

LOCALS

O. E. Freytag returned from a trip to the Tillamook beaches Wednesday evening. He visited a number of the resorts including Bar View, Manzanita and Classic Ridge. At the latter place a beautiful summer home is to be built by some of the Portland artists, to be located in a picturesque spot. Mr. Freytag says the scenery between Tillamook City and Classic Ridge is attractive, and is the means of bringing many people to that resort this summer. He was accompanied on the trip by his wife and Mrs. E. M. Meads, mother of Mrs. Freytag. Mrs. Freytag remained at Bar View for a few days longer and is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Carter. Mrs. Meads returned Wednesday evening. The party visited a number of the spruce camps, and saw several of these have been beautified by the soldiers. Streets and avenues have been laid out by the spruce men during their leisure hours after they have worked hard all day cutting the immense trees, and they delight in having the camps made attractive. The soldier boys gave the Oregon City delegation a most cordial welcome. Mr. Freytag says they are doing wonderful work in the camps.

Mrs. A. Nathe, residing on Madison street between Eighth and Seventh, was painfully burned about the face Monday morning caused by an explosion of her gas range. Mrs. Nathe was opening the oven door when the explosion occurred. She was thrown heavily to the floor, dishes in the cupboard were thrown about, and a portion of the wall at the rear of the gas range blown out. The stove was badly damaged. Neighbors rushed to the Nathe home to ascertain the cause of the noise, and found Mrs. Nathe almost unconscious, having been overcome by the fumes, her face and hair badly scorched, and her eyelashes and eyebrows were burned. Her eyes were badly swollen, and for some time it was feared her eyesight was injured.

Mrs. Nathe had just had the gas installed in her home a few days previous to the explosion and was trying out the oven, when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Phillip J. Sinnott arrived in Oregon City from Los Angeles, Saturday, and is visiting at the home of Mr. Sinnott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sinnott, of Eleventh and Washington streets. Mrs. Sinnott will probably remain in Oregon during the time her husband is in service. "Phil," as he is generally known in Oregon City, is a well known newspaper young man, and has enlisted in the Twenty-third Machine Gun Battalion, and is stationed at Camp Fremont, California. Sinnott was formerly connected with the Enterprise. For the past year he has been with the United Press.

I. Horer, veteran of the Battle of Gettysburg, and one of the old pioneers of Clackamas county, whose home is near Molalla, was in Oregon City Friday visiting friends. Mr. Horer is on his way to Portland, where he is to attend the convention of the G. A. R. He can tell many thrilling tales of his experiences in war times. He is about 85 years of age and still hale and hearty. He bears the marks of several gun shot wounds received in battle.

Mrs. S. P. Davis, who recently left Oregon City with her husband, Rev. S. P. Davis, for Portland, where they have been visiting friends, was in this city Friday. Rev. and Mrs. Davis formerly resided here, disposing of their property interests and will make Philadelphia their home. They will leave the latter part of the week for the East. They were former residents of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Sidney Nuttall and son have returned to their home in Canemah after spending the past two weeks with Mr. Nuttall at Waldport, Ore. Mr. Nuttall is connected with the Warren Spruce Co. at that place. On the return home they visited at Newport and with Mr. and Mrs. Max Telford at Yaquina. The Telfords are camping at Yaquina, where Mr. Telford is also employed by the Warren Spruce Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fuller arrived Saturday night from Kansas City, Kan., and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Horton, at Gladstone. Mr. Fuller and Mr. Horton are cousins. The former is a veteran of the Civil War, having been a member of Co. G, 22nd Illinois Infantry during the rebellion. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller came west to attend the national encampment of the G. A. R.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Leighton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hendrickson and family, and Mrs. Dennis Byrnes returned recently from the Belknap Hot Springs on the McKenzie river. They made the trip in two machines, and except for a few blowouts and a balky carburetor report a fine trip. The party spent the time fishing and have many fish stories as a result.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Caulfield, and William Wood and children of Washington, Wash., have returned from Salt Air, where they have been spending their vacation in the Percy Caulfield cottage. Mr. Wood and Percy Caulfield drove home from the beach by the way of Seaside, arriving in Oregon City Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wood returned to Washougal Monday morning.

