

VICTROLA'S FUND SPREAD SUCCESS AT MT. PLEASANT

The dinner and entertainment given at the Mount Pleasant school house Saturday evening by the Parent-Teacher association was a decided success, both socially and financially. The dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock, and the long tables were beautifully decorated with jonquils and laurelina blossoms, and with the happy faces seated there and Old Glory artistically arranged, on the walls made an impressive sight.

There were a large number going from this city to Mount Pleasant on that evening, well remembering just what "spreads" the women of that section serve. Although the menu was somewhat "hooverized" owing to war times, the following was most appetizing: Salad with "hooverized" dressing; chicken, rice, potatoes, baked beans, war bread, war pudding, war cake, coffee and tea. There were 135 who were seated at the table during the evening.

The dinner was followed by the entertainment. The program consisted of vocal and instrumental selections. Among those on the program were Jack Loder, Ralph Guynes, Gordon Hannaford and Howard Mass, who form a quartet and sang patriotic selections; Mr. McLain, of Portland, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Mildred McLain. There were also selections given on the Victrola, which the Parent-Teachers association has just purchased for the school. Among the selections given were "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," a record presented on the evening of the entertainment by Mrs. W. B. Stafford, and sung by John McCormack.

The proceeds of the entertainment, which amounted to $35, completed the payment on the Victrola.

The committee having charge of the affair was composed of Mrs. E. Frey, Mrs. A. C. Warner, Mrs. VanWey, Mrs. C. Naegle, Mrs. O. G. Thomas, Miss Thomas.

CROSS IS CANDIDATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE AT PRIMARY MAY 17

SALEM, Ore., March 27.—(Special) Harvey E. Cross of Oregon City today filed his declaration of intention with Secretary Olcott to become a candidate for representative in the legislature on the Republican ticket from the 16th Representative District comprised of Clackamas County.

Platform—I pledge my best efforts for strict economy in public and private affairs; uncompromising loyalty to the state and nation; national prohibition and women suffrage; better citizenship, better and more permanent roads, but minimum construction during the war; fewer and more careful consideration of them; permanent and representative arbitration board for labor disputes; abolishment of useless commissions and consolidation of others along business lines; ships, built, owned and operated out of Oregon ports, by Oregon people; opposition to division of Clackamas County.

Slogan—Business efficiency in public affairs.

WEEKLY PAPER INCORPORATED CAPITAL $2500

Articles of incorporation of the Clackamas County Banner Publishing Co., the new Oregon City weekly, were filed with Clerk Harrington Wednesday. The incorporators are F. J. Toole, W. E. Hassler, and J. N. Sievers, and the company is capitalized at $2500 with 100 shares of $25 each. A general printing and publishing business is set forth in the articles of the new organization, which has purchased the plant of the Oswego Times.

JOHN TELFORD GOES IN U. S. NAVAL SERVICE

Johnnie Telford, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Telford, Sr., of this city, has enlisted in the marine service and Tuesday evening left for Mare Island, where he goes into training. He is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Telford in the service, William enlisting several months ago, and is at present stationed in New York. He is a member of the aviation corps.

Johnnie Telford is a well known ball player, and held the record of the Northwest for throwing the javelin. When enlisting he was employed in the office of a railroad company.

MISS OATFIELD MARRIED.

The marriage license of Christopher Hart, of Clifton, Oregon, and Miss Amanda J. Oatfield, was issued Friday by Clerk Harrington. Mr. Hart is a well known lumberman of Clifton. The Enterprise inadvertently made a mistake in publishing Mr. Hart's name Saturday morning.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The aid of 736 daily newspapers was asked by Secretary of Labor Wilson today in mobilizing farm labor.

Schuebel Vigorously Resents Reflection On His Patriotism And Says Loyalty Is Strong

OREGON CITY, March 27.—(Editor of the Enterprise.) I was very much surprised to see the communication in your paper signed by C. L. St. Clair. The one from Mr. Anderson I do not wonder at knowing; the influence back of it. A short time ago I was informed that certain corporation influences were going to set me. They have evidently started their nefarious Hun Work through some of their paid hirelings. I have three nephews in the army and five more to go; none of them have been slackers, nor were New Year's presents given or men hired at $50 per month to try to keep them out of the service.

In 1848 my people were in the Revolution that attempted to establish a republic in Prussia. They served time for taking part in the revolution. Carl Schurz and many others who served our country and were honored by it, were exiled at the same time for taking part in that revolution.

On account of existing conditions in Prussia my father came to this country in 1863, and within five years and three months from the time of his arrival he became a full fledged citizen by choice, not by compulsion. I was born in this country, and am raising a family of as true American citizens, and more so than some who are like the scuttie fish and spew out filth to hide their dirty work.

This is my country and any injury or insult to the American flag is an insult to me and should be to every loyal citizen. Men should show their loyalty by their pocket book as well as their mouth. I am paying 6 percent and 7 per cent interest on money but have taken several times what would be my quota in Government bonds and Thrift Stamps, and have never failed to give more than my portion to any call that has come, and have always volunteered and given my time when opportunity was given to assist in every cause for the government.

In 1915 I saw the possibilities of a war and introduced in the Legislature and used all my power and influence to pass a bill that would prevent any alien who refused to become a citizen of this country from owning land. No man should be permitted to own a foot of soil in this country unless he is willing to assume the duties and responsibilities of a citizen.

I am of German descent and every American is the descendant of some foreign country. Thousands of Germans and other nationalities came to this country to get away from the despotic governments of Europe, became citizens by choice, and are just as loyal to their adopted country as those born here.

