

LOCALS

Miss Ida Wagner, of Estacada, was in Oregon City Friday. Miss Wagner has been engaged in teaching school in some of the wildest country of Coos county, and was on her way home, and expects to travel with a brother, who has been very ill, and who has been discharged from the army owing to physical disability. Three brothers of Miss Wagner are now home, all of whom have been in the service, and now being ill caused from the effects of pneumonia. One brother, has recently returned from the Philippine Islands, and was also in the Spanish-American War. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Wagner.

J. W. Exon, who resides near Harding Station, on the Willamette Valley Southern Railway, was in Oregon City Wednesday. Mr. Exon brought to this city a number of bunches of raspberries, the bunches being heavily laden with ripe and unripe berries. Mr. Exon has many more ripening on the bushes where the recent light frosts have not injured. With apple blossoms in bloom, and strawberries still on the vines, and raspberries still ripening it is Clackamas county against the world for a climate, even if it does rain occasionally. Grapes are still on the vines in some places.

Others donating toward the Trench News for the Boys from Home are Mrs. Sarah Hettman, of Sixth and Monroe Street, who has given a dollar to be used in sending home papers, and Walter S. Bennett, of Seventh and Washington Street, also donated $2.50. The boys will be informed by card as to who is thinking of them here in the far off West, and cards of Oregon City are to accompany the papers. These will be sent to well known Clackamas county boys. The fund is growing and from all indications there will be many boys receive papers from home that have not had such before.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Eaton, who have been spending the past four months in the East, have returned to Oregon City. They had a most delightful trip, and visited a number of the leading cities of the East. They went as far East as New York and Matin, and visited in Boston, Mass. They were five days in Washington, D. C., and also visited their former home in Minnesota, where Mrs. Eaton had engaged in farming for ten years, and also in Wisconsin, where their marriage took place. This is Mrs. Eaton's first trip to her old home in 34 years, and many changes were noted since leaving.

L. Ferguson, of New Era, was in Oregon City Wednesday. He was accompanied by his daughter, of Barlow. Mr. Ferguson and daughter came to this city to secure their box from the Red Cross in which Christmas gifts are to be sent to the former's son, Oliver Ferguson, who is with the Anti-Aircraft Battalion of Battery D, Coast Artillery Corps. The label from the young man for his gifts having arrived a few days ago, Ferguson has been gassed and recovered from the effects and later had several fingers broken, and is now recovering.

Before returning to Oregon City Mrs. Osborn will visit at Elk Falls, Kansas, where she will be the guest of relatives, and will also visit in other states.

Bert Harvey, a former well known young man of this city, and son of Mr. and Mrs. William Harvey, of Twilight, who has been stationed at Seattle, has left that place. Bert is now on his way to Chill, S. A., and is on the U. S. S. Willamette. Mr. Harvey was book-keeper for the Oregon City Woolen Mills for a number of years, and was one of the most popular young men of the city entering the service. He has been stationed at Seattle during the summer. He enlisted early in the spring.

James H. Dunn, who has been in Oregon City for the past year, where he has been a guest at the home of his nephew, M. E. Dunn, and family, of Seventh and John Adams Streets, left Wednesday evening for California. He will spend the winter in Menlo Park, a guest of his daughter. Mr. Dunn's home is at Waterloo, Iowa. He was accompanied to California by Ed. Miller, whose home is also in Waterloo, and who will also spend a few weeks with relatives in California.

Mrs. W. E. Good is another patriot who has come forward to see that the boys "over there" are to be remembered with reading matter. She has contributed $1 to the fund, and papers are to be sent to the boys, who have no reading matter sent by relatives from the city. Mrs. Good has a nephew 16 years of age, who has enlisted in the Signal Corps, and was wounded, and now in the hospital.

Frank Juhnke, who is at the officers' training camp at Willamette University, Salem, is stricken with influenza, and has been removed to the sanitarium in Salem. He recently married Miss Carol Ely, who is at his bedside. They have been making Salem their home since their marriage. Frank is a former Oregon City young man. His condition is not thought serious.

Gordon Fauley, who has been at the training camp at the University of Oregon, has returned to his home at Canemah, owing to the illness of his father, J. A. Fauley. RATS CAUSE DEATH OF FINE CANARY BIRDS

P. M. Hart, the photographer, lost six fine singers and one female canary bird at his photo studio on Friday evening. The young birds were in a large cage, and his children being in the studio during the afternoon, had entertained themselves by standing on a chair and peering into the cage. They thoughtlessly left the chair close to the bird cage, and during the night rats entered the room and climbed onto the chair and into the cage. They made their entrance into the cage by forcing their bodies under the cage door, and killed all of the little helpless creatures. Mr. Hart found the cage empty Saturday morning, and only the feathers scattered, and the bloodstained cage told the tale.