Mrs. Harry Jones has as her guests this week her mother, Mrs. Andrew Todd, of Portland, her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Todd and their children, Wilbur and Pauline, of Independence. Mr. Todd is helping Harry Jones with the work on the West Linn hotel. They will remain here about two weeks.

Otto T. Hogg, second son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hogg, Sr., has been heard from since his arrival in France. His brother, Fred Hogg, received a card Friday morning saying he had arrived safely, and was in the best of health. He desires to hear the news from home. Hogg is a member of Company L, 361st Infantry, A. E. F.

Lee Harding has returned from Mexico where he has been connected with a construction project, and is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harding, where his wife and daughter have also been visiting. Mr. Harding will spend a week here before going on to Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bonney and family, accompanied by Jack Hindle, who was ill for some time at the Oregon City hospital, suffering from pneumonia, have gone to the beach to spend a few days. Mr. Hindle's health is improving, but he is not yet able to resume his duties at Vancouver Barracks.

The Bowland brothers have as their guests during encampment week Mr. and Mrs. Hufford and son, Joe, and wife and little daughter, Margaret, of Los Angeles, Cal. They will make a trip today over the Columbia highway. W. H. Hufford is a veteran of the Civil War and has been steadily engaged in teaching since 1867.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Dimick and son, Norman, who have been spending several weeks at Salt Air, where they have been occupying the H. J. Thorne cottage, have returned to Oregon City. They had a most delightful outing, and enjoyed visiting a number of other beach resorts.

Mrs. Lawrence Vaaler, of Minneapolis, Minn., a graduate of Fairfield Academy, New York, in elocution and music, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. S. Bennett, of 721 Washington street.

Mrs. Vaaler is a daughter of a Civil War veteran and came west to attend the reunion of the G. A. R.

Roy McFarland, a former resident of Oregon City but now of Portland, was in the city Tuesday visiting with friends. He is on his way to American Lake where he is to enter the service. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland, live in Powell River, B. C.

A party composed of Mrs. R. E. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Woodward, Kenneth Woodway, and Claude Jones drove back from the Tillamook beaches the end of the week. They found the roads in spite of the rain to be in fairly good condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Freeman, of Canemah, are at Waldport, Oregon, where Mrs. Freeman is to spend the month of August. Mr. Freeman is employed by the Warren Spruce Co. at that point, and will remain there after Mrs. Freeman returns home.

Miss Mildred L. Jeremiah, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Jeremiah, former residents of Oregon City, died in Portland August 19. Miss Jeremiah was 13 years of age. The funeral was held in Portland Wednesday.

Mrs. George Mathewson has as her guests a party of people who have driven from Moab, Utah, in their machine. Those making the trip are Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Denzel, Donald and Ruth Denzel, Mrs. Bedbury, and Helen Bingham.

Mrs. William Davis, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Mills, of Sandy, has returned to Oregon City. Mrs. Davis was accompanied by Sandy by her sister, Miss Florence Mills, who has been in Oregon City as her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simmons and Fred Johnson, who have been living in Ocean Falls, B. C., where Mr. Simmons and Mrs. Johnson have been connected with the paper mills, have returned to Oregon City to make their home.

Mrs. George Cahoe, who has been visiting with her cousin, Mrs. Sidney Nuttall, has gone to Hoquiam, Wash., to join her husband who is in the spruce division stationed at that point. Mrs. Cahoe's home is in Big Bay, Mich.

Dan Robbins, formerly of this city but now of McMinnville, has opened headquarters for the Union Meat Company in that city. Mr. Robbins has been in McMinnville for the past year, and his health is much improved.

George Ely and Bonnie Netsger left the first of the week for the lumber camp at Government Camp, where they are to camp for a week. They are planning to fish along the streams in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Current, of University Place, Nebraska, are visiting Mrs. Current's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Horton, at Gladstone, and her sister, Mrs. R. B. Cox, of this city.

