

LOCAL BRIEFS

Charles Stutz and Godfrey Stutz, sons of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stutz, who enlisted on November 22 in the army, have written their parents that they are delighted with the work. Charles is only 20 years of age. Both enlisted in the 20 squadron, but have been separated. Charles is a member of the 15th Aero Squadron, stationed in New York, but expects to leave soon for England, while his brother, Godfrey, is a member of the 17th Aero Squadron, stationed at Chanute field, Kansas, Mo.

Ernest Maas, who has enlisted in the marine service, stationed at San Diego, Cal., has arrived here to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Maas, Sr. Mr. Maas was formerly connected with the office force of the Oregon City Manufacturing company, resigning his position to enter the marine service. He will probably return to his duties Monday evening. While en route to Oregon he visited his brother, Howard Maas, of Battery B, second field artillery, and stationed at Menlo Park, California.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Holmes, of Parkplace, are being congratulated over the arrival of a granddaughter, the first in the family. A daughter was born to their daughter, Mrs. Blaine Hansell, nee Myrtle Holmes, of Lewiston Idaho. The young miss made her appearance at the Hansell home on February 29th, and has been named Reta May. Mrs. Hansell is well known in Oregon City and Parkplace, having resided at the latter place until her marriage. She is a well known musician.

Dr. Stanford, of Camp Lewis, Washington, was in Oregon City on Sunday, where he was the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Anderson, of Maple Lane. He was accompanied by D. O. Anderson, of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson. Dr. Stanford says that the boys at Camp Lewis are being treated well, and the best of facilities are offered the boys. There are at the present time 40,000 men stationed there, and very little sickness among the soldiers.

Mrs. Joseph Porter, well known in this city, and who visited here in November at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keil, has accompanied her husband to New York, where Mr. Porter is to engage in the contracting business, and will work under Porter Brothers. Mr. and Mrs. Porter have been residing at Halifax, Nova Scotia, but left that place previous to the disaster, causing the loss of so many lives.

Eugene Niles, member of the medical corps, stationed at Vancouver, Wash., spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Jennie Vincent Niles, R. W. Niles and R. F. Niles, brothers of Eugene Niles, who have also entered the service, and who have been stationed at Cheyenne, Wyoming, have been transferred to Palo Alto, California, where a training camp has been established.

Mrs. H. A. Berkman and little daughter, Barbara, of Canby, arrived in Oregon City on Tuesday evening, where they are guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. C. G. Miller, and also visiting with Mrs. Berkman's mother, Mrs. C. O. T. Williams. Mrs. Berkman visited in Portland on Wednesday morning, and returned to her home at Canby Wednesday evening.

William Clark, of Shubel, was among the Oregon City visitors Monday. Mr. Clark was here arranging for another dancing party to be given at the Beacon Heights hall at that place in April. He gave a party at that place on Saturday evening, which was largely attended, many from this city going.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Armstrong, of West Linn, received word from their son, Joseph Armstrong, on Saturday, saying that he reached New York safely after having made the trip to Europe on the U. S. S. Leviathan. He enlisted in the navy in September and on December 17th he was assigned for duty on that steamer.

Frank Boden, who has been visiting his home in Iowa, and where he went for the benefit of his health, has returned to Oregon City, where he is to make his future home. Mr. Boden is much improved in health, and will improve his property he recently purchased in Clackamas county.

W. W. Everhart, county assessor, who was taken ill on Friday suffering from a severe attack of grippe, and with an ulcerated tooth, is still confined to his home at Molalla. During his absence, Deputy Assessor William Cook has charge of the office affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Levinger, of Baker, Oregon, have arrived in Oregon City, and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jones, the latter a sister of Mrs. Levinger. Mr. and Mrs. Levinger have been visiting in California.

John Mason, of the high school faculty, went to Stone Friday night where he talked in behalf of the campaign for war savings thrift stamps. He also gave some readings at an entertainment held there.

L. A. Lowther, of this city, was called to Portland February 23, owing to the death of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Jane Lowther, who died at her late residence, 999 Hawthorne avenue.

Mrs. H. J. Bruening and daughter, Margaret, of Mount Pleasant, passed through Oregon City Saturday on their way to Portland, where they are visiting friends and relatives.

