barre, Estacada, January first, with Dr. Robt. Wendling as guide, the party left Portland on New Year's morning for "Somewhere in Oregon," and after an enjoyable hike they made Log La Barre in time for a sumptuous New Year's feast. The club returned to the city the next day after an evening spent in pleasant reminiscences around the huge fire place. Those composing the party were Bruce

Old Folks Saved From Suffering

Mrs. Mary A. Dean, Taunton, Mass., in her 87th year, says: "I thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley Kidney Pills have proven most beneficial in my case."
Mr. Sam A. Hoover, High Point, N. C., writes: "My kidney trouble was worse at night and I had to get up from five to seven times. Now I do not have to get up at night, and consider myself in a truly normal condition, which I attribute to Foley Kidney Pills, as I have taken nothing else."
Mrs. M. A. Bridges, Robinson, Mass., says: "I suffered from kidney ailments for two years. I commenced taking Foley Kidney Pills ten months ago, and though I am 61 years of age, I feel like a 15-year-old girl."
Foley Kidney Pills are tonic, strengthening and up-building, and restore normal action to the kidneys and aid to a disordered and painful bladder. They act quickly and contain no dangerous or harmful drugs.

Kaltz, of Seattle, Frank Woodfield, of Astoria, and Harry Stephenson, Allen Percy, Luther Steel, James McKinnon and Dr. Wendling, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Markwart and family spent the Christmas holidays in Portland. The heavy rains have done but little damage to the bridges in the upper Garfield district. There is no snow in the mountains so far this year, and a telephone pole in full blossom was found enjoying the balmy Chinook wind of New Year's day. Walter Anderson enjoyed his Christmas vacation with his aunt, Mrs. Anderson, of Boring.

Mike Pendleton has been on the sick list the past week. Arthur Orem and wife were Oregon City callers on Saturday.

Stafford

STAFFORD, Ore., Jan. 10.—The girls of Stafford school are now receiving their lessons in the Sewing Club work. The boys have also decided to take up some club work. They are deliberating over the hen-hare-and-hog work; also the "spud" is not being forgotten. This is examination week at Stafford school. Also the pupils are taking up the county contest work in spelling and arithmetic. Last contest month one-half of our pupils made 100 per cent in the test, while one-fourth of them made 95 per cent, the rest falling below 90 per cent. Can Stafford spell? Yes, a few. Saturday evening, January 5, patrons and pupils of Stafford met at the school house and organized a literary club with officers as follows: President, Carl Ellingsen; vice-president, Veva Tiedeman; secretary, Iva Borland; treasurer, Mrs. Gage; sergeant-at-arms, Mr. Weddle; assistant sergeant-at-arms, Messrs. Moser and Nussbaum. The president appointed the following on the program committee: Mrs. Meeks, Miss E. Seedling, Miss Dora Oldengardt, Miss Myrtle Oldengardt; Misses Davis and Ronde, teachers of Stafford school. The next meeting of the literary society will be held January 19 at 3 p. m., at which time rules for conducting the society will be submitted to the member for their vote. Mrs. Gage invited the officers of the Stafford Literary club to her home, where they drew up rules and regulations for the work; these rules will be voted on by members, later. Mrs. Ray (nee Eva Holton) of Independence, is visiting her mother at this place. Mrs. Oldham and her mother were visitors at the Gage home on Friday, January 4. Misses Iva Borland, Veva Tiedeman, Ellingsen and Rable were visitors at Stafford school during the first of the new year.

The Stover Gasoline Engine

Is Ready for Work

THE STOVER ENGINE is an ideal farm power. More than that it is a practical farm power. The Stover Engine is simple and strong. It has few parts. Take the cut of the Stover shown here and compare it with the picture of any other engine on the market. Compare the engines themselves if you can. Note the difference. Notice that the Stover is stronger and better in every detail. Now, why don't you get next to the fact that you are cheating yourself by not owning one of these engines? Everyday you are doing lots of work that could be better and more cheaply done by a Stover Engine. Get the idea that an owner of a gasoline engine has to be an engineer out of your head. He doesn't—that is, if his engine is a Stover. A few minutes instruction will make you able to operate your Stover as an old hand. That's why we say that the Stover is an ideal farm power. It is made right. It is giving satisfaction to 3500 users right here at home in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. We sell them in sizes ranging from one to sixty horse power.

WE ASK ONLY THE OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW YOU WHAT THE STOVER WILL DO FOR YOU
