CENTRAL POINT RED CROSS WORKS HARD TO ATTAIN QUOTA

Many unique plans in raising money for the Red Cross drive were carried out in Clackamas county by the Red Cross Auxiliaries. There were a number of sections where the quota could not be met with subscription, and the auxilary members planned the enter tainments. One of these was at Central Point near Oregon City, where the Central Point Auxiliary gave a so cial at the Brown schoolhouse Saturday evening. The women of that lit tle settlement hit upon a plan, when a Red Cross quilt was made. There were 42 blocks, each block being centered with a Red Cross, and the patches joined with fancy stitches, making it a very attractive quilt. Chances were sold on the same, and the children of that district offered a prize of a war saving stamp, for one selling the largest number of chances. Ellis Young received the prize. The amount turned in by that boy was $35.39; Ruth Chian turned in $23.00; Florence Randall, $7.10; Mata Dietz, $5.10. and Walter Woodcock, $10.20. All of the boys and girls worked like "trojana," Young even canvassing the court house in this city and elsewhere. The quilt brought $101.20, and was won by a carpenter at the shipyords in Portland, but residing here. The drawing was made by Harley Blanchard. The boys and girls trying the prize worked very hard, each trying to outdo the other. The guilt brought $101.20, but still the quota of the district, which was $134. was not reached. Cakes were brought, and these were auctioned, one denated by Mary Engle, and bought by George Buck, brought the round sum of $4.75, Another donated by Mrs. George Randall, Jr., brought $1.75; while another, donated by Mrs. Camp, brought $1.25.

Following the auction, refreshments were served, and $9.00 was realized from the sale of the ice cream and cake; $2 for pop-corn balls donated by Mrs. Camp; $9.00 from the fish pond, where all secured prizes. A program was given during the evening, and this consisted of patriotic selections and recitations. By giving this entertainment the Red Cross Auxiliary carried Central Point over the top in the drive. Besides raising this money during the past week, when two days were spent in sewing, the twenty-seven members made 18 pairs of hospital drawers and 12 hospital shirts, and the Red Cross quilt.

MAPLE LANE LEAGUE GIVES A PATRIOTIC PROGRAM ON TUESDAY

Loyalty League No. 39, of Maple Lane, gave a unique entertainment at the Grange hall Tuesday evening in the form of a donation entertainment. and articles donated were auctioned off by Judge Grant B. Dimick. The Judge has won such a reputation in auctioneering in Clackamas county, he says he believes he will hang out his sign. He gets the prize, and all clamor for any article he has to seil at these sales. At the Tuesday evening sale there were articles ranging from brooms, chickens and Beigian hares, to cream puffs. All sold readily. and had there been more, there would be still a demand for the same. The entertainment was gotten out in 24 hours' notice, and proved one of the most successful and enjoyable social functions given at that place.

There was a general scramble for the cream puffs made and donated by Mrs. C. W. Swallow.

Judge Grant B. Dimick and O. D. Eby gave excellent patriotic addresses, and both were received with enthusiasm.

Much credit is due Mrs. Augusta Brown for the manner in which the donation and patriotic social was given. She was assisted by members of the Loyalty League.

The officers of the Loyalty League of Maple Lane are as follows: President, Lyman Derrick; vice-president, A. J. Lewis; treasurer, C. W. Swallow; secretary, Mrs. H. A. Heater.