Mrs. Wadla, of San Diego, Cal., was a guest of Mrs. Eva Emery Dye the first of the week. Mrs. Wadla is a distant relative of Mrs. Dye, and is in Oregon to attend the G. A. R. reunion in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Hontley, and daughter, Mildred, and Dr. Clyde Mount returned Tuesday night from a motor trip up the McKenzie and Willamette rivers as far as Oak Ridge.

Editor of the Enterprise, was in Oregon City Wednesday. Mr. Murphy is connected with the intelligence department of the United States navy now.

Miss Alice Watters will leave September 1st for Portland, where she will take a nurse's course at St. Vincent's hospital. Miss Watters is the book-keeper for the Jones Drug Company.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Schmitz and family, after residing at Clairmont for the past seven years, have moved to Oregon City. They have taken up their residence at 1219 Ninth Street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tipton are receiving the congratulations over the arrival of a daughter at their home on Center Street, August 16. The little girl has been named Sarah Louise.

Irvin Zumwalt, formerly of this city but connected now with the paper mills at Powell River, B. C., is in town for a short visit. He has recently recovered from an illness.

J. H. Dunn and Clarence Trainor, both of Waterloo, Iowa, are visiting their relatives, M. E. Dunn and family, and attending the G. A. R. reunion in Portland.

A party composed of Miss Helen Ely, Mrs. Maggie Cross, and Miss Ella Cross have left for a two weeks' vacation at Netarts and other Tillamook beaches.

Miss Koll, instructor in home economics at O. A. C., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Calavan. Miss Koll is lecturing in the summer school here.

Miss Elizabeth Ellison, who was instructor in art at the Oregon City high school last year, has accepted a position at Fresno, California.

Born, to the wife of Henry D. Smith, of Jennings Lodge, a son. The youngster made his appearance in the world at Oregon City hospital.

Rev. T. B. Ford, who has been spending a few days at Ocean Park, Wash., returned to Oregon City Wednesday evening.

Mrs. William Marshall, of Clarkes, is among the teachers of the county attending the Summer Normal at Barclay building.

Theodore Miller, well known farmer of Carus, accompanied by his son, were in Oregon City on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Armstrong, well known residents of Redland, were Oregon City visitors Saturday.

A. H. Schatz, of Stafford, was among those to transact business in this city Saturday.

Mrs. Fellows and daughter, of Colton, were in this city Friday and Saturday.

Born, Thursday evening, August 15, to the wife of Harry Price, of 1015 Sixth street a daughter.

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES
The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong was the scene of a very enjoyable party last Saturday night when about seventy-five guests gathered to bid good-bye to their youngest son, Ralph, who left Tuesday morning at one o'clock for Mare Island, Cal.

The early part of the evening was spent roasting marshmallows and playing games around a huge bonfire. About ten-thirty when the inevitable Oregon mist began to fall the guests went in the house for dancing. Late in the evening a delicious Hooverized supper was served.

One very enjoyable feature of the evening was a song, "Sometime, Somewhere," by Mae Powell, accompanied on the violin by her brother, Dempsey.

Ralph Armstrong, who graduated from the Oregon City high school with the class of '17, enlisted in the Radio Electrical engineers. He has a brother, Fred, and two cousins in the service. Joe Armstrong, already in the service. Out of town guests were Miss Nell Younger, Mr. and Mrs. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shannon and daughter.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED
A marriage license was issued here by County Clerk Iva Harrington to Claud P. Brown, aged 22, of Hubbard, and Vernita Symmonds aged 18, of Oregon City.

FIGHT AT OAK GROVE
Relatives engaged in an altercation over a board bill at the Bunnell home in Oak Grove Wednesday night, and it is reported that the owner of the house was bested in a fist encounter. The trouble was reported to Sheriff Wilson, but too late to stop the fight. None was seriously injured.

SUIT TO QUIET TITLE
C. H. Marsh and Ettie Marsh are the plaintiffs in a suit to quiet title against Frances R. Williams, Mary Jane Williams, and others. The property lies in the Williams Donation Land Claim in Township 5 S. R. 1 E. of the W. M.