It is very unfortunate that we have a few, but only a few, who are willing to act as the tools of corporate greed to try to destroy men and families who stand for justice and a square deal for the laborer and the common people. My loyalty to my country has never been questioned, and this attempt is made solely by the hirelings of the corporations who said they would get me.

Respectfully,
C. SCHUEBEL.

Mr. Warwick Learning to Be a King Maker

W. W. WARWICK

W. W. Warwick, controller of the currency—not related to the Earl of Warwick, who used to be a king maker in Britain—is nevertheless a man of much power. As controller of the currency he feels he must keep in the best physical trim that he may make or not make kings of finance in the United States. This photograph shows him in his daily exercise in the Washington Y. M. C. A.

TO AID U. S. STORES ARE TO CLOSE EARLIER

Answering the appeal of the United States government to conserve time and labor the patriotic merchants of Oregon City have agreed to keep their places of business open after April 1, as follows:

The stores will open each week day at 8 o'clock a. m. and will close at 6 o'clock p. m., excepting Saturdays when they will close at 8 o'clock p. m.

This arrangement will give the employer and employee an opportunity to assist the government in its enormous tasks of raising funds, selling bonds, thrift stamps, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., etc.

The following stores signed up an agreement Saturday to observe the hours:

Miller-Obst, Inc., Price Bros., Bannan & Co., J. C. Penny Co., Oregon City Shoe Store, W. B. Eddy Department Store, C. I. Stafford, F. W. Woolworth Co., Hogg Bros., Frank Busch, The Blue Bird, B. J. Staats Hardware Co., A. A. Munden Furniture Co., Roy A. Prudden, Turk Bros., The C. C. Store.

The grocers of Oregon City initiated a closing movement some time ago. This practically shortens the hours of every business man in Oregon City and puts them on a day light basis.

Oregon City again goes over the top and is 100% on closing early according to the desire of Uncle Sam.

Trying to Save Her Red Brother from the Dope

MRS. GERTRUDO BONNIN (ZIT-KALA-SA)

Mrs. Gertrudo Bonnin, or Zit-Kala-Sa, as she is known to her people, is in Washington trying to secure legislation forbidding the use of the peyoto amongst the Indians. Mrs. Bonnin, who is a Sioux, says the Indians are rapidly becoming drug addicts. The peyoto is a species of cactus and those who use it are affected with hallucinations. Its use results in physical and mental degeneracy. Mrs. Bonnin, whose husband is Lieutenant Raymond T. Bonnin, U. S. A., is a graduate of Carleton and has spent most of her life in social work among her people. Lieutenant Bonnin is also a full blooded Indian.

ALLEGED SLACKER IS NABBED IN COURT

When Calvin J. Hill, of Hood River, appeared as a witness for Uel Parker in a statutory case brought by the state Saturday, he involved himself in a peck of trouble.

When being examined by District Attorney Hedges as to his age, Hill stated he was not yet 21 years old. Asked the year of his birth, he quickly replied "1896." On further examination he became hopelessly entangled and admitted that he had not registered under the draft act. He claimed his parents had always told him he was born in 1896, but that he did not believe he was old enough to register last June.

Judge Sievers ordered him turned over to Sheriff Wilson for investigation as a slacker and Hill was placed in jail pending receipt of advices from California where his parents are supposed to reside.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Latorrette wired south for complete information as to Hill's age, and unless he clears up the situation, Hill will be indicted by the federal grand jury as a draft evader.

LOGGING FRANCHISE PETITION IS HEARD BEFORE COMMISSION

The Public Commission heard the petition of the Hult Lumber company for a logging franchise out on Milk Creek in the Mulino county, in the circuit court room Friday. The case was contested by a large crowd of remonstrators through whose lands the stream runs, and who object to the granting of the franchise on the grounds of serious damage to their lands, resulting from logging operations. Conrad P. Olson represented the Hult people before the board and Attorney H. E. Cross appeared for the remonstrators. The commission took no final action but will consider the case, pending a visit to the stream.

DIVORCES ASKED.

Fourth E. Moore, charging desertion, filed for a divorce from Wm. A. Moore Saturday. The couple were married in Elko, Nev., in 1910, and the desertion is alleged to have occurred in 1916.

Ethel Mead charges Pearl Mead deserted her in 1913, after living as husband and wife for seven years. She asks $15 per month for the support of a minor child.

How Prohibitionists' Claims for Federal Amendment Stand Now

Prohibitionists firmly believe they will be able to obtain ratification of the Federal Prohibition amendment to the constitution of the United States by the thirty-six necessary states within one year. That is, the legislatures of 1918 and 1919 are expected to ratify. Eight states, shown on the map in white, have ratified since the beginning of the year in this order, Mississippi, Virginia, Kentucky, South Carolina, North Dakota, Maryland, Montana and Texas. Twenty-two more prohibition states that is, states which have passed prohibition acts of their own, shown shaded on the map, are expected to ratify the amendment. It then becomes necessary for the prohibitionists to gain six more states from those now wet to get the required constitutional number of thirty-six.

ESTACADA BANK IS PLAINTIFF IN SUIT TO COLLECT NOTES

The Estacada State Bank filed two suits in the circuit court Wednesday to collect promissory notes against H. D. Henthorn and Luthera A. Henthorn in the sum of $375, and against W. D. Henthorn and L. M. Henthorn, doing business as the Estacada Furniture Company, in the sum of $350.00. The notes were given in 1916 at 8 per cent interest.

The case of Bertha M. Hosford against E. M. Howell, decided in the plaintiff's favor before a jury in Circuit Judge Campbell's court some time ago and on which an appeal was being perfected by the defendant, has been finally adjudicated between the parties and the appeal dropped. An order was entered Wednesday granting the plaintiffs the right to withdraw their exhibits from court.