KEEN CONTEST IN ELECTIONS FOR OSWEGO

One of the keenest contests in the recent election was that of the city officials of Oswego. Two tickets were in the field and the contest was close. The old officers were opposed by a ticket known as the Progressives, with C. H. Elston for mayor, J. W. King, H. R. Adkins, C. N. Williams, J. Cromer, J. Frank Hoffman and Asa Hess, councilmen, J. C. Haines, treasurer. Geo. Thomas, recorder. The entire progressive ticket was elected with the exception of the recorder, who lost by a small majority to C. C. Perry, the present incumbent.

BOY IS INJURED DURING PARADE HERE MONDAY

During the progress of a parade in this city Monday afternoon a lad about 10 years of age, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Larson, of Oregon City, was struck by an automobile, and thrown heavily to the ground, sustaining a bad cut on the back of the head. The lad was struck with the side of the auto, and the drivers, who were going at a rapid rate, did not stop to ascertain as to injury of the boy. He was given medical attention by Dr. M. C. Strickland.

Was at the Head of His Class But Election Has Made Many Changes

H. H. Hughes, a candidate for constable, his opponent being Ed. Fortune, was met by some of his friends on Saturday, one being F. J. Meyer. When Mr. Hughes was asked about how to vote was coming he remarked: "Well, Meyer, when I was a lad, and used to go home from school, my father would ask me, how I was standing, and I would always reply 'head of the class, father,' but now I have found, Mr. Meyer, that I am at the foot of the class, and Fortune won out."

UNHAPPY FOR TEN YEARS NOW HUSBAND IS SEEKING A DIVORCE

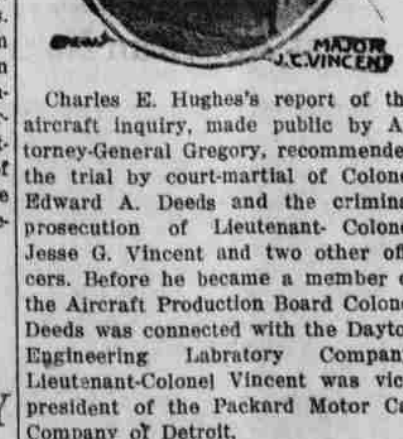

H. A. Roberts and Amelia M. Roberts were married in Long Island, New York, in November 26, 1892, and in his complaint for divorce entered here Friday he alleges that they have lived unhappily together for the past ten years. By her uncooperative nature she made it impossible for him to stay with her and for a month at a time he would go away in hopes that she would mend her ways. This seemed to do no good, he said, but he endured it for the sake of the child of the couple, which he wishes to educate. The boy is now of age and the husband asks for a divorce. They have not lived together for the past six months.

ROBBERS ARE BUSY LOCAL BUTCHER WAS VICTIM ON SATURDAY

To be robbed three times in ten days has been the unfortunate experience of H. W. Strebis, who runs the market at Sixth and Main streets in this city. Sometime Saturday night the market was broken into through the front door and the cash register, which had between $5 and $7, in it, was ransacked of the contents. It is thought that the robbery was done when Night Officer Burke had been called to the north end of town and Officer Surfus was on the hill hunting for the robbers of the Gabriel store. The other two robberies were at the slaughter house a few days ago when five sheep pelts, valued at $3.50 each, were taken and about 15 grain sacks were stolen at another time.

Officers Censured in Hughes Aircraft Report

Charles E. Hughes' report of the aircraft inquiry, made public by Attorney-General Gregory, recommended the trial by court-martial of Colonel Edward A. Deeds and the criminal prosecution of Lieutenant-Colonel Jesse G. Vincent and two other officers. Before he became a member of the Aircraft Production Board Colonel Deeds was connected with the Dayton Engineering Laboratory Company. Lieutenant-Colonel Vincent was vice-president of the Packard Motor Car Company of Detroit.

Daniel B. Labbe and Mary Labbe have started suit against Laura Labbe and Samuel H. Labbe, administrator, to collect on a note given by Samuel Labbe, deceased, and Louise Labbe to August Seigneur and afterwards acquired by the defendants. The note is for $850 with interest at 5 per cent. Several payments have been made on the note and the suit is to collect the balance and interest.
