

LOCAL BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hawley, Sr., accompanied by their son, Willard Hawley, Jr., who left here several weeks ago for a motoring trip to California, have returned. They were joined at Oakland, California, by Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Barlow and son, and the motoring trip was continued to Los Angeles and Santa Barbara and other southern resorts, as well as a number of summer resorts. The trip was thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Barlow and son are to remain in Oregon for a few weeks. The former has been ill several months, but is now rapidly improving since coming to Oregon. Mr. Hawley and son, W. F. Hawley, Jr., upon their return to Oregon made a trip by train to California on business in connection with the paper mill of this city, and returned to Oregon City Friday. President Hawley has enjoyed his vacation, which is the first he has taken for over a year, and especially enjoyed the trip through the mountains in the automobile and to the summer resorts of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Martin and daughters, Charlotte and Elizabeth, accompanied by Mrs. William Davis and Miss Virginia Shaw, who have been on a motoring trip in Washington, returned to Oregon City Monday evening. The party left here about two weeks ago, and visited many interesting points, among these were Tacoma, Ellensburg, Cle Elum and Camp Lewis. At Tacoma, Ellensburg and Cle Elum they visited relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Martin. At Ellensburg, Miss Freda Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin, is attending the state normal at a special summer course. The party visited Camp Lewis, and found many friends there waiting to leave camp to "go over." The trip was made without accident, and the roads were found in excellent condition. The party left Tacoma at 11 A. M. and reached Oregon City at 11 P. M. the same day.

The Columbia Hook & Ladder Fire Company has shown its patriotism by donating toward the Red Cross branch of this city $25. This was decided upon at the meeting of the fire company held on Wednesday evening. The fire ladders of Oregon City are always among the patriots of the city, and their gift was greatly appreciated by the local organization. Another gift that was greatly appreciated Saturday by the Red Cross was the donations from Mrs. Jennie Linn, of this city, who was one of the clerks of the recent primaries, and who turned over the amount from the county she was entitled to for her services, and from Barton came similar donations from H. F. Gibson and John McCracken. These amounts are to be used in making necessary purchases for supplies used in making bandages.

Miss Elizabeth Ellison, who has been the art teacher of the Oregon City high school building for the past year, leaves for her home in Pasadena, California this evening, where she will spend her summer vacation. Miss Ellison will return to Oregon City in the fall to resume her duties in the high school. She is a most accomplished young woman, and some of her works of art have been displayed in the exhibit of the Arts and Craft in Portland, and Miss Ellison was one of the prize winners. She was awarded first place for a copper tray, which was exhibited in Oregon City with a large number of other articles made by this artist. Miss Ellison is a graduate of the Pratt Institute, and is to open a private class upon her return to Oregon City next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pettie left in their automobile for Seaside, Oregon, where they are to look after their property interests, and where they will enjoy the sea breezes for about ten days. Mr. and Mrs. Pettie will make the trip, if possible, over the Columbia river highway, and expect to remain for one night at Rainier. They took with them three of their pets, including "Dick" a large white rooster, and two hens, Jennie and May, that were raised by Mrs. Pettie. These birds were placed in a large wire cage, and seemed to be enjoying life in the automobile when it passed through Oregon City. Mrs. Pettie was sensibly attired in khaki coveralls, and has already found these to be most convenient on a trip of this kind.

R. L. Holman and daughters, Misses Edna, Norma and Alice, and son, Morris, went to Salem Friday making the trip by automobile. Mr. Holman and daughter, Edna, and son, Morris, visited with Mr. Holman's cousin, Judge Burnett, and family. Misses Norma and Alice attended the wedding of Miss Barbara Steiner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Steiner, prominent residents of Salem, and Lieutenant Earl C. Flegel the marriage taking place at the Steiner home. Miss Alice Holman was the soloist at the wedding, singing "Summer Rain," and her accompanist was Miss Norma Holman. Lieutenant Flegel is stationed at Camp Fremont, Palo Alto, California, and left with his bride for that place following the wedding.

Miss Zella Bowman, who was stenographer in the office of Attorney William Stone, and later stenographer for another law firm in Dallas, Oregon, has returned to Oregon City. Miss Bowman has resigned her position at Dallas, and will leave the latter part of the week with her mother, Mrs. S. C. Bowman, for Minneapolis, Minn., their former home. Mrs. Bowman and daughter are to make their future home in that city, and they will be joined there by Mrs. W. O. Hearn, formerly Miss Mildred Bowman, of Oregon City. Lieutenant Hearn has left for France with his company, and his wife is to remain at Minneapolis during his absence.

