

LOCALS

First Sergeant Jack Hindle, who was ill for some weeks at the Oregon City hospital and for some time his condition was critical, has returned to Vancouver Barracks, to resume his duties.

Brenton Vedder, county school supervisor, just returned from a trip to the Mount Hood section, where he has been visiting county schools.

Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Mount, who were to leave Tuesday for Chicago, Ill., where the former was to attend the ninth annual meeting of the Clinical Congress of American College of Surgeons.

Miss Matie Juhnke, who spent the summer in Oregon City with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Juhnke, now residing at St. Johns, has gone to Bismark, N. D.

Robert F. Myers, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Myers, of this city and one of the well known young men on the list at the first call of Uncle Sam.

Mrs. John Wolford and daughter, Pauline, of Silverton, have been in Oregon City, where they have been guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Mount.

Mrs. Harry Schoenborn and two little sons, of Eldorado, were in Oregon City Wednesday, where they were guests of the former's mother-in-law.

George Armstrong, of Redland, one of the well known orchardists of the county, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Mrs. L. L. Pickens and daughter, Miss Marjoe, who have been very ill at their home at West Linn suffering from Spanish influenza, are recovering.

Charles Beattie, who has been at the training camp at the Oregon Agricultural College, has returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beattie, at Beaver Creek.

Mrs. E. James, of Mount Pleasant, has been spending the past three weeks at Hood River, where she has been assisting in harvesting the apple crop.

Mrs. Edna Eason and children, of Sandy, who have been visiting in Oregon City and at Gladstone, having been guests of relatives, have returned to their home.

Miss Hallie May, granddaughter of Mrs. N. A. Bower, of Canemah, and niece of Miss Orena May, is seriously ill at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Amy Kellogg, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brandt, of Wheeler county, are in Oregon City, where they came to attend the funeral services of their son-in-law, Otto Kent.

County School Superintendent J. E. Calavan has started on his work of visiting among the schools in his spare time from his office duties.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sullivan, of this city, are receiving the congratulations over the arrival of a son, born Sunday afternoon, October 20, at Oregon City hospital.

Justus Bare, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Rebecca Turney, of West Linn, departed for his home in Pennsylvania.

Miss Evelyn Miller, of Roseburg, well known in Oregon City, where she made her home for several years with her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Samson, has arrived here.

Miss Cynthia Pace, who is employed in the office of County Recorder J. G. Noe, was taken ill Wednesday afternoon and is suffering from a slight attack of grippe.

Mrs. Glenn V. DeVinish, of Portland, who has been ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jones, has recovered so that she will be able to return home the latter part of the week.

Miss Frances Cross, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cross, is one of the volunteer nurses at the auditorium in Portland, where many cases of Spanish influenza are being cared for.

J. L. Flangan, of Seattle, was in Oregon City Wednesday. Mr. Flangan is representing the Wood Tite Laboratories Company, of Modesto, California.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Moore, of Molalla, are in Oregon City. While here they are guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Eby and family.

D. P. Sheppard, of Walls, Wash., who has been in Oregon City, visiting his sister, Mrs. J. N. Volkmar, and came to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, the late, J. N. Volkmar, returned to his home.

L. D. Taylor went to Portland Tuesday. He was a witness for the government in the case of the United States vs. Joseph Meindl in the federal court that came up for a hearing in Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. Mamie Koehler, who has been residing in Oregon City with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Mulvey, for the past year, left Saturday for Mount Angel, where she will make her home.

Born, Tuesday, October 15, at Sheridan, Oregon, to the wife of C. M. Oviatt, of this city, a daughter, Mrs. Oviatt is at the home of the parents of her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Oviatt.

Born, October 15, at 4:30 P. M., to the wife of W. B. Burthkert, at Stafford, a son, Mrs. Burthkert was formerly Miss Rosa Ellington, of Stafford, but now resides at Woodburn.

Herman Rakel and J. Nemanen, who recently arrived from Pacific City, have again returned to that place to resume their fishing.

Miss Lottie Johnston, of Portland, who has been in Oregon City, a guest of Miss Bernice Johnston, has returned to her home.

Miss Roslyn Robbins, of Portland, was in Oregon City Wednesday. While here she visited her brother, Herbert Robbins.

Mrs. John Calverly, of Oregon City, Route 3, was among those who visited in Oregon City Tuesday.

Harrie Morehouse, of Beaver Creek, was among those transacting business in this city Wednesday.

Born, October 15, at 7:30 P. M., to the wife of Charles Ralph, of Hoff, Route 1, a daughter.

Miss Ruth Miller, collector for the water board, is ill at her home suffering from influenza.