DESERTION CHARGED BY ADRAIN
Desertion is charged by George Adrain against his wife, Mary Adrain, in the husband's suit for divorce filed Wednesday. The couple were married in 1913 and the desertion is alleged to have occurred in June a year ago.

YOUNG'S BODY SHIPPED
The remains of the late Asa E. Young, who escaped from the state asylum at Salem, and later committed suicide by drowning, were shipped to Monmouth Thursday evening.

Earl W. Murphy, formerly city

Makes Night Hideous
West Linn Rejoices
Charivari Newlyweds

A real, old-fashioned charivari greeted George Chambers and his bride Monday night upon their return from Vancouver, where they were married on Saturday last. West Linn kiddies came into their own and made the night hideous with every noise device known to "boy-land." They climbed down the bank to the locks and surrounded the Chambers cottage and it took some actual "persuasion" to induce them to depart.

Mr. Chambers has been employed at the government locks, with his father, for many years. His bride was Miss Vestula Jackson, of Portland.

WIFE KNOCKED DOWN
BEATEN BY HUSBAND
SAYS LUCILE ROPPEL

That her husband knocked her down and beat her into a state of unconsciousness is the charge of Mrs. Lucille M. Roppel, who filed suit for divorce against her husband, John Roppel, Monday. The alleged assault was the culmination of a series of long-standing abuse, according to the wife, and occurred on August 9th of this year.

The Roppels were married in Oregon City in 1909, and have one child, the custody of which the wife would have. She asks a restraining order enjoining her husband from molesting her in any way, and $50 per month permanent alimony.

Desertion is charged by Sarah F. Clancy in her suit against John W. Clancy. The couple were married at Vancouver July 12, 1917, and the desertion occurred August 15th, of the same year, according to the complaint.

CIRCUIT JUDGE HOME AND COURT AFFAIRS
BECOME QUITE BRISK

With the return of Circuit Judge Campbell from Newport Wednesday court affairs took a sudden spurt, and many decrees were entered in various civil controversies.

A judgment of $150, $40 attorney's fees and $15 costs together with interest, was entered in favor of Wm. Hughes against C. S. Bard, in a civil action to recover money filed some time ago.

A quiet title decree covering 17 acres in the Hood D. L. C. was entered in favor of Solomon and Chas. Hannant against Hannah Goldsmith, et al.

Judgment was entered in the sum of $275.16, with 6 per cent interest since March 21, 1917, in favor of H. A. Askwith against C. F. Richardson, in a suit brought by Askwith against the Highland Plumbing Company, Theodore Schiel, in a cross complaint in the same matter was given a judgment of $43 against Richardson, who was one of the partners in the Plumbing Company.

Judgment was given for $132, with accrued interest, and $25 attorney's fees, and execution ordered against Lots 1, 2, and 3 of Block 4 of Knob Hill, in the suit of Mrs. S. J. Dickerson against Claud D. Brown and Lucille Brown, his wife.

JACOBS WOULD CHANGE NAME
PORTLAND, Aug. 17.—Asserting that the name Jacobs is of German origin, and therefore offensive to him and a detriment to his business, Seymour Lewis Jacobs filed a petition in the county court yesterday asking that he hereafter may be known legally as Seymour Lewis Gilbert.

DRAFT BOARD AFTER BERRIES
The local draft board took advantage of the first breathing spell in weeks Saturday, when Sheriff and Mrs. Wilson and two sons, Gordon and Roland, and Clerk Iva M. Harrington, departed for an over-Sunday trip to the Government Camp huckleberry patches. They returned Sunday evening laden with some ten dozen gallons of the delicious fruit.

WIFE CHARGES DESERTION

After nearly half a century of married life, Charles Hall is charged with desertion by his wife, Nettie Hall, in a complaint filed in the circuit court Saturday. The complaint alleges the couple were married in Monroe county, Michigan, in 1873 and that the desertion occurred in May, 1913.

