The Stover Gasoline Engine

Is Ready for Work

THE STOVER ENGINE is an ideal farm power. More than that it is a practical farm power. The Stover Engine is simple and strong. It has few parts. Take the cut of the Stover shown here and compare it with the picture of any other engine on the market. Compare the engines themselves if you can. Note the difference. Notice that the Stover is stronger and better in every detail. Now, why don't you get next to the fact that you are cheating yourself by not owning one of these engines? Everyday you are doing lots of work that could be better and more cheaply done by a Stover Engine. Get the idea that an owner of a gasoline engine has to be an engineer out of your head. He doesn't—that is, if his engine is a Stover. A few minutes instruction will make you able to operate your Stover as an old hand. That's why we say that the Stover is an ideal farm power. It is made right. It is giving satisfaction to 3500 users right here at home in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. We sell them in sizes ranging from one to sixty horse power.

WE ASK ONLY THE OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW YOU WHAT THE STOVER WILL DO FOR YOU

other letter from her son, Ernest, who is with the engineer corps, "somewhere in France." Mr. Nelson states that the country is beautiful and that he is well and feeling fine.

Several of the members of Kasell Tribe went to Portland last Thursday to be installed in their respective offices for the ensuing term. It being a joint installation of the Willamette Tribe No. 1, Oneonta Tribe No. 2 and Kasell Tribe No. 39. All report a good time.

Ivan Haines met with a painful accident last week, when he was burned on the arm and shoulder by electricity, while at work at the Portland Cement Company's plant. He is doing nicely at present.

Elmer Shipley was another victim of an accident last week, having a foot mashed while at work at the Oregon Iron and Steel Company's plant.

Clear Creek Creamery paid off patrons at 54 cents per pound for December, at the request of many of the former patrons of the Eagle Creek route, a route will be started again. An official survey is being made to ascertain on what basis butter prices are made. With all kinds of feed at top notch prices and milk condensaries offering high prices for milk, creameries are forced to keep up the price in order to get cream. High cost of feed and high milk does it.

Miss Alma Boss is spending a few weeks in Portland.

The Logan Red Cross auxiliary sent its first completed work this week: 13 dish towels, 3 dozen hospital wash cloths, 21 bed socks, 6 pairs wash socks, 5 sweaters. If the government would do by the yarn as by food stuff Red Cross workers would soon be supplied with it.

Yes, where are our patriotic women, and men too. It is interesting to hear some tell how patriotic they are, and yet a proposition involving one day's wages to be given to the Red Cross goes "begging."

Quite a number of Harding Grangers attended Clackamas County Pomona at Milwaukie. Fine time and large crowd resulted.

J. P. Steinman, of Eagle Creek, was an Oregon City and Logan visitor this week.

a call will be extended to some pastors.

Friends here have received news of the death of R. W. Eddy at the home of his son, Melvin, in Los Angeles, California. Mr. Eddy was a member of the Third Iowa regiment and served through the civil war. He was the father of W. S. Eddy, the well known veterinarian of Oregon City. The funeral services were held in Los Angeles today and interment will be in April at Dubuque, Iowa.

The names of our soldiers or sailors, who were in any way, connected with the Sunday school, or church, are requested to be handed to the clerk of the church, Mrs. Della Roberts, with the pictures if possible and the number of their company. These will be used in the service flag, which the ladies of the Congregational church of Oregon City are getting up for the First Federated church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Elwell, of Portland, have bought an interest in the Jennings Lodge grocery and have taken up their residence above the store.

During the night of Sunday, January 6th, the store belonging to the Manor Mercantile company at Manor, Wash., burned to the ground. The home of H. C. Fainton, less than 50 feet away, seemed doomed to destruction and their household goods were all moved and taken to neighbors. The fire burned fiercely until midnight, when it was so close to the ground that all fears were over and they were able to move in again. No one was injured during the fire.

The Parent-Teacher association met at the school house Friday, January 11, Mrs. Edith Truscott presiding. Mrs. C. C. Holt was unanimously elected to serve as secretary upon the resignation of Mrs. Saunders.

Charles White, the new proprietor of the butcher shop in Mulino, seems to be doing a thriving business.