R. G. Scott, county agent, motored to Gresham Tuesday where he transacted business.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark, prominent residents of Milwaukie, were in Oregon City Tuesday.

John Eckerson, who has been very ill suffering from stomach trouble, is improving.

George Rutherford, of Hoff, Route 1, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. H. M. Eccles, of Canby, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

L. A. Russell, of Redland, was in Oregon City on Wednesday.

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES

The marriage of Miss Carol Ely, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ely, of this city, and Mr. Frank Juhnke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Juhnke, of St. Johns, Oregon, was solemnized at Salem Thursday evening.

The bride is one of Oregon City's most estimable young women. She was born and raised here, attended the Oregon City schools, graduating from the Oregon City high school in 1916.

Frank Juhnke, the bridegroom, attended the Oregon City schools, and graduated at the time of his bride, the romance commencing at the high school and culminating in his marriage to the Oregon City young woman.

The young couple are well known here, and while residents of Oregon City were active workers of the Presbyterian church. They were the recipients of many handsome gifts from relatives and friends.

Mrs. Carl Juhnke and Mrs. George V. Ely, mothers of the young couple attended the marriage ceremony, returning to Oregon City on the evening train.

H. J. Hill, one of the well known pioneer residents of Willamette, was taken by surprise at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Batdorf, Tuesday evening.

Divorce decrees were entered Tuesday in the following suits: Winnie Leone Crawford vs. James Crawford, Emmaline Jane White vs. Alexander W. White, Emma Navratil vs. John Navratil.

An order of default was entered in the suit of Jessie Lewella Fansler vs. Edward Arthur Fansler.

In the suit of The Scott Co. vs. Unique Brick & Tile Co., and order of confirmation was entered.

Jury of Four Men Suit of Only $65.35 Surveyor Loses All

With a jury of only four men, a case involving only $65.35 was tried in the Circuit Court before Judge Bingham, of Marion county, yesterday afternoon.

The Dalles, Ore., Oct. 22.—A Japanese laborer, one of a section crew on the North Bank Railroad, died in The Dalles Hospital this morning.

SECTION HAND KILLED The Dalles, Ore., Oct. 22.—A Japanese laborer, one of a section crew on the North Bank Railroad, died in The Dalles Hospital this morning.

CERTIFICATE FILED Certificate for an assumed business name was filed Wednesday by the Oak Grove Grocery Co., composed of David A. Palmbeed, Carl F. E. Johnson and A. L. Morland.

"SOME RESULTS" One four-line classified ad. One insertion in the Morning Enterprise. Sixteen answers before noon. That is the result of the small classified ad of Frank Busch in the Morning Enterprise of "A House for Rent."

LAZY AND TRIFLING CHARGES MADE IN LACEY DIVORCE SUIT

Suit has been filed by Inez Irene Lacey against Prince Arthur Lacey for a decree of divorce. They were married at Dallas, Polk county, June 27, 1911, and Mrs. Lacey avers her husband is lazy and trifling.

TWO MARRIAGE LICENSES ARE ISSUED HERE

George Henry Scherette, a soldier from Vancouver Barracks, and Tessie Sims were granted a marriage license here Wednesday afternoon. The girl's mother, Mrs. Iona Beisel, gave her consent to the marriage of the girl, who is under the age of 18 years.

DIMICK SUES TO COLLECT ON $300 MORTGAGE

D. R. Dimick has filed suit against H. R. von Wiedner, Albert W. Riggs, Charity Riggs, his wife, and the Canby State Bank for $300, interest and attorney fee, alleging that on December 6, 1913, von Wiedner appointed L. B. Gorham his attorney in fact, and through Gorham he obtained from Dimick a loan of $300, giving a mortgage on tract No. 67, Canby Gardens.

HOLCOMB RED CROSS WORKERS ARE VERY BUSY

The Holcomb Red Cross Auxiliary one of the active organizations of the county, has turned into the local Red Cross Branch $75. This organization started its good work in the spring, and many members have devoted their time to knitting. Among the articles that have been made and turned over to the Red Cross are the following: Nine pairs of socks, eight handkerchiefs, two towels, six comfort bags.

FORMER LOCAL MEN ENTER THE TANK SERVICE

Clifford Ball, a former life insurance agent of Oregon City, and Charles H. McDonald, of Gladstone, leave Portland this afternoon for Camp Colt, Pa., having volunteered for service in the tank division.

COURT ORDERS

Divorce decrees were entered Tuesday in the following suits: Winnie Leone Crawford vs. James Crawford, Emmaline Jane White vs. Alexander W. White, Emma Navratil vs. John Navratil.