Jack Frost - Costumes
Silk Dress on Sale
Bargains On Aug. 27

Here girls, is the chance of a lifetime, according to Constable D. E. Frost.

In the well oiled machinery of the constable's department Mr. Frost has accumulated—from sources unknown to the general public—one ladies' coat and two silk dresses. The articles of female apparel are said to be the very last word in Dame Fashion's category, and on the 27th day of August at 10 o'clock A. M., at the very door of the justice of peace office, Mr. Frost will sell the coat and dresses to the highest bidder, and a bold notice on the office door conveys the exciting news that the sale will come according to schedule.

Grants Pass—Valuable chrome ore located 27 miles from here.

VACANCIES FILLED
BY SCHOOL BOARD
FOR COMING TERM

The Oregon City schools now have a full corps of teachers for the coming school year, three vacancies remaining having been filled Tuesday night by the school board. Miss Dudley W. Tobin, of Portland, was elected in the grades. She is a graduate of Jefferson high school and the Oregon state normal and taught last year at LaGrande.

Mrs. Coy B. Woodard, of Portland, was elected head of the science department of the high school. She is an Indiana University graduate and has taken work in the Indiana normal and in the University of California. She has had teaching experience in Gresham, Canas and Portland, and in Goodland, Ind.

Miss Burnice Zimmerman was chosen as assistant in the commercial department. She obtained her education in Washington high school of Portland and at Whitman college and the University of California, holding an A. B. degree from the latter institution. She has taught two years in the Payette, Idaho, high school.

CHESTER DOUGLAS IS HURT WHEN CAR GOES
OVER ON 82D STREET

Chester Douglas, picture operator at the Star theatre, sustained serious injuries Wednesday noon when the car he was driving dashed over the bluff at the top of the 82nd street hill about a mile beyond Clackamas.

Douglas, with George Snook, operator at the Grand theatre, was returning to Oregon City. As they swung around the curve at the southern end of East 82nd, the car swerved clear off the pavement, over some 10 feet of road adjoining the pavement and piled into the ditch with its occupants, after turning turtle. Douglas' injuries are extremely serious, as it is thought that he has sustained a fractured skull, along with many other cuts and bruises. He was thrown through the wind shield of the car and landed upon his head and shoulders in the ditch. Snook, while badly bruised, was not seriously hurt, and continued his work at the local theatre yesterday afternoon. Douglas was given medical aid and is now under a physician's care. The boys were brought to Clackamas by passing autoists after the accident, and from Clackamas were brought to Oregon City by Deputy Sheriff Joyner and taken to the office of Dr. Mount, where their injuries were attended to.

Douglas is a local draft registrant and has been called to report with the next quota of Clackamas men who are to leave some time this month for mobilization camps. He is the son of Harvey Douglas, of Canby, and was driving his father's car at the time of the accident.

DOZEN RECRUITS
TAKE UP STUDY AT BENSON TECH

Twelve more boys left Thursday for Portland to take up their studies at the Benson Polytechnic school to fit themselves for mechanical service with the government. The men are Henry Zimmerman, Aurora; John Moger, Springfield; Frank Zadnick, Oregon City; E. E. Gabriel, Oregon City; Mike Heinrich, Boring; Ralph Hardy, Molalla; Clyde E. Mayfield, Walla Walla; Ben Steinger, Molalla; Austin Nichols, Oregon City; Lyle O. Tiedeman, Sherwood, Route 5; Paul Koch, Sandy and Walter Kitzmiller, Eagle Creek.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, IN ADDITION TO THE FIVE REGISTRANTS DEPARTING FOR SPOKANE FOR MECHANICAL TRAINING,
CLAY C. MILLER OF HIGHLAND LEFT FOR THE CORVALLIS TRAINING CAMP; REGINALD
C. COOK, OF OSWEGO, DEPARTED FOR THE VANCOUVER SPRUCE DIVISION; AND ARTHUR
ANDERSON OF COLTON, LEFT FOR THE OFFICERS' TRAINING CAMP AT LOUISVILLE, KY.

