Mrs. Edward Olund and children have moved to the Massman property on Courtney road.

While Jenkins' others Ford truck was standing in Sellwood Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, three boys stole it and drove out to Oak Grove. On coming up the island hill they signalled to pass a car while driving of 30 miles an hour. The car they passed belonged to Deputy John Julian. He chased them and they sped up to 40 miles when he signalled for them to stop. They turned on Courtney road and when they got to the Oatfield road they stalled their engine and deserted the car. When Mr. Julian got there the boys had fled. He notified the police in Portland and Mr. Jenkins had just phoned his loss. He arrived here at 11:20, hunted up the deputy and left for home at 12 o'clock much relieved and glad he found his car. The boys have not been located yet. Mr. Julian says as they passed he thought they looked like young men near 20 years old.

While working, Saturday, John Julian was burned, causing him to lay off for two days for his work at the Pacific Iron workers outfitting yards.

It begins to look as if butter and cream would reach the same altitude the old cow of Mother Goose fame did. Clear Creek creamery reports the highest price last month ever paid for butter since it started. Fifty-seven cents a pound to patrons and still climbing. Every effort is being made to secure feed for winter, but it's a hard proposition.

Wednesday, October 5th, Clackamas County Pomona grange will meet with Harding No. 122 at Logan.

Mrs. Erma Fortier, of San Francisco, California, is expected home on a visit this week.

Carl Kircrom, writing from Camp Morrison, Va., said the Balloon companies were assembling there and at the time of writing six were stationed there. Said they were having a fine time, and spent all spare time, visiting places of historic interest.

Two companies chartered a boat for an excursion and sure had it. Went in auto trucks from Camp to Newport News, got aboard boat 1 o'clock a.m., went down Chesapeake Bay through Hampton Roads, past the naval base then back and up the James river about twenty miles to Smithfield. One Saturday afternoon went to Langley field and stayed all night with Cousin Sam, (S. E. Gerber,) and Sunday went swimming at Buckroe beach, near Fortress Monroe. Owing to train connections could not make the trip to during honor week. $2750 was subscribed during honor week with more in sight before the drive is over.

Robert Jonsrud has bought a tractor which he will use in clearing his burned-over land.

Mrs. J. F. Thieleke has a daughter visiting her whom she had not seen for 24 years.

Mrs. Minnie Maroney has moved to Portland for the winter.

Mrs. Joel Jarl and R. E. Jarl were busy last week soliciting subscriptions for the Fourth Liberty Loan.

Remember every Wednesday the Red Cross auxiliary meets. There is lots of work to be done making clothes for Belgian children. It is every woman's duty to help in this work, and should be considered a sacred privilege to work for our country and allies in anyway, over here, that the sacrifice our boys are making, over there, may not be in vain.

Clackamas

On with the drive

Let money be unconfined, When collector and patriots meet For funds to be won to beat.

Hats off to the man who bought a Liberty Bond for his wife as well as one for himself. There's several such men I hear of.

Mrs. W. F. Haberlach, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Charles Street, returned from Lady Smith, B. C. on Sunday. Mrs. Haberlach is slowly recovering after a serious operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Butcher of Hood River were Sunday guests at the Otis Welch home.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Coung of St. Johns

There are many young and true American patriots in Clackamas county, some of these being mere tots. Among these are Billy, Phillip and Jack Hammond, sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Hammond, of Gladstone.

These three youngsters have been anxious to do their bit to end the war. They have two uncles in the army, Lieutenant Phillip Hammond, and Ward Hammond who is in France. Phillip is 10; Phillip, eight, and Jack is seven years of age.

By planning how to make their money to purchase war stamps the youngsters hit upon an idea. This was to hoe the garden, keep the weeds from overtaking the vegetables, and putting away the winter's wood. Each have earned $10, and invested every cent in war savings stamps, besides adding to the $30 from their savings banks they highly prized, and they are now delighted to know they have assisted Uncle Sam by loaning their money to him. Billy left a few days ago for Ashland, where he will spend the winter with his grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. P. K. Hammond. The child has been troubled with asthma, and was greatly benefited last winter by making the change.

Another young patriot is Urshel Hadley, aged 13 years. The little fellow visited the Oregon City Library a few days ago, and stepping up to the librarian, Mrs. Bertha Adams, he said:

"Mrs. Adams, I want to do something for the babies in Belgium."

Mrs. Adams, believing that he desired to drop a few pennies in the bottle that had been placed on her desk for the coins for these poor, unfortunate children, exclaimed:

"Yes, what is it you wish to do," and was dumfounded when the youngster handed her a war stamp, valued at $5.

The gift was greatly appreciated and is given the best of care, and the librarian will see that it will be given to the proper person. Young Hadley resides at 432 Division street.

