

MARKET REPORT

The general trend of market conditions in the Northwest is indicated by the sale of top steers in the Portland union stock yards at the early week's market at 11.50, top cows at 10 and a sharp advance in hog prices, aggregating 25c to 35c. While sheep prices are quoted steady, the activity in that department is scarcely less than in other departments of the market. The sensation of the week's opening market in the cattle department was the sale of a car of well "finished" cows at a dime, which sets a record market in the Portland yards for that line, and on the same day a new record was set in the steer top at 11.50. The great bulk of steers carrying a kill, fit for packing or even the block purposes, sold at 10c or better. Feeders of the type which were bringing 7c three or four weeks ago returned to the country today at 9.00@9.25. The supply is not sufficient for the demand, and general conditions in the cattle market look towards a continued accumulation of strength.

Practically the same conditions prevail in the hog market as in the cattle market. The past week has shown a gradual accumulation of strength, the result of which shows a market 45c above the Chicago market. This shows of strength justifies the western farmer for the production of pork. The sheep department had a very light offering, principally in wethers, that came into the open market over Sunday, but sales are active at the top end of last week's quotations. The following quotations prevail in the different departments, which do not, in all cases, reach up to the top of the figures actually obtained:

Table with columns for Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, and various sub-categories like Cows-Med, Steers, Hogs, etc. with corresponding prices.

During the past week the egg market has become somewhat weak. They are selling from 42 to 45 cents per dozen at wholesale price and the retail price is from 47 to 50 cents. They are more plentiful in the market.

The butter market remains about the same, the price for creamery being $1.10 to $1.15 with country butter at 95 cents and $1.00. This latter is for the choice country butter.

Old Folks Suffer From Suffering

Mrs. Mary A. Dean, Taunton, Mass., in her 87th year, says: "I thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley Kidney Pills have proven most beneficial in my case." Mr. Sam A. Hoover, High Point, N. C., writes: "My kidney trouble was worse at night and I had to get up from five to seven times. Now I do not have to get up at night, and consider myself in a truly normal condition, which I attribute to Foley Kidney Pills, as I have taken nothing else."

SHERIFF TAKES OVER A WHEEL OF FORTUNE FROM RIVERSIDE PARK

Sheriff Wilson took official charge of a wheel of fortune at the Kinder dancing academy at Riverside park Sunday evening, and the owner of the wheel, Arthur McDuffee, of Portland, will probably be asked to explain the mystic whirling at an early date.

The wheel was in operation a week ago Sunday night when Sheriff Wilson ordered McDuffee to cease operations and gave him half an hour to clear out once and for all. The wheel is said to be very successful in mobilizing the elusive ten cent pieces, and the patron, with a smiling dancing partner on his arm, has about one chance in eight to win a box of candy for his money. As the dancing partner usually kept on smiling if her partner lost, the game went on as a rule, until there was a change of luck. After watching the plan for some little time a week ago Sunday night, the sheriff ordered him to cut out the game.

"It's too raw," muttered the sheriff. "Last night, a demure miss from Portland was again at the wheel, only this time it was advertised as a "sure win" proposition. A prize was given with every spin, and stick pins, collar buttons, small dolls, and other items, were the smaller prizes offered to evade the law. McDuffee, it was learned, is in a Portland hospital, but just as soon as he is up and around, the game will be put on before a local magistrate, it was hinted by District Attorney Hedges.

Wife Fine and Dandy Her Husband Says So Health Classified I-A

Boy, page Mrs. Floyd E. Hartzell of Milwaukie. The local board of Clackamas county would like to meet her. From their observations Mrs. Hartzell is just about the healthiest housewife in the county, and that estimable lady has a husband within draft age who is not afraid to boast of the fact. Several hundred young husbands of Clackamas county have sworn their wives' health to be "fair," "not very good," "poor," "reluctant," "sickly" or just plain "good" as the case might be. The board Friday night reached Hartzell's questionnaire. Imagine their surprise when in answer to question 29 of series X, relating to the wife's health, Hartzell, in big handwriting that could be read 10 feet away, scrawled: "Fine and dandy."
