FIFTY-SECOND YEAR—No. 40.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1918.

BRITISH IN PURSUIT OF RETREATING HUN FORCES

LONDON, Oct. 2.—The Germans are in retreat over a wide front north and south of La Basse Canal, with the British close following them, according to Field Marshal Haig's report from headquarters tonight.

The whole of St. Quentin is now in the hands of the French. The French continue to advance eastward. The City Hall of St. Quentin appears to be intact, but it is believed to be mined.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—General Berthelot's army this afternoon reached the Aisne Canal at several points. The Germans are retreating all along this front.

TURKEY PLACES FEELERS WITH ALLIED NATIONS

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The possibility of Turkey's collapse as a belligerent had eclipsed the Bulgarian armistice in political news interest today.

"Feelers" have been put out by Turkey for an armistice. The Evening News today says it understands.

While these advances are said to be semi-official, no notice will be taken of them, the article states, until an official telegram is received.

The keynote of the newspaper comment is a warning to the people not to think the war is ended.

The German army, it is pointed out, is yet a great army and as yet undefeated. There is grim work ahead, the commentators generally agree.

PETER KLOOSTRA EYESIGHT GONE SENT TO ASYLUM

Following an attack of violent insanity, Peter Kloostra, former well known business man of Oregon City, was committed to the state hospital and taken to that institution Thursday by Sheriff Wilson and Richard Petzold.

Kloostra lost his eyesight a few years ago, and has constantly brooded over his trouble. It is through his continual morbid condition brought on the attack. He broke away from home Wednesday evening, and was finally quieted down after a considerable struggle on Main street. He was taken home and was quiet again until about midnight Wednesday when he became dangerously violent and Sheriff Wilson was called. He was committed early Thursday morning by Judge Anderson, and on account of his condition was taken to Salem.

PETITIONS ARE IN CIRCULATION FOR TEMPLETON

Petitions are in circulation for the nomination of Henry M. Templeton for mayor and are being numerously signed. Mr. Templeton has been for five years a member of the council from the first ward and is active and energetic in municipal affairs. No opposition to his candidacy has yet developed.

Ever since Councilman Templeton's name was first mentioned by the Enterprise as a probable candidate for mayor, support has flocked to him from all sides. It has come from men and women in every walk of life and is genuine and sincere.

Templeton is best known as a two-fisted man. He is a fighter, quick on the trigger, impulsive, kindly in nature, but strong in denunciation of what he thinks is wrong. There is no sham about the man. He knows nothing about the art of camouflage and if he is elected mayor of Oregon City, the town will know there is a real executive on the job.

TURKS PROPOSE PEACE THROUGH MONEY CHANNEL

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Turkey has made further indirect approaches to the allies through financial channels which are being considered by the British War Cabinet, the Standard says it learns on good authority.

Important developments, the newspaper adds, are expected.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Serbia is being evacuated by the Bulgarian troops, who are returning to Bulgarian territory, according to a Serbian official statement.

News has reached the Serbian army in Macedonia that revolts have broken out in Serbia and other regions where there are Serbians, Croats and Slovenes.

It is feared, says a Serbian official note, that the Austro-Hungarian government is purposely arranging with the police to excite the inhabitants and then confiscate their property and imprison them in camps. It is declared that the camps are in a terrible state because of infectious diseases and dirt.

CHILDREN PROUD OF RESULTS AT JUVENILE FAIR

The school children of Clackamas county making entries in the juvenile department at the Clackamas county fair and at the state fair are proud that the Clackamas county juvenile department at the state fair was awarded $100 in cash, besides 17 ribbons, four capitol prizes and a trip to the Oregon agricultural college next June to attend the summer session offered four students of each county of the state. These students are to be allowed the privileges of the college at that time, and the scholarship is valued at about $50.

The students winning this prize were Miss Celena Tremayne, of Barlow, for turkey raising; Miss Helen Gaffney, of Clairmont, food preparation; Donald C. Bauer, of Molalla, for duck raising; Theodore Resh, of Aurora, for pork production. Twenty-five dollars of the prize money was for the arrangement of the booth for the opening of the fair Monday morning; $30 was for the number of club project points. The poultry exhibit was awarded $10.

The following are those winning prizes from Clackamas county: Corn growing, Howard Hein, of Canby; poultry raising, Lohanna Vedder, of Gladstone, fourth; Johanna Yost, of Aurora, fourth; Mark's Prairie school, fifth; turkey raising, Celena Tremayne, of Barlow, first; Lillie Lillie, of Oregon City, second; Donald C. Bauer, of Molalla, duck raising, first; Ivan Ban, Meridian school, Aurora, third; Theodore Resh, of Aurora, pork production; Lena Lehman, of Hazella, fourth, canning; Edna Jabb, of Mount Pleasant, fifth; food preparation, Miss Helen Gaffney, Clairmont, first; Katherine Schmitz, Clairmont, second; farm and home handicraft, Chauncey Barney, Echo Dell school, fifth; Belgian hares, Leonard Delano, Evergreen school, fourth; Wayne L. Bauer, Molalla, fifth.