Among the patriots of Clackamas county offering their services for the Red Cross in the recent primaries, and whose names have been accidentally omitted are M. Clancy, George Hall and L. L. Porter, of West Linn, and of Mulino, who turned their money over to the Red Cross drive, in order to secure their quota were E. J. Maple, J. H. Darnall, (who turned his to the Union Mills auxiliary), Mrs.

Mary Howard, Robert Schuebel, J. J. Mallett, A. C. Erickson. The Mulino quota was $144, but $160 was raised. The flag for securing the quota arrived Thursday at Mulino, and is hung in a conspicuous place.

Mr. and Mrs. John Warren and two daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. Hudson and seven children, all of the Grand Ronde Indian reservation, have arrived in Oregon City. The two families are enjoying camp life at West Linn, and they will remain there for a few days. Mrs. Hudson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren. The Warren and Hudson families are progressive looking Indians, and the men are engaged in farming. Mr. Warren says the continued dry weather is injuring the gardens and other crops, and that the farmers in his section are greatly in need of the rain.

Mrs. Thomas A. Burke left Thursday evening for Moscow, Idaho, to join Mr. Burke at that place. Mr. Burke was called to the bedside of his father, Richard Burke, who was reported in a telegram as being very ill. A later telegram arrived saying Mr. Burke's condition was slightly improved, although he was still in a critical condition, suffering from blood poisoning from an insect bite. A bite from this insect often proves fatal. Mr. and Mrs. Burke had intended visiting at the home of the former's parents during the latter part of July.

Mrs. A. H. Ely and Miss Mable Anderson, of San Jose, Cal., arrived in Oregon City Tuesday morning. They have been at Camp Lewis, Wash., where they have been visiting the former's wife, William Ely, who has been stationed there for several months, and who left that camp Monday morning for the east to sail soon for France. Mrs. Ely and Miss Anderson are to visit with Mrs. Ely's sister, Mrs. Ray Cooper, of this city, for several days before returning to their home in California.

Mrs. Orel Welsh is visiting Lieutenant Orel Welsh at Fort Riley, Kansas. Mrs. Welsh's mother, Mrs. A. L. Wolcott, who is visiting at the Welsh home in this city, from California, will leave this evening for Butte, Montana, and will join Mrs. Welsh at that place. While there they will be the guests of the former's son, V. A. Wolcott, where they will remain for about a month. Mrs. Wolcott will be accompanied to Butte by little Barbara Welsh daughter of Lieutenant and Mrs. Welsh.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pace and daughters, Misses Cynthia and Charlotte, and son Graydon, of this city; Mrs. Floyd Walker and children, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Thoen and family, of Gladstone, are to form a party that will leave this evening by automobile for Eagle Creek falls on the Columbia river highway. They will remain until Sunday evening. They will enjoy camp life for a day and night. The family reunion is held in honor of Mr. Pace's birthday anniversary.

SCHOOLEY GETS $1085
W. F. Schooley was awarded $1085 damages against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company in Multnomah county Circuit Judge Kavanaugh's court in a verdict returned by the jury Monday afternoon. Schooley was suing for $10,000 for personal injuries alleged to have been received May 23, 1917, in an accident on the Oregon City line. The railway company admitted its negligence in the matter but was disputing the amount of damages claimed.

NARROW ESCAPE FOR JOY RIDERS SUNDAY AUTO OVERTURNS

Although getting out with a few bruises and scratches, it is little wonder that every member of the party was not killed when a seven-passenger service car containing six persons, and going at high speed, was overturned on the country road at the north end of the bridge across the Clackamas river at Parkplace, at 7 o'clock Monday morning.

In the party were H. A. Collins, Portland, employe of Northwestern Steel works; A. Sky, Seattle, employe of the Standard Construction company, Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. Montgomery, Portland, and two young women, late of Seattle, whose names were not learned. A man named Montgomery was driving. From all indications, the autoists had been drinking. Sheriff Wilson found a quart bottle containing a small amount of whiskey near the overturned auto.

The members of the party, with the exception of the driver and Mrs. Montgomery, who had disappeared, were brought to Oregon City by Sheriff Wilson and Deputies D. E. Frost and A. E. Joyner.

The two women were taken to the office of Dr. Mount and Mount to have their facial injuries attended to. They are believed to have returned to Portland. Collins and Sky are in the county jail pending a hearing.

Mrs. Montgomery, believed to be a member of the party, was picked up an hour after the accident on Main street by Sheriff Wilson, who was attracted by her dusty and disheveled appearance. She is being detained.

The auto tore up the road for a distance of 50 to 75 feet. One wheel was torn off, and the car was otherwise badly damaged. It was brought to Oregon City Monday morning.

