

Motor Trucks for Pershing in Procession Across Country

Twenty-seven motor trucks of the United States army on their way from Detroit over roads of several states have passed through many cities on their way to an Atlantic port. Had they been shipped on railroads it would have added to the congestion existing on them. The trucks have averaged about fifty miles a day, and have come through without serious accident.

John Confer, C. A. Stockwell, T. M. Kellogg.

The Parent-Teacher association of Mount Pleasant met in the Mount Pleasant schoolhouse on Friday afternoon, and carried out a well arranged program.

The election of officers of the association was held, with the following result: President, Mrs. L. A. Ledger; vice-president, Mrs. A. E. King; recording secretary, Miss Margaret Thompson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. A. Barnum; treasurer, Mrs. E. T. McLane.

The next meeting will be on Friday afternoon, February 1. The Mount Pleasant Parent-Teacher association is affiliated with the State Defeated Parent-Teacher association, and since its organization has interested many patrons of the school in the work that is being carried on by the students of that school.

A pretty but quiet home wedding was solemnized in this city on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Iva Blum, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Blum, was united in marriage to Mr. Dawson Fairchild, of this city, with Rev. William Kraxberger, pastor of the German Lutheran church, performing the marriage ceremony. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blum at 414 Willamette street.

The bride was prettily and becomingly graced in violet chapeau, and wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses and violets.

They will be at home to their friends at 602 Jackson street.

The bride, who is one of the popular and well known young women of this city, was born and reared here.

The bridegroom has resided in Oregon City for the past five years, coming to this city from Texas to accept a government position at West Linn. He is the son of John Fairchild, of San Bernardino, California.

The marriage ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. F. M. Nemece, of Stafford, and a wedding dinner served. The rooms of the Nemece home were prettily decorated with evergreens and carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Stangel left in the evening for a trip to California, and upon their return will make their home at 414 Willamette, where Mr. Stangel is engaged in farming.

Mrs. Stangel is one of the popular young women of Stafford, and has been the motif of a number of special affairs previous to her marriage. She is well known in this city, where she attended the McLaughlin Institute, graduating from the same several years ago. She is a sister of Joseph Nemece, of Oregon City.

Mr. Stangel is one of the well known farmers of Willamette, and has been a resident of that place for some time. He is the son of Mrs. Stangel, of Willamette, and has had charge of his mother's farm for some time.

The Oregon Veteran Pipe and Drum corps, composed of Civil War musicians and composed of E. B. Grant, John Kelly, J. S. Vaughn, John Baldwin, H. S. Clyde, John C. Confer, C. A. Stockwell, T. M. Kellogg, J. T. Butler, was the guest of honor at a turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Grant at Melidrum on Saturday afternoon. The turkey for this occasion was brought recently from California by Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Clyde who raised the bird on their farm, and donated the same towards the dinner given in honor of these veterans.

The affair was one of the most enjoyable ever given by the members of the G. A. R., and was also attended by a few of the members of Meade Post, Women's Relief corps, wives of the veterans.

The table was attractive with its decorations of violets and daisies given at the Grant home. The dining room, as well as the living room, was also decorated with these blossoms. The toastmaster was E. B. Grant. The delicious repast was enjoyed by those in attendance.

Places were laid for J. A. Roman, Frank Moore, Mr. and Mrs. John Ackley, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Grant, L. Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Clyde, Mrs. Myrtle Kellogg, Mrs. Lavanchie Sewall, John Kelly, J. S. Vaughn, John Baldwin.

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES

A pretty and impressive wedding was solemnized at the St. John's Catholic church on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock when Miss Anna Nemece, of Stafford, became the wife of Mr. George Stangel, of Willamette, in the presence of only immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Rev. A. Hillebrand, pastor, officiated.

The bride was becomingly graced in white silk and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. Her tulle veil was caught in place by a wreath of orange blossoms.

The bridemaid was Miss Elizabeth Nemece, sister of the bride, and wore a gown of white silk marquette with pink satin trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations.

The best man was Mr. Joseph Jansky, of Portland.

The marriage ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. F. M. Nemece, of Stafford, and a wedding dinner served. The rooms of the Nemece home were prettily decorated with evergreens and carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Stangel left in the evening for a trip to California, and upon their return will make their home at 414 Willamette, where Mr. Stangel is engaged in farming.

Mrs. Stangel is one of the popular young women of Stafford, and has been the motif of a number of special affairs previous to her marriage. She is well known in this city, where she attended the McLaughlin Institute, graduating from the same several years ago. She is a sister of Joseph Nemece, of Oregon City.

Mr. Stangel is one of the well known farmers of Willamette, and has been a resident of that place for some time. He is the son of Mrs. Stangel, of Willamette, and has had charge of his mother's farm for some time.

The Oregon Veteran Pipe and Drum corps, composed of Civil War musicians and composed of E. B. Grant, John Kelly, J. S. Vaughn, John Baldwin, H. S. Clyde, John C. Confer, C. A. Stockwell, T. M. Kellogg, J. T. Butler, was the guest of honor at a turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Grant at Melidrum on Saturday afternoon. The turkey for this occasion was brought recently from California by Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Clyde who raised the bird on their farm, and donated the same towards the dinner given in honor of these veterans.

The affair was one of the most enjoyable ever given by the members of the G. A. R., and was also attended by a few of the members of Meade Post, Women's Relief corps, wives of the veterans.

The table was attractive with its decorations of violets and daisies given at the Grant home. The dining room, as well as the living room, was
