Miss Duncan, principal of Lower Logan school, resigned last week to go into training as a nurse. The school board was not informed of her being registered for that duty.

We thought politics was postponed but it seems not to be the case. We received a copy of "Patriot Phalanx," for such it really is. Women voters are not all so green they cannot see a fly through a knot hole. "A chance for women to pay a debt," etc., etc., and like articles may prove to be "sop" for some, but not all, and we thought "politics adjoined."

Wilsonville

WILSONVILLE, Oct. 30.—Mrs. Martin Tanchman died on Thursday, October 17th, and after funeral services at the home of the husband on Sunday October 20th, at 1 o'clock, interment was made in the Stafford cemetery.

THE REWARD

By Edgar A. Guest
When the bitter strife is done,
When the last grim fight is won,
We shall gather freedom's roses
In the sun of happy June;
We shall meet and smile together
In the fairest sort of weather;
We shall form the old-time circles
And shall sing our merry tunes.

We shall tread the velvet clover
In a world that's been made-over;
We shall find the dreary places
Lit by many a cheery smile;
Men and women will be neighbors
As they bend unto their labors,
And the years for all our children
Will be very much worth while.

It was ours with hate to battle,
Ours to hear the cannons rattle,
Ours to give the flag on high;
And when war no longer wages,
To the children of the ages
We shall hand down freedom's riches
In the glorious bye and bye.

SANDY DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Blanche R. Shelley Representative.

Sandy Boy Still Missing.

L. E. Hoffman is in receipt of the following letter from the American Red Cross, Washington, D. C., under date of Oct. 21:

Dear Mr. Hoffman—We are in receipt of your letter of Oct. 13th, with reference to your son, Private Edward Hoffman, and have just wired you to the effect that the Edward Hoffman imprisoned at Rastatt belongs to the 109th Infantry, and is undoubtedly not your son.

When a man is reported to the Red Cross by cable as a prisoner of war, the Bureau of Communication notifies the family. After this first notification, our bureau takes charge of the man. As soon as this cable comes in, we immediately search our "missing in action" files to see if we can locate an emergency address for him. When Private Edward Hoffman was reported to us, we found in our "missing in action" files, a card for Private Edward Hoffman with the emergency address of L. E. Hoffman, Sandy, Ore. We naturally supposed this to be the same man, therefore, when the transfer came in, we wired you immediately.

We regret exceedingly that this has happened, and we wish to assure you that you will be notified immediately whenever we receive anything regarding your son.

Very sincerely yours,
Douglas Stewart,
Assistant Director, Bureau of Prisoners' Relief

Influenza Claims First Victim.

The Spanish Influenza took its first toll from Sandy and vicinity on October 24th, when Mrs. Eva Reich died at her home in this city. She was born in Poland thirty two years ago, and there she and Robert Reich were married eleven years ago in November because of the ban on public gatherings, the funeral services conducted by Rev. Dohberful of the Lutheran church, were private. The body was interred in the Sandy Ridge cemetery. Mrs. Reich had been in very poor health for several months. Besides her husband, she leaves three small children, the youngest a baby of nine months.

Merl Tice Writes Home.

France, Sept. 22, 1918
Dear Mother—This is the third letter I have written in the last two weeks, but have not been able to send them, as we are still driving. We have taken the Boches "goat." We have taken thousands of prisoners and have only lost a few men so far. One of the boys that was on the ship with me in Frisco was killed in the drive, but that is part of the game.

I am in a small town that we drove the Boches out of. They have been here four years. There are a few civilians left, but the Boches took twenty-one young girls with them. They left only a few old people and they were sure glad to be free again.

I am sending you a lapel of a coat of a German machine-gun man. He is through with this war and world too. The Germans have a beautiful cemetery here. There are about a thousand graves in it, and nice tombstones and flowers.

Well, mother, dear, they say the war is about over, and we will be sure

Telephone Lines Badly Tangled.

The severe storm of Saturday night and Sunday played havoc with the telephone lines in these parts. Fortunately the light wires escaped damage.

Locals.

Percy T. Shelley returned home last week, after an absence of three months in the Mt. Adams country.

Mrs. Frances Meinig was a dinner guest of Miss Hazel Beers last Sunday. The Nelson and Jarl mill, which has been idle part of the time on account of sickness of the crew, is now running full time.

Hugh Eason and small daughter, Mary Elizabeth, were Sandy guests Sunday. Mrs. Eason is one of the volunteer nurses at the Auditorium in Portland.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. Carrow, of Firwood, Sunday, Oct. 27, a daughter, Walter Helms, of Marmot, who went to Portland Monday for examination, was returned to his home Tuesday to await the next call.

A number of people from Sandy attended the auction sale at the Hendrickson place on Sandy Ridge last Thursday.

R. E. Esson writes from France Sunday, Oct. 25, saying he continues in good health and excellent spirits.

Heini Ditterer has been very sick at his home in Sandy with glandular fever. Little Ellen and Virginia Wolf and Joanie Shelley have also been quite sick of the same trouble.

Ed Burns got his hand badly cut and bruised two weeks ago, when the engineer at the mill misunderstood the signal and started the engine too soon. He might easily have lost his life.

Miss Collier, the primary teacher, has been very sick, but has about recovered.

Miss Mackenzie is spending the week in Portland, and Miss Heinrich has gone to Ablany for a few days.

BOYS IN KHAKI FOR WITHYCOMBE

Soldiers Congratulate Governor on Nomination in Primaries

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 25.—Letters continue to come from Oregon boys now in military duty and from the mothers of soldiers testifying to the fond regard they entertain for Governor Withycombe, Oregon's war Governor. Every foreign mail brings to the Governor's office at least one of these letters. Only recently the postman left five such communications in one delivery.

"I will hardly bother to congratulate you on your victory in the primary election," wrote one of the men in khaki, "as I always regard it only a matter of form so far as your success this year was concerned. At any rate, it was mighty good news in these parts.

"We have good cause to be proud of the way Oregon continues to hold up its end of the game in everything of a patriotic nature. Oregon has added some bright new pages to its history and traditions, and I believe your name will stand out forever in the history of the state for what you have done.

"I hope the next four years will only add brilliance to the last four, as I feel sure will be the case."

"I have just learned of your nomination for Governor," wrote another soldier, "and I wish to congratulate you on your re-election, which is, of course, assured. Not only do I congratulate you, but I also congratulate the people of Oregon, which is about the best place in the world, for your re-nomination. The nomination of Senator McNary was also very gratifying to me, as I consider him the proper man at exactly this time."

"We have just received the good news that you have landed the nomination and I congratulate you and assure you that we are glad that the people of my native state showed their appreciation of the efforts of a sincere man as their governor for the last four years. All the best wishes for success at the general election."

"How often the boys think of the friends at home that have so kindly used their influence to assist us in some personal matter," testified another. "I recall your kindnesses many times and must again thank you. I do not know much about the political situ-
