

LOCALS

Mrs. L. E. Baron and little daughters, Nellie and Adelle, who have been at Long Beach, Wash., visiting Mrs. Baron's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Cooper, returned to Oregon City Sunday. While there they assisted in harvesting the crop of cranberries, Mr. Cooper being engaged in growing this variety. There was an unusually large crop this year, and pickers were scarce. Mrs. Baron and her little daughter thoroughly enjoyed their first attempt at picking these berries. Nellie, who is eight years of age, and Adelle, aged six, each made $4.50.

Lieutenant John Matheson, a former student of the University of Oregon, and who has recently been given the commission of Lieutenant at an officers' training camp in California, has arrived here for a brief furlough at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. J. R. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. Angus Matheson, parents of Lieutenant Matheson, of Powell River, B. C., have also arrived here and are visiting their son and Mrs. Matheson's mother, Mrs. Williams, and Mrs. Matheson's sisters, Misses Margaret and Eleanor Williams.

Mrs. C. A. Miller and daughters, Misses Alice and Margaret, accompanied by Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. F. E. Gibson, formerly of Seattle, left Monday for Portland, where they will make their home. Mrs. Miller has purchased a home on 50th street in Ross City Park. Miss Alice Miller has been an active member of the Girls' Honor Guard organization and the Red Cross Society. Mrs. Miller has been an active worker of the local branch of the Red Cross, and has a son, Charles, in France with the Hospital Corps.

Charles Bitzer, a former resident of Oregon City, and a brother of Mrs. W. H. Howell, who has been clerk for the Albany House at Newport, for the past five years, is in Oregon City visiting. Mr. Bitzer has just returned from Spokane and North Yakima. While in North Yakima he attended the fair, but the fair was not as it has been here-to-fore, owing to war conditions and the shortage of crops. Mr. Bitzer is contemplating remaining in Oregon City, having resigned his position with the Albany House.

Among the active workers of the local branch of the Red Cross, who turned in some of their work Wednesday morning are Mrs. Brown and her daughter, Mrs. M. E. Dunn, of Sixth and Center streets. Never a day have these women failed during the summer months to give their assistance to our soldier boys, and have turned in 33 pairs of socks. They sent in six pairs to the Red Cross rooms Wednesday morning, and are starting on more, expecting to keep up their work until the close of the war.

Clark Story was in Oregon City Wednesday bidding relatives and friends farewell before leaving for the officers' training camp in Kentucky. While here he was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Story, uncle and aunt of the young man. He is a graduate of Willamette University at Salem, having completed his course at that institution in May, and was also at the training camp at the Presidio. Story is but 21 years of age, having attained his 21st year in June.

Mrs. Norris Shindler wife of Lieutenant Shindler, and baby, who have been stationed at Tacoma, during the time Lieutenant Shindler was stationed at Camp Lewis, and who have been in Oregon City visiting, left for Oakland and San Francisco the first of the week. While there they will visit relatives. During their visit in Oregon City, Mrs. Shindler and son were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Norris, grandparents of Lieutenant Shindler.

Dr. M. C. Strickland left last Thursday evening for San Francisco, where he will remain about a week. He accompanies Dr. Sternberg, of Portland who leaves San Francisco for the service, having recently entered the service as surgeon. He will go to Fort Riley, Kansas, for the present, and expects to later go overseas. Accompanying these physicians to San Francisco was Dr. Montgomery, who will return with Dr. Strickland.

The Knights and Ladies of Security met in the Woodmen hall Tuesday evening when arrangements were made to purchase a Liberty bond, and also to carry on the contest for membership. Organizer Mackey was in attendance and gave an address as to the membership contest. There were eleven names turned in as candidates for membership. A number of visitors from Portland were in attendance.

J. M. Sears, who has been with the Canadian troops is among those killed in action this week. He is the only brother of Mrs. H. B. Dixon, wife of Captain Dixon, former resident of Gladstone, but now of Delafield, Wisconsin. He was an instructor in a bombing school in England. Captain Dixon is now an instructor in military science in a military school at Delafield.

Harold Dedman, who has been doing his bit during the summer months by working for the United States Fish Hatchery, at Clackamas, has gone to Portland, where he is to enter the training camp at Reed College. He is one of the boys anxious to go overseas and "get a hand in the fight" before the close of the war. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dedman, of Clackamas.