Jury of Four Men Suit of Only $65.35 Surveyor Loses All

With a jury of only four men, a case involving only $65.35 was tried in the Circuit Court before Judge Bingham, of Marion county, yesterday afternoon, the plaintiff being John M. McQuinn, a well known surveyor of Portland, who brought suit against Mrs. Charles Cogswell to recover money for making a survey on her place near Milwaukie. It appeared from the evidence that Mrs. Cogswell wanted to build a fence an employed McQuinn to make a survey and to drive stakes showing her where to place the fence, but while it was not denied that McQuinn made a survey, it was alleged by the defendant that she knew no more about the correct location of the fence after the survey than she did before. The services were rendered in 1914. The jury was out for a few minutes and returned a verdict for Mrs. Cogswell.

WILL OF MRS. KATE HUGHES IS FILED SATURDAY

The will of the late Mrs. Kate Hughes was filed for probate Saturday. The estate is valued at $1850 and John Etchison and Ed. R. Hughes are named as executors. Mary A. Hughes is given $150, William Hughes, $1, S. A. Hughes, $5, Charles A. Bort, $1, John Etchison, $500, and three granddaughters $5 each. Alva Hughes is given $100 and the residue of the estate is bequeathed to the four children of the deceased.

LOCAL PEOPLE RAISE FINE STRAWBERRIES ARE OF LATE VARIETY

Strawberries are still ripening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Fessler, at 1220 Eleventh and Van Buron Street. These are of the Everbearing variety, and the Fessler family had strawberries for dessert last Sunday from their garden. They are rich and sweet, and are unusually large. Some of these berries on Tuesday measured three inches in length and 4 1/2 inches in circumference, and on Tuesday a number of the berries were mailed to Mrs. Fessler's mother, Mrs. Daniel Brick, of Glencoe, Minnesota, as a sample of what Oregon can produce in the way of strawberries in October. The Fessler family arrived in Oregon City from Glencoe, Minn., in 1911, and they are great boosters for this state.

THIEF OF BOND CHARGED BY MILL EMPLOYE

Charged with stealing a $50 Liberty Bond from Frank Fisher, an employe of the Crown Willamette Paper Co., Ephraim Emmons, aged 74, a veteran of the Civil War, was given a hearing Monday before Justice of the Peace Slevers and was released on his own recognizance to appear before the grand jury. Emmons was formerly employed in the paper mill and it is charged that on September 12, when he was being paid off, he took an envelope containing Fisher's Liberty Bond from the counter in the paper mill office. Emmons stoutly denies the charge and contends that he never saw the bond. He was formerly an inmate of the Soldiers Home at Roseburg. Special Officer Dill located Emmons, who has been cutting wood in the Beaver Creek district since he left the employ of the paper company.

NEW BUS LINE FROM CANBY TO OREGON CITY

An auto bus line has been established between Canby and Oregon City by M. J. Lee of the former city. The bus makes five trips a day each way, the first leaving Canby at 7:15 a. m., and Oregon City at 8 a. m. The last bus leaves Canby at 6:15 p. m. and Oregon City at 7 p. m. Three times a week, on Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays, an extra trip is made, leaving Canby at 11 p. m. and Oregon City at 12 midnight.

AGENT REPORTS LIME IS READY FOR SHIPMENT

R. G. Scott, county agent, is in receipt of a letter from the State Lime Board, advising him that two carloads of lime are being loaded out at Gold Hill, Southern Oregon, and ready for shipment. The price on this lime is $1.75 per ton at Gold Hill, and the freight to Oregon City is $3. Mr. Scott is now ready to take the orders for carload lots, but it is necessary for the consumer to send the purchase price of $1.75, this to be forwarded to the State Lime Board. Many farmers of Clackamas county have been in need of the lime, and this will be good news for them.

BALFOUR RETURNS HOME

W. G. Balfour, of Jennings Lodge, who was reported Friday to the sheriff's office as having been missing since last Tuesday night, has been found. Sheriff Wilson was notified yesterday Balfour had returned home, but the officer was not advised as to where the missing man had been, and just why he had left his home for three days.

ENTERPRISE A LIVE ONE The Enterprise wins again. Within 30 minutes after Mayor Hackett's order closing the town on account of influenza was issued, the Enterprise had an extra on the streets of Oregon City announcing the order. 218 of these extras were sold. The Enterprise is always on the job when any matter of vital importance is at issue. It is always working for the interests of the community. Patronize your home paper.

WILLIAM TERRILL OF STOCKTON, CAL., DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Charles F. Terrill received word Monday for Stockton, Cal., that his brother, William Terrill, of that city, had died on October 15, after an illness of several weeks.

