

SANDY DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Blanche R. Shelley Representative.

SWITCHBOARD LEAVES OLD HOME.

The Firwood-Dover Telephone Co. switchboard, which has been in the Sandy drug store ever since the organization of the company, several years ago, was moved the first of the week into Seales' store. Its new headquarters are in a handsome building, and we are sure the service will be satisfactory. At present, some of the lines are in a desperate shape. For several days the patrons of line one have been unable to ring central, but we suppose this will be remedied very shortly.

MILL ACCIDENT FRIGHTENS.

What might have been a disaster occurred Monday afternoon about five o'clock, when the cylinder head blew out at Mikeleon & Nelson's mill at Brightwood. The boiler, which had a large hole broken in it, was taken to Portland for repairs. While the mill is closed, the employees are piling lumber in the yards.

BIG PANTHER HUNT.

For several years there have been wild stories going the rounds concerning a large and vicious panther, which haunted the country adjacent to Marmot. Occasionally a farmer would miss a sheep, or goat, or a young calf from the herd. Quite often the blood-curdling scream of the huge beast would be heard far up some lonely canyon. His tracks have often been seen, but no hunter has ever sighted along a gun barrel on his tawny coat. For the last few weeks he has been unusually active, so last week the Aschoff boys went after him. Though they tracked him many weary miles, the famous Marmot panther is still stalking his lonely way over the hills and hollows of the Little Sandy country.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES.

Mrs. L. W. Tice received word recently that her sister, Mrs. W. D. Pickett, died February 18, at San Francisco, following an operation for cancer and chronic appendicitis. The body was shipped to her home at Kingsburg, Calif., for interment. She was born at Salem, Ore., April 30, 1856, and leaves besides one sister and two brothers, a husband and eight children to mourn her death. The children are all married but two boys. She was a kind and loving wife and mother, and loved by all who knew her. The family lived a number of years between Sandy and Marmot, where they have many friends who extend their sympathy to them.

BIRTHDAY PARTIES THE ORDER OF THE WEEK.

Little Miss Shirley Sykes entertained Mrs. H. S. Eddy and Miss Lulu Eddy with a tea party at her parents' home the afternoon of Feb. 21st. The ladies tied a pretty little comforter for Miss Shirley's first birthday.

Last Sunday being Helene Ditter's seventh birthday, his mother invited several of his little friends in to spend the afternoon. A delightful time was had and delicious refreshments were served, among which was a cake carrying seven candles. Those who celebrated with him were Ellen Wolf, Dorothy and Ruth Eason, Elmer, Winifred and Orle Glockner, Antone Perret, onnie Shelley and Jennie De Shaizer.

SANDY BUSINESS CHANGES HANDS.

When E. F. Gunerl sold his confectionery store to Casper Junker, one of the oldest business men in this community again takes the reins into his hands. Mr. Junker took possession of the establishment Sunday and plans several improvements in the near future. His son, Henry, is assisting him.

MARMOT MAN SEVERELY HURT.

Last Sunday morning while working on the Sandy river near Marmot, Ernest Aschoff became caught between a large log and a bunch of ties, and sustained injuries which will confine him to his bed for some time, although his complete recovery is assured. Mr. Aschoff had a marvelous escape from sudden death.

SANDY AUXILIARY STILL MEETS.

The local auxiliary met with Mrs. Shelley last Wednesday afternoon and started on new work. From now on, in addition to the big articles which are mostly made by machine, the auxiliary will have on hand plenty of hand work for everybody.

HANNABERG BABY DIES.

Sorrow came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hannaberg, of Bull Run, when death claimed their year old baby on February 22. Interment was in Idlewild cemetery.