Rev. R. C. Blackwell, formerly pastor of the Methodist church of this city, later superintendent of missions of Alaska, until one year ago, when he became pastor of the church at Seaside, has retired from the ministry. With his family he spent several days with friends here. The family will leave by auto today for California where they will spend the winter.

Otto Shindler, who was formerly connected with the G. A. Harding drug store, and now in the service, was in Oregon City Wednesday. He has been stationed for some time at Camp Lewis, Wash., and having been transferred to Camp Grant, Ill. After visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shindler, of Milwaukee, he will leave Monday morning for Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stafford, of Mount Pleasant have had as their guests during the week, Lieutenant Vernon H. Kimble, of Pittman, N. J. Lieutenant Kimble is a cousin of Mrs. Stafford, and is now with the Benson Polytechnic School in Portland. He is much delighted with the West, this having been his first visit to the coast cities.

Misses Merle and Lyle Yexley, after spending the summer vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Yexley, of Mount Pleasant, left for Corvallis Saturday morning, where they are to resume their studies at the Oregon Agricultural College. Miss Merle Yexley has been doing stenographic work for an abstract firm of this city.

Miss Myrtle Henderson, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. U. Henderson, with whom she has been spending her summer vacation, has gone to Wallowa, Oregon, where she has the position as teacher in the school. Miss Henderson taught in the Powwatha school, near Wallowa last year.

Ray Ware, youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. Jack Ware, who recently entered the service, and who has been stationed at Camp Lewis, is now on his way to a camp in the south. A letter was received from the young man by his parents Thursday saying he was on his way south, but did not know his destination.

Mrs. B. R. Gregory, of Greenwood, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Fay Argo, of Cincinnati, were in Oregon City Tuesday. Mrs. Argo is to remain in Oregon during the winter, and will spend a portion of the time at the Gregory farm near Oregon City. She also will visit her sisters, the Misses Shriver, of Portland.

Born, at the maternity home of Mrs. D. A. Dillman on Tenth and Division Streets, Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock, to the wife of C. T. Stephens of Circle City, Alaska, a son. The little fellow is Harry Graston Stephens, and he tips the scale at 7 1/2 pounds. Mr. Stephens is city marshal of Circle City.

Miss Shirley Swallow, who has taken a three years' course at Reed College, Portland, has resumed her studies at the institution. She was accompanied to the college by her sister, Miss Myrtle Swallow, a graduate of Oregon City high school last year, and who will commence her course at Reed College.

Miss Evangeline Dye, who has been spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dye, and also assisted in the Oregon City hospital during the shortage of nurses, has returned to the Oregon Agricultural College. Miss Dye has another year at the College before completing her studies.

H. M. Robbins, manager of the grocery department of Farr Brothers, has rented the Juhnke place near Van Buran street, and with his wife will move from Robbins Station next week to take up their residence there. Mrs. Juhnke and daughter will go to St. Johns, where Mr. Juhnke is in business.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Amrine, of Seventh and Vaughan street, received word Monday evening of the critical illness of their son, Alva, who is in the East, and recently commissioned as an instructor at a training camp. Tuesday word came that there was very little change in the young man's condition.

Miss Cynthia Pace, who has been connected with an abstract company has resigned that position, and accepted a position in the office of County Recorder Noe. Miss Pace is to be recorder of deeds, the position held by Miss Louise Cochran, who is now chief deputy in the office.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Frey have been entertaining at their home at Mount Pleasant Mrs. W. Wolcott and son Walter, also Mr. and Mrs. Henry Welton. Henry Welton is stationed at Camp Lewis, and has been enjoying a few days' furlough in Portland, and at Mount Pleasant.

Donald Silcox, who has been visiting friends in Oregon City, left Wednesday evening for Berkeley, where he resumes his studies in the University of California. He has been spending his summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Silcox, of The Dalles.

Mrs. Clyde Limbocker and daughter, Miss Ruth, also her infant daughter, and her mother, Mrs. J. M. Calavan, who have been at Seaside, enjoying a ten days' outing, have returned to Oregon City. They took a number of trips out from Seaside to secure crabs and clams.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Howell and family, who have been residing at the Howell farm on the Clackamas river, have moved to Oregon City to allow their children the privilege of the schools. They have taken up their residence near the Barclay school building.

