

OREGON CITY ENTERPRISE

Published Every Friday. E. E. BRODIE, Editor and Publisher.

Entered at Oregon City, Oregon, Postoffice as second-class matter.

Subscription Rates: One year $1.50, Six Months .75, Three Months .40, Trial Subscription, Two Months .25.

Advertising Rates on application.

HANS HANSON COMES TO GET OUT OF ARMY THEN CHANGES MIND

Hans Hanson came clear from Astoria Monday to cancel his naturalization petition. Formerly a resident of Denmark, he suddenly found out when the age limits were raised for army service, that he might have to fight for Uncle Sam.

Hanson is an employe on the government boat Chinook. He informed Clerk Harrington very frankly that he had been reading the papers and had learned that a citizen of a neutral country did not have to fight unless he had filed for citizenship papers.

When it was explained that he must file his request for cancellation in writing, stating the reasons therefor and the matter would be sent to Washington for such action as the department might see fit to make, Hanson changed his mind and decided to let his petition stand.

SUCCESSFUL CHICKEN FANCIER LEAVES OLD LINNS MILL FOR CITY

Anna Morrow, who resides near Linn's Old Mill, was in Oregon City Monday. She is planning to dispose of her White Leghorn chickens and stock, and will make her home in Portland.

COUNTY WHEAT CROP WORTH BETTER THAN $300,000 THIS YEAR

Clackamas county farmers will thresh about 150,000 bushels this season, according to the compilation of R. G. Scott, county agent, made Thursday.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

Trustees of the estate of Sarah Shaver to Perry and Emma Vorhies, property in "The Shaver Place"; $10. Andrew O. Bolland to Hannah Bolland, 60 acres S. T. 4 S. R. 1 E.; $10. Jacob and Elsie Klein to Adam Schenertmann, 5 acres S. 24 T. 6 S. R. 2 E.; $200.

EUGENE HIGH SCHOOL PROFESSOR DRAFTED BY CLACKAMAS BOARD

Clackamas county's war department will be enlarged at once, to meet the ever growing demands following the new registration Thursday.

MORTGAGES ON FARMS PAID INDICATIVE OF PROSPERITY LOCALLY

Examination of the mortgage records in the office of County Recorder Boyles shows that an unusually large number of real estate and chattel mortgages are being cancelled this year, indicative of unprecedented prosperity among the farmers.

WOMEN WORKERS ON FOURTH LOAN DISCUSS DRIVE

Women workers of the Fourth Liberty Loan drive of Clackamas county met in the Commercial Club parlors Saturday afternoon. Much enthusiasm was manifested by these patriotic people who are ready to take up war work again.

MILWAUKIE GETS $250 FROM PARK DANCE MANAGER

MILWAUKIE, Sept. 6.—Montrose M. Ringler, manager of Riverside park at Milwaukie, was fined $250 by City Recorder Matthews at Milwaukie yesterday morning on his plea of guilty to charges of operating a dance hall without a permit.

THREE NEW TEACHERS ARE CHOSEN TO FILL VACANCIES IN GRADES

Three vacancies in the grade schools of Oregon City were filled Thursday night by the board of education to fill the places caused by recent resignations of Mrs. Emma Scholl, Miss Amy Peckover and Miss Dudley W. Tobin.

FIVE CLACKAMAS SOLDIERS GIVEN LIEUTENANCIES

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 10.—The following Clackamas county residents have been recommended for commissions as second lieutenants of field artillery, having completed training at the second Officers' Training Camp, Camp Taylor, Kentucky:

HOME GARDENS ARE THRIVING Seekne and Scripture Families Boast of Wonderful Results

Many war gardens of the city plant early in the spring are now showing the results of labor and interest taken in them. Among the gardens that are attracting unusual attention is that of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seekne, of Eleventh and Madison Streets.

MILWAUKIE GETS $250 FROM PARK DANCE MANAGER

MILWAUKIE, Sept. 6.—Montrose M. Ringler, manager of Riverside park at Milwaukie, was fined $250 by City Recorder Matthews at Milwaukie yesterday morning on his plea of guilty to charges of operating a dance hall without a permit.

HEAD OF ENTERPRISE ADVERTISING DEPARTMENT CALLED TO COLORS Lloyd Riches, advertising manager of the Morning Enterprise, was notified Tuesday that he had been called to the colors and will leave Saturday to report at Vancouver Barracks.

REUNION AT GLDSTONE

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Frost, of Gladstone, Sunday, and was a most enjoyable affair. The rooms of the Frost home were prettily decorated.

Hubby Is Protected Had Six Exemptions Whole Bale of Kids

"I came in to claim my exemptions," stated a good looking Oregon City woman, accompanied by six youngsters, as she entered Clerk Harrington's war office Monday afternoon.