The car carried Oregon state license number 35596.

LIEUT. J. HALESTON IN OREGON CITY FOR VISIT WITH FRIENDS

Lieutenant John Haleston has arrived in Oregon City, where he is visiting friends. He will leave within a few days for Camas, Wash., where he is to visit his parents and awaiting his orders to report for duty.

Lieutenant Haleston is a former Oregon City young man, where he spent his boyhood days. He graduated from the Oregon City high school, and later was given a scholarship at West Point. He has just graduated from that institution with high honors. Lieutenant Haleston has many friends in Oregon City, who are giving him a most cordial welcome.

PIANO RECITAL OF MISS LOUISE WALKER'S CLASS

The recital given at the Congregational church on Friday evening under the direction of Miss Louise Walker was a most delightful affair, each student taking part in the evening's program showing excellent musical training. Miss Walker, who is one of the prominent piano instructors here is deserving of much credit for the manner in which the entertainment was given. The little tots showed rare musical ability, and were well received during the evening, as were the older ones taking part in the program. The affair was largely attended.

Eternal Triangle Is Cause of Domestic Troubles as Usual

Wanda Campen is the woman who pays, in a staging of the eternal triangular heart-struggle, if her complaint filed Saturday with the Circuit court may be used as a criterion. In her proceedings for divorce from Henry Campen lie a human story of a happy home ruptured and torn by the despicability of man.

Married in Portland, in 1916, in January, and deserted, with her 10 months old child, in the following year, runs the tale of this unhappy ending of a domestic venture. And in departing the husband and father wrote of his love for her—but said that a greater and deeper love impelled him to leave her for a girl he had known in earlier years. He intimated that there had been something between this girl and he, and he had married the woman who was to mother his child in order to forget the girl. Then he saw her again, and lost his heart all over. He told his wife that her father had forgiven him, and had suggested that he divorce her and repair the damage of a former escapade by marrying the girl. He went to Arizona, and left a note for his wife not to follow. He wrote again from Los Angeles, and asked that she secure a divorce, that he might marry again. He said that he had tried to forget the other girl, and had married her to aid in salving his heart, but could not put her from his mind.

He left his property, with a small amount of cash, for his wife. In her complaint she asked the court to allow her money with which to prosecute the case, and an order was immediately handed down by Judge Campbell ordering the defendant husband to pay $50 each month during the pendency of the trial, for the support and care of his wife and child, and the additional sum of $100 immediately with which to carry the expense of the suit.

Wife's Feelings Hurt When Husband Says You "Poor Simp"

Charging her spouse with a series of cruel and inhuman acts, Mabel E. Giese, has instituted proceedings for absolution from the matrimonial contract with H. J. Giese, whom she married in Minneapolis, in 1912. Among other vile appellations, the complaint charges her husband with calling his wife "poor simp."

PROFESSOR McNULTY RESIGNS POSITION TO HELP WIN WAR

Professor W. T. McNulty, who has been superintendent of the Gladstone school for several years, and who was re-elected to teach the fall term, has resigned the position. Mr. McNulty has been offered a position in a Portland shipyard and says he will continue work there during the fall and help the government in that manner. Mr. McNulty since taking up his residence at Gladstone has been a "live wire," and has always been anxious to do his bit toward patriotism. He has been Scout Master at Gladstone for some time, and has made himself one of the most popular men at that place.

PROMINENT MATRON PASSES AWAY LATE ON FRIDAY EVENING

Mrs. Sarah Huntley, prominent resident of this city, died at her late home on Tenth and Washington Street Friday evening at 11 o'clock after an illness of several months, from heart failure.

Mrs. Huntley was born in Southern Michigan, August 11, 1840. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson, of Southern Michigan, well known early pioneers of that state. After the marriage of Sarah Gibson to Solomon Huntley she continued to make Michigan her home until about 25 years ago she came west, and has since resided in Oregon City. Since taking up her residence in Oregon City, Mrs. Huntley has been an active member of the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Huntley is survived by her sons, William A. Huntley, of Portland; Clyde G. Huntley, of Oregon City; three grandchildren, Miss Louise Huntley, a student of Reed College, Portland; Allison Huntley, of Portland; Miss Mildred Huntley, of Oregon City. She also leaves a sister, Mrs. Palmer, of Michigan. Mr. Huntley died about 40 years ago in Michigan.

OREGON CITY GIRL STRICKEN WITH SMALLPOX DIES

Little Mary Eastham, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Eastham, recently passed away in China. Her death was due to smallpox, and she had been ill but a few days. Mr. Eastham has resided in China for about a year, where he is a professor in a college at Tin Tsen. Mr. Eastham is a former Oregon City young man, and is a nephew of Charles, E. G. David and Robert Caulfield.