These are only a few samples of the Young Americans in Clackamas county and they are to continue to do their bit until the close of the war.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. Winters, at Astoria's mill, Monday morning, but lived only an hour. The sympathy of the community is with the sorrowing parents. Mr. Winters is head sawyer at the mill.

One of the little Netsel girls was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital Monday.

R. S. Smith and Dr. Williams were among the Gresham fair visitors last week.

Miss Beatrice Beers returned home Friday after several days' visit in Portland.

Mrs. J. Scales returned to Sandy Tuesday from St. Johns, where she spent several days assisting Mr. Scales in the store at that place.

Mrs. R. E. Eason received two letters Monday from Mr. Eason dated August 29th and 31st. He speaks of writing a letter August 25th, but it has not been received. On August 29th, he put on his second service stripe, indicating that he has been in foreign service for one year. She received two pictures of him with an ambulance train. Mr. Eason recently took a four hundred mile trip in a new Dodge and saw some beautiful country. Says the crops are good and the army at his place is able to buy much of its food there. The French are now making a white bread.

Mrs. J. Scales received two telegrams Tuesday, stating that her brother, Roland Blackhall, who is a blacksmith at Camp Houston, Texas, is very low of pneumonia.

From the latest available reports, the Sandy Banking district is well over its quota. Sandy with a quota of $1500 has $3000; Bull Run quota $1000 pledged $4500; Brightwood quota $900, pledged $3200. The remainder of the nineteen districts comprising the Sandy district have not been heard from but we know where we will stand when the finish comes.

A letter from John Allen Saturday says he has gained two stripes since enlisting. One won will rank him as a first class seaman.

Word comes from Geo. Hennessy at Fort Stevens, that he has been quite sick with neuralgia.

Mrs. Mikleson, of Brightwood, was a guest of Mrs. Wilson's Tuesday.

Miss Ethel Kyler spent the week-end with the home folks at Marmot.

Bruce Schainke, of Dover, was a Sandy visitor Monday. Bruce will return to O. A. C. soon. He spent a month this summer in the training camp in California.

The Sandy Ridge road is being graveled.

Mrs. Shelley returned home Sunday from Hood River, where she went to attend the funeral of Mrs. Thomas C. Rathbone.

Mrs. Hathbone, whose husband is in France, was engaged in war work in Washington, D. C. On the 12th of August she was struck by a motor truck and died the 11th of September. She will be remembered as Miss Hope Shelley.

spent Sunday with their parents here. Clackamas and Harmony schools were represented at the county fair on Thursday by the four teachers and forty pupils.

On Friday, September 20th Sharnock Rebekah Lodge No. 113, observed the sixty-seventh anniversary of Rebekah Odd-Fellowship, with appropriate exercises. Sixteen members of Milwaukee Rebekah lodge No. 150 were the guests of the evening.

Under date of August 13th, Sergeant Arthur Johnston, who's address is 801 Aree Squadron, American E. F. France, writes his mother, "I was going to stay home last Sunday and write letters, but the day was so fine that I could not stay in camp. Another soldier boy and I went to a town by the name of Chasast not so far away. I had a dandy time, I had more fun than any time since I have been in France. The best thing in view now is that I am going on a seven day leave, about the 22nd or 23rd. Just a year since I left the good old U. S. A. I do not expect to return until the 5th of September. So if this letter reaches you in due time you will know I am just coming back from having a good time."

"Gee, I am awful sore tonight. I got in a real baseball game last night, for the first time in two months. A fellow does not realize how awkward he can get until he drops out of the game for a while."

"I am sending you a little ring, that I made last winter. Have been intending to send it all the time since. The ring is made of a twenty-five cent antine piece and the insignia is made of the copper from a button. It is nothing great, but I thought you might like it. I wore it for the last three months myself."

Washington, D. C., and back on time.

Needy

NEEDY, Sept. 26.—The Needy school opened Monday, September 16, with Miss Estella Criswell, as teacher. Everything seems to be progressing nicely under her supervision. Miss Criswell spent the summer visiting with her sister, Mrs. C. F. Jesse, of Spokane, Washington, and later spent some time with friends in Seattle. While in the later city Miss Criswell spent one very interesting day with her cousin, C. A. Dickey at Camp Lewis.

Mrs. Chas. Noblitt and son, Albert, have just returned after a three weeks' visit at different points in Washington. Clarence Miller has gone to Pendleton for a brief stay.

The dance in Mr. Frye's hall Saturday night was a decided success, a large crowd being present.

Miss Helen Frye and her brother, George, are attending high school at Hubbard this year. Miss Carothers is Elma Hoffman expects to leave for Salem soon, where she will enter high school.

A number of the people from this vicinity expect to attend the state fair at Salem this week.

Walter Shrock had some very fine exhibits of vegetables at the Clackamas county fair, he will no doubt win a trip to the state fair at Salem.