James Nelson, of Milno, was in Oregon City on business Thursday. Owing to the high price of feed and the shortage of pasture, Mr. Nelson says many farmers are disposing of their cows. Some of these cattle are of the best dairy breeds.

C. Swanson, of Redland, was among those to visit in Oregon City Thursday. He was on his way to Astoria, where he will resume his position as superintendent of construction of the railroad under Porter Brothers contract.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Rakel, and children who have been spending the summer at Newport, where Mr. Rakel has been employed in the spruce mills, have returned to Oregon City. They are soon to take up their residence on their farm.

Mrs. O. R. Mack, of Portland, formerly of Canby, was in this city Tuesday on her way to Canby, where she spent the day with friends. They are making their home for the present in Portland as Mr. Mack is one of the aeroplane builders.

Mrs. Stella Goyle Edwards, teacher in Barclay school, received word that her husband is seriously sick with Spanish influenza at a hospital in Bremerton. Mr. Edwards is an electrician in the U. S. navy.

Miss Evans, who has been employed in one of the banks at Canby, was in Oregon City Friday morning. She was on her way to Seattle, where she will resume her studies at the University of Washington.

Miss Mildred Teschrig, who has been employed in the office of the woolen mills, and recently resigning, has accepted a position in the post-office. Miss Teschrig took up her duties a few days ago.

Mrs. R. L. Badger, of Beaver Creek was in Oregon City Monday. She was on her way to Vancouver Barracks, where she visited her nephew, who has been ill for several weeks at the post hospital.

Private Gayle McDowell, who has been visiting his farm at Mount Pleasant, has returned to Camp Lewis, where he is stationed. He is with the Signal Corps, Thirteenth Division.

Rev. F. W. Snyder, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Tuesday. While here he visited Rev. E. E. Gilbert, Rev. Snyder was reappointed to the pastorate of the Molalla Methodist church.

Thomas Anderson, secretary of the Clear Creek Creamery, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday. While here he visited his parents, Judge and Mrs. H. S. Anderson.

Miss Iola Gilbert, who has been spending a few days with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Gilbert, has returned to her studies at the state university at Eugene.

Miss Bernice Johnson, who recently resigned her position as stenographer in Portland, has accepted a similar position with the Willamette Valley Southern Railway.

The little daughter of Mrs. Guy Peterson, of Twelfth and Monroe streets, who has been critically ill, is improved.

Mrs. R. Sells, one of the well known residents of Oregon City, who has been very ill at her home, is improving.

Mrs. Charles Risley and Mrs. W. W. Woodcock, of Risley Station, were Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

W. W. Irvin, prominent resident of Aurora, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. A. Splinter, of Maple Lane, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Fred Lins, of George, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

HOUSE AND BARN OF BERT ADAMS SWEEP BY FIRE

The house and barn of Bert Adams south of Barlow on the Aurora road, burned at 6 o'clock Thursday night. Neighbors assisted in saving the furniture. The barn and winter's feed for stock was burned. There was a loss of several thousand dollars covered by insurance.

BOY RUN DOWN BY CAR

The young son of G. M. Caldwell, of Meldrum Station, was run down Saturday evening on the highway between Oregon City and Parkplace. He was struck by a passing motorist while he was riding his bicycle along the pavement. It is not believed his injuries are serious.

Married Fifty Years Suing For a Divorce Maiden Name Wanted

One half a century ago Thos. McCarter and Hulda E. Fields became man and wife. Forty-nine years ago the husband deserted his bride. Saturday Mrs. McCarter sued for divorce in the circuit court of Clackamas county, on grounds of desertion. She asks the restoration of her maiden name.

Bertha E. Warren has filed suit against Frederick Warren, charging that her husband at the time of their marriage, in 1909 in Oregon City, had another wife living, and undivorced, one M. Anita Warren.

LOUIS MUELLER GETS WARNING FROM CAMPBELL

Decrees were entered in the following divorce actions Saturday: Katherine Collins vs. Wm. A. Collins; Iva Cantril vs. Glen Cantril.

A bench warrant was issued Saturday for the arrest of Louis F. Mueller, whose wife, Ethel L. Mueller sued him for divorce Friday. Mueller was enjoined from interfering in any way with his wife, who is sick, and affidavits were made Saturday showing that he had gone to his wife's bedside in violation of the restraining order. He was brought before Judge Campbell and given sound warning as to what would happen in case of a second breach of the injunction.