Mr. Terrill was a stationery engineer, and was a prominent member of the I. O. O. F. Lodge of Stockton. He had visited in Oregon City on several occasions at the home of his brother, and is survived by Charles Terrill, of this city; and three other brothers, Dr. Harry Terrill, of Kalispell, Montana; Dr. George Terrill, of Ogden, Utah; Robert Terrill, a locomotive engineer, of Golden, Colorado. He also leaves a son, Jack Terrill, of Oso, New Mexico. The deceased was 62 years of age.

The beneficiaries named in the will left by Mr. Terrill are Charles Terrill and Miss Edna Terrill, a niece of the deceased, of this city, and the son, Jack Terrill, of Oso, New Mexico.

RALPH B. PARKER IS INFLUENZA VICTIM AT AMERICAN LAKE

Ralph Burgess Parker, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Parker, of Gladstone, died in the Northern Pacific hospital in Tacoma, Wash., Sunday morning at 3:40 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness of Spanish influenza that finally developed into double pneumonia.

Mr. Parker was born in Washington, Iowa, March 5, 1884, and came to Oregon with his parents when he was nine years of age. He married Miss Hilda McGetchle June 30, 1909, and they made their home in Butte, Montana, for five years, where Mr. Parker was in the employ of Armour & Company. For the past year he has been in the employ of the Northern Pacific Express Company, and was stationed at American Lake.

SUIT TO FORECLOSE

Mary R. Brazell has filed suit against William L. and Ruth M. Borthwick, and Clinton A. and Hattie F. Ambrose for the foreclosure of a mortgage on 160 acres of land given to secure the payment of a $900 note executed by the Borthwicks March 13, 1913. It is stated that Clinton A. and Hattie F. Ambrose claim some interest in the mortgaged premises.

DECREES GRANTED

Decrees have been handed down in the divorce suits of Ida Frances Peyton vs. James A. Peyton, and Esther Halmovch vs. Leon Halmovch, in suit of Mary Schwartz vs. C. Gay Wakefield and Maude E. Wakefield an order of default and judgment has been entered.

JOHN L. MOONEY DIES AT CAMP FREMONT, CALIF

John L. Mooney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mooney, of Clackamas, died at Camp Fremont, California, at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning, after a few days' illness of Spanish influenza. John L. Mooney was at first stationed at Camp Lewis, and recently transferred to Camp Fremont, and had expected to soon leave for France. He was born in Clackamas, and was 31 years of age, and one of the well known young men of Clackamas county, where he has resided all of his life.

Mr. Mooney is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mooney, a brother, Frank Mooney, now in France, but for awhile stationed with his brother at Camp Lewis; also a sister, Mrs. Anna Kuppenbender, of Tillamook county. He was a nephew of Mrs. Margaret Mulvey, of this city, and a cousin of Mrs. Athar Smith, of Mount Pleasant, and Attorney W. L. Mulvey, of this city, and Mrs. Mamie Koehler, who recently left here for Mount Angel.

The remains will be shipped to Oregon City, and will be at the undertaking parlors of E. A. Brady, where they will be held until funeral services. The remains are to be interred in the family lot.

FORMER CLACKAMAS COUNTY WOMAN DIES AT PORTLAND HOME

Died in Portland, 853 Upshur street, Mrs. Zoe Audrey Novel, beloved wife of J. W. Novel, daughter of Samuel J. Oglesby and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Boen, of Portland. Deceased was also a niece of Mrs. Maude Currin of this city and Mrs. Myrtle Hayner of Portland. She was also a cousin to Bernice and Elbert Currin. She leaves one uncle, Charles Oglesby, of Aurora, and an uncle, H. E. Boen, of Portland. Mrs. Novel was born and raised in Clackamas county and has resided here all her life until a few years ago when she moved to Portland. She was 25 years old and leaves no children. Funeral services were held Monday. Interment was in Lone Fir cemetery.

DECREES GRANTED

Decrees have been handed down in the divorce suits of Ida Frances Peyton vs. James A. Peyton, and Esther Halmovch vs. Leon Halmovch, in suit of Mary Schwartz vs. C. Gay Wakefield and Maude E. Wakefield an order of default and judgment has been entered.

Clever Furnishings They are important interests here, and we do not neglect them. Everything care and money can do to have assortments bright and complete, and prices attractive, is done. Shirts, Scarfs, Collars, Half Hose, Handkerchiefs, Underwear. No excuse anywhere; full ranks, always. You may come here confident of finding just what you want, and the chances are that we save you money. JOE SWARTZ The House of Kuppenheimer