UNCONSCIOUS FOR SOME TIME WHEN HAND CRUSHED

William Connett, who lives in this city and is employed at the Columbia shippards in Portland, had the misfortune to smash the fingers of his right hand in an accident Tuesday. In lifting some heavy steel, with his brother, a crane started to swing the load sideways, and in order to save himself and his brother from having their legs crushed, he grasped the end of the steel and swung it around getting his hand caught between the plates. It is not known to what extent his hand is injured, but it is his belief that the middle finger has been severed. He was unconscious from the time he was struck until after the doctors had bandaged the hand. Previous to the strike, Connett was employed in the paper mills here, and since that time had been cutting cord wood at Gladstone, until he recently secured employment at the shippards.

Cherry Trees Planted By Pioneers 50 Years Ago Still Bear Crops

The cherry crop on the farm of Dr. W. C. Schultz, of West Linn in charge of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Schultz, is most encouraging at the present time. Although the cherry trees are over 50 years old, they are still bearing large crops. On Tuesday there were 1200 pounds of cherries picked; Wednesday, 500 pounds, and there will be about 600 pounds today. The varieties are Royal Anne, Tartarians, Elta, Black Republicans, Oxford and others. Pickers are busily engaged in gathering the crop. These cherry trees were planted over 50 years ago by the late Samuel Miller, and the place is known as the Samuel Miller Donation Land Claim known so by many of the old Oregon pioneers.

VOLUNTEER FIREMAN MAKES RECORD IN QUENCHING FLAMES

George Griffith was the champion fireman of Thirteenth Street Sunday. The grass became ignited from a cigarette stub, it is thought, near the Griffith ran for assistance. Mr. Griffith ran for the garden hose, and did not call for assistance. Smoke could be seen for blocks. Many people made an investigation, and found George calmly drenching the grass and performing the duties of the fireman himself. He succeeded in quenching the flames, and had it not been for his timely arrival, property in that vicinity would have been endangered from the fire. The grass was dry and it did not take long for the blaze to spread after once being started. George's friends are contemplating putting him up for the next fire chief of that district.

SAN FRANCISCO BOY INJURED MONDAY IN AUTO COLLISION

Richard Bailey, son of Mrs. Bailey, of San Francisco, who is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lacey, of Parkplace, was badly injured Monday when he was riding in an automobile in company with Mr. Lacey. Mr. Lacey, who is employed by the Standard Oil Company, was taking the child on one of his trips, and when passing over a roadway, a plank flew up, and struck the windshield of the automobile. The glass flew backward, and struck the rear seat where the child was seated. The little fellow's back was badly lacerated, and it was necessary to rush him to the hospital where it required a number of stitches to close the wounds. The accident happened near a saw-mill in the rural section.

VICTIM OF DROWNING LAID TO REST IN CATHOLIC CEMETERY

Funeral services over the remains of little Clayton Thomas Youngchild, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Youngchild, were held at the family home on Jefferson Street Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. A. Hillebrand, pastor of St. John's Catholic church, officiated. The services were largely attended, and the floral tributes were many. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery. Clayton Thomas Youngchild lost his life Friday when he fell in the pond of water near the home of his parents, and was drowned. The little fellow was a general favorite of the neighbors, and many attended the services. The services were in charge of the Holman & Pace undertaking establishment.

BLOOD POISONING CAUSES DEATH OF RICHARD BURKE

Word has been received in Oregon City late Monday afternoon that Richard Burke died at Moscow, Idaho, from blood poisoning resulting from a bite from a Montana tick received a few days ago.

The deceased is the father of Thomas A. Burke, assistant district attorney of Clackamas county and a well known young professional man of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burke were at the bedside of the stricken man when death came.

FUNERAL OF THOMAS GLEASON HELD WITH MANY FRIENDS OUT

The funeral services over the remains of the late Thomas Gleason, son of Mrs. Margaret Gleason, of this city, and of the late John Gleason, were conducted at the St. John's Catholic church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Many friends of the young man and family attended the services. Rev. A. Hillebrand, pastor of the St. John's Catholic church, officiated. The interment was in the Mountain View cemetery, the services at the grave being private. The floral tributes were beautiful, and were in large quantities. Among the floral tributes placed on the casket were pieces from the Crown Willamette Paper Company, where the young man was employed for 15 years, the Woodmen of the World and the Greenpoint-Hose Company. The pallbearers were W. L. Mulvey, Percy Caulfield, William Carden, L. E. Jones, M. D. Phillips, and George Foley, of Portland.
