How do the labor organizations expect to maintain or keep up "big wages and short hours" and expect to adjust living conditions? It seems to be all right from their viewpoint for the agricultural classes to work the long hours, days, etc., etc. They will awaken to find themselves short on production in agricultural products. Farmers cannot pay such wages or work the short hours either. Why should Mooney be let live when he deprived other innocent people of life? It is an over step of justice, "an eye for an eye" etc., etc. Why clamor to let him free? I live on a farm, and I know what I'm talking about, too.

Sandy Girl Hears From Brother

Mrs. Ethel Kyler is in receipt of a letter from her brother, A. J. Canew, who is with the 20th Engineers, in France, dated November 3.

Dear Sister Ethel: Received your letter many days ago and have intended answering it for some time, but have been very busy the past week or two.

Glad to hear that you have started to high school, and you must try and finish, as an education is one of the best things a person can have. You want to be studying a little French, as about half my talk will be in that language when I return.

We just changed our location and are now in a very beautiful part of the country. I wish it were possible for you to see some of this country, as there are many ancient places one will never see in the States.

I guess Sandy is the same old place but no doubt it has grown a little since I was there. I never will forget the first trip I made there on that old stage, with all the good old Oregon mist pouring down all the way.

I wrote to Arthur several days ago, so no doubt he will feel that I have not forgotten him. You know it is quite a task to write letters in this country, so this will have to do for all.

Very glad to hear mother is feeling better, and that she is able to be around once more. I wish I could be home with all of you Christmas. We would have one of those real home gatherings. Presume Sis is quite busy with her little family. It seems almost impossible she will have a grown up, just before I see them.

I just had a real nice Sunday dinner, so will write a few more lines and call it good.

Take care of yourself and write as often as you can. With love to all.

Your loving brother,

SGT. A. F. CAWEN,
35 Co. 20th Engineers.
