Macksburg

The gardens are—for the time being—occupying the mind of the rising generation. The four sunshining days of the past fortnight have been improved to the utmost in preparing the soil for seed.

Much competitive pride is shown in these plots of ground, as the appearance of the patches evidence to a marked degree. Even now when the ground is simply put in order, the effect is most pleasing.

No more efficient check can be given to that base of the rural home—the passion of the children for town life—than is furnished in the love of cultivating the soil, and when united as it now is with a desire to aid in the great world strife for justice and truth, by feeding the countless hosts who are fighting for us, a degree of patriotism must be cultivated in the young that will remain with them through life. No future influence will be likely to make traitors or even slackers of people whose childhood has been busied as that of our boys and girls.

The Red Cross Auxiliary held its regular meeting in the Sutherland building Wednesday, April 3. Two new members, Mrs. J. Gibson and Mrs. Angene Bothenberg, entered their names and paid their fees, making the membership number twenty.

The society is planning to give an ice cream festival on May 11th, the proceeds of which are to be used in procuring material for making army and hospital supplies, a considerable amount of which is necessary to keep so many pairs of hands at work.

The Mother's Club is to meet on Thursday, April 11th, at the home of its president, Mrs. Jno. Hepler. The club is at present working upon articles to be sold, eventually, for the benefit of the Red Cross in which more and more of our people are becoming interested very day.

Mrs. A. K. Morton arrived from Portland Tuesday evening to visit friends for a few days. She is the guest of the Misses Schrepel.

Another old settler of this city answered to the last roll call and passed off of this life Tuesday evening. Clifton H. Sarver of Currinsville, after an extended illness, covering several months, died at the family home Tuesday night, surrounded by his faithful wife and children and other relatives. Mr. Sarver was first stricken with paralysis and other complications hastened his death. He was 58 years of age, being born in Virginia. Was a resident of this vicinity for over thirty years and was well and favorably known. A wife and three children and other relatives survive. Funeral services were held from the Christian church in Estacada, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment being made in the Odd Fellows cemetery at this place. Walter Givens preached the funeral sermon.

Estacada went "over the top" the first day of the Third Liberty Loan drive. Eastern Clackamas always does its share and a little more in obligations of this kind. The war saving and thrift stamp sale went over the $5,000 mark some time ago.

Last Sunday was given over to patriotism, services being held at the Methodist church in the first part of the day and at five o'clock school children, headed by the Boy Scouts, had a parade on the main streets of our little city. At 7 o'clock, the Moose band of Oregon City and several auto loads of people arrived and after a concert by the band, a line was formed and all marched to the high school auditorium where an excellent program was carried out. H. C. Stephens of Estacada acted as chairman. The speakers were George C. Brownell, of Oregon City, Sar. Brisk, of Vancouver, John W. Loder, O. D. Eby and Chris Schuebel, all of Oregon City and M. A. Williams of Portland. The musical part of the program, including the band, consisted of the Liberty Loan Quartette, and the Oregon City Grammar school quartette, also vocal solos by Miss Marie Fredericks. The music was greatly enjoyed as was evidenced by the continuous applause and the number of times the singers responded to encores. The auditorium was crowded to its capacity and when the large congregation joined the band and sang "America" and the "Star Spangled Banner," there was patriotism in the hearts and voices of all. Much appreciation was expressed by the people over here for the splendid program Oregon City people furnished for the patriotic meeting.

at which time a hurried check up of sales showed that Canby banking district had "gone over the top."

Since that time subscribers have been coming in regularly and from present appearances Canby banking district will double its quota.

All of the 80 solicitors of this district who were appointed by Chairman W. Bair, were instructed to get busy at sunrise and "stay on the job" until the desired results were accomplished. Their excellent work in their various districts brought the above gratifying results. Out of the 80 solicitors appointed, not one refused to serve or offered an excuse. All accepted, which showed the true American spirit.
