Sergeant Trap Shooter Shoots Pigeons and Catches Hun Spy

By Maximilian Foster
PARIS, July 27.—(By mail).—There is a certain U. S. Signal Service Sergeant up in the Toul sector at the front who has been able of late to combine a little pleasure with his business.

that were happening, it was pretty evident that someone behind the lines was sending information to the enemy.
The Signal Service sergeant was the first to detect how it was done.

Archie Roosevelt is Getting Well

This is the first photograph of Archie Roosevelt since he was wounded in France. His arm is shown in a sling, for he is just recovering from the wounds he received when a shrapnel shell exploded near him.

four hundred thousand died on the way. The rest, scarcely half alive, got through with the Russian army. Many of these have been sent to Siberia, it is these people whom the Paderevski committee is trying to relieve.

MARKET REPORT

There has been very little change in market prices this week. The selling price of butter and eggs has remained the same and the only change in produce prices being in the buying price of eggs, which is 46 cents this week, an advance of one cent over the previous week.

MURDER OF NATION BY RUTHLESS HUNS

How the Poles Were Slain and Starved and Frozen During the German Drive.

F. C. Walcott Tells of the Scenes of Horror He Witnessed Along the Road From Warsaw to Pinsk—Million Persons Homeless.

This I have seen. I could not believe it unless I had seen it through and through. For several weeks I lived with it; I went all about it and back of it; inside and out of it was shown to me—until finally I came to realize that the incredible was true.

The following is a statement by F. C. Walcott, who served as an assistant to Mr. Hoover during the time America was doing all that was possible to feed the starving millions of Belgium and Poland and northern France.

I went to Poland to learn the facts concerning the remnant of a people that had been decimated by war. The country had been twice devastated. First the Russian army swept through it and then the Germans. Along the roadside from Warsaw to Pinsk, the present firing line, 230 miles, nearly half a million people had died of hunger and cold.

Wicker baskets were scattered along the way—the basket in which the baby swings from the rafter in every peasant home. Every mile there were scores of them, each one telling a little. I started to count, but after a while I had to give it up, there were so many.