GORDON J. TAYLOR EDITOR AT MOLALLA LEAVES FOR FRANCE

Gordon Taylor, editor of the Molalla Pioneer, was in Oregon City Monday afternoon on his way to New York, and from that place will sail for France. Mr. Taylor will enter the service of the Y. M. C. A. and will act as secretary at one of the Y. M. C. A. huts. He recently devoted much time to lecturing tours.

DeBOK SECURES FAIR PRIZES ON DUROC-JERSEYS

George De Bok, who has been at Salem during the past week, has had 15 of his choice Duroc-Jersey swine exhibited, and although there was great competition in this department, he succeeded in getting two prizes. He secured third on breeders' herd, bred by exhibitor. He also received eighth prize on the Futurity. The prizes were offered by the Duroc-Jersey Record Association.

A. A. ALLEN HOME IN LOWER LOGAN SWEEP BY FIRE

The home of A. A. Allen, on the old North place, two miles from the Lower Logan schoolhouse, in the Redland district, was destroyed late Friday afternoon, together with practically all its contents, while the members of the family were out fighting a timber fire a short distance away. It is supposed to have caught from flying embers. Nothing was saved except a little bedding and some groceries.

OREGON OFFICER FALLS TO DEATH IN BOND FLIGHT

Columbia S. C., Sept. 28.—An airplane in a Liberty Loan flight fell near the state capitol today, killing Lieut. Godman, of Oregon, and probably fatally wounding Lieutenant Thomas, a passenger. As the machine fell the doomed pilot guided it away just in time to prevent its crashing into the crowds in the streets.

MRS LATHROP GETS DECREE

Pearl T. Lathrop was granted a decree of divorce Wednesday from her husband, Charles Lathrop.

SEPTEMBER BIRTHS

Among the births reported for the month of September are as follows:

Born, September 12, to the wife of Louis Mueller, of Mulino, Route 1, a daughter, Mrs. Mueller was formerly Miss Henri.

Born, September 13, to the wife of George Zigler, of Hoff, Rt. 1, a son.

Born, September 22, to the wife of Frank Paszovic, of West Linn, a son.

Born, September 22, to the wife of Adolph Gross, of Willamette, a daughter.

Born, September 24, to the wife of William Rau, of Willamette, a daughter.

Born, September 14, to the wife of H. E. Hoss, of 1218 Sixth Street, a daughter.

Born, September 18, to the wife of A. E. Hamlin, of 1055 Main Street, a daughter.

Born, September 15, to the wife of Henry William Kohl, of Logan, at the Oregon City hospital, a son.

Born, September 15, to the wife of Frederick Hosmer, of Mulino, Route 1, a son.

Born, September 24, to the wife of Fred Lameroux, of Rosevelt Street, a son. Mrs. Lameroux was formerly Miss Louva Randall.

Born, September 26, to the wife of Charles Fomins, of Willamette, a daughter.

B. H. HOGG IS VICTOR IN SUIT FOR OUSTER FROM E. B. ANDERSON

The ouster suit brought by E. B. Anderson, former confectionery man of Oregon City, against B. H. Hogg of Meldrum, to obtain possession of his property under lease to the defendant, resulted in a verdict for the defendant in the justice court Monday afternoon. Mr. Hogg showed that he had a year lease on the place, Anderson claiming simply a month to month tenure. The matter was threshed out before a jury.

EUGENE FRATERNITY SUES W. T. SCHOOLEY ON $300 MORTGAGE

The Delta Sigma Fraternity of Eugene has instituted foreclosure proceedings against William T. and Sophia M. Schooley, to foreclose a $300 mortgage on Lots 2 and 3 of Block 2 of Sandy on June 24 last year. The plaintiffs ask $50 for attorney's fees.

HAWLEY MOTOR PARTY RETURNS IN FAST TIME

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hawley, Sr. accompanied by their son, W. P. Hawley, Jr., and Mrs. Hawley's sister, Mrs. Julius Barlow, who have been enjoying a motoring trip to California, returned to Oregon City Wednesday afternoon. The party found the roads in excellent condition while making the trip to and from California. After arriving in California they enjoyed a number of trips, among these was visiting and inspecting the new paper mills at Stockton, owned by the Zellerbach Paper Co. This is one of the largest plants manufacturing a heavy paperboard paper. They also visited Oakland, the home of Mrs. Barlow, and other California cities. They made the trip to California in four days, and the same time was made in returning. They have been absent about 12 days.