HOME GARDENS ARE THRIVING Seekne and Scripture Families Boast of Wonderful Results and in the pear I simply use the juice. The riper the fruit the less sugar we will have to use, and this I will place in the fruit as we use it in winter.

MILWAUKIE GETS $250 FROM PARK DANCE MANAGER

MILWAUKIE, Sept. 6.—Montrose M. Ringler, manager of Riverside park at Milwaukie, was fined $250 by City Recorder Matthews at Milwaukie yesterday morning on his plea of guilty to charges of operating a dance hall without a permit.

BOYS OVER HERE—OVER THERE

Interesting Facts About Oregon City Boys In The U. S. Service

Alvin R. Wade, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wade, of Carus, is among the Clackamas county boys in France. He is with the 146th Field Artillery, Battery E.

Corporal Perry Carl Thompson, of Sherwood, is with Company D, Tenth Battalion, 20th Engineers, in France.

Leslie Wiewesiek, son of Rev. and Mrs. F. Wiewesiek, of this city, recently leaving for Mare Island, having enlisted in the Marine service, writes his parents he is delighted with the work he has taken up.

Private Fred Glo, with Company E, 411th Telegraph Battalion, Signal Corps, was heard from Wednesday morning by his mother. Glo says he is delighted to get the Oregon City papers, and although there are a number of men in his company who are not residents of Oregon City, they delight in reading papers from home.

Captain C. L. Johnson, of Milwaukie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of that place, is with Battery B, 147th Regiment, Field Artillery, in France. Captain Leo Johnson is in the thick of the fight, and his friends of Clackamas county vouch for his getting his share of the "wooden head" Hun.

Oliver Ferguson in a letter to his father, L. Ferguson, of New Era, on Tuesday, says: "The war is in full bloom now, can't write much, but that I am well, and ready to fight again those Huns."

Mrs. G. F. Anderson received word Tuesday from her son, Lieutenant Ren Holsclaw, in France, saying that he is rushed to death, and that he has not had time to remove his clothing for ten days, and his shoes only once in ten days.

Quartermaster Emerson Hoeye, who has been enjoying a furlough, and visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. George Hoeye, will leave next Thursday for New York, where he again resumes his duties.

Thomas Gregory, who is performing farm work during his month's furlough, while visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Gregory, was in Oregon City Wednesday. He will soon leave for his duties at Mare Island.

Among the speakers at the community sing to be held at the congregational church this evening will be William Kellogg, who has just arrived in Oregon City to spend a furlough with relatives.

Otis Scripture has just received a letter from his brother Albert M. Scripture, who is with the 642 Aero Squadron, American Expeditionary Forces in France, telling how he appreciates the home paper, the Morning Enterprise.

"Dear Brother: Just a line in response to your ever welcome missive of a few days ago.

"Dan Finnucane and myself thought we'd write each other a letter to our dear ones in old Oregon City this pretty evening, so here goes: He is sitting right across from me, life size and twice as natural. He is getting over the gas he got at Chateau very fine.

"I was up town Sunday and thought I'd 'splash' myself for a seven-course dinner. Needless to say that all the dinners are served with a bottle of wine. I also went to a French circus. It reminded me of a 'dinky' little side show, like follows Barnum & Baileys' around the country.

"I am getting the Oregonian right along. Dan helped me to read a few. He enjoyed them very much. Say, I believe I would rather have the Thursday and Saturday morning Enterprise sent to me once a week or every ten days.

"I am getting instructions on the new Marlin machine gun. I like it very much. I already know all about the Vickers, Lewis and French Hotchkiss, so I'll be an expert in machine gunnery before long.

"The weather has turned quite a bit warmer now. It is just fine now. Gee, but aren't the Yanks peppering the Huns? I think they'll all be yelling 'kamerad' in a few more months.

"I think I'll put in for a week's pass before long and take a trip to the French Alps. We are allowed six days' traveling and seven days there it will sure be great.

"With lots of love to all, Your Brother, ALBERT M. SCRIPTURE.

"P. S. I got the gum you placed in the letter."

Private Edward O. Hansinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hansinger, of Oregon City, Route 2, writes from Galveston, Texas, to his mother. He is with the United States Marine Corps No. 196 Company, Eighth Regiment.

"Dear Mother: Your welcome letter finds me still driving along at a fairly even pace not much to write about. We are still drilling and learning more each day.

"Both regiments expect to move over to town to a new camping ground soon, as it is too crowded here since they have started sending recruits to the fort. They sure send the largest and best men they can get to man the big guns in the marine batteries.