Wilsonville

WILSONVILLE, Ore., Jan. 17.—The Red Cross drive for Christmas memberships, was successfully carried on in Wilsonville and vicinity.

The Parent-Teacher association of our village, will give a play in the near future, for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Sherman Seely has purchased a tractor.

The Onion Growers' association has shipped a car load of onions recently.

Industrial clubs have been formed in Wilsonville and vicinity schools, and officers elected for the year.

Charles Wagner has returned from Corvallis, where he has been attending O. A. C. during Farmers' week.

The chicken-pie supper, given by Corral Creek district, for the benefit of the Red Cross, recently, was a splendid one, and $23.76 was realized.

Clara Epler, who suffered a relapse from her illness, was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital, for treatment, and is slowly improving.

Mrs. Raymond Seely, who gave birth to a little baby boy, at the St. Vincent hospital, in Portland, on Friday, December 28, has been at death's door, but her hosts of friends will be pleased to learn that hopes are now entertained for her recovery.

Dwight Seely has been assisting in H. D. Aden's store, in taking stock.

Quite a number from Wilsonville attended the Choral club concert at Sherwood, on Saturday evening, January 5. A splendid vocal solo was given by Sherman Seely, of this place, and he gracefully responded to a rousing encore.

Macksburg

MACKSBURG, Ore., Jan. 16.—So far from keeping up traditional strengthening of the cold with the lengthening of the day, January, 1918, has until now seemed like a premature spring-time. Not only does the grass keep the emerald hue of April or May, the rosebushes are putting forth their leaves, the daffodils are showing signs of bursting into bloom and the flowering quince is gay with crimson flowers. Everywhere we are reminded that the great underground miracle of germination is going on in preparation for the world-feeding of the coming year—the substance of which must come a largely from our own United States.

The almost continuous rain added to the melted snow brought down by the general warmth from the Cascades is keeping the Molalla and its tributaries at flood height. So far, however, the bridges are holding their own owing to substantial repairs in the fall, while the roads, except in the hollows, are still passable even for autos.

The land clearing, which usually occupies the brief interval between the autumn harvest with the fall plowing and the spring planting is suspended, now, by the rain, thus allowing more time for social duties and pleasures than when the spring and fall rush is on.

The Mothers' Club is to meet in the present week at the home of Mr. Hifei.

The Woman's club of the Lutheran church continues its work notwithstanding the absence of the pastor. All are desirous that Father Lucas shall find on his return that the work instituted by himself has gone on in his absence with all the vigor that he could have wished. The Eby Sunday school for which Fr. Lucas has shown such deep solicitude is following his instruction to keep at work, as diligently as if his devoted founder was present.

The Little Girls' Sewing circle held its regular semi-monthly meeting on Saturday last at Mrs. G. M. Baldwin's home.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dwarschank, who has been seriously ill for several weeks past, is now showing some sign of improvement.

Patrick Gibson returned from Aurora a week or two after the army as a volunteer. Patrick has gone to his training camp when his brother, Will is working in government employ. Two others of the Gibson brothers are registered for service.

The Red Cross is occupying all minds and a good many hands. Evidently no one wants the humiliation of having had nothing to do with the Red Cross when the soldiers are coming home to tell of what it did for them when at the front.

Nysa—Oregon Short Line completes plank crossing over its tracks and has indicated intention to supply water for stockyards here.

Old Folks Saved From Suffering

Mrs. Mary A. Dean, Taunton, Mass., in her 87th year, says: "I thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley Kidney Pills have proven most beneficial in my case."

Mr. Sam A. Hoover, Elkh Point, N. C. writes: "My kidney trouble was very bad and I had to get up from five to seven times. Now I do not have to get up at night, and consider myself in a truly normal condition, which I attribute to Foley Kidney Pills, as I have taken nothing else."

Mrs. M. A. Bridges, Robinson, Mass., says: "I suffered from kidney ailments for two years. I commenced taking Foley Kidney Pills ten months ago, and though I am 61 years of age, I feel like a 35-year-old girl."

Foley Kidney Pills are tonic, strengthening and up-building, and restore normal action to the kidneys and so to a disordered and painful bladder. They act quickly and contain no dangerous or harmful drugs.
