REASONS OF PRESIDENT ARE GIVEN FOR TRIP

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 .- President Wilson's annual address was devoted chiefly to discussion of the domestic problems of the nation. Of the more than 5000 words, only 750 were devoted to his Paris trip. His reason for going across was to interpret the ideals expressed by him which have been accepted as a basis; for peace. The president appealed to congress for united support and promised that he would keep it fully and complelely informed on all develop-

President Wilson told congress that it was international justice that we seek, not domestic safety merely. He C said that the principles enunciated by I him as a basis of peace having been accepted by the nations he owes it to H them to see that no false or mistaken interpretation is placed on them. He called on congress for the added strength of their united support and promised to be at all times in complete Care of Poor counsel with the leaders by cable and Jail Juvenile Court wireless Scalp Bounty

His next most important declaration Tax Rebate was on the subject of railroads. He Printing & Advertising... declared that it would be "a disservice State & County Fairs... alike to the railroad owners and the Sealer of Weights public to return the roads with old Rent of Armory conditions unmodified." He asked con- Forest fires gress to make a complete and impartial study of the problem, meanwhile D allowing government ownership to continue. He said he had no confident judgment of the subject himself.