Lyle Kellogg, who has just graduated from Annapolis, as an ensign, writes his mother Mrs. Ina Kellogg, of this city. Kellogg is one of the well known Oregon City boys, among the first to enlist.

"Dear Mother: You don't know how pleased I was to get your letter. It was the first one I have received since leaving the West Coast.

"You know I never took trigonometry at school, so I have to learn that to handle the studies here at all. I study, study, and then some. From 5 P. M. we are at liberty to go to the city, Annapolis, but we must return by 6:30 when we have dinner. We study from 8 to 11 P. M.

"I have a negro man, we call a boy, to clean my room, black my shoes and run errands for me, and I also have all the modern conveniences at my disposal.

"The school is enormous, and very pretty and well arranged. The Severn river may be seen from any building. Pancroft hall is the best building. It contains a sort of a museum of interesting articles. For instance, there is a brick here that was taken from the door of Ford's theatre where Lincoln was shot, the resuscitated body of the Maine, etc.

"The daily routine is as follows: Rise at 6:20; inspection in military ranks, 6:40; breakfast; seamanship—8 to 10 P. M.; navigation—10 to 12:15; luncheon, 1:30 to 3; infantry, 4:30 to 5.

"Annapolis is a quaint old town. We can easily trace the colonial architecture and ancient streets. It is a fine place to walk and thing in—recalling history and characters associated with the place.

"I'll try and finish this letter before commencing wrestling 'John Bowditch' (navigation text book). I'm in charge of the dormitory rooms to-night (officer of the deck), and so have little time to spare. If I don't learn valuable information here that may be used to advantage when I leave the service, there is not much hope of my making a success in any vocation.

"You ask if I have seen the President. Yes, when in the Smithsonian Institute Zoological gardens in Washington, the President passed in a large automobile. Two guards were in the front seat, and two motorcycle guards on each side.

"Later—Thank goodness! Merely two weeks more and then somewhere else. This school has been awful during the summer months, but I surely learned much. The heat was dreadful, much of the time was 112 degrees in the shade, and the only way I could sleep was to sit in a chair under a shower bath.

"I was awfully glad that Roy and Ronald will be better able to go to school than I was. Glad they have plenty of work to pay their expenses.

"My blood gets to racing at times, and I can think of nothing but the West. Home must be there. Love from 'LYLE.'"

THIRTY-THREE FROM LATE REGISTRATION GO INTO CLASS ONE

Classifications of the boys who registered a week ago and who had become 21 years of age since June 5, has been completed by the local board. Twenty-three of the boys did not ask for deferred classification and were placed in Class 1 to be physically examined in the near future.

Industrial and agricultural claims will be acted upon by the district board, the local board making no ruling on these but simply classifying the registrants on dependency claims.

There were 43 registrations. Classifications are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Class. Includes Harry Peter Amesele (G-1), Robert Avery Snodgrass (G-1), Walter Willard Helms (G-1), Dewey Charles Kruger (G-1), Henry Kylio (A-1), Abel Hart Jacobson (A-1), George Arnold LaChapelle (G-1), Philmore Nordling (A-1), Irving Frances Leonard (G-1), James Gliden Green (G-1), George Samuel Moser (G-1), Arnes William Johnson (G-1), Clyde Ernest Fischer (G-1), Ernest Arnold Morgan (A-1), Clarence Edward Frossard (I-1), Frank LeRoy Flanery (I-1), Reuben Wright (A-1), William Lester Adams (A-1), Carl Fredrick Kleeb (G-1), Rae Albert Erickson (A-1), Ralph Arthur DeShazer (A-1), Norbert Leonard Peterson (A-1), Albert Jennings Lund (I-1), Joseph Norman Garfrie (G-1), Barney Norton Helvey (I-1), Henry Ankele (A-4), Rudolph Schabl (A-5), Charles Emil Kraft (P-5), Christ Joseph Witt (D-5), Leon Christopher Bischoff (D-5).

Transferred for Classification By District Board

Table with 2 columns: Name and Class. Includes George Alvin Brown (I-1), Daniel Paul Law (A-4), Alfred Neal Sloop (A-1), Glenn Merdin Zimmerman (B-2), Ericent William Giffiths (I-1), James Russell Jones (I-1), John James Pavletz (I-1), Eldon Otis Jackson (I-1), Floyd Fred Kunzman (I-1), Clarence Dewey Kruse (I-1).

DESERTION IS CHARGED

W. S. Jolliffe has filed desertion charges against Sadie Jolliffe, claiming that his wife left his abode in 1916 and has since refused to live with him. The couple were married in 1892 and have four children. They formerly lived in Wisconsin.