Andrew Koehner, one of the prominent residents and realty dealers of Canby, was here on business Thursday. Mr. Koehner visited in Portland before returning home.

Arthur W. King and wife, of Portland, were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. King, and family, of Mount Pleasant, the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dallas, of Damascus, were in this city on Monday, having made the trip by automobile.

Born, to the wife of Mr. Everett Stewart, a son, on February 12, 1918; weight 8 1/2 pounds. The baby has been given the name of DeLyle Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, of Portland, who have been guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hiatt, of Mount Pleasant, have returned home.

James Bell, one of the prominent residents of Clackamas county, whose home is near Sandy, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday.

H. L. Ball, of Boring, was among those to visit here on Wednesday. He is a well known resident of that section of Clackamas county.

W. A. Beck, prominent resident of Molalla, was in this city Wednesday. Mr. Beck visited friends before returning to his home.

Mrs. William Dallas, who is very ill at her home at Damascus, is slightly improved, but her condition is still precarious.

Mrs. A. I. Hughes, of the Red Wing farm, Redland, and her daughter, Cecilia, were Oregon City visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Nelson, Mrs. H. T. Duncan and Mrs. J. P. Cook, of Oswego, were in Oregon City on business Monday.

Fred Bauer, of Colton, was an Oregon City visitor Wednesday. While here he visited some of his friends.

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES

A miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Dallas, of Damascus, on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Verna Holcomb, who became the bride of Mr. Carl Dallas on Sunday afternoon. There were about 20 friends of the young woman in attendance, who enjoyed the evening in games, followed by a luncheon served by Mrs. Dallas. Many gifts were presented by the bride-elect.

The Dallas home was prettily decorated, the color scheme of the rooms being red and green.

A very pretty home wedding took place at Carver Sunday afternoon, February 24, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Holcomb, when their daughter, Verna, became the bride of Carl M. Dallas. Judge H. S. Anderson officiated.

The house was artistically decorated in green and yellow, cedars and daffodils being used for the decorations, a bowl of which was arranged in a corner of the living room where the bridal couple stood during the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a dark green traveling suit, gold lace hat trimmed with pink roses and wore a corsage bouquet of white and dainty pink carnations.

The impressive ring ceremony was used.

A delectable banquet was served to relatives and intimate friends.

In the bride's room was a display of many beautiful and practical gifts, which accompanied the good wishes of friends.

Those present were Judge and Mrs. H. S. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Holcomb, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Robbins, Archie Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Smith and baby son, Mrs. H. L. Patterson, C. W. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Hattan, Chester Hattan, Doris Hattan, Adda Hattan, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dunmire and son, Arden, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dallas and daughter, Helen, and their baby son, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Dane, Wilford Brown, Miss Viola Landeen, Norman Holcomb, Glen W. Dallas, Charles Rankin, Miss Mary Dallas, H. Orr.

After many congratulations the bridal couple departed for a short honeymoon trip, and upon their return will ship their stock and household goods to eastern Oregon where they expect to make their home.

Both bride and groom are well and favorably known by all the community, whose very best wishes accompany them as they start on life's journey together.

The literary society of Hazella, which recently purchased a $400 piano, gave a social at the schoolhouse Monday evening for the purpose of raising funds to make the last payment on the instrument. The building was well filled, and a good time was had by those participating in the festivities.

The proceeds amounted to $40, and this amount completed the last installment on the piano.

Among the features was securing partners for the supper, in a most unique manner. A row of cupid's darts was arranged on the wall, and at the rear of each was the name of some of the young women, who were in attendance, and in whose possession were well filled lunch baskets. One of the champion shots of the evening was William Cook, deputy county assessor. Bill was "there with the goods" when it came to striking the target, and he was one of the most popular young men in the hall, having at one time four of the handsomest young women of Hazella sharing their lunches with him. In order to show that he was not bashful at this gathering, Bill partook of lunch from each basket, and says that it was a puzzle just which basket contained the finest lunch, but that each of the girls "looked good to him." It wasn't the lunch he was after, but the honor and

Woman Deputy Police Chief in New York

Mrs. Ellen A. O'Grady, long a police matron in New York City, has been appointed fifth deputy police commissioner of the city, under the new mayor who took office Jan. 1. She will draw a salary of $8,000 a year. Never before has a mayor named a woman for this place. But the victory for woman suffrage in the November election moved Mayor Hylan to recognize women. Mrs. O'Grady will give her time largely to cases in which women and girls are concerned. She said she had gained her experience in "the school of hard work."