LOUIS VIERHUS DISLOCATES LEG IN SCRIMMAGE

During a football practice Friday afternoon at the grounds of the Eastham school, Louis Vierhus met with a painful accident, when his leg was dislocated during a scrimmage. Medical attention was summoned, and the injured boy conveyed to his home near the south end road.

JAMES N. STATEN ROBS SAFE; IS ARRESTED HERE

Chief of Police Cooke interrupted James W. Staten and his best girl on the river bank near the mouth of the Clackamas river Sunday evening and arrested Staten, who is charged with robbing the Willard hotel safe at Portland. He was night clerk at the hotel and is said to have stolen $65 from the safe Saturday night or Sunday morning. The girl had known him only two weeks. Staten had been in the spruce division of the army but obtained a discharge for physical disability.

RUNGE ESTATE WORTH $2,850 IS PROBATED

The will of the late Frank Runge was admitted to probate Saturday, and Henry Strebig was appointed executor, under the provisions of the document. The deceased left an estate valued at $2850, the bulk of which is to go to Mrs. Wilhelmina Mielke, of Gladstone, and the sum of $5 to each of his four children. The will recites the main bequest is given in consideration of kindnesses of Mrs. Mielke during the life time of the deceased.

MR. HOLSTEIN DIES AT MULINO

Mr. Holstein died Wednesday at the home of his son, living at the townsite of Mulino. The remains will be shipped to Wisconsin for burial.

Led Butterfly Life No Wedded Harmony Wife Wanted Noise

William H. Schultz has brought suit against Iva L. Schultz, claiming that his wife was altogether too fond of the butterfly life to make their domestic careers one of peace and harmony. The husband claims his wife threatened to leave him and finally did so, as things were altogether too quiet about the house.

Decrees were entered Tuesday by Judge Campbell in the following cases: Meryl Morton vs. E. R. Norton; Daniel E. McClure vs. Jennie McClure; Nettie Benson vs. Otis Benson.

PEDAGOGUES IN LIBERTY DRIVE SCORE PERFECT

The teachers of the grade schools of Willamette and the high school of West Linn have gone 100 per cent in the Liberty Loan drive during the past few days. Not only have these teachers, but the janitor, H. T. Shipley, and manual training teacher, Robert D. Rogers, invested in bonds. The drive among the school teachers was in charge of C. P. Romig, principal of the high school, who is proud of the record that little settlement has made. The drive in Willamette is in charge of Mrs. C. F. Romig and H. L. Morrell.

CLARK STORY IS LIEUTENANT IN ARTILLERY NOW

Another Oregon City boy who has been commissioned an officer in the United States Army is Clark Story, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Story, of Oregon City. He was recently commissioned a first Lieutenant of light artillery, after having served in an officers' training camp at the Presidio since May. Lieutenant Story will be assigned to a cantonment in Kentucky.

LINEN SHOWER THRU JUNIORS STARTS MONDAY

The pupils and teachers of the Clackamas county schools are to give a linen shower for France, and letters are being sent out by County Superintendent J. E. Calavan to this effect, through the efforts of Robert Max Garrett, director of Junior Membership of the American Red Cross.

The linen shower for France will begin September 30, and to continue for a week.

The articles needed are bath towels, 19x38 inches; hand towels, 15x30 inches; napkins, 14x14 inches; handkerchiefs; sheets, 64x102 inches.

"Strong, new or substantially new articles are asked for, and fine linen or worn articles are not desired, as laundering is a problem 'over there'." Napkins made of strong pieces of linen sheets. All articles are to be nice and clean.

Already children are becoming enthusiastic over the collection of linen and are to give their assistance. During a recent dish towel rush for the soldiers almost 5000 dish towels were collected and sent.

FORMER EDITOR TAKES A WIFE AT BAKERFIELD

Word has been received in Oregon City from Bakersfield, California, of the marriage of Heath Youell, formerly night editor of the Enterprise, and Miss Henriette Adams, a nurse, of Bakersfield. The marriage was solemnized at Bakersfield, September 15, and Mr. and Mrs. Youell are to make their future home in Seattle.

