They went upstairs over the Gardner jewelry store, climbed out a window and made their way down into a transom over the door of the Kendry store. They found their way to the cash drawer, and took about $12 which was left in the till. They made their way out and got away without leaving any traces. Ear Marks of Huns Soldiers Fund Gone Six Dollars Stolen

This may not have been a Hun trick but it certainly bears the earmarks.

During the rush hours, in the tax department Wednesday afternoon, some contemptible being pocketed the soldiers' relief fund, containing something like $6, which was to be used for the purchase of tobacco for the Sammlers in France. The bank was placed there several days ago, with a large card affixed stating the purpose of the fund.

Big hearted, patriotic Americans have been most liberal and the bank had once been emptied of its contents and approximately $7 placed to the soldiers' tobacco fund. It was practically full again when the thief carried it away.

There are several other banks in town, a word to the wise should be sufficient. If the thief is caught, or any of the other banks are taken, there will probably be a tar and feather party, as well as a vigorous prosecution by the state. Citizens were highly incensed Thursday when the theft became known.
