day evening, and it was one of the liveliest sessions held for some time. A number of important subjects were those brought up for discussion was the matter of the Dr. L. A. Morris suit to quiet title of a certain tract of land lying in the vicinity of Tenth Street near the bluff. Dr. Morris was represented by Attorney W. A. Dimick, and Atorney William Hammond represented G. A. Harding, who owns land adjoining the property. The decision of the council was to leave it in the hands of the city attorney, George L. Story, with instructions, if he finds the city has any interest or legal right to defend the same

It was stipulated, however, by the council, that the city bear no court William H. Dempster . costs, and it is understood that . Mr. Story is to file an answer in behalf of the cliy, and get the matter before the Circuit Court for final adjudication as speedily as practicable.

Owing to the large number of rocks in certain sections of the cemetery, and requiring blasting to remove when graves are being dug, it would be a wise idea to select a spot where rocks do not abound, for an ordinance was passed at this meeting raising the rates for digging the graves, and where blasting is to be done an extra dollar for every "shot" of dynamite or giant powder used for blasting is to be charged. The old rate for digging of graves is as follows: For a grave in class one, $3; for a grave in class two, $4; for a grave in class three, $5 The new rate will be as follows: For a grave in class one, $6; for a grave in class two, $9; for a grave in class three, $12.

M. J. Lee, of Canby, presented a pe titon for a permit to operate an automobile stage between Canby and Oregon City, and 30 days was allowed Mr. Lee for completing his franchise. The automobile stage will commence to operate between Canby and Oregon City Friday morning, of this week.

The council drafted resolutions of thanks and appreciation of valuable services rendered the council and the city of Oregon City during the past term of George L. Story, as city at torney, and requested that same be apread on the minutes, and further Loun subscribers for Wednesday;

The following resolutions were adopted:

different items selected from our drug, stationery and book departments. There are toilet articles, such as Talcum Powder, Tooth Paste, Cold Cream, etc.; Household Remedies, such as Salves, Pills, Cough Remedy, Flavoring Extracts, etc; Writing Paper and Envelopes, Pencils, Penholders, etc.

IS THERE A LIMIT TO AMOUNT ONE .MAY .PUR-CHASE? No! In former sales we did limit many items to one purchase to a customer. This time there will be no restrictions. Buy all you want-first come, first served. No restrictions, no phone orders-no purchases charged. This sale is strictly cash.

HOW CAN WE AFFORD TO DO IT? Because we are one of the 8000 members of the United Drug Co.-The Rexall Stores. The Ic sale has been developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising feature. They are spending their advertising money on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full-sized package of high-class merchandise for Ic. The loss on this sale will be money well spent if the goods please you.

ARE PRICES CHANGED FOR THIS SALE? Positively no. The prices on every article in this sale are the same as our customers pay every day. Most items have the same price as before the war, so the saving is genuine, and worth while.

WHERE CAN I GET A COMPLETE LIST OF THE 1c ITEMS? A practically complete list will appear in the Morning Enterprise of Sunday, October 20th. Or a phone call or postal card request will bring you one in the mail.