Chauncey Barney's exhibit of handicraft attracted much attention, having in his collection a bird house, toy box and a window box. On his exhibit he was awarded $7 in cash. Lohanna Vedder exhibited her White Wyandottes, was among those awarded a prize and will obtain $8 on her poultry.

The booth of the Clackamas county juvenile department attracted large crowds each day. The decorations were artistic. Pale blue draperies with festoons of ivy were used most effectively, and were arranged by Mrs. Wolfe, of Molalla, Brenton Vedder and J. E. Calavan.

CONRAD P. OLSON SUPREME JUDGE SUCCEEDS MOORE

SALEM, Sept. 28.—State Senator Conrad P. Olson, of Portland, was today appointed by Governor Withycombe to fill the vacancy on the State Supreme Court bench caused by the death of Justice Moore.

Justice Olson will be the youngest member of the bench. He is 36 years old. He has served in the Legislature three terms as Representative from Multnomah County, and in the 1917 session as Senator.

He is a holdover Senator and will resign.

Hun Prisoners Taken by Americans in Great Drive.

Here is proof in this large number of prisoners taken by the Americans in their great drive in France that they are making prisoners of thousands of Huns. This photograph shows just a few of those taken and on their way to the pens.

SLACKER IS GIVEN RIDE ON LIBERTY LONG POLE

The Crown Willamette Paper Co. pole was requisitioned for the first time Monday afternoon, when P. C. Sonnaysn, self-confessed bond slacker was given the ride of his life by a bunch of husky mill workers, who first treated the slacker's back to a broad stripe of yellow paint.

Sonnaysn lives on Yankeer's farm near West Linn and works in the mill in slack seasons, though this is no reason why he should be a slacker. He is reported to have sold $2000 worth of wheat recently, but told the bond solicitors that the United States meant nothing to him, which remark entitled him to a free ride on the Liberty pole, 15 feet long, painted red and blue, with strong handles at each end and "liberty" inscribed thereon.

Four o'clock Monday afternoon, as shifts changed, was the time set for the operation and Sonnaysn was seized and lifted on the pole, carried across the locks as far as the mill office, where he begged to be let off and promised to subscribe for a bond forthwith, which he did.

It is said that Sonnaysn declined to subscribe to the last Red Cross drive, until a threshing crew refused to thresh his grain until he put up $5 for the campaign. His wife secured a divorce from him recently.

FEELEY WINNER OF FIRST PLACE FOR CLACKAMAS

Number 332 the first drawn in the big draft lottery at Washington Monday, landed on Frank Feeley, aged 18 years, of 411 Main street, Oregon City. No 1027 is represented here by Thos. J. McGrath, and the third number drawn by the government calls W. F. Ryder of Wilsonville.

The board has received orders to induct twelve limited service men for duty at Vancouver. These men are to be called at once and notification cards were mailed Monday.

Official cancellation of the next quota, which had been called to mobilize about October 6th, consisting of 35 men, was received Monday. For the present no more men are to be entrained on account of the epidemic of Spanish influenza.

Questionnaires continue to pour into the office of the local board and all are expected back by Friday.

The limited service men to entrain for Vancouver about October 14, are: Sylvester Hall, Boring, Rt. 1; Alex Delford, Milwaukie, Rt. 1; Wm. J. Betts, Boring, Rt. 1; Walter Grossenbacher, Oregon City; Adam E. Keck, Milwaukie; Herbert Johnson, Canby; Joseph M. Brennan, Hubbard; Horace Barnett Howard, Milwaukie; Dawson Fairchild, Oregon City; Harry Willford Bressler, Oregon City; Daniel Zellar, Olney, Oregon.

OS WEST STARTS HOME TO BOOST HIS CANDIDACY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Former Governor Oswald West, wrapped in the flag, and loud in his adoration of the present federal administration, is on his way to Oregon tonight to make a stiff fight for the senatorial toga, now worn by Senator Charles L. McNary. Governor West, fresh from France, comes back with a suspiciously virulent love for the administration, so new that it smells of varnish, and a complete loss of memory so far as his former plan of no campaign for the senatorship is concerned.

Not only is he anxious to make a campaign, but apparently he is not bound by the gentleman's agreement of both parties that politics should be suspended until the close of the fourth Liberty Loan drive, which does not terminate until late in October. Quoting copiously of foreign admiration for President Wilson and breathing patriotism in every sentence, the former governor of Oregon apparently believes that destiny and the White House both smile upon his candidacy, and that by waving Old Glory and boosting the administration, he has a chance to win. At least that seems to be the verdict of the campaign managers of both parties, after reading between the lines his statement made up on his arrival in Washington.