Mrs. Ellen A. O'Grady.

Mrs. Lillian Loffler.

War Baby No. 2 Here

Father Is In France

Named For His Daddy

Clackamas county has its second war baby, who made his appearance Tuesday morning at 6:15 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Erickson, of Mulino, when their daughter, Mrs. Leslie F. Holliday, of Mulino, gave birth to a son. The youngster has been given the name of Leslie, after his father, who was locating engineer of the Willamette Valley Southern railway, and who resigned his position to enlist in Company E, 18th engineers, now in France. The little fellow weighs five pounds, and the mother and child are doing nicely. Mrs. Holliday was formerly Miss Pearl Erickson.

WEDS CHORUS GIRL.

Paul Muke, who gave his occupation as "chief marine engineer" and Elsie Draught, a chorus girl whose home address is Willamette, were granted a license to wed Monday.

JOHNNIE MOORE TAKEN TO STATE REFORM SCHOOL

Constable Frost took Johnnie Moore, 13-year-old son of John Moore, of Mount Pleasant, to the state training school near Salem, Monday. Johnnie got into trouble about six months ago and was paroled from the juvenile court. He is a younger brother of the famous Tom Moore, who holds the Clackamas county record for purloining other people's motor cars, and who is now working in a Portland bakery, but who expects to enlist in the navy.

A NEW BILLIARD "PHENOM"

At last Willie Hoppe, the billiard champion, has an opponent worthy of his cue. Young Welker Cochran of Manson, Ia., has developed into a brilliant billiardist, and at the present moment stands as his only rival. The two wizards will in all probability meet at the table before the year is very old.

HATTIE LOFFLER ALIVE AND WELL IN OREGON CITY

Very much alive and well, Mrs. Hattie Loffler, formerly of Tacoma, for whom a search was instituted in Oregon City Thursday, appeared at the Enterprise Friday morning.

Urgent advices from Tacoma Red Cross to the effect that Mrs. Loffler, the wife of Sergeant Fred Loffler of Company F, 14th infantry, Camp Lewis, was seriously ill in or near Oregon City, led to immediate steps on the part of the local Civilian Relief committee Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Loffler, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Walker on Molalla avenue, read the startling story of her mysterious illness in the Morning Enterprise at the breakfast table Friday morning, and immediately came to the city to quiet any alarms concerning her fate.

According to Mrs. Loffler, a divorce suit is pending between herself and her husband, and she stated that Sergeant Loffler was well aware of the fact that she has been visiting her parents here. Why he should make an appeal through the Tacoma Red Cross however, to locate his wife, is quite a mystery to Mrs. Loffler.

Mrs. Loffler has been an employee of the Rhodes department store in Tacoma until recently. She and Mr. Loffler were married in July of last year. The husband has been in the regular army for about four years.

"I do not know who the joke is on, nor do I know why it was perpetrated," Mrs. Loffler laughingly stated Friday morning. "I am feeling fine, if you please, have not been sick, and came to Oregon City to visit my parents, which I am now doing."

Mrs. Loffler stated that only recently her husband was here and tried to get her to return to Tacoma and fix up their domestic troubles. This she refused to do, she states, and is now suing for a divorce.

ENTERPRISE FOREMAN IS ELECTED HEAD OF BOOKBINDERS UNION

Ben Grossenbacher, foreman of the book bindery department of the Enterprise, was elected president of the Bookbinders' Local No. 90, of Portland and Oregon, in Portland on Tuesday evening at a meeting held by the bookbinders. DR. REA NORRIS IS DEFENDANT IN DIVORCE ACTION

Dr. E. Rea Norris, physician of Bend was made the defendant in a divorce suit by Ida Norris in the local circuit court Monday.

Mrs. Norris charges cruel and inhuman treatment, and alleges that on account of the abuse of the part of her husband, she was forced to leave their home in Bend in November 1917. She asks $400.00 per month alimony, stating that her husband has an earning capacity of $400 to $500 per month, and also desires the custody of their minor child, Donald. The Norris' were married in Portland in 1916.