Courand Would Set Aside Deed
From Vorphals

A suit in equity to set aside a deed, was instituted in the circuit court Saturday by E. Courand and Marie, his wife, against Robert Vorphal and Hattie Vorphal, well known ranchers of the Canby district. The complaint alleges that the plaintiffs purchased a tract of land, presumably of 58 acres, and that it was learned shortly thereafter that there was not so much land as represented; that an effort was made to settle up the differences between the parties but that the defendants made certain fraudulent representations concerning a certain lane they are said to have deeded to plaintiffs in settlement of the deficiency. The Courands ask that the deed be set aside.

FIRE ON URUGUAY PRESIDENT

MONTEVIDEO, Aug. 17.—An attempt was made to assassinate President Viora, of Uruguay, on Tuesday afternoon during rioting growing out of the general strike, according to an afternoon newspaper. The president, it says, was standing on a balcony when fired at and the bullet missed him by a narrow margin.

SOCIALISTS ARE IN FIELD WITH LOCAL NOMINEES

Nomination certificates and acceptance by Socialist office seekers were filed with the county clerk Monday as follows:

Sheriff—F. H. King, Logan; Coroner, Jas. S. Imel, Abernethy; Clerk, Claud Howard, Mulino; School Superintendent, Emma Rayner; Commissioner, Bernard Freidrich, Liberal; Treasurer, J. Thomsen.

AUGUST MARHOST
DROPSY VICTIM
AT SUNNYSIDE

August Marhost, a resident of the Sunnyside district for 16 years, died at the family home Saturday evening from dropsy. The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the home, interment following in the Clackamas cemetery. Mr. Marhost was a native of Germany and 72 years of age. He is survived by his widow and a daughter, Mrs. Martha Blaha, of 324 Second street, Portland.

PLANT OF BRICK
& TILE CONCERN
BOUGHT BY BANK

The machinery, stock and fixtures of the much litigated Unique Brick & Tile Company, of Boring, went under the hammer at forced sale Monday afternoon for the sum of $3005, the Bank of Gresham being the purchaser.

Execution was taken by the Scott Company of Portland, on a chattel mortgage held on the machinery of the plant, and the sale was conducted by Sheriff Wilson, who acted as auctioneer. Practically all the junk men of Portland were bidders on the stock, one of them going as high as $3005.

CIGARS AND CANDY
GIVEN TO VETERANS
BY HARRY GREAVES

Harry Greaves, one of the patriotic citizens of Oregon City, presented the members of Meade Post No. 2, G. A. R. with a box of fine cigars and the Meade Relief Corps with six boxes of candy Friday. These delicacies are to be partaken of by the old soldiers and the Relief Corps next week during the G. A. R. encampment in Portland.

On Tuesday the members of both organizations are to go to Portland in a body. It is probable that they will march down Main Street before taking the car for Portland.

The members of these organizations are looking forward with great pleasure of enjoying the treat Mr. Greaves has presented them.

CAPTAIN LOGUS SENT BACK ACROSS WATER AND RANK ADVANCED

Captain William R. Logus, who has been in France as the regimental adjutant with the 162d regiment of the U. S. Infantry, has returned to New York and has been made divisional adjutant, according to a wire received here Wednesday by Mrs. William Logus.

Captain Logus is to have headquarters in New York for some time with a new division that is being formed there.

JULIUS SPAGLE IS NAMED LIEUTENANT IN FEDERAL BRANCH

Julius Spagle, an employe of the post office, has received a commission as second lieutenant in the United States Guards with orders to report at San Francisco immediately. He does not know just what duties he will have as yet, but he will remain in the United States. Mr. Spagle was among those who went to the Mexican border in the summer of 1916. He will leave in a couple of days for the south.

GLADSTONE TEACHERS CHOSEN FOR TERM
OPENING SEPT. 16

Gladstone school will commence September 16, with the following corps of teachers: Principal, J. A. Croft, of Coos Bay, Ore.; Miss Rose Winkelman, of Portland; Mrs. Estelle McGeechie, Miss Zelmá Johnson, Mrs. Wanda Turner, Mrs. Estella Salisbury, Miss Beatrice Kirkup will have charge of the music.