FATHER RAU HAS TWO BABY BONDS IN HIS FAMILY

Irving T. Rau, manager of the purchasing department of the Hawley Pulp & Paper Co., is the proud father of a new daughter, who is probably the youngest Liberty bond owner in Clackamas county. The little girl was born on Friday afternoon about 6 o'clock and before 9 o'clock Saturday morning she was the possessor of a bond.

ASSAULT UPON WIFE BY C. F. COTTRELL ENDS IN DIVORCE SUIT

Another chapter in the domestic tragedies of Charles F. Cottrell and wife was added Wednesday when the wife brought suit for divorce on charge of cruel and inhuman treatment. The husband was placed under peace bonds Monday, following an assault upon his wife with a copy of Pastor Russell's "Unfinished Mystery."

The husband, according to the complaint has a $10,000 farm. They were married in 1908. In a fit of anger last Saturday the husband hurled a book at his wife, striking her in the eye, inflicting a cut. She also claims he has repeatedly cursed and otherwise abused her.

Reta Harrington asks a divorce from Ray Harrington, charging that her husband was convicted of a felony in the Washington courts in 1915, and is serving a sentence of from five to twenty years at hard labor.

SEVEN BOYS ENTER O. A. C.

Tom Lovett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lovett, of Washington St. Marvin Eby, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Eby, Floyd Eberly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Eberly, of 448 Logus street; Gerard Parker, James McGeehan of Jackson street and Mettritt Wilson left the employ of the C. W. P. Co. Thursday to take the special military course in O. A. C., preparatory to entering the army, and Eddy Edwards also resigned his position with the P. R. L. & P. Co., to do likewise.

CRUELTY IS CHARGED BY TWO WIVES WHO FILED DIVORCE SUITS

Mrs. Ethel L. Mueller Friday filed divorce action against Louis F. Mueller, charging that her husband has been guilty of gross cruelties. She claims that when she was bedfast and desired to go to a hospital for necessary treatment he told her if she had to die she might as well die at home. At other times the wife claimed, he has refused to speak to her for days, and has compelled her to work in the garden when her health would not permit her to do so.

Jessie B. Cranshaw married Chas. L. Cranshaw in Vancouver on August 12th of this year. She filed suit Friday for divorce claiming that her husband even objected to her speaking to patrons of their restaurant, and that he has cursed her repeatedly. The Cranshaws are Oregon City people.

SORENSEN BABY IS BURIED IN CITY CEMETERY

The funeral services over the remains of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sorenson, of Oak Grove, were held from the funeral parlors of Holman and Pace Saturday afternoon, and the interment was in the Mountain View cemetery. Rev. W. T. Milliken, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated.

MRS. M. WRIGHT IS DEAD AFTER AN OPERATION

Mrs. Mary Wright died Wednesday noon at the Sellwood hospital, following an operation, aged 69 years. She was born in Clinton, Mo., and is survived by four children in other states, and one daughter, Mrs. W. L. Permenter, Ninth and Division streets, Oregon City. Deceased was a widow. The remains will be sent to Idaho for interment.

OSWEGO WOMAN PAYS FINE

Portland, Oct. 1.—Mrs. M. J. Bethke of Oswego, Or., was fined $50 today by Municipal Judge Rossman for reckless driving. Mrs. Bethke was arrested by Sergeant Ervin after her automobile had struck J. L. Gardner at Macadam road and Iowa street. Gardner was not seriously injured. Mrs. Bethke's attorney announced an appeal.

My Ladies' Jewelry Case can easily be decided here means just as much, in purchasing Jewelry as in other things. Don't buy things of doubtful value or trade at questionable places. You can't afford to take the chance. Avail yourself of the facilities of this—Clackamas County's leading Jewelry store—where our policy of honesty and fairness—is more than ever guarded.

MAKING YOUR DOLLARS COUNT

During these strenuous times—our 37 year old reputation of fairness—stands out as a beacon of light to those purchasing jewelry—whether your expenditure is just a few cents or a great many dollars.

We want you to visit this unusual store. Leading Jewelers for nearly half a century.

Burmeister & Andresen

OREGON CITY, OREGON