JOHNNIE MOORE TAKEN TO STATE REFORM SCHOOL

Constable Frost took Johnnie Moore, 13-year-old son of John Moore, of Mount Pleasant, to the state training school near Salem, Monday. Johnnie got into trouble about six months ago and was paroled from the juvenile court. He is a younger brother of the famous Tom Moore, who holds the Clackamas county record for purloining other people's motor cars, and who is now working in a Portland bakery, but who expects to enlist in the navy.

JOHN W. EATON BODY CREMATED AFTER SERVICE

John W. Eaton, aged 82, died yesterday afternoon at the home of his son, Albert M. Eaton, who lives at Mt. Pleasant. Mr. Eaton was a native of Ohio and came to Oregon 7 years ago from Kentucky. He came to visit his son about two months ago. Besides his son Albert M. Eaton, he leaves four other children, Edward Eaton of Tacoma, Rufus Eaton of Sylva, Wash., Mrs. George Nichols of Lexington, Ky., and Mrs. Harry Hummer of Bisbee, Arizona.

The funeral of the late John W. Eaton, who died at his home at Mount Pleasant Saturday, was held Monday afternoon from the Holman undertaking establishment, Rev. E. E. Gilbert, officiating. The body was afterwards taken to Portland, where the remains were cremated.

NATIONAL ANTHEM IS SUNG AT FUNERAL OF LATE CLIFFORD BROWN

The Methodist church at Canby was taxed to its utmost capacity Friday afternoon when the funeral of the late Clifford Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brown, of Carus, was held.

Mr. Brown died in the base hospital at Norfolk, Va., February 13, of acute rheumatic fever.

As soon as the casket, completely covered by an American flag, which was buried with it, entered the church the audience rose, and a quartette composed of Mrs. Carlos, Miss L. Gastrock, H. Berkman and Avon Jesse, with Mrs. H. Berkman, pianist, sang the national anthem.

There were three ministers on the rostrum and all took a part in the service, the sermon being given by the pastor, Rev. Carlos. The quartette sang "Asleep in Jesus," and "Some-where the Sun is Shining," and a solo, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," was most beautifully rendered by Miss L. Gastrock.

The flowers were magnificent more than covering the grave in Zion cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Aaron E. Wait, Norton Bradford, Eddie Wilkerson, Wayne Hampton, Clyde Kendall, Russell Jones. The funeral arrangements were conducted by R. L. Holman.

MRS. M. ZIELINSKY DIES AT HOSPITAL AT AGE OF 27 YEARS

ELMER E. DIXON POULTRY EXPERT ON DEATH ROLL

Elmer E. Dixon, one of the prominent residents of Oregon City, and poultry fancier, died suddenly at the family home in Molalla avenue Sunday evening at 9:30 o'clock, after a ten minutes' illness. Mr. Dixon's death was due to heart failure, although he had been in excellent health up to the time he was stricken.

Elmer Dixon, as a poultry fancier, was known throughout the northwest, having acted as judge at many poultry exhibits.

Elmer Dixon was born at Newark, Ohio, April 26, 1852, and on October 3, 1877, married Miss Mattie Rogers, of Abington, Ill. He resided in Clackamas county for the past 35 years. He was the son of the late William and Carolina Dixon, who died in Oregon City some time ago.

Mr. Dixon, after arriving in Clackamas county, was elected county clerk in 1896, and served two terms in that capacity. He also served as justice of the peace of Oregon City.

He is survived by his wife, who is prostrated by her husband's sudden death.

OSCAR L. CLYDE DIES AT PASADENA-BURIAL IN MT. VIEW CEMETERY

The remains of the late Oscar L. Clyde, formerly of Parkplace, and well known here, were brought to Oregon City Friday evening from Pasadena.

Mr. Clyde died at Pasadena last Saturday, after an illness of 14 months from sciatic rheumatism.

Mr. Clyde was born at Greenville, Pa., May 24, 1843. In July 1861, he and is brother, H. S. Clyde, now of Oregon City, enlisted in Company D, Eighth Iowa infantry, and mustered in active service at Davenport, Iowa. He served during the entire war. He made his home at White Salmon, Wash., for a number of years, and later took up his residence at Parkplace, where he resided with his family until moving to Pasadena. At Parkplace he was a member of Abernethy grange, and also commander of Meade Post No. 2, G. A. R., of this city.

Mr. Clyde moved to Pasadena in 1911.