LOOK ALIVE FELLOWS
When Were You 21?
Saturday Is At Hand

Saturday is official registration day for all young men of the county who have attained their 21st birthday since June 5th of this year and according to Clerk Harrington, her office will be open from 7:00 A. M., until 9:00 P. M. In order to accommodate the group of local boys who will come within the provisions of the act, from an estimate and a cursory examination of school records it is thought that there will probably be 25 young men who will come under the act.

ELKS HOLD FUNERAL OF FIRST MEMBER
DYING IN SERVICE

The local lodge of Elks held funeral services Tuesday afternoon for the first of its members to die in the service, Andrew J. Lamb, who died at the Mendocino state hospital, Talmage, Cal. A delegation of members from the lodge went to Molalla where the funeral was held. Andrew Lamb was called to the colors in November, 1917, and was in training when he suffered from nervous prostration. He was born in Molalla, November 10, 1859 and lived there until his enlistment. While attending school at Molalla he was considered one of the star basketball players. He is survived by a mother, Mrs. Emma J. Gonoy, of Molalla. Those going from this city were: Ben Beard, exalted ruler; T. A. Barke, E. L. K.; George Swafford, secretary; Don James, loyal knight; Emory Noble, lecturing knight; Fred A. Miller, esquire; Judge Dimick, F. A. Miles.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY FARMER DIES WHILE ATTENDING CHORES

While milking his cow in the barn on his place in the Redlands community Thursday evening, John Eggers, a well known Clackamas county rancher, dropped dead from heart failure. Mr. Eggers had been doing the evening chores about his farm and as far is known was feeling all right. When he failed to come in from his barn members of the family investigated and found him almost lifeless reclining against a stall in the barn. He was carried into the house and died almost immediately.

Mr. Eggers leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss. He was 65 years of age. Acting Coroner John N. Stevers, after investigating the death, deemed an inquest unnecessary.

MOLALLA BOY DIES
WHILE TRAINING IN CALIFORNIA CAMP

MOLALLA, Or., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Emma J. Bonney, of Molalla, received a telegram Sunday that her son, Andrew J. Lamb, had died at the Mendocino State hospital at Talmage, Cal. The young man was undergoing training for the United States army, having been called to the colors in November, 1917. His health became undermined after an attack of nervous prostration. He was born November 10, 1859, at Molalla, and is survived by his mother, two half brothers and one half sister. He attended school at Molalla, and was a star performer on the basketball team, which played all over the surrounding country.

CALLIED BY DEATH
WHILE ON VISIT
NEAR MULINO

Mrs. Marie Kreidt, wife of Andrew Kreidt, of 751 1/2 Roosevelt Avenue, Portland died at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Trente one and one-half miles east of Mulino, Monday night at 8:30. Mrs. Kreidt was a native of Austria, coming to the United States in 1905. She was married to Andrew Kreidt in January, 1914. The Lodge of Herman Sisters of which Mrs. Kreidt was a member will have charge of the funeral services which will be held from the F. S. Dunning undertaking parlors, 414 East Alder, Thursday at 10:30. The interment will be in Rose City Pary cemetery.

DOROTHY BOLLE DIES

Dorothy Bolle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bolle, died Wednesday morning at the family home on the Clackamas road. The little girl was only one and a half years old. The parents have been residents of this section for a long time. The funeral will be held from the Holman & Pace undertaking parlors, Thursday at 2:00 o'clock, with Rev. W. R. Kraxberger preaching. Friends are invited to the services.

CLACKAMAS RESIDENT DIES

Paul Fred Duda died August 19 at his late residence near Clackamas station. He was 60 years of age and leaves a wife, Caroline Duda, and three children, Mrs. Crouline Mattman Mary Gernarut, and Paul Fred Duda. Funeral arrangements have not been made as yet.

Look Alive Fellows
When Were You 21?
Saturday Is At Hand</