MOTOR TRUCK OVERTURNED AND DRIVER INJURED

J. N. Slavens sustained a fractured leg and Robert Welch some scratches when the motor truck they were driving from Portland to Salem overturned Monday night on the New Era hill. Welch is a drayman, 1675 East 16th street, Portland. They had been to Salem with a load of household goods for a woman who was moving out to a farm in Marion county and were returning with a truck load of tomatoes. Just out of New Era they met an automobile and were blinded by its lights and the heavy truck went off the pavement. Slavens' right leg was fractured in two places above the ankle. He was brought to the Oregon City hospital where the bones were set.

CASES OF INFLUENZA SHOULD BE REPORTED BY LOCAL PHYSICIANS

Dr. Strickland, county health officer, has been asked by State Health Officer Holt to request local physicians to report promptly any cases of influenza occurring in Clackamas county. The surgeon-general of the army has asked that health officers of the state wire immediately upon diagnosis being made all cases of influenza, that steps may be taken to prevent epidemics which would materially hamper war production work. Outbreaks of influenza have seriously affected a number of eastern cantonments.

GERMANS LOSE IN AIR

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Americans participated in 52 aerial battles Sunday, bringing down 33 Germans without a single loss, according to dispatches to the Daily News today.

AGREEMENT FAILS OVER PERSONNEL OF BOARD

Organization of a community war labor board to act for Oregon City and vicinity was blocked Thursday night, when representatives of employers and workers were unable to agree as to the personnel of the board at a meeting held in the Commercial club parlors.

From the names submitted to the state corporation, composed of W. F. Smith, chairman, F. A. Douty and Otto Hartwig, will be chosen a board of seven members, three representing the workers, three representing the employers and one representing the United States government, the latter to receive a salary of $1 per year.

Mr. Douty and Mr. Hartwig, the latter president of the State Federation of Labor, came up from Portland and the conference was attended by many of the paper and woolen mill workers and members of the local unions, as well as by W. P. Hawley, president of the Hawley Pulp and Paper Co., and W. P. Hawley, Jr., A. R. Jacobs, president of the Oregon City Manufacturing Co., and E. Kenneth Stanton, office manager of the Crown Willamette Paper Co.

YODER HAS $40 INSIDE POCKET LOST 50 CENTS

PORTLAND, Sept. 27.—Fifteen-year old Paul Wilson, arrested by Inspectors Lasalle and Mahoney yesterday confessed to the attempted hold-up of Roy Yoder, of Aurora, early yesterday morning at Sixteenth and Hoyt streets, according to the inspectors Wilson took 50 cents from the victim but overlooked $40 in an inside pocket, according to Mr. Yoder.

SUITS BROUGHT FOR COLLECTION OF MONEYS DUE

Lee Arnett has brought suit to collect a promissory note given by Tom Garrett and L. C. Hubbard to A. C. Ruby & Company, and later transferred to the plaintiff. The amount of the note is $300 with interest since January 1, 1917.

J. W. Roots has brought suit against James Dickson, doing business as the Firwood Lumber Co., to collect a balance claimed in the sum of $254.98.

COUNTY'S SHARE IS $26,700 IN WAR CAMPAIGN

OREGON HISTORICAL SOCIETY Public Auditorium Portland, Ore.

Hard on the heels of the Fourth Liberty Loan Bond Campaign, organization has been perfected here for the United States war Work campaign with a national goal of $170,500,000. Oregon's share to be $770,000, and Clackamas county's apportionment $26,700. The following organization heads have been named:

A. C. Howland, county chairman; O. D. Eby, secretary; A. R. Jacobs treasurer; J. E. Hedges, chairman speakers' bureau; L. Adams, transportation and entertainment; T. W. Sullivan, chairman for distribution of literature, and E. E. Brodie, chairman of publicity bureau.

The county will be divided into school district units, there being 149 in the county, and captains appointed in each district. The following representatives for the seven activities affected have been named:

Y. M. C. A., A. C. Howland; Y. W. C. A., Mrs. Eva Emery Dye; War Camp Community Service, C. H. L. Chandler; American Library Association O. D. Eby; Knights of Columbus, T. W. Sullivan; Salvation Army, W. T. Milliken; Jewish Welfare Board, A. R. Jacobs.

Previous to the announcement of a consolidated organization to raise subscriptions for the seven war activities, the Loyalty League undertook a campaign here for the Salvation Army, but it is expected that this work will be discontinued and the Salvation Army fund be handled as part of the united work, as directed by President Wilson.

PROPERTY BURNS IN FIERCE FIRE OF LAST FRIDAY

The fires that have been raging in the vicinity of Beaver Creek, Highland and other sections of the county, have subsided, and all fear of their further spreading is past, though a watch will be kept over the forests and where the fires originated. The Graves barn in the Beaver Creek section was destroyed by the fire, as was also 15 tons of hay, seven tons of which had an insurance for $100. The barn was insured for $500. The Oviatt house was burned, but the household effects were saved. This too, is located in Beaver Creek. The fire occurred Friday evening. The Llewellyns had to fight to keep their home from burning and other buildings on the place. The fire raged fiercely around the Fred Kamrath dairy farm. The home of Mrs. M. Jones had a narrow escape, and had it not been for the violent fighting of men and women of that section, this home and others would have been totally destroyed with other buildings on the farms.

William Daniels, one of the fire fighters, had a narrow escape, when he was hemmed in by the raging flames, and had a difficult time in fighting his way out of the fire. Robert B. Beatie, formerly sheriff of Clackamas county, whose large farm is located in the Beaver Creek section, had to work hard to save his home and buildings on his farm.

During the fire a son of Mr. and Mrs. Graves, in order to save an automobile, drove it through the burning mass. This was the first time he had driven this kind of a car and he made good headway, even if not familiar with the mechanism of the automobile.

The people of the Highland section also had a hard time fighting the forest fires raging in that section. A number of homes and barns had narrow escapes. Women worked as well as the men in fighting the flames.

A. W. LAFFERTY TAKES PLACE OF J. D. BROWN

SALEM, Sept. 30.—George L. Cleaver of Portland, chairman of the executive committee of the National party, today filed a certificate of nomination naming A. W. Lafferty as candidate of that party for representative in congress from the Third district to take the place on the ballot of J. D. Brown, who withdrew.

PACIFISTS ARE SAID TO PLOT WALES STRIKE

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Investigation of the recent railway strike in Wales, it was believed here, may bring out some startling facts that will link the occurrence with activities of pacifists and conscientious objectors.

Some railway men claim to have evidence that pacifists plotted secretly for months to bring about the strike.

BRAKEMAN DIES WHEN SIGNAL IS CONFUSED

William Bailey, a brakeman on the Molalla branch of the Southern Pacific was instantly killed Wednesday afternoon when he fell from a freight car at Canby and was cut in twain. He was a resident of Molalla, aged 40 years, and leaves a family.

Bailey switched three freight cars from the Lucke stub at Canby onto the main line, and then took another engine and started to spot a single car from the main line to the stub, backing in on the stub. The engineer having the three cars in charge evidently believing Bailey had signaled him to switch back on the stub, left the main line and his engine crashed into the lone freight car, knocked Bailey off the car, and the unfortunate man fell between the freight car and the engine attached.

Coroner E. L. Johnson went to Canby and made an investigation of the case and arranged for an inquest to be held this morning at 10 o'clock. The body is at Canby in charge of Holman & Pace.

CLOCKS GO BACK ON OCTOBER 27 FOR ONE HOUR

Daylight saving continues for another four weeks, the clocks to be turned back at 2 A. M. Sunday morning, October 27, under the provision made last spring by congress. At that time sunset and sunrise will be an hour earlier and the somnolent will be given another hour of sleep in the morning. An impression that the clocks were to be turned back October 1 is erroneous.

PASTOR RUSSELL AUTHOR OF BOOK FLUNG AT WIFE

Pastors Russell's "Unfinished Mystery," may be a harmless little treatise of pacifistic tendencies, but it proved a dangerous weapon in the hands of an Unbeliever Saturday evening. During a domestic battle between C. F. Cottrell and his wife, Mrs. Carrie Cottrell, at their home near Willamette, the husband picked up the much discussed treatise from the library table and hurled it pointblank at his wife. The volume struck Mrs. Cottrell a stinging blow on the left temple and inflicted quite a cut, which bled profusely. Overcome by the impelling force of the argument, the wife came to Oregon City and reported the matter to Sheriff Wilson.

The battle, it seems, occurred over financial matters. Both parties told their stories to Judge Seivers and Deputy District Attorney Tom Burke Monday morning, and pending a temporary armistice in order to adjust their domestic difficulties, Cottrell was placed under bonds to keep the peace. He told the officials he did not think the book was "bound in armor plate" when he hurled it at his wife. Cottrell claims his wife leans toward the Russellite sect, but he does not favor that particular branch of worshippers.

FARM BUILDINGS NOT OVER $1000 ARE ESSENTIALS

Farmers will be allowed to erect new buildings on their premises, providing the structures do not exceed a cost of $1000 and are essential. This message was received by Jesse A. Curroy, of the construction section of the war industries board, and is an amendment to the previous order that only buildings built under the sanction of the Emergency Fleet corporation, the army and navy or the railroads would be permitted. Alterations or additions to buildings already constructed are still allowed, providing they do not exceed the maximum of $2500 